Vice Moderator .....Mr. Arnie Harrell
Treasurer .....Mr. Max Miller
Clerk .....Mrs. Kim Pittman
Director of Missions .....Rev. Keith Hamilton

Constitution and Bylaws

of the

ATLANTIC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

Associations being a proven way of helping churches carry out the Great Commission, we the missionary Baptist churches of Beaufort, Carteret, Craven, Jones, and Pamlico counties voluntarily agree to cooperate according to the objectives, doctrines, and structures set forth in this constitution. No compromise of local church autonomy is implied or follows from membership in this Association or from relationships the Association maintains with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Southern Baptist Convention, or any other person or group determined by the Association - meeting in Executive Committee or Annual Session - to advance the cause of Christ.

ARTICLE I - NAME

Our name shall be the "Atlantic Baptist Association of North Carolina, Incorporated."

ARTICLE II - MISSION

Under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, the mission of this Association and its officers shall be to train, counsel, encourage, and otherwise assist member churches in fulfilling their scriptural mandate to worship God, love their neighbor, evangelize the lost, and disciple believers in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (cf., Mark 12:29-31; Matthew 28:19-20).

Inasmuch as cooperation among churches is usually more productive than acting alone, the mission of this Association shall also include initiating such mission advance or outreach activities as shall be judged appropriate by the Association.

ARTICLE III - STATEMENT OF FAITH

Christ and Scripture - the living and written Word of God respectively - shall be the source of our beliefs and basis of our fellowship. The Baptist Faith and Message adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963 expresses the doctrinal positions of the Association.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

Under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, Baptist churches are completely free and sovereign to conduct their business as they see fit. The same goes for Baptist Associations. Membership in this Association, therefore, does not confer to the Association any authority over member churches, nor may churches exercise authority over the Association.

Affiliation between churches and the Association, being free and voluntary, is predicated only on acceptance of the mission and doctrinal positions set forth in this constitution and on active, cooperative participation.

SECTION 1. GRANTING MEMBERSHIP

A. Churches desiring membership in this Association shall - upon official church action - apply directly to the Association meeting in annual or executive session. Such applications shall be presented in writing.

The Association shall, in turn, receive as information and forward such applications to the Membership Committee for study and recommendation.

B. Upon receiving referrals of membership applications from the Association, the Membership Committee shall - over a one year period - take appropriate steps to determine whether applicants evidence suitable compatibility with the Association in spirit and doctrine.

C. Following this one year review, the Membership Committee shall report a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant watchcare status.

D. The Association shall then decide whether to grant watchcare status - a status that carries with it the same rights and privileges as full members with the exception of voting and holding office.

A two-thirds vote of ballots cast shall be required to grant watchcare status.

E. After observing churches received under watchcare for one year, the Membership Committee shall bring a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant full membership.

A vote to grant full membership shall also require a two-thirds favorable vote of ballots cast.

SECTION 2. WITHDRAWING MEMBERSHIP

A. Membership may be withdrawn when churches no longer cooperate or participate in the life of the Association. Membership may also be withdrawn when churches deviate doctrinally from positions set forth in The Baptist Faith and Message.

B. The procedure whereby membership may be withdrawn is as follows:

1. Authorization to take steps toward withdrawing membership may be given only by the Association meeting in annual or executive session. The Membership Committee may, however, request such authorization.

2. Such authorization to review membership status is indicated when churches evidence noncooperation, nonparticipation, or doctrinal deviation.

3. Once authorized, the Membership Committee shall conduct a thorough examination before returning a recommendation to the Association.

During this period, the Membership Committee shall take appropriate steps to bring those congregations being examined back into fellowship.

4. Should these restorative efforts fail, the Membership Committee may recommend watchcare status (not withdrawal of membership) to the Association.

Watchcare status - with its attendant loss of all voting and office holding privileges - shall go into effect upon a two-thirds vote of ballots cast by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

5. Such watchcare status shall last one year, after which the Membership Committee shall recommend restoring full membership or withdrawing membership altogether.

As with the vote on watchcare status, a vote to restore or withdraw membership shall require a two-thirds vote of ballots cast by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

SECTION 3. TRANSFERRING MEMBERSHIP: Any church requesting transfer to another Association may be granted a letter of dismissal by presenting a written request to the Association.

SECTION 4. MESSENGERS TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND ANNUAL MEETINGS: All congregations holding full membership in the Association may send up to ten (10) messengers to Executive Committee and Annual meetings.

ARTICLE V - PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Robert's Rules of Order, in its latest edition, shall be the accepted authority in conducting the business of the Association.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to this constitution may be put to a vote at any Annual Meeting provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed amendments shall first be submitted in writing to the Association at the October meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. The Executive Committee shall, in turn and by majority vote, refer proposed amendments to the Constitution and By Laws Committee for study and recommendation.

C. Written copies of proposed changes coming out of committee shall be given to the Executive Committee at their January meeting.

D. Proposed amendments shall be presented at the first session of an Annual Meeting and voted on during a subsequent session. The session during which the vote is to be taken shall be stated at the time of initial presentation.

The same conditions apply to a completely revised or re-written constitution.

Any actions taken on constitutional matters shall require a two-thirds favorable vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

By Laws

In carrying out its mission, the Atlantic Baptist Association shall be organized into three councils - Missions Development, Church Development, and Administrative. These three councils report to the Association through Executive Committee and Annual meetings.

ARTICLE I - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee - composed of up to ten messengers from churches holding full membership in the Association - shall meet the last Mondays of July, October, and January to hear reports, transact business, and respond to issues affecting the life and mission of the Association. The Executive Committee shall be the final decision-making body of the Association between Annual Meetings.

ARTICLE II - MISSIONS DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

SECTION 1. Strategic planning and leadership in carrying out the Great Commission on the associational level is the dual charge of the Missions Development Council. In performing this assignment, this council shall perform the following tasks:

1) Discover mission needs to which the Association ought to respond;
2) Develop strategies for meeting these needs;
3) Challenge churches to be missionary in theology and practice;
4) Provide resources for use in advancing the cause of Christ;
5) Organize opportunities for doing missions together;
6) Train church and associational workers to perform missions; and
7) Establish and maintain appropriate lines of communication with the community and denomination.

The Missions Development Council shall be composed of the Missions Development Director, Survey Director, Promotional Director, WMU Director, Brotherhood Director, and chairmen of all component programs.

A. The Missions Development Director chairs and leads the council to discharge the tasks listed above.

B. The Survey Director discovers mission needs and opportunities, and makes the Association and churches of the Association aware of them.

C. The Promotional Director leads churches to do missions, and works with the Missions Development Director to provide appropriate training.

D. The Woman's Missionary Union Director promotes and leads WMU work in the Association.

E. The Brotherhood Director promotes and leads Brotherhood work in the Association.

F. Component programs in associational work shall be determined by the Missions Development Council.

SECTION 2. This council, which reports to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting, shall meet quarterly to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each component program shall train its own officers, who shall in turn - working cooperatively with their counterparts in the churches - guide their respective programs.

SECTION 4. With the single exception of the Woman's Missionary Union director, all directors sitting on the Missions Development Council shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Association at the Annual Meeting. Vacancies among these directors occurring during the year shall be filled as soon as possible by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

Directors desiring to assemble a committee to work with them, shall - after consulting the Director of Missions and chairman of the Nominating Committee for input - assemble their own committees, subject to subsequent approval by the Nominating Committee and Executive Committee.

ARTICLE III - CHURCH DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Church Development Council - which shall be chaired by the Sunday School Director - is a training and equipping ministry of the Association. Either the Church Development Council or Association may add component programs to the council membership.

Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Music, Youth, Church Media Library, Stewardship, Christian Life, Seminary Extension, Pastoral Ministries, Evangelism, Ordination, Senior Adult, Single Adult, Church Secretaries, and Ministers' Conference shall each be represented on the Church Development Council by their directors.

SECTION 2. This council, which reports to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting, shall meet quarterly to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each program shall train its own officers, who shall in turn offer assistance to their counterparts in the churches.

SECTION 4. Each program shall, in cooperation with the Nominating Committee, enlist and nominate its chief officers for approval by the Association at the Annual Meeting. Vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 5. SUNDAY SCHOOL

A. The Sunday School Director plans, conducts, and evaluates Sunday School work in the Association, and also chairs the Church Development Council.

B. The Vacation Bible School Director plans, conducts, and evaluates Vacation Bible School work in the Association. The VBS Director also trains and leads the associational VBS "assist team."

SECTION 6. DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING: The Discipleship Training Director, after appraising disciple-making needs within the Association, develops and conducts appropriate training events.

SECTION 7. MUSIC: The Music Director leads church to plan, conduct, enlarge, and improve their music programs. The Director also provides inspirational music at associational meetings as requested.

SECTION 8. YOUTH MINISTRY: The Youth Ministry Director develops and conducts ministries designed to meet the needs of youth and their parents.

SECTION 9. CHURCH MEDIA LIBRARY: The Church Media Library Director promotes, enlists, and develops media-library work in the Association.

SECTION 10. STEWARDSHIP: The Stewardship Director promotes the principles and practice of Christian stewardship within the Association.

SECTION 11. CHRISTIAN LIFE: The Christian Life Director educates Baptists concerning critical moral and ethical issues of the day, and leads the Association to respond in appropriate ways.

SECTION 12. SEMINARY EXTENSION: The Seminary Extension Director acquaints members of the Association with opportunities for study and skill development afforded by taking Seminary Extension classes.

SECTION 13. PASTORAL MINISTRIES: The Pastoral Ministries Director helps the Association and churches carry out pastoral ministries.

SECTION 14. EVANGELISM: The Evangelism Director, enlists, trains, and motivates churches to engage in evangelism.

SECTION 15. ORDINATION: As requested by member churches, the Ordination Director leads the Ordination Committee to examine - for recommendation - candidates professing a call to the gospel ministry.

SECTION 16. SENIOR ADULTS: The Senior Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop senior adult ministries.

SECTION 17. SINGLE ADULTS: The Single Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop single adult ministries.

SECTION 18. CHURCH SECRETARIES: The president of the church secretary's organization implements a program to inspire and train church secretaries.

SECTION 19. MINISTERS' CONFERENCE: The Ministers' Conference president leads the conference to achieve the goals it sets for itself.

ARTICLE IV - ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

SECTION 1. To facilitate and support the work of the Association, the Administrative Council oversees and maintains the associational infrastructure.

The membership of this council - which shall be chaired by the Moderator - shall be made up of the chairmen of the following committees: Nominating, Order of Business, Finance, Constitution, Membership, Personnel, Trustees/Directors, and Building and Grounds. Also sitting on the Administrative Council shall be the Moderator/President, Vice Moderator/Vice President, Clerk, Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Auditor, Historian, and Parliamentarian.

SECTION 2. This council meets quarterly and reports directly to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting.

SECTION 3. Each committee trains its own officers to know their duties and guide their respective committees and counterparts in the churches.

SECTION 4. COMMITTEES

A. NOMINATING COMMITTEE: Nine (9) members - who serve three year terms on a rotating basis - compose the Nominating Committee. The task of this committee is to nominate persons to serve in the offices and on the committees of the Association. These nominees shall be presented at the Annual Meeting in April. Committee recommendations do not preclude nominations being made from the floor. Subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee, the responsibility to fill vacancies occurring between annual sessions also falls to this committee.

B. ORDER OF BUSINESS COMMITTEE: The Moderator/President, Clerk, and Music Director compose the Order of Business Committee. The assignment of this committee - working with the Director of Missions - is

(a) to prepare a printed program for annual sessions, and

(b) to make place and program decisions.

Printed programs shall be sent out at least thirty (30) days before the Annual Meeting. This order of business is presented for adoption at the opening session, and serves throughout the meeting unless changes become necessary and are approved.

C. FINANCE COMMITTEE: Six (6) members - who serve three year rotating terms - compose the Finance Committee. The task of this committee is to:

(a) study the financial needs of the Association;

(b) solicit budgetary input from all associational programs, committees, and ministries; and

(c) in January present a proposed budget for the following year to the Association. Final adoption of the budget occurs at the Annual Meeting held in April. This committee is also responsible for securing the cooperation of the churches in meeting the budget.

D. CONSTITUTION AND BY LAWS COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, form the membership of this committee. The purpose of this committee is to study for recommendation to the Association any proposed changes to the Constitution, By Laws, or Policy Manual.

E. MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, make up the membership of this committee. The function of this committee is to evaluate for recommendation to the Association any requests received from local Baptist churches seeking membership in the Association. The Membership Committee shall also receive or initiate any move to separate a church from membership in the Association. The committee shall prayerfully and diligently study such requests, and make recommendations according to Article IV of the Constitution.

F. PERSONNEL COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, compose the membership of this committee. The role of this committee is to make recommendations to the Association concerning staff employment, job descriptions, terms of employment, and related considerations.

G. The BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE: Periodically inspects all associational property, and makes recommendations concerning maintenance, modifications, policies, furnishings, insurance, and grounds care as needed.

H. The TRUSTEES/DIRECTORS handle all legal matters of the Association as directed by the Association. Three (3) members (one preferably an attorney) - each serving three year rotating terms - compose this board. After serving one full term, a year must elapse before trustees/directors may succeed themselves.

SECTION 5. OFFICERS

A. The MODERATOR/PRESIDENT - who may serve no more than two one year terms in succession - shall preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings of the Association. The Moderator also chairs the Administrative Council. In addition, the Moderator/President shall be an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association except the Nominating Committee, and shall appoint a registration committee to serve at Annual and other meetings as needed. Further contact between the Moderator/President and member churches is encouraged.

B. The VICE MODERATOR/VICE PRESIDENT, in the absence of or as called upon by the Moderator/President, presides at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings.

C. The CLERK annually sends the Annual Church Profile to member churches at least two months before the stated due date; keep accurate minutes of Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings; supervises the printing and distribution of the annual book of reports; and keeps on file the important documents and records of the Association. The clerk also, upon the direction of the Executive Committee or Association, signs documents such as cooperative agreements.

D. The SECRETARY-TREASURER receives and handles all funds over which the Association has stewardship. In discharging this responsibility, the Secretary-Treasurer deposits and disperses funds as directed by the Association; provides a financial report to the Association at Annual and Executive Committee meetings; and sets up and maintains a bookkeeping system open to audit by any responsible person.

E. The ASSISTANT SECRETARY-TREASURER takes over the duties listed above in Section 5D in the event the Secretary-Treasurer is unable to perform them.

F. The AUDITOR annually audits the books of the Association and reports the results of this audit to the Executive Committee.

G. The HISTORIAN records significant aspects of the history of the Association and its member churches, and submits a written report relating such information to the Association at the Annual Meeting.

H. The PARLIAMENTARIAN advises presiding officers of the association in matters related to following proper parliamentary procedure. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the basis of such advice.

I. The DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS is the chief executive officer of the Association. Accountable to the Association through the Personnel Committee, the Director of Missions shall perform the duties set forth in the Policy Manual.

SECTION 6. The Administrative Council shall also review and act on any recommendation to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff received from the Personnel Committee.

A. Such proceedings shall be bathed in prayer.

B. A concern to be loving, fair, and true to our faith and witness shall pervade this process.

C. The advisability of bringing in an outside mediator may be considered.

D. Decisions to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff shall be made by two-thirds vote of members present and voting in a special meeting of the Council.

E. When a decision to dismiss is made, thirty days notice or thirty days salary and benefits (if applicable) shall be given to departing staff.

ARTICLE V - GENERAL

SECTION 1. DEFINITION OF "ASSOCIATION:" When the term "Association" is used in these By Laws and the preceding Constitution, all entities set forth in these documents are included. The final decision-making authority of the Association, however, rests with duly elected messengers - sent from churches holding full membership - meeting in annual or executive session. "Executive session" includes appropriately called special as well as regular Executive Committee meetings.

SECTION 2. COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP: Any officer or committee member serving more than half a term, is considered - for tenure purposes - to have served a full term. The expiration dates of committee members' terms shall appear beside their names in the Nominating Committee report.

SECTION 3. EX OFFICIO MEMBERS: The moderator shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees except the Nominating Committee. The Director of Missions shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member of all organizations and committees.

SECTION 4. REPORTS: Written reports appearing in the annual minutes shall be limited to 300 words, except in cases involving statistical or historical data.

SECTION 5. MEETINGS

A. REGULARLY SCHEDULED: The Executive Committee shall regularly meet on the last Mondays of July, October, and January. The Annual Meeting shall regularly meet the last full week of April.

B. SPECIAL: Special meetings of the Association may be called only by the Administrative Council. The subject matter of special meetings shall be limited to the purpose stated in the call, which shall be communicated in writing to member churches at least two weeks prior to the date of the called meeting.

SECTION 6. RESOLUTIONS: Resolutions, having little power to accomplish good and considerable power to cause mischief, shall have no place in the proceedings of this Association. Expressions of gratitude, appreciation, or remembrance shall be handled as appropriate, but do not require resolutions.

SECTION 7. TENURE AND ELECTIONS: With the exception of staff and unless otherwise stated in these By Laws, all officers of the Association shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Association annually.

In performing its task, the Nominating Committee shall seek balance between ministers and laity. Balance between ministers and laity serving as Moderator and Vice Moderator is especially recommended.

SECTION 8. CALL AND HIRING OF THE DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS: When the need to find a new Director of Missions arises, the chairmen of the following committees shall serve as the search committee: Nominating, Finance, Constitution and By Laws, Membership, Personnel, Missions Development, Church Development, and Administrative Councils. The Secretary-Treasurer shall also serve on the search committee.

SECTION 9. CALL AND HIRING OF OTHER PAID STAFF: When the need to hire other paid staff arises, the Personnel Committee - following procedures set forth in the Policy Manual - shall take appropriate steps.

SECTION 10. VOLUNTARY SEPARATIONS OF ALL STAFF: All staff members who voluntarily resign their positions, shall give two weeks notice.

SECTION 11. ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR: The associational year shall begin May 1 and end April 30.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to the By Laws may be put to a vote at any Annual Meeting provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed amendments shall first be submitted in writing to the Association at the October meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. The Executive Committee shall, in turn and by majority vote, refer proposed amendments to the Constitution and By Laws Committee for study and recommendation.

C. Written copies of proposed changes coming out of committee shall be given to the Executive Committee at their January meeting.

D. Proposed amendments shall be presented at the first session of an Annual Meeting and voted on during a subsequent session. The session during which the vote is to be taken shall be stated at the time of initial presentation.

The same conditions apply to completely revised or re-written By Laws.

Any action taken on these By Laws shall require a majority vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

Policy Manual

ARTICLE I - ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTION

SECTION 1. The administrative officers of the Association are as follows: Moderator/President, Vice Moderator/Vice President, Clerk, Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Auditor, Historian, Parliamentarian, and Director of Missions.

SECTION 2. The MODERATOR/PRESIDENT - who may serve no more than two one year terms in succession - shall preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings of the Association. The Moderator/President also chairs the Administrative Council, and serves as an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association except the Nominating Committee. The Moderator/President shall, moreover, appoint a registration committee to serve at Annual and other meetings as needed. Further contact between the Moderator/President and member churches is encouraged.

SECTION 3. The VICE MODERATOR/VICE PRESIDENT shall, in the absence of or as called upon by the Moderator/President, preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings. The Vice Moderator/Vice President, moreover, serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 4. The CLERK shall annually send the Annual Church Profile to member churches at least two months before a specified due date; keep accurate minutes of Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings; supervise the printing and distribution of the annual book of reports; and keep on file the important documents and records of the Association. The Clerk shall also - upon the direction of the Executive Committee or Association meeting in annual session - sign documents, such as cooperative agreements. Finally, the Clerk serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 5. The SECRETARY-TREASURER shall receive and handle all funds over which the Association has stewardship. In discharging this responsibility, the Secretary-Treasurer shall deposit and disperse funds as directed by the Association; provide a financial report to the Association at Annual and Executive Committee meetings; and set up and maintain a bookkeeping system open to audit by any responsible person. The Secretary-Treasurer also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 6. The ASSISTANT SECRETARY-TREASURER shall take over the duties listed in Section 5 above in the event the Secretary-Treasurer is unable to perform them. The Assistant Secretary-Treasurer also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 7. The AUDITOR shall - as soon after April 30 as possible - audit the books of the Association. A report of this audit shall be provided to the Executive Committee meeting in July. The Auditor also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 8. The HISTORIAN shall collect and preserve data, documents, and artifacts of historical significance to the Association or its member churches. Data - drawn largely from the Annual Church Profile - shall be compiled in a written report to be presented annually to the Association. The Historian shall, moreover, serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 9. The PARLIAMENTARIAN shall counsel presiding officers of the Association in all matters related to following proper parliamentary procedure. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the basis of such counsel. The Parliamentarian also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 10. The DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS is the chief executive officer of the Association. Accountable to the Association through the Personnel Committee, the Director of Missions shall perform the following duties:

A. Oversee, evaluate, and endeavor to improve all ministries sponsored by the Association.

B. In close consultation with the Missions Development Council, discover mission needs, devise ministries targeting those needs, and enlist the personnel and resources required to carry out Christ-honoring ministry.

C. Assist the Church Development Council in planing training and ministry events de-signed to increase the effectiveness of association and local church ministries.

D. Cooperative with the Administrative Council of the Association to help member officers fulfill their duties in support of the mission of the Association.

E. Interpret and adapt the priorities, emphases, and work of the denomination to the Association and member churches; also, encourage cooperation with the denomination by member churches to the extent possible, consistent with principles of local church and associational autonomy under Christ.

F. Promote the work and witness of the Association both within the Association and in the larger community in which we live and serve.

G. Train ministerial staff search committees as requested.

H. Counsel church leaders as needed and to the extent possible, and mediate local church disputes as called upon.

I. Serve as an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association.

J. Supervise all paid staff and volunteers.

K. Carry out other duties as directed by the Association.

ARTICLE II - PROGRAMS

SECTION 1. The Association shall carry out its work through the following ongoing programs: Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Woman's Missionary Union, Brotherhood, Music, Youth, Church Media, Stewardship, Christian Life, Seminary Extension, Pastoral Ministries, and any other programs or ministries authorized by the Association through the Executive Committee or by messengers attending the Annual Meeting.

SECTION 2. Each program shall schedule and conduct quarterly meetings in order to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each program shall see to the training of its officers so these officers can assist in meeting the training needs of member churches.

SECTION 4. Each program - by attending to its area of concentration and specialization - shall endeavor to lead the Association to carry out its mission at the highest levels of performance to the glory of God.

SECTION 5. Working in cooperation with the Nominating Committee, each program - with the exception of Woman's Missionary Union - shall enlist and nominate its chief officers for presentation and election at the Annual Meeting. Any vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 6. The Woman's Missionary Union shall annually appoint a nominating committee from within its ranks. This committee shall develop its own report, which shall be presented to the associational nominating committee in time for review and referral to the Annual Meeting in April. Upon election by the Association, these officers shall serve terms of office corresponding to those of other program officers.

ARTICLE III - PROGRAM LEADERS AND THEIR DUTIES

SECTION 1. Believing the Bible to be the revealed truth of God and as such the basis for correct thinking and fruitful living, the SUNDAY SCHOOL DIRECTOR shall lead and encourage the churches of the Association to develop a strong Bible teaching ministry through the Sunday School. Specific duties of the Sunday School Director are as follows:

A. Assemble and equip an "assist team" that will offer age-graded training to the Sunday School teachers, workers, and officers of local churches.

B. Study to become expert in Sunday School work.

C. Promote Sunday School work throughout the Association.

D. Upon invitation, provide personal assistance to local churches desiring to develop or upgrade their Sunday School.

E. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

F. Prepare and present a report on Sunday School work to the Annual Meeting of the Association.

G. Serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 2. The VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL DIRECTOR shall lead member churches to schedule and conduct quality Vacation Bible Schools as an effective way of reaching and influencing people of all ages through the Word of God. Specific responsibilities of the Vacation Bible School director shall be as follows:

A. Assemble and equip an "assist team" that will offer age-graded training to Vacation Bible School teachers, workers, and officers.

B. In order to introduce new materials and motivate early preparation, plan and conduct an "early planning conference" for ministers and Vacation Bible School directors.

C. Plan and conduct one or more Vacation Bible School teacher-worker training clinics.

D. Promote Vacation Bible School - including mission and backyard Bible clubs - throughout the Association.

E. Tally attendance and other figures collected from Vacation Bible Schools held throughout the Association.

F. After Vacation Bible Schools are held, encourage local churches to carry out thorough outreach and evangelistic follow up.

G. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 3. The DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING DIRECTOR shall support the mission of the Association by promoting believer training and skill development in living the Christian life. Specific duties of the Discipleship Training director shall be as follows:

A. Promote the Great Commission emphasis of our Lord to "make disciples."

B. Be knowledgeable concerning the latest disciple training materials offered by the denomination, and acquaint member churches with these and other appropriate resources.

C. Offer training clinics to ministers and members of the laity.

D. Discover what disciple training approaches and models are working within the Association, and endeavor to replicate these approaches in other churches.

E. Serve as chairman of the Discipleship Training Council, and lead this council to develop a strategy for advancing believer development in our churches.

F. Serve on the Church Development Council.

G. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 4. In support of missions, the WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION DIRECTOR is responsible for promoting and leading WMU work in the Association. Specifically, the Woman's Missionary Union Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Having studied to understand WMU work herself, the Woman's Missionary Union Director communicates her knowledge to other WMU workers and churches personally and by scheduling appropriate training events.

B. Beyond overseeing age-graded WMU programming, the Woman's Missionary Union Director discovers real mission needs and challenges members to act to meet these needs.

C. In support of mission education and action, the Woman's Missionary Union Director stands ready to provide or recommend appropriate literature and other resources.

D. Serving as the chief executive officer of the associational WMU, the Woman's Missionary Union Director chairs the WMU Council and represents the WMU on the Missions Development Council.

E. The Woman's Missionary Union Director endeavors to start WMU work in any member church were such work is not already organized.

F. Being accountable to the Association, the Woman's Missionary Union Director brings a report to each Executive Committee meeting and to the Annual Meeting.

G. Annually this director submits an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

H. Finally, the Woman's Missionary Union Director seeks to maintain close ties with the state WMU director as a means of cooperation and coordination.

SECTION 5. In support of missions, the BROTHERHOOD DIRECTOR promotes and leads Brotherhood work in the Association. Specific responsibilities of the Brotherhood Director are as follows:

A. Interpret brotherhood work to the churches and associational leaders - giving emphasis to missions over organization.

B. Recruit men and boys to volunteer for mission trips and carry out mission projects.

C. Provide appropriate leadership training opportunities.

D. Endeavor to organize a Brotherhood in those churches that have none and strengthen Brotherhoods where they already exist.

E. Schedule fellowship or rallies for mission-minded men of the Association.

F. In the absence of an associational Royal Ambassador or Baptist Men's director, carry out the duties of these offices as well.

G. Serve as the chief executive officer of all Association Brotherhood work, and represent the Brotherhood on the Missions Development Council.

H. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 6. Working with the Brotherhood director, the ROYAL AMBASSADOR DIRECTOR shall oversee and lead the RA program of the Association. Specifically, the Royal Ambassador Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Lead in planning and conducting such activities as camping, camp crafts, conclaves, pine car derbys, and mission action projects.

B. Endeavor to establish Royal Ambassador chapters in every member church; also, to improve chapters already organized.

C. Plan and provide such training events as may be needed to equip Royal Ambassador leaders with the knowledge and skill required to do their job.

D. Organize, enlist members for, and chair a Royal Ambassador committee to assist in planning and implementing RA work in the Association.

E. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 7. Working with the Brotherhood director, the BAPTIST MEN'S DIRECTOR shall oversee and lead Baptist Men's work for the Association. Specific duties of the Baptist Men's director are as follows:

A. Plan and conduct mission action projects, men's rallies, fellowships, and training events as needed to carry forward an active Baptist Men's work in the Association.

B. Endeavor to establish a Baptist Men's work in every member church; also, to improve units already organized.

SECTION 8. The MUSIC DIRECTOR shall lead the music ministries of the Association. In carrying out this assignment, the Associational Music Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Provide inspirational music as called upon for all associational meetings.

B. Offer training to those involved in music ministries in member churches.

C. Be available to answer questions and provide information related to music ministries.

D. Appraise the budgetary needs of carrying out this assignment and request appropriate funding of the Finance Committee annually.

E. Set up any organization deemed useful in fulfilling these duties.

F. Serve on the Church Development Council.

G. Report to the Association.

SECTION 9. The YOUTH DIRECTOR shall develop, implement, and oversee an effective ministry to the youth residing within the Association. Specific duties of the Youth Director are as follows:

A. Support youth ministries already included in age-graded programs supported by the Association.

B. Chair a Youth Steering Committee, the function of which shall be to appraise the needs of our young people and develop ministries designed to meet those needs.

C. Serve on the Church Development Council and insure that youth ministries of suitable quantity and quality are scheduled.

D. Serve as a resource person in youth ministry to youth leaders on the local church level.

E. Request of the Finance Committee, annually, funding sufficient to carry out an effective youth ministry under the sponsorship of the Association.

F. Report to the Association.

SECTION 10. In developing a more literate and knowledgeable community of believers in the Association, the CHURCH MEDIA/LIBRARY DIRECTOR shall perform the following duties:

A. Oversee, administer, and develop the library housed in the associational center.

B. Cultivate contacts and relationships with media/library directors in member churches throughout the Association.

C. Offer assistance in starting media centers/libraries in member churches that have none.

D. Plan training events for librarians throughout the Association.

E. Serve on the Church Development Council.

F. Submit reports to the associational office and Church Media/Library Department of the state convention as requested.

G. In carrying out this assignment, seek funding from the Finance Committee annually.

H. Develop and lead any organization that may be judged helpful in discharging these duties.

I. Report to the Association.

SECTION 11. The STEWARDSHIP DIRECTOR shall endeavor to educate our people as to the needs of the world and biblical standards and teachings that guide us in responding appropriately to those needs. The person filling this position shall also seek to educate our people as to the special advantages involved in supporting missions cooperatively. Specific duties of this officer are as follows:

A. Keep the needs and resources required to carry out our mission commitments before the people.

B. Set specific, measurable, and attainable goals for supporting missions on the associational level and beyond.

C. In support of missions, promote faithful giving on the part of member churches.

D. Schedule such meetings, workshops, and conferences as may be judged helpful in following through with this commission.

E. Serve on the Church Development Council.

F. Request funding as needed, and report annually to the Association.

SECTION 12. The CHRISTIAN LIFE DIRECTOR shall endeavor to inform and educate us concerning the critical moral and ethical issues of our day; also, lead us to respond appropriately to these issues in at least the following ways:

A. Call attention to such issues as appropriate at regularly scheduled meetings of the Association.

B. Offer issues-oriented programs, workshops, and conferences to the churches.

C. Develop and maintain an inventory of applicable library/media resources for distribution and circulation.

D. Promote attendance at Christian life programming within the Association and beyond.

E. Request sufficient funding with which to carry out this mandate.

F. Report annually to the Association.

G. Serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 13. The SEMINARY EXTENSION DIRECTOR shall work to increase the level of theological education in our churches and to sharpen the skills of ministers and laity through use of resources provided by the Seminary Extension Division of the Southern Baptist Convention. In carrying out this assignment, this officer shall perform the following duties:

A. Order and make available, annually, booklets listing courses that may be taken through Seminary Extension.

B. Promote interest in taking Seminary Extension courses within the Association.

C. Poll member ministers to learn which subjects hold highest interest, and offer courses when justified by interest and willingness to commit to study.

D. Encourage churches to offer Seminary Extension classes within their membership.

E. Serve on the Church Development Council.

F. Request appropriate funding annually, and report to the Association.

SECTION 14. The PASTORAL MINISTRIES DIRECTOR shall become knowledgeable concerning pastoral care resources, and pass along this information to those who can use it in the Association. This officer shall also set up training events. In carrying out this assignment, the Pastoral Ministries Director shall give particular attention to the following aspects of this position:

A. Offer training to deacons.

B. Offer training to ministers.

C. Offer as much help as possible to members of the Association who may be suffering the ill effects of personal stress or crisis.

D. Request funding as appropriate, serve on the Church Development Council, and report to the Association.

SECTION 15. SENIOR ADULTS: The Senior Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop senior adult ministries. This chairman also serves on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 16. SINGLE ADULTS: The Single Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop single adult ministries. This chairman also serves on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 17. CHURCH SECRETARIES: The president of the church secretary's organization implements a program to inspire and train church secretaries. This president also serves on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 18. MINISTERS' CONFERENCE: The Ministers' Conference president leads the conference to achieve the goals it sets for itself. This president also serves on the Church Development Council.

ARTICLE IV - COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE - composed of up to ten messengers from churches holding full membership in the Association - shall meet the last Mondays of July, October, and January to hear reports, transact business, and respond to issues affecting the life and mission of the Association. The Executive Committee shall be the final decision-making body of the Association between Annual Meetings.

SECTION 2. The NOMINATING COMMITTEE - composed of nine members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall enlist the most qualified persons available to fill the various positions of service set forth in the By Laws. At the Annual Meeting in April the Nominating Committee shall present its main report. This report, if possible, shall include nominations for all positions of service named in the By Laws; also, nominations of persons enlisted to work on short term mission projects or to serve on program committees. In addition to presenting its main report at the Annual Meeting, the Nominating Committee shall fill vacancies that occur during the course of the associational year, subject to later approval by the Executive Committee. In performing this task, the Nominating Committee shall take care to protect the following rights of nominees and the Association:

A. All nominees shall be contacted and give consent before their names may be placed in nomination.

B. Messengers attending Executive Committee and Annual meetings retain the right to make nominations from the floor.

The chairman of the Nominating Committee shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 3. The ORDER OF BUSINESS AND PROGRAM PERSONNEL COMMITTEE - composed of the moderator, clerk, and music director - shall make arrangements as to where the Annual Meeting is to be held, who will take part on the program, and in what order the service will progress. In performing this assignment, the right of the Association to retain final authority over the program shall be protected in the following ways:

A. The proposed program shall be mailed to all pastors/churches and program personalities at least 30 days before the meeting.

B. The proposed program shall be presented for adoption early in the opening session, and may be modified by messengers as needed at any time.

SECTION 4. The EVANGELISM COMMITTEE - composed of three members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall develop and implement plans for reaching more people with the saving gospel of Jesus Christ through the ministries of the Association. All such plans shall be presented to the Executive Committee for final approval. The chairman shall serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 5. The FINANCE COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall annually review requests for funds presented by the various officers and committees of the Association. These requests shall be evaluated in light of available resources and strategic priorities, after which a proposed budget shall be developed. Once developed, proposed budgets shall be presented to the Association for approval in the following manner:

A. By January 1 the proposed budget shall be mailed to all member churches for distribution to their messengers.

B. The proposed budget shall be presented for questions and discussion at the January meeting of the Executive Committee.

C. Final adoption of the proposed budget shall occur at the Annual Meeting held in April.

In addition to developing a proposed budget, the Finance Committee shall promote support for the budget once adopted. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 6. The ORDINATIONS COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall, as requested by member churches, interview candidates in order to determine their suitability for ordination to the gospel ministry. Subjects such as candidates' conversion, call to the ministry, doctrinal convictions, giftedness for service, and attitude toward cooperative missions shall receive the attention of the committee during interviews. Following interviews, the committee shall recommend or decline to recommend ordination to the referring congregation. Out of respect for the autonomy of local churches, recommendations coming from the committee shall be advisory in nature and are not meant to replace, supersede, or interfere with the wishes of referring churches. The chairman shall serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 7. The CONSTITUTION AND BY LAWS COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term, shall receive or initiate for study and recommendation to the Association all proposed changes to the Constitution, By Laws, or Policy Manual. Proposed changes to the Constitution and By Laws shall be presented to the Association according to procedures set forth in the "amendments" articles of those documents. Changes to the Policy Manual will be effected by simple majority vote of the Association meeting in annual or executive session. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 8. The MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall receive and process applications for membership in the Association according to the procedure set forth in the Constitution, Article IV, Section 1. In taking steps to withdraw membership, the committee shall follow the procedure outlined in the Constitution, Article IV, Section 2. This committee, it should be noted, has the power to forward a positive or negative recommendation to the Association, but may not prevent the Association from acting as it chooses. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 9. The BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE - composed of three members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall oversee the upkeep, development, and use of our building and grounds. The responsibilities of this committee shall include exercising concern for the appearance, safety, and furnishings of associational property. The committee shall also be responsible for securing insurance and developing policies involved in the use of this property.

Proposals to upgrade or alter associational holdings shall likewise pass through this committee for evaluation and recommendations to the Executive Committee. In carrying out this assignment, the committee shall meet whenever the chairman or Director of Missions deems necessary, and is authorized to spend line item funds - assuming such funds are available - as required for any use already approved by the Association. Anticipating funding needs with which to maintain and develop the associational center and its grounds, the committee shall annually submit a request for such funds to the Finance Committee. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 10. The PERSONNEL COMMITTEE - composed of six (6) members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - acts as liason between ministerial staff, support staff, associational officers, and the Association. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

The Personnel Committee, acting in this fashion, shall carry out the following duties:

A. Working in cooperation with the Director of Missions, make recommendations to the Association concerning the hiring of all ministerial staff except the Director of Missions.

B. Hire support staff, either on the basis of direct interviews or upon recommendations received from appropriate officers or committees of the Association.

C. For all staff, develop and maintain up-to-date descriptions and corresponding terms of employment for inclusion in the Policy Manual subject to review by the Constitution and By Laws Committee and approval by the Association.

D. Monitor the compensation and benefit packages of all paid staff, giving special attention to such items as salary, insurance, retirement, vacations, holidays, sick leave, and working conditions.

E. Based on such considerations as job performance, salary/benefit packages offered by other associations, and the resources of this Association, make staff compensation recommendations to the Finance Committee at least annually.

F. Protect and enhance relationships of mutual respect, trust, and understanding between all staff and the Association.

G. Mediate disputes and communicate concerns about job performance as they arise involving any staff member or officer.

H. Discipline or dismiss support staff if warranted.

I. Refer to the Administrative Council any recommendation to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff, including the Director of Missions.

J. Remember, as appropriate, special days in the life of staff members and officers of the Association with tokens of affection and appreciation.

SECTION 11. The TRUSTEES/DIRECTORS shall handle all legal matters of the Association as directed by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

A. This board shall consist of three members, one of whom shall preferably be an attorney.

B. Board members shall serve three year rotating terms.

C. Having served three year terms, Trustees/Directors may succeed themselves only after a lapse of one year.

D. The chairman of this board shall serve on the Administrative Council.

Atlantic Baptist Association

One Hundred Thirteenth Annual Session

April 25, 1996

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, BEAUFORT

1. Rev. John Thompson led the congregation in singing.
2. Mrs. Lurley Hines of Pollocksville Baptist Church shared her testimony.
3. Rev. Buford Lewis sang "Jesus Is All the World to Me."
4. The handbell choir from Tabernacle Baptist Church brought special music.

5. Rev. Tommy Willcockson, pastor of Smyrna Missionary Baptist Church, led in prayer.

6. Rev. Fred Simpson, pastor of First Baptist Church of Beaufort, welcomed the Association.

7. Miss Brandy Fintchre of Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church gave her testimony of "What Jesus Means to Me."

8. The congregation sang "I Love to Tell the Story."

9. Rev. Keith Hamilton introduced Mr. James Godley. James shared his testimony on video about being on God's team in the Ukraine this past summer and his recent experience with leukemia.

10. The Cape Carteret Baptist Church choir led by Mrs. Patty Loftin brought special music.

11. Rev. Mike Huffman, pastor of First Baptist Church, Aurora, brought the message from Luke on "What Jesus Means to Me." He challenged the body to allow Jesus to be everything to us.

12. Rev. John Thompson led the congregation in singing "I Must Tell Jesus."

13. The business session was called to order and led in prayer by Moderator, Dr. Gary McCollough.

14. The minutes were approved as presented.

15. Mr. Max Miller brought the Treasurer's Report. He commended the churches for their continued support of Atlantic Baptist Association. The motion to adopt the Treasurer's report carried.

16. Rev. Terry McInnis, chairman of the Finance Committee, made a motion to adjust budget line items B2 - Printing, B3 - Office Supplies, F13 - WMU, F14 - Brotherhood, and F17 - Evangelism Promotion to reflect the spending increases. The motion was approved. An amendment to the proposed 1996-1997 budget was made that B8 - Building Insurance - be increased from $1,500 to $2,600 based on an estimate received. The amendment and the proposed budget unanimously carried.

17. Rev. Lee Ray Greene, Chairman of the Personnel Committee, brought a motion that the policy and procedure manual of Atlantic Baptist Association be accepted as presented. The manual was first presented at the Executive Committee Meeting on January of 1996. The motion was adopted.

18. Rev. Vern Gilmer, Chairman of the Mission Development Council, made the recommendation that a trust fund be established at the NC Baptist Foundation to give money for Bibles for the ministry at the Seamen's Center. Approximately $20,000 will be needed for a yearly income of $1,000. This trust fund will be named in honor of Bill and Dorothy Loftin of First Baptist Church, Beaufort. It shall be called the Bill and Dorothy Loftin Bible Fund. The motion carried. Rev. Gilmer informed the body that McCotter Boulevard Baptist Church has created a new position called Director of Military Ministries. The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina is providing half the funding for this new ministry position for the 1996 church year. Rev. Larry Wright is serving in this position. The first Elijah's Friends requests are for a roof for a Baptist church being built in the Ukraine, construction of a new building for Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church, and funds to establish the Loftin Bible Fund. Rev. Gilmer led a commissioning prayer for the Swaziland mission team leaving May 21- June 4. These members include Dr. Jack Hinton, Tabernacle Baptist Church; Rev. John Thompson, Tabernacle Baptist Church; Rev. Mark Minervino, Cove City Missionary Baptist Church; Rev. Buford Lewis, Pollocksville Baptist Church; Rev. Mike Huffman, First Baptist Church, Aurora; and Mr. Jack Bowen of Newport Baptist Church. Rev. Keith Hamilton brought the commissioning prayer for the Ukraine team leaving June 1-16. These members include Raymond and Anita Earp of Calvary Baptist Church, Beaufort, Mrs. Mary Lou Harrell and Mrs. Julia Hudson of First Baptist Church, New Bern.

19. Mrs. Mary Stallings, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the report on pages 11-15 in the Book of Reports. She noted that all of the positions were filled with the exception of auditor. The motion to receive the report carried.

20. Dr. Curt Finch, Mission Teams Coordinator, reported two hundred fifty people were coming to the Association this summer to conduct ministry to over one million people. He requested prayer for these mission teams as well as prayer for the people they minister to. He also requested volunteers from local churches to conduct Backyard Bible Clubs.

21. Dr. Myrle Swicegood, Family Life Ministries Coordinator, thanked the Association for their support.

22. Rev. Keith Hamilton, Director of Missions, expressed his appreciation to be a part of an association that did not just talk about missions, but did missions. There are many positive things in the Atlantic Baptist Association. Rev. Hamilton also spoke about his concern about the Sunday School program. Two training conferences were held this year with fifteen people attending. He reminded the body "as goes the Sunday School, so goes the church."

23. Under miscellaneous business, Dr. Gary McCollough made a motion that the Book of Reports be accepted as presented. The motion carried. Dr. McCollough thanked the Association for the privilege of serving as Moderator. Dr. Jack Hinton recognized Rev. Kevin Davis, Minister of Youth at Tabernacle Baptist Church, as a new minister in the Association. Rev. Tommy Willcockson, Pastor of Smyrna Missionary Baptist Church, was also recognized. Rev. Fred Simpson informed the body about the waterfront ministry and how North Carolina Baptists are touching the world. Rev. John Thompson spoke of the Vacation Bible School clinic being held at Neuse River Baptist Church on April 27.

24. Rev. Larry Wright gave the Benediction.

BROTHERHOOD

Report to the Association
1996

Helping people in need seems to be a big concern among our men throughout the Association. We are seeing men everywhere involved in missions to help others. The Handyman Ministry has been active all year. In recent days, two ramps have been built for the handicapped. This ministry has other projects planned. They still need supplies for the trailer and more men to volunteer. Thanks to those men and churches who have helped. The men are still involved in disaster relief and a group went to Georgia to help after the storm last fall. Teaming up with other groups, they spent three days clearing roads and yards of trees. The Baptist Men sponsored water purification training to have men and women ready in case of disaster. The men were active in the benefit for James Godley raising over $17,000. James participated in the partnership mission trip to Ukraine in 1995 along with Raymond Earp, Buddy Ashworth, Mike Huffman, and Tom Lamkin from this Association. The Association is planning to be involved in a partnership with Swaziland in South Africa this year. Also three teams are needed to go back to Ukraine, especially men. If you can nail a nail, use a wheel barrow, dig a hole — or any type of construction work, we need you. Yes, it's as simple as loving people. Men throughout the Association have made plans to help with the building of Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church in 1996. Call the associational office at 447-4593 or 1-800-676-0270 or me at 728-3070 if you are interested in getting involved in a partnership team, disaster team, Handyman Ministry, or any other ministry of Baptist Men. Training sessions are held annually for all workers involved in Baptist Men's work.

Respectfully Submitted,
Mr. Raymond Earp

BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

Report to the Association

CHRISTIAN LIFE

Report to the Association
1996

The Christian Life Division has continued to grapple with moral issues in local and statewide arenas. The Christian Life Director represented the Association at nine monthly Christian Coalition meetings; testified before the Craven County Board of Commissioners regarding strengthening local restrictors governing pornographic bookstores and other "adult-oriented" businesses; assisted the Craven Pregnancy Counseling Center at their annual fund raiser; held an associational training workshop on the Theology of AIDS ministry; and ministered to twenty two persons with AIDS at a week long retreat sponsored by the Baptist State Convention and the Baptist AIDS Partnership of North Carolina.

The current year offers many opportunities for our local churches to be "salt and light" by influencing the moral climate of our area. The Christian Life Director has committed to lead a pastoral role in two upcoming AIDS retreats (August and November), and the national AIDS ministry emphasis of Woman's Missionary Union which will allow every local church to be involved in some way. Bear in mind that AIDS is the number one cause of death for all persons between the ages 25 to 49 in the United States; that reported AIDS cases among teen agers increased by more than seventy percent from 1992 to 1993, and transmission has more than tripled in the last five years. The push for total abstinence education in our schools, and compassionate ministry in our churches must increase.

In addition, every Baptist church is challenged to declare from the pulpit the issues facing our country in this year of local, state, and national elections: partial-birth abortions, welfare reform, homosexuality, and so forth. May our congregations be challenged to: (1) consider the Biblical and Baptist response to every issue, and to (2) examine the position of every candidate and incumbent, and to (3) remember our own accountability before God as we vote — for God's judgment of America begins at the house of the Lord.

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

Report to the Association
1996

1995-96 was the first full operational year under the new constitution. The twin role of the Association in church and mission development was partially realized this past year.

The Association's Church Development Council continued to plan outstanding training events for leadership development at the quarterly Executive Committee meetings. Over four hundred individuals attended these training conferences. Workshop ideas were generated by the participants at the previous conference. The Council did an outstanding job of selecting qualified leadership. Almost, without exception, each of the conferences were evaluated as excellent or good by the participants.

The Missions Development Council is reaching new heights in the Association. The Council is to be commended for their outstanding attendance and involvement in mission work in our area. As a direct result, mission involvement and education is continuing to grow. As we as an Association seek to serve our Lord, let us always remember to keep our focus on the Kingdom's work. Remember the priorities of evangelism and missions.

Rev. Keith Hamilton

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING

Report to the Association
1996

This year the Atlantic Baptist Association continued to provide effective support to local churches in the area of Discipleship Training. We exist to assist churches in equipping its members in growing in Christlikeness.

The associational Discipleship Training program conducted several training events this year including: How to Have a Healthy Church, Assimilating New Church Members, How to Implement a Discipleship Training Program in Your Church, and a curriculum review. The quarterly church leader training continues to be the most effective medium to train and assist the local church; however, we will continue to be available for individual church consultations.

A number of popular products and new products have been made available to churches this year and we recommend you take advantage of them at no cost to the local church by checking them out of the associational library. Some include: Fresh Encounter, which addresses the church body corporately and teaches God's pattern for revival and spiritual awakening; The Mind of Christ by T. W. Hunt; The Search for Significance; as well as the tremendously popular and powerful Experiencing God course. New products include: Serving God: Discovering and Using Your Spiritual Gifts by Ken Hemphill; Untangling Relationships: A Christian Perspective on Codependency by Pat Springle; and new for youth is the tremendously popular Truth Matters by Josh McDowell. These products as well as a complete set of equipping center modules are available to member churches through the associational library at the associational office. Please take advantage of these resources and the resource of your Discipleship Training Director to help your church grow in discipleship.

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

Report to the Association

The Association's Evangelism Committee led in conducting four conferences during the key leadership training events. Conferences for Spiritual Awakening and Reaching In and Out were conducted at the Summer Key Leadership Training Workshop held at Tabernacle Baptist Church. During the Fall Key Leadership Training Workshop, Approaches to a Church's Spiritual Renewal was conducted. Finally, at First Baptist Church of Morehead City, Interest in the Second Coming of Christ as an Opportunity for Witnessing was discussed. These special interest workshops continue to challenge us to be an evangelistic witness for our Lord.

The David Ring Crusade was conducted in the early fall. The annual Spiritual Growth Conference continues to be an exciting and challenging event in the Association. This year's conference was conducted at Tabernacle Baptist Church. The featured speakers were Dr. Mark Corts, Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Winston Salem, and Dr. Wayne Bristow, Director of Total Life International Ministries, in Edmond, OK. Both men challenged our hearts and motivated us to be about the Lord's work. The music was great. Mrs. Becky Justice, the Reggie Saddler Family, Reverend John Thompson, Reverend Mark Minervino, and the Master's Four led us in special music. It was definitely inspiring. Attendance continues to grow during this annual event. Next year's conference will be held at Parkview Baptist Church's new sanctuary. Begin now to pray that God will use this annual conference.

Continue to be involved in the association's prayer ministry. Prayer really does make a difference! If your church is not signed up, please call the Association to receive additional information. If have you have prayer requests or praises, call 447-PRAY to let Kim know of these concerns. Continue to be a positive witness for our Lord.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Report to the Association

July 31, 1995: Dr. Gary McCollough, presiding.

The Mission Development Council made a motion that was approved for the Atlantic Baptist Association in conjunction with the Baptist State Convention of NC to adopt a partnership with South Africa and Swaziland beginning in the summer of 1996. It was also reported that over one thousand tickets were given out for the David Ring Crusade on September 25. The Mission Development Council was introduced. Special needs were presented for Gowanda Baptist Church in New York and the Seamen Center in Morehead City.

October 30, 1995: Dr. Gary McCollough, presiding.

A new line item was created called Partnership Missions. The Association voted to support the Havelock Korean Baptist Church's application for Church Growth Assistance from the Baptist State Convention for $6,000 annually. The Personnel Committee made a motion and it was approved that the Association hire a part time bookkeeper. The Youth line item, Family Ministry Life Reimbursement line item, and Secretary Assistance line item was increased in the budget.

February 29,,1996: Dr. Gary McCollough, presiding.

Rev. Terry McInnis, chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the purposed budget for 1996-97 for discussion. Also, the Finance Committee presented a new program called Elijah's Friends. This would consist of individuals willing to give above and beyond their tithe to assist special needs designated by the Mission Development Council. Rev. Lee Ray Greene, chairman of the Personnel Committee, referred to the proposed personnel manual to be voted upon at the associational Annual Meeting in April. Rev. Vern Gilmer, Director of the Missions Development Council, made a motion that was approved for the Association to provide pastoral assistance to the Korean Baptist Church for $3,600 for 1996. Also, the body was informed of Reverend Keith Hamilton and Reverend Mike Huffman's trip to Swaziland and South Africa February 18-28. A Singles' Rally held on January 27 was very successful with approximately one hundred thirty people attending.

FAMILY LIFE MINISTRIES

Report to the Association

Ministers in the Atlantic Baptist Association were receiving numerous calls for help in finding counselors who deal with an individual or family from a holistic point of view, including a spiritual dimension. This started in response to the pressing need in the military community. These calls were from church and non church members. Ministers could meet the needs of many who were seeking counseling, but they were smart enough to know that some were beyond their ability.

As a result of this need, it was decided that a Family Life Ministries Coordinator might be one answer to this growing concern. Keith Hamilton, Director of the Atlantic Baptist Association, and the appropriate committees began to deal with this staff need in consultation with Neil Chafin, Director of Pastoral Care at Baptist Hospital. Availability of community resources and knowing how to access these resources with confidence also surfaced as a significant problem.

A job description was developed, a prospective staff member was secured, relevant committees provided input and the idea and candidate was presented to the Association at the quarterly meeting in April of 1995. With full approval and support of the Association, this new staff position, with an average of one day per week, was to begin May 1.

Dr. Myrle L. Swicegood was employed to fill this position. Dr. Swicegood has degrees in Home Economics Education, Sociology, Counseling and Guidance and Human Development. Her many years of supervision, administration, and work with individuals and families seemed appropriate to the task. Dr. Neil Chafin and the associational committee had envisioned ways in which such a person could supplement ministry so this new initiative, under the supervision of the Director of the Atlantic Baptist Association, was launched May 1, 1995.

First steps were taken interviewing professional, certified counselors and psychiatrists in the geographical area. From these interviews, it was possible to give an informed opinion as to those who might be able to address specific needs as described by ministers. Other community resources have been identified and a network of providers is being developed. A minister can call Mrs. Swicegood on a dedicated private phone line, describe the problem with which he is dealing, and receive suggestions as to what is available. A fax machine is also available for immediate transfer of information. Since she, alone, receives these messages, confidentiality is assured. This relationship prevents duplication of efforts, allows an objective uninvolved professional to respond to the situation and helps the minister clarify a possible source of action. Ministers and their families are also sometimes recipients of these services.

During the nine months this position has been in existence such concerns as securing an appropriate therapist, finding care for children with special needs, selecting nursing homes, determining available community resources for drug and alcohol rehabilitation, help for abuse victims, problems of "out of control" children, teen problems, interpersonal conflict, and other relationship problems have been addressed. She also has written articles for the associational newsletter and presented training sessions at the quarterly meetings of the association membership. Ministers' wives are meeting with Dr. Swicegood while husbands are engaged in the monthly ministerial meetings.

The results of this position, so far, indicate that ministers are spending less time seeking needed resources, feel more secure in making recommendations, are benefiting from discovering more available helping organizations, and working more efficiently in managing time and meeting needs.

Plans are to continue this part time position which has truly been an exploratory effort during this first year. Keith Hamilton is quick to acknowledge that cooperation and willingness on the part of the associational ministers to try a new and different way has led to the success, acceptance, and support of this new staff position.

Respectfully Submitted,
Dr. Myrle Swicegood

HISTORIAN

Report to the Association
1996

"Safely through another year, God has brought us on our way." He has led and upheld us by His Spirit.

The One Hundred Twelfth Annual Session was somewhat different. It began with supper in the Family Life Center, First Baptist Church, New Bern, NC, Thursday night, April 27, 1995. There were twenty one displays of "Doors of Opportunity" throughout the Education Buildings at 6:40 PM. The business session was at 7:15 PM with the worship beginning at 7:45 PM. The Director of Missions, Reverend Keith Hamilton, brought an outstanding message.

Of special note this year was the accomplishment of having the Annual Minutes bound into books. There are six books of ten years covering the years 1934-1994. Another special event was the celebration of "Lurley Hines Day, Ninety-Nine Plus One," at Pollocksville Baptist Church, August 20, 1995. Recognition was given in the Sunday morning worship and a reception in her honor on Sunday afternoon. "Miss Lurley" has been active in our Association and her beloved Pollocksville Baptist Church since she was a young woman. Dianna Lowe won a bicycle in the first state-wide Baptist Children's Homes coloring contest. She is ten years old and is a member of Peletier Baptist Church.

Dr. Jack Hinton, Pastor, Tabernacle Baptist Church, in New Bern, borrowed $4,000 and gave ten dollar bills to his members as seed money to raise money for the Lottie Moon Christmas goal of $24,000. Sean Joll, fifteen years old, took a bill for himself and one for his older brother who had been killed in a car accident. He published a Christmas card with a picture of his church on it. The money raised from the sale of the cards was given in honor of his brother. Sean's picture and an article was published in the February, 1996, issue of The Commission Magazine of the Foreign Mission Board and in the Biblical Recorder. The church raised $41,407 from this project.

Two of our churches had Centennial celebrations. Tabernacle Baptist Church had an open house on Saturday afternoon, May 6, 1995. On Saturday night, they had a wonderful drama entitled, "And the Light Still Shines." On Sunday, May 7, the church had a Centennial Celebration worship service and an afternoon Centennial song service. Spring Garden Baptist Church culminated a year's observance with "A Celebration of God's Goodness" on Sunday, September 24, 1995. First Baptist Church of New Bern was the mother church of both of these churches.

Trenton Baptist Church celebrated her 125th anniversary on September 17 with special services and festivities.

First Baptist Church of New Bern observed her 186th birthday on Founder's Day in May by honoring her saints who started and sustained the church in her early years. The church restored the broken grave marker of Elijah Clark. The church was founded in his home on Sunday afternoon, May 11, 1809.

The Association has created two new staff and ministry positions. Dr. Myrle Swicegood became Family Life Ministries Coordinator for the Association. Mrs. Beth Hassell was hired as Bookkeeper.

Progress was made in buildings for worship and education. Island Road Baptist Church purchased a building on Island Road. Parkview Baptist Church had a ground breaking service for a new worship center/education extension on October 15. First Baptist Church, Oriental, dedicated a new Fellowship Hall on March 9. National Avenue Baptist Church sold her property and buildings in New Bern and bought more than nine acres on US Hwy 70 east and has a new worship and Christian education facility under construction. The church changed the name of the church to Crossroads Baptist Church. The Seamen's Center at the Port in Morehead City has a new building. This will enlarge our foreign mission reach in that area.

The Korean Baptist Church is our newest mission. Island Road Baptist Church has applied for membership in our Association. First Baptist Church, New Bern, has voted to sponsor Emerald Isle Baptist Church and these two churches have entered into a partnership covenant.

Our churches have taken advantage of new areas of mission outreach. River Bend Baptist Church began a new golf ministry by staffing a golf cart each Wednesday with first aid supplies, water, and other items to assist golfers on the course. First Baptist Church, Havelock, has a weekly Thursday night Bible study for the deaf with a time of fellowship. Colony Baptist Church has its own "home page" on the Internet which has tremendous mission potential. The Atlantic Baptist Association's Disaster Recovery and Handyman ministry is available to help churches with ongoing handyman ministries and victims of natural disaster. It is under the operation of the Baptist Men at Calvary Baptist Church. In October, First Baptist Church of Davis sponsored a community pig picking as a community outreach project. Another very fine ministry of our Association is financial assistance to retired ministers and their spouses who are living below the poverty level.

We are thankful that God called Douglas and Darla Millar from among us to serve as missionaries in Mexico. Doug was Associate Pastor at Tabernacle Baptist Church and Darla was an elementary school teacher in New Bern. They have two children, Brandon and Brittany.

The One Hundred Fiftieth Anniversary of the Southern Baptist Convention did not go unnoticed. The Mission Friends and GA's at Trenton Baptist Church gave a birthday party for the Convention.

Even though our Association is old in numbers of years, our people are young in heart and spirit and have eagerly labored in the Master's Vineyard this year.

Respectfully Submitted,
Miss Jane Marshall Jenkins

MISSION DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

1996

What was on God's mind even before He created mankind? Surely it was missions. The spreading of the Gospel message will be a key theme in the history books of heaven for God has always loved His creation, especially the apex of His handiwork, people. It is because we also love people and care about their eternal destiny that the Mission Development Council seeks to discover mission needs and opportunities. Once discovered, we make our Association of churches aware of them, we join in prayer to the Lord of the harvest for workers and resources, and implement the programs and promotion strategies the local churches feel will advance the cause of Christ.

We have met quarterly with such an excitement and open door for our work that after a few hours we just have to stop and go home. We took two days at Atlantic Beach to pour out our hearts to the Lord and one another, to brain storm, and to plan. The only thing better than planning mission action is doing it! I thank God for our Director of Missions and this council of hands on caring people. You will too when you see what great hearts they have for missions.

For example, the Seamen's Center ministry, led by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Loftin who serve as Atlantic Baptist Association representatives, last year provided 3,000 telephone calls, made 4,500 volunteer contacts, and gave out 350 Bibles. In November, they moved into their new building. We are increasing our involvement in military ministry through the efforts of McCotter Boulevard Baptist Church and grants that open new doors of opportunity for Christian education and counseling. Overseas mission opportunities now include Swaziland as well as the Ukraine. Mrs. Charlene Moody, leading the international ministry, is exploring ways to greet newcomers and offer small group Bible studies for people using English as a second language. Dr. Curt Finch continues to bring record numbers of volunteers to work with resort ministries. Be sure to read his report. Our work with Christian crisis pregnancy centers is saving and changing lives and you are helping make it possible through volunteer hours and gifts. New work sites are being planned and our council is committed to find and designate the support they need through our established churches working together.

Continue to pray for us as we flesh out what it means to be a council. Pray that God will help us focus on knowing and doing His will. Get in on the excitement as together we seek to increase the population of heaven and enrich the lives of the saints. Want to do something eternal? Get involved in mission development and see with us fields white unto harvest.

MUSIC

Report to the Association
1996

Where would we be without the "MUSIC MINISTRY" of a church? Just imagine...a service with no music at all. How would a wedding be without music? Suppose you had a funeral without music. I suppose it would be good to try one time...but I sincerely feel that "M U S I C" is a very important part of the WORSHIP experience.

We should always try to do our best when it comes to the music ministry of the church. Try to involve all ages from preschool right on up to senior adults. There should be something offered for all of these folks.

I want to remind everyone again that if you have one person who gets up and says , "Turn to page ###," you have a music ministry. Congregational singing has always been and will continue to be the most important part of the music ministry. With the "group" participation, everyone feels a part of the WORSHIP experience. Try to select songs that reach everyone. Please don't try to always have the same style. You have people in the congregation with many different tastes. Use all kinds of music.

Once again, let me say to recognize your pianist and organist every opportunity you have. They put in a lot of "extra" hours of work that no one ever knows about. They have to do a lot of practicing to keep up with the choir, learn preludes, offertories, postludes, quiet meditation music, and on and on and on. Some folks tend to think that all they do is one or two hours of work and it is only during the worship times. Wrong, many hours go into making a good pianist or organist. Let them know you appreciate them.

Musically Yours,
Rev. John Thompson

ORDINATION COMMITTEE

Report to the Association

There were four requests made of the committee during the year. Since two of the individuals did not have a permanent place of call, the committee regretfully declined to interview these men. It has been the policy of the Ordination Committee to only meet with candidates after they have received a call to a specific place and position of service.

The committee did meet with Mr. Jerry Cullum at the request of First Baptist Church, Havelock. It was recommended that the local church first give consideration to licensing Mr. Cullum into the Gospel Ministry, which we understand has been done by the church.

Mr. Al Irwin was recommended for consideration by the First Baptist Church, Havelock. The committee endorsed ordination and the church has proceeded to set Mr. Irwin aside for ministerial service.

General Policies
Full and Part Time Association Staff

I. The Calling of Staff

A. The Calling of the Director of Missions - When the need to find a new Director of Missions arises, the chairmen of the following committees shall serve as the search committee: Nominating, Finance, Constitution and By Laws, Membership, Personnel, Missions Development, Church Development, and Administrative Councils. The Secretary-Treasurer shall also serve on the search committee. This search committee shall make recommendations to the Association concerning the calling of the Director of Missions.

B. The Calling of Other Paid Staff - The Personnel Committee, acting in this fashion, shall carry out the following duties:

1. Working in cooperation with the Director of Missions, make recommendations to the Association concerning the calling of all ministerial staff except the Director of Missions.
2. Hire support staff, either on the basis of direct interviews or upon recommendations received from appropriate officers or committees of the Association.

II. Working Schedule
   A. Full Time Ministerial Staff - As work requirements dictate with one day other than Saturday as a day off each week.
   B. Other Full Time Staff - Five days per week office hours should be maintained. Because of the nature of associational events, the work schedule may be adjusted by the Director of Missions.
   C. Part Time Staff - As dictated by the needs of the Association.

III. Vacations for Full Time Staff Members
   A. Each staff member shall be entitled to receive vacation with pay on the following basis:
      1. After six months of continuous service: 1 week vacation.
      2. After the first year of continuous service and up to a total of five years of continuous service: 2 weeks vacation per year.
      3. After five years of continuous service and up to a total of ten years of continuous service: 3 weeks vacation per year.
      4. After ten years of continuous service and for each year of continuous service thereafter: 4 weeks vacation.
      5. Continuous service for staff will be defined as being the years spent in full time service in a church related position within the Southern Baptist Convention.

   B. Guidelines for Vacation
      1. Vacation should be taken in the year earned.
      2. Vacations must be scheduled with the approval of the Director of Missions or his designee.
      3. Vacation will be scheduled so that the program of the Association is least interrupted.
      4. If a holiday occurs during a scheduled vacation, one day may be added to the time.
      5. All staff must take at least two weeks of vacation (when they have accumulated such) in each calendar year.
      6. Three or more weeks of consecutive vacation time must be approved by the Director of Missions and/or the Personnel Committee.
      7. Vacations will be taken as actual time off with no provisions for working a vacation week and receiving regular salary plus vacation salary.

IV. Holidays for Full Time Staff Members
   A. The following ten days will be allowed as paid holidays. If the holiday falls on Saturday, the proceeding Friday will be taken and if on Sunday, the following Monday.
      1. New Year's Day
      2. Martin Luther King's Birthday
      3. Good Friday
      4. Memorial Day

5. Independence Day
6. Labor Day
7. and 8. Thanksgiving (Thursday and Friday)
9. and 10. Christmas Eve and Christmas Day

V. Sick Leave - Full time staff members will be granted sick leave in accordance with the provisions of this section. There are two types of paid sick leave available to staff members, temporary and accrued.
   A. Temporary Sick Leave - Staff members will be allowed up to ten days of temporary sick leave per year. Unused days of temporary sick leave may not be carried from one year to the next.
   B. Accrued Sick Leave - After one year of continuous employment with the Association, staff members will earned accrued sick leave at the rate of one day per month. Unused accrued sick leave may be carried from one year to the next, up to a maximum of 72 days.
   C. Sick leave may be granted by the Director of Missions or the Personnel Committee for instances of personal illness or necessary medical and dental appointments.
   D. Unused sick days are not payable in cash or in any other form should the staff member leave the Association either through termination or resignation.
   E. Sick leave may be granted only for absences which occur on a scheduled work day. Sick leave shall not be granted in lieu of a holiday or scheduled vacation day.
   F. Necessary absences because of illness in the family (mother, father, brother, sister, wife, husband, or child) will be considered the same as sick leave.
   G. Extraordinary illnesses that involve the need for further consideration than the guidelines given here, will be dealt with through recommendation of the Director of Missions and Personnel Committee and presented to the Association for approval.

VI. Other Considerations for Full Time Staff Members
   A. Deaths - Time off with pay up to three days in the event of the death of an immediate family member (husband, wife, child, brother, sister, parent, grandparent) for the staff.
   B. Civic Duties - All full time staff are to be paid for jury or witness duty in addition to any jury fees received.
   C. Revivals, Self-Improvement, and Denominational Service
      1. All ministerial staff are entitled to two weeks per year for revivals, assisting other churches, or leading conferences outside the Association.
      2. Reasonable participation is encouraged in conferences, conventions, and other types of events that inform the staff members of developments in their fields and to provide leadership in denominational activities. When possible, these absences should not conflict with the program of the Association and performance of regular duties.

VII. Termination and Resignation
   A. Termination of Ministerial Staff - The Administrative Council of the Association shall review and act on any recommendation to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff received from the Personnel Committee.

1. Such proceedings shall be bathed in prayer.
2. A concern to be loving, fair, and true to our faith and witness shall pervade this process.
3. The advisability of bringing in an outside mediator may be considered.
4. Decisions to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff shall be made by two-thirds vote of members present and voting in a special meeting of the Council.
5. When a decision to dismiss is made, thirty days notice or thirty days salary and benefits (if applicable) shall be given to departing staff.

B. Termination of Other Members - Other staff members can be dismissed at the direction of the Director of Missions or the Personnel Committee. At least two weeks salary and benefits shall be given to departing staff.

C. Voluntary Separations of All Staff - All staff members who voluntarily resign their positions, shall give two weeks notice.

VIII. Service Anniversary Recognition - All active staff members of the Association, having a regular schedule of work and employed on a permanent basis, whether full time or part time, shall be honored and recognized in accordance with these guidelines (recognizing these are only suggestions and such recognition may not be limited to just these guidelines). It shall be the responsibility of the Personnel Committee to administer the program.

A. Fifth Year Anniversary
   1. Appropriate recognition and appreciation
   2. Article in newsletter
   3. Presentation of five year service memento.

B. Tenth Year Anniversary - Same as above with memento to distinguish ten years of service.

C. Fifteenth Year Anniversary - Same as above with fifteen year memento with any other appropriate action such as reception, luncheon, and so forth.

D. Twentieth Year Anniversary - Same as fifteenth.

IX. Insurance - The insurance program for the staff (hospitalization, life, disability, retirement, social security, and so forth) will be provided at a rate recommended by the Personnel and Finance Committees and as approved by the Association.

X. Job Descriptions

Director of Missions

The Director of Missions is the chief executive officer of the Association. This is a full time position. Accountable to the Association through the Personnel Committee, the Director of Missions shall perform the following duties:

1. Oversee, evaluate, and endeavor to improve all ministries sponsored by the Association.
2. In close consultation with Missions Development Council, discover mission needs, devise ministries targeting those needs, and enlist the personnel and resources required to carry out a Christ-honoring ministry.
3. Assist the Church Development Council in planning training and ministry events designed to increase the effectiveness of the Association and local church ministries.

4. Cooperate with the Administrative Council of the Association to help member officers fulfill their duties in support of the mission of the Association.
5. Interpret and adapt the priorities, emphases, and work of the denomination to the Association and member churches; also, encourage cooperation with the denomination by member churches to the extent possible, consistent with principles of local church and associational autonomy under Christ.
6. Promote the work and witness of the Association both within the Association and in the larger community in which we live and serve.
7. Train ministerial staff search committees as requested.
8. Counsel church leaders as needed and to the extent possible, mediate local church disputes as called upon.
9. Serve as an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association.
10. Supervise all paid staff and volunteers.
11. Carry out other duties as directed by the Association.

Administrative Assistant

The Administrative Assistant is accountable to the Association through the Director of Missions and Personnel Committee. This is a full time position. The Administrative Assistant shall perform the following duties:

1. Manage the associational office.
    a. Organize the work of the associational office and establish work flow procedures in line with accepted office practices.
    b. Maintain an efficient filing system for the associational office.
    c. Receive and review correspondence, distribute materials to appropriate persons.
    d. Serve as receptionist.
    e. Enlist and supervise volunteers as needed.
    f. Type and edit the associational newsletter and other material produced by the Association.
    g. Maintain necessary mailing and address lists.
    h. Maintain adequate inventory of office supplies.
    i. Prepare (or enlist volunteer help in preparing) all mailings in accordance with current postal regulations.
    j. Coordinate, print, and distribute the associational calendar.
    k. Maintain the associational resource center.
    l. Receive and deposit all financial receipts.
2. Serve as personal secretary to the Director of Missions.
    a. Make travel arrangements, set up appointments, prepare itineraries as needed.
    b. Transcribe dictation as requested.
3. Serve as associational council secretary and associational clerk; prepare materials for executive committees and associational council meetings.
4. Provide administrative support to associational officers, program directors, and committees as assigned.
5. Assist in preparing and printing annual minutes.

6. Provide specialized assistance to churches when possible.
    a. Establish and maintain network with church secretaries.
    b. Assist churches, as possible, in meeting printing and duplicating needs.
7. Accept other responsibilities as assigned.

Family Life Ministries Coordinator

The Family Life Ministries Coordinator is accountable to the Association through the Director of Missions and Personnel Committee. This is a part time position. The Family Life Ministries Coordinator will discharge the following duties:

1. Lead support groups for ministers and/or their families.
2. Provide professional consultation to ministers in the Association.
3. Conduct association-wide, need-based workshops and retreats.
4. Compile a booklet of family-related resources for associational ministers. This booklet, once developed, will imply no blanket endorsements by the Coordinator or Association, serving instead as a resource guide to ministers from which they may pick and choose.
5. Contact area professionals in order to develop a referral list for associational ministers.
    a. From this list, once developed, neither the Coordinator nor Association recommends anyone.
    b. When asked, the Coordinator will provide additional information and offer informed opinions.
6. Use existing channels of communication and, as time allows, create new ones for supporting and strengthening families.

Mission Team Coordinator

The Mission Team Coordinator is accountable to the Association through the Director of Missions and Personnel Committee. This is a part time position. The Mission Team Coordinator shall perform the following duties:

1. Plan, coordinate, direct, and evaluate the resort ministries on Bogue Banks.
2. Enlist volunteer mission teams to conduct Vacation Bible School, Mission Bible School, Backyard Bible Clubs, musicals, surveys, and like programs in the resort setting.
3. Develop an orientation manual.
4. Give direction and supervision to mission teams on the field.
5. Prepare reports necessary for keeping the Home Mission Board, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and Atlantic Baptist Association fully informed on resort ministries.
6. Prepare and administer the approved resort budget.
7. Promote the work of the Home Mission Board, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and Atlantic Baptist Association.

Bookkeeper

The Bookkeeper is accountable to the Association through the Director of Missions and Personnel Committee. This is a part time position. The Bookkeeper shall perform the following duties:

1. Post receipts and disbursements of all accounts according to the financial system.
2. Prepare checks from accounts payable in accordance with the associational budget.
3. Prepare financial reports for the Association and its committees as deemed necessary.
4. Prepare government reports as required by law.
5. Receive and answer inquiries concerning financial matters.

RESORT MINISTRY

Report to the Association
1996

This past year was a challenging and rewarding year for resort ministry. During the summer of 1995, we welcome six resort teams to our area. The teams were from Virginia, Tennessee, and North Carolina. Through the work of these ministry teams we were able to provide Bible clubs for children at campgrounds and evening music and worship times at key locations in the area. We reached over three hundred children through the clubs at campgrounds and over three thousand people witnessed the evening worship programs. Many lives were touched by the excellent ministry conducted by our mission teams.

I would like to thank the team members who gave their time and talents to share the Good News of Christ in our community. I would also like to thank the campground owners and other business leaders who allow us to use their properties for these ministry programs. I also want to express my appreciation to the people of McCotter Boulevard Baptist Church who assisted with Bible clubs on the Base at Cherry Point.

We have five teams signed up for this summer as of March of 1996. This year could be a challenge as many mission teams are headed to the Olympics. I am still looking forward to a great year in resort ministry.

Respectfully Submitted,
Dr. Curt Finch

SECRETARIES

Report to the Association
1996

The church secretaries meet once a quarter to share ideas, encourage one another, and educate ourselves.

Our current officers are:

President - Mrs. Sue Cline
Vice President - Mrs. Cathy Adair
Secretary - Mrs. Brenda Jones
Historian - Mrs. Kim Pittman

Mrs. Gail Edge, secretary at Temple Baptist Church, has represented our Association as Vice President of the North Carolina Southern Baptist Secretaries' Association for the past two years. We commend and thank her for her hard work in that organization.

Five of our area secretaries attended the state conference in November at Ridgecrest. It was a very rewarding experience. We would like to encourage more churches to allow their secretaries to attend next year.

At our quarterly meetings we learned about filing and how to set up a more organized office thanks to Mrs. Gail Edge. Dr. Myrle Swicegood brought us an encouraging message on time management. Mrs. Diane Nance shared her testimony with us, and we celebrated spring of 1995 making flowers.

Our group has a renewed commitment to mission involvement in the future including a planned baby shower for the Craven Pregnancy Counseling Center in the spring and baking cookies for the Seamen Center in the fall.

We would like all the churches to encourage their secretaries, both volunteer and paid, to attend our quarterly meetings listed on the associational calendar. We would also like to thank our churches for allowing us to participate in this group so we may better serve them.

Respectfully Submitted,
Mrs. Sue Cline

SEMINARY EXTENSION

1996

The Seminary Extension Department of the Southern Baptist Convention offers more than 70 courses that can be taken either for college credit or noncollege credit. These courses are divided into three major study areas: Biblical Studies, Theological-Historical Studies, and Ministry Studies. Among courses offered under Ministry Studies is "Ministry with Military Personnel" which - because the Cherry Point Marine Corps Air Station is located in our Association - may hold some local interest.

This past year your chairman ordered and distributed copies of the latest Seminary Extension catalog to all churches holding membership in the Association.

In addition, individual consultations were held in which information about Seminary Extension courses was shared.

Looking to the future, please let the Director of Missions or me know what courses you would like to see taught at the Associational Center. Also, consider offering Seminary Extension classes through your local church.

Respectfully Submitted,
Dr. Don Hadley

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES

Report to the Association
1996

The associational year, 1995-1996, was a year of excitement and increasing interest in Senior Adult Ministries. Some churches started Senior Adult Ministries for the first time, and others expanded their ministry.

Emphasis for the past year was "Senior Adult Evangelism," Seniors reaching Seniors. This is one of the greatest needs in the Association and will continue to be for several years due in part to the "Boomers" now becoming Seniors. This is a great challenge to all Seniors of our Association.

The highlight for Senior Adults during the past year was the Senior Adult Rally at Temple Baptist Church, New Bern, on October 24, 1995, and at Newport Baptist Church, March 26, 1996, when record attendance was set at both rallies. This has been the trend for the past two years.

The need is increasing, the challenge is great, and Senior Adult Ministries will continue to emphasize Senior Adult evangelism in 1996-1997 and the years ahead.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rev. Ira Jones

SINGLE ADULT MINISTRIES

Report to the Association

Is there a place where single Christian adults can go for a good time of fellowship and fun? Is there an alcohol free environment where college students, military, professionals, never married, single again, and widowed can gather, meet new friends - people of all ages who love the Lord and support Christian ideals and each other?

Absolutely yes!! It's the "Christian Singles Gathering," our newly formed singles fellowship, sponsored by the Atlantic Baptist Association. This fun "Gathering" meets each fourth Saturday evening of the month at 7:00 PM at McCotter Boulevard Baptist Church in Havelock. We do appreciate McCotter Boulevard Baptist Church for hosting the meetings.

After several months of in-depth planning and forming a committee of singles from several churches, a Singles' Rally was held January, 1996, with more than one hundred single adults attending. Christian professional entertainer Matt Fore provided an evening of roaring laughter. Deborah Lockey and guitar led in fun songs and a good time was enjoyed by all.

We have about one hundred sixty singles on our mailing list, those who have attended at least one or more meetings. If they all come at once, we'd need a larger fellowship hall to mingle and play games. Our singles are coming from the five counties of our Association, plus Kinston and Greenville. This just shows what a great need there is for this type of ministry in our area. New people have come to each meeting. God is blessing this ministry. Mr. Jerry Cullum and Ms Debbie Styborski served as song/devotional leaders for our February and March gatherings. We filled the fellowship hall as we broke into small groups for ice breaker fun games and then reassembled for game relays, fellowship, and food! Free child care is provided at the church for single parents who call in advance to the associational office.

Presently we are promoting the single retreats at Fort Caswell and Ridgecrest, great weekend get-aways of inspiration, fun, and fellowship. In the future we would also like to plan some other trips and activities of interest, if group transportation becomes available.

Presently our planning committee, which meets each month, includes the following: Laura Haynes, Sheila Fisher, Jon Nichols, Shane Rice, Dino Meddler, David Boggs, Joyce King, Terry Kennedy, Jonnie Gates, and Kevin Sanders.

If you do not have an organized group of singles within your local church, I would encourage you to organize your singles - these small groups will serve as your best asset in drawing other singles into the local church. If your church already has an organized singles group - that's great! Pack in the church van and join in the fellowship at our next singles' gathering.

If there is any way I can help you or you'd like to help me in sharing ideas and suggestions, please call me at 447-4086. Please keep this exciting ministry in your prayers.

Respectfully Submitted,
Mrs. Eleanor Jones

STEWARDSHIP

Report to the Association
1996

Our emphasis for the past two years has been one of family financial management. This coming year we want to instill in the hearts of all of our churches that the Atlantic Baptist Association is an extension of the church's local ministry. I see the Association as the glue that attaches our church to a ministry that is done by another church.

It may not be feasible for your local church to do an ethnic ministry, but you can financially support a sister church that is in the prime location to carry out such a ministry. When someone asks me if my church has a Seamen's Center, Crisis Pregnancy Center, Japanese, or Korean ministry, I can say, "Why sure, man, we support these and others like them through the Atlantic Baptist Association!" This year we are encouraging every church to get on board and give at least five percent of your receipts to associational ministries. We know many are already going beyond that and we praise your efforts in missions.

Rev. Terry McInnis

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Report to the Association

The year 2000 looms on the horizon. The Sunday School should be the key organization in our churches to face the challenges of outreach and Bible study in the next few years leading into the next century. The growth of our Association's Bible study program experienced in 1994-95 was small, but still significant in light of social trends. Sunday School enrollment increased by 191 or nearly 2.7%. This moves us in the right direction as we work through the closing years of this decade, century, and millennium.

Training for Sunday School leadership has been primarily through the quarterly leadership conferences sponsored by the associational Church Development Council. These have been received on the whole with excellent attendance. The one exception was on the occasion when two separate conference nights were held, one emphasizing program leadership training and the other personal interest training. The lower attendance at these led to the evaluation that as both of these are integral in our churches, they should be kept integral in our quarterly conferences.

Goals for 1996-97 include increased communication between associational Sunday School leadership and that of the local churches, a completed Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team (ASSIST), greater involvement of ASSISTeam members with local churches, a better trained Bible study leadership in the local churches, and a larger percentage in associational Sunday School enrollment.

These goals can be reached as we commit ourselves to personal study, attending available training conferences, seeing the spiritual needs of the people around us, and recognizing our responsibility to help meet those needs. God will bless our efforts as we do it for His glory.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rev. Tom Lamkin

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

1996

Vacation Bible School continues to be the main outreach arm of the church during the summer months. Today Vacation Bible School is available for preschool, children, youth, and adults. It is exciting to see how God is using this unique time of fellowship and learning to help disciple believers and to reach others with the gospel.

Two Vacation Bible School clinics were conducted this past year. The first was April 22 at McCotter Boulevard Baptist Church and the second was conducted on May 15 at Tabernacle Baptist Church. Attendance had improved over the previous year, but still is relatively small in comparison to the number of VBS workers our churches utilize. A highlight every year is a VBS Director's Meeting being conducted during the January Key Leadership Conference. This is a valuable time for advance planning and early promotion. The Association continues to offer Vacation Bible School materials from the Baptist Sunday School Board.

Please remember to have an evangelistic time during your Vacation Bible School. This is critical for presenting the gospel of Jesus Christ to the people you have cultivated during the week. See you at the clinics in the coming weeks.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Report to the Association
1996

WMU began the new year in May, 1995. Our first activity was at McCotter Boulevard Baptist Church in Havelock. On this night we gathered to collect, sew, and prepare for distribution. Those with sewing machines made duffel bags for foster children and gowns for women. The material was contributed to make the bags and gowns and they were assembled by others who were there. We received materials for health kits, stuffed animals, pots, pans, and dishes. We also collected linens. These things were distributed to the Women's Shelters in Craven and Carteret Counties.

In August, the Associational WMU Council traveled to Caswell Assembly to prepare for the new year. Our theme for this year is "RISK THE JOURNEY." We have leaders for each age level.

In September, we collected towels and other supplies for Baptist Children's Home. Some of our Women on Mission delivered these to Kennedy Home and were treated to a tour of the campus and cottages.

In October, we had "One Great Night of Training" which was not well attended. On October 30, at our regular quarterly Associational Meeting, we observed Fall Key Leadership. Our Executive Director, Mrs. Irma Duke, spoke to the WMU members attending.

In November we collected soap for the Women's Correctional Facility in Raleigh.

Our January Beach Retreat was held on January 26-27 at the Sheraton Inn on Atlantic Beach. Our speakers were Sonny and Deen Sweatman, missionaries to South Africa. They were outstanding and encouraged us all to join them through our Partnership with South Africa and Swaziland.

In March, we had approximately twenty three women attending Ridgecrest Extravaganza. These women were from four churches in our association. We were also challenged to respond to the famine in North Korea. The WMU and Brotherhood were asked to prepare boxes of food and contribute to the freight cost. Our North Carolina goal was 2,500 boxes.

I hope that each WMU is well on the way to adapting to the new way of studying and doing missions in our association. I also hope you are taking advantage of the mission opportunities that are printed each month in the Atlantic Baptist Association's newsletter.

Mrs. Mary Lou Harrell

YOUTH MINISTRY

Report to the Association

The associational Youth ministry started off with a bang with the presentation of "The Extra Mile" by the youth of the Association. It was presented on May 7 at First Baptist Church of Havelock. Over three hundred people attended this evening of celebration. Next the Witness team sponsored by the Evangelism Department of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina presented a great program for the youth at First Baptist Church of Morehead City on June 18.

The associational youth camp was held at Campbell University. Although attendance was very low, the impact of the week was tremendous. In July, a training conference was conducted during the Summer Key Leadership Training. It was entitled "Firing Up a Youth Ministry." It was designed for parents of teenagers and youth workers. In October, the abstinence based program, "True Love Waits," was previewed for youth workers during the Fall Key Leadership Conference.

Wilcox and Pardoe conducted an associational youth camp at Camp Albemarle on November 17-18. It was well represented by the youth of the Association.

Dr. Thomas Denton, First Baptist Church, New Bern, presented a special leadership development training workshop during the January Executive Committee for youth on "Finding the Will of God." Also in January, the youth attended the Ice House Skating Rink in Cary for a fun night. Then in February, the youth met for a lock-in at First Baptist Church of Morehead City. This lock-in was conducted under the leadership of Mr. Phil Smith, First Baptist Church, Morehead City.

Two other youth events were hosted by college students from schools on spring break. The first of the Baptist Student Union teams were from Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. They led an associational youth rally on March 22. The second was a dramatic presentation of the Lord's Supper on April 4 at Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church led by students from Union University in Jackson, Tennessee.

Remember that youth are not only leaders of tomorrow, but the church of today.

ATLANTIC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

Associations being a proven way of helping churches carry out the Great Commission, we the missionary Baptist churches of Beaufort, Carteret, Craven, Jones, and Pamlico counties voluntarily agree to cooperate according to the objectives, doctrines, and structures set forth in this constitution. No compromise of local church autonomy is implied or follows from membership in this Association or from relationships the Association maintains with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Southern Baptist Convention, or any other person or group determined by the Association - meeting in Executive Committee or Annual Session - to advance the cause of Christ.

ARTICLE I - NAME

Our name shall be the "Atlantic Baptist Association of North Carolina, Incorporated."

ARTICLE II - MISSION

Under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, the mission of this Association and its officers shall be to train, counsel, encourage, and otherwise assist member churches in fulfilling their scriptural mandate to worship God, love their neighbor, evangelize the lost, and disciple believers in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (cf., Mark 12:29-31; Matthew 28:19-20).

Inasmuch as cooperation among churches is usually more productive than acting alone, the mission of this Association shall also include initiating such mission advance or outreach activities as shall be judged appropriate by the Association.

ARTICLE III - STATEMENT OF FAITH

Christ and Scripture - the living and written Word of God respectively - shall be the source of our beliefs and basis of our fellowship. The Baptist Faith and Message adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963 expresses the doctrinal positions of the Association.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

Under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, Baptist churches are completely free and sovereign to conduct their business as they see fit. The same goes for Baptist Associations. Membership in this Association, therefore, does not confer to the Association any authority over member churches, nor may churches exercise authority over the Association.

Affiliation between churches and the Association, being free and voluntary, is predicated only on acceptance of the mission and doctrinal positions set forth in this constitution and on active, cooperative participation.

SECTION 1. GRANTING MEMBERSHIP

A. Churches desiring membership in this Association shall - upon official church action - apply directly to the Association meeting in annual or executive session. Such applications shall be presented in writing.

The Association shall, in turn, receive as information and forward such applications to the Membership Committee for study and recommendation.

B. Upon receiving referrals of membership applications from the Association, the Membership Committee shall - over a one year period - take appropriate steps to determine whether applicants evidence suitable compatibility with the Association in spirit and doctrine.

C. Following this one year review, the Membership Committee shall report a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant watchcare status.

D. The Association shall then decide whether to grant watchcare status - a status that carries with it the same rights and privileges as full members with the exception of voting and holding office.

A two-thirds vote of ballots cast shall be required to grant watchcare status.

E. After observing churches received under watchcare for one year, the Membership Committee shall bring a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant full membership.

A vote to grant full membership shall also require a two-thirds favorable vote of ballots cast.

SECTION 2. WITHDRAWING MEMBERSHIP

A. Membership may be withdrawn when churches no longer cooperate or participate in the life of the Association. Membership may also be withdrawn when churches deviate doctrinally from positions set forth in The Baptist Faith and Message.

B. The procedure whereby membership may be withdrawn is as follows:

1. Authorization to take steps toward withdrawing membership may be given only by the Association meeting in annual or executive session. The Membership Committee may, however, request such authorization.

2. Such authorization to review membership status is indicated when churches evidence noncooperation, nonparticipation, or doctrinal deviation.

3. Once authorized, the Membership Committee shall conduct a thorough examination before returning a recommendation to the Association.

During this period, the Membership Committee shall take appropriate steps to bring those congregations being examined back into fellowship.

4. Should these restorative efforts fail, the Membership Committee may recommend watchcare status (not withdrawal of membership) to the Association.

Watchcare status - with its attendant loss of all voting and office holding privileges - shall go into effect upon a two-thirds vote of ballots cast by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

5. Such watchcare status shall last one year, after which the Membership Committee shall recommend restoring full membership or withdrawing membership altogether.

As with the vote on watchcare status, a vote to restore or withdraw membership shall require a two-thirds vote of ballots cast by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

SECTION 3. TRANSFERRING MEMBERSHIP: Any church requesting transfer to another Association may be granted a letter of dismissal by presenting a written request to the Association.

SECTION 4. MESSENGERS TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND ANNUAL MEETINGS: All congregations holding full membership in the Association may send up to ten (10) messengers to Executive Committee and Annual meetings.

ARTICLE V - PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Robert's Rules of Order, in its latest edition, shall be the accepted authority in conducting the business of the Association.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to this constitution may be put to a vote at any Annual Meeting provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed amendments shall first be submitted in writing to the Association at the October meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. The Executive Committee shall, in turn and by majority vote, refer proposed amendments to the Constitution and By Laws Committee for study and recommendation.

C. Written copies of proposed changes coming out of committee shall be given to the Executive Committee at their January meeting.

D. Proposed amendments shall be presented at the first session of an Annual Meeting and voted on during a subsequent session. The session during which the vote is to be taken shall be stated at the time of initial presentation.

The same conditions apply to a completely revised or re-written constitution.

Any actions taken on constitutional matters shall require a two-thirds favorable vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

By Laws

In carrying out its mission, the Atlantic Baptist Association shall be organized into three councils - Missions Development, Church Development, and Administrative. These three councils report to the Association through Executive Committee and Annual meetings.

ARTICLE I - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee - composed of up to ten messengers from churches holding full membership in the Association - shall meet the last Mondays of July, October, and January to hear reports, transact business, and respond to issues affecting the life and mission of the Association. The Executive Committee shall be the final decision-making body of the Association between Annual Meetings.

ARTICLE II - MISSIONS DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

SECTION 1. Strategic planning and leadership in carrying out the Great Commission on the associational level is the dual charge of the Missions Development Council. In performing this assignment, this council shall perform the following tasks:

1) Discover mission needs to which the Association ought to respond;
2) Develop strategies for meeting these needs;
3) Challenge churches to be missionary in theology and practice;
4) Provide resources for use in advancing the cause of Christ;
5) Organize opportunities for doing missions together;
6) Train church and associational workers to perform missions; and
7) Establish and maintain appropriate lines of communication with the community and denomination.

The Missions Development Council shall be composed of the Missions Development Director, Survey Director, Promotional Director, WMU Director, Brotherhood Director, and chairmen of all component programs.

A. The Missions Development Director chairs and leads the council to discharge the tasks listed above.

B. The Survey Director discovers mission needs and opportunities, and makes the Association and churches of the Association aware of them.

C. The Promotional Director leads churches to do missions, and works with the Missions Development Director to provide appropriate training.

D. The Woman's Missionary Union Director promotes and leads WMU work in the Association.

E. The Brotherhood Director promotes and leads Brotherhood work in the Association.

F. Component programs in associational work shall be determined by the Missions Development Council.

SECTION 2. This council, which reports to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting, shall meet quarterly to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each component program shall train its own officers, who shall in turn - working cooperatively with their counterparts in the churches - guide their respective programs.

SECTION 4. With the single exception of the Woman's Missionary Union director, all directors sitting on the Missions Development Council shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Association at the Annual Meeting. Vacancies among these directors occurring during the year shall be filled as soon as possible by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

Directors desiring to assemble a committee to work with them, shall - after consulting the Director of Missions and chairman of the Nominating Committee for input - assemble their own committees, subject to subsequent approval by the Nominating Committee and Executive Committee.

ARTICLE III - CHURCH DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Church Development Council - which shall be chaired by the Sunday School Director - is a training and equipping ministry of the Association. Either the Church Development Council or Association may add component programs to the council membership.

Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Music, Youth, Church Media Library, Stewardship, Christian Life, Seminary Extension, Pastoral Ministries, Evangelism, Ordination, Senior Adult, Single Adult, Church Secretaries, and Ministers' Conference shall each be represented on the Church Development Council by their directors.

SECTION 2. This council, which reports to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting, shall meet quarterly to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each program shall train its own officers, who shall in turn offer assistance to their counterparts in the churches.

SECTION 4. Each program shall, in cooperation with the Nominating Committee, enlist and nominate its chief officers for approval by the Association at the Annual Meeting. Vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 5. SUNDAY SCHOOL

A. The Sunday School Director plans, conducts, and evaluates Sunday School work in the Association, and also chairs the Church Development Council.

B. The Vacation Bible School Director plans, conducts, and evaluates Vacation Bible School work in the Association. The VBS Director also trains and leads the associational VBS "assist team."

SECTION 6. DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING: The Discipleship Training Director, after appraising disciple-making needs within the Association, develops and conducts appropriate training events.

SECTION 7. MUSIC: The Music Director leads church to plan, conduct, enlarge, and improve their music programs. The Director also provides inspirational music at associational meetings as requested.

SECTION 8. YOUTH MINISTRY: The Youth Ministry Director develops and conducts ministries designed to meet the needs of youth and their parents.

SECTION 9. CHURCH MEDIA LIBRARY: The Church Media Library Director promotes, enlists, and develops media-library work in the Association.

SECTION 10. STEWARDSHIP: The Stewardship Director promotes the principles and practice of Christian stewardship within the Association.

SECTION 11. CHRISTIAN LIFE: The Christian Life Director educates Baptists concerning critical moral and ethical issues of the day, and leads the Association to respond in appropriate ways.

SECTION 12. SEMINARY EXTENSION: The Seminary Extension Director acquaints members of the Association with opportunities for study and skill development afforded by taking Seminary Extension classes.

SECTION 13. PASTORAL MINISTRIES: The Pastoral Ministries Director helps the Association and churches carry out pastoral ministries.

SECTION 14. EVANGELISM: The Evangelism Director, enlists, trains, and motivates churches to engage in evangelism.

SECTION 15. ORDINATION: As requested by member churches, the Ordination Director leads the Ordination Committee to examine - for recommendation - candidates professing a call to the gospel ministry.

SECTION 16. SENIOR ADULTS: The Senior Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop senior adult ministries.

SECTION 17. SINGLE ADULTS: The Single Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop single adult ministries.

SECTION 18. CHURCH SECRETARIES: The president of the church secretary's organization implements a program to inspire and train church secretaries.

SECTION 19. MINISTERS' CONFERENCE: The Ministers' Conference president leads the conference to achieve the goals it sets for itself.

ARTICLE IV - ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

SECTION 1. To facilitate and support the work of the Association, the Administrative Council oversees and maintains the associational infrastructure.

The membership of this council - which shall be chaired by the Moderator - shall be made up of the chairmen of the following committees: Nominating, Order of Business, Finance, Constitution, Membership, Personnel, Trustees/Directors, and Building and Grounds. Also sitting on the Administrative Council shall be the Moderator/President, Vice Moderator/Vice President, Clerk, Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Auditor, Historian, and Parliamentarian.

SECTION 2. This council meets quarterly and reports directly to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting.

SECTION 3. Each committee trains its own officers to know their duties and guide their respective committees and counterparts in the churches.

SECTION 4. COMMITTEES

A. NOMINATING COMMITTEE: Nine (9) members - who serve three year terms on a rotating basis - compose the Nominating Committee. The task of this committee is to nominate persons to serve in the offices and on the committees of the Association. These nominees shall be presented at the Annual Meeting in April. Committee recommendations do not preclude nominations being made from the floor. Subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee, the responsibility to fill vacancies occurring between annual sessions also falls to this committee.

B. ORDER OF BUSINESS COMMITTEE: The Moderator/President, Clerk, and Music Director compose the Order of Business Committee. The assignment of this committee - working with the Director of Missions - is

(a) to prepare a printed program for annual sessions, and

(b) to make place and program decisions.

Printed programs shall be sent out at least thirty (30) days before the Annual Meeting. This order of business is presented for adoption at the opening session, and serves throughout the meeting unless changes become necessary and are approved.

C. FINANCE COMMITTEE: Six (6) members - who serve three year rotating terms - compose the Finance Committee. The task of this committee is to:

(a) study the financial needs of the Association;

(b) solicit budgetary input from all associational programs, committees, and ministries; and

(c) in January present a proposed budget for the following year to the Association. Final adoption of the budget occurs at the Annual Meeting held in April. This committee is also responsible for securing the cooperation of the churches in meeting the budget.

D. CONSTITUTION AND BY LAWS COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, form the membership of this committee. The purpose of this committee is to study for recommendation to the Association any proposed changes to the Constitution, By Laws, or Policy Manual.

E. MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, make up the membership of this committee. The function of this committee is to evaluate for recommendation to the Association any requests received from local Baptist churches seeking membership in the Association. The Membership Committee shall also receive or initiate any move to separate a church from membership in the Association. The committee shall prayerfully and diligently study such requests, and make recommendations according to Article IV of the Constitution.

F. PERSONNEL COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, compose the membership of this committee. The role of this committee is to make recommendations to the Association concerning staff employment, job descriptions, terms of employment, and related considerations.

G. The BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE: Periodically inspects all associational property, and makes recommendations concerning maintenance, modifications, policies, furnishings, insurance, and grounds care as needed.

H. The TRUSTEES/DIRECTORS handle all legal matters of the Association as directed by the Association. Three (3) members (one preferably an attorney) - each serving three year rotating terms - compose this board. After serving one full term, a year must elapse before trustees/directors may succeed themselves.

SECTION 5. OFFICERS

A. The MODERATOR/PRESIDENT - who may serve no more than two one year terms in succession - shall preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings of the Association. The Moderator also chairs the Administrative Council. In addition, the Moderator/President shall be an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association except the Nominating Committee, and shall appoint a registration committee to serve at Annual and other meetings as needed. Further contact between the Moderator/President and member churches is encouraged.

B. The VICE MODERATOR/VICE PRESIDENT, in the absence of or as called upon by the Moderator/President, presides at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings.

C. The CLERK annually sends the Annual Church Profile to member churches at least two months before the stated due date; keep accurate minutes of Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings; supervises the printing and distribution of the annual book of reports; and keeps on file the important documents and records of the Association. The clerk also, upon the direction of the Executive Committee or Association, signs documents such as cooperative agreements.

D. The SECRETARY-TREASURER receives and handles all funds over which the Association has stewardship. In discharging this responsibility, the Secretary-Treasurer deposits and disperses funds as directed by the Association; provides a financial report to the Association at Annual and Executive Committee meetings; and sets up and maintains a bookkeeping system open to audit by any responsible person.

E. The ASSISTANT SECRETARY-TREASURER takes over the duties listed above in Section 5D in the event the Secretary-Treasurer is unable to perform them.

F. The AUDITOR annually audits the books of the Association and reports the results of this audit to the Executive Committee.

G. The HISTORIAN records significant aspects of the history of the Association and its member churches, and submits a written report relating such information to the Association at the Annual Meeting.

H. The PARLIAMENTARIAN advises presiding officers of the association in matters related to following proper parliamentary procedure. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the basis of such advice.

I. The DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS is the chief executive officer of the Association. Accountable to the Association through the Personnel Committee, the Director of Missions shall perform the duties set forth in the Policy Manual.

SECTION 6. The Administrative Council shall also review and act on any recommendation to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff received from the Personnel Committee.

A. Such proceedings shall be bathed in prayer.

B. A concern to be loving, fair, and true to our faith and witness shall pervade this process.

C. The advisability of bringing in an outside mediator may be considered.

D. Decisions to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff shall be made by two-thirds vote of members present and voting in a special meeting of the Council.

E. When a decision to dismiss is made, thirty days notice or thirty days salary and benefits (if applicable) shall be given to departing staff.

ARTICLE V - GENERAL

SECTION 1. DEFINITION OF "ASSOCIATION:" When the term "Association" is used in these By Laws and the preceding Constitution, all entities set forth in these documents are included. The final decision-making authority of the Association, however, rests with duly elected messengers - sent from churches holding full membership - meeting in annual or executive session. "Executive session" includes appropriately called special as well as regular Executive Committee meetings.

SECTION 2. COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP: Any officer or committee member serving more than half a term, is considered - for tenure purposes - to have served a full term. The expiration dates of committee members' terms shall appear beside their names in the Nominating Committee report.

SECTION 3. EX OFFICIO MEMBERS: The moderator shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees except the Nominating Committee. The Director of Missions shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member of all organizations and committees.

SECTION 4. REPORTS: Written reports appearing in the annual minutes shall be limited to 300 words, except in cases involving statistical or historical data.

SECTION 5. MEETINGS

A. REGULARLY SCHEDULED: The Executive Committee shall regularly meet on the last Mondays of July, October, and January. The Annual Meeting shall regularly meet the last full week of April.

B. SPECIAL: Special meetings of the Association may be called only by the Administrative Council. The subject matter of special meetings shall be limited to the purpose stated in the call, which shall be communicated in writing to member churches at least two weeks prior to the date of the called meeting.

SECTION 6. RESOLUTIONS: Resolutions, having little power to accomplish good and considerable power to cause mischief, shall have no place in the proceedings of this Association. Expressions of gratitude, appreciation, or remembrance shall be handled as appropriate, but do not require resolutions.

SECTION 7. TENURE AND ELECTIONS: With the exception of staff and unless otherwise stated in these By Laws, all officers of the Association shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Association annually.

In performing its task, the Nominating Committee shall seek balance between ministers and laity. Balance between ministers and laity serving as Moderator and Vice Moderator is especially recommended.

SECTION 8. CALL AND HIRING OF THE DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS: When the need to find a new Director of Missions arises, the chairmen of the following committees shall serve as the search committee: Nominating, Finance, Constitution and By Laws, Membership, Personnel, Missions Development, Church Development, and Administrative Councils. The Secretary-Treasurer shall also serve on the search committee.

SECTION 9. CALL AND HIRING OF OTHER PAID STAFF: When the need to hire other paid staff arises, the Personnel Committee - following procedures set forth in the Policy Manual - shall take appropriate steps.

SECTION 10. VOLUNTARY SEPARATIONS OF ALL STAFF: All staff members who voluntarily resign their positions, shall give two weeks notice.

SECTION 11. ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR: The associational year shall begin May 1 and end April 30.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to the By Laws may be put to a vote at any Annual Meeting provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed amendments shall first be submitted in writing to the Association at the October meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. The Executive Committee shall, in turn and by majority vote, refer proposed amendments to the Constitution and By Laws Committee for study and recommendation.

C. Written copies of proposed changes coming out of committee shall be given to the Executive Committee at their January meeting.

D. Proposed amendments shall be presented at the first session of an Annual Meeting and voted on during a subsequent session. The session during which the vote is to be taken shall be stated at the time of initial presentation.

The same conditions apply to completely revised or re-written By Laws.

Any action taken on these By Laws shall require a majority vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

Policy Manual

ARTICLE I - ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTION

SECTION 1. The administrative officers of the Association are as follows: Moderator/President, Vice Moderator/Vice President, Clerk, Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Auditor, Historian, Parliamentarian, and Director of Missions.

SECTION 2. The MODERATOR/PRESIDENT - who may serve no more than two one year terms in succession - shall preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings of the Association. The Moderator/President also chairs the Administrative Council, and serves as an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association except the Nominating Committee. The Moderator/President shall, moreover, appoint a registration committee to serve at Annual and other meetings as needed. Further contact between the Moderator/President and member churches is encouraged.

SECTION 3. The VICE MODERATOR/VICE PRESIDENT shall, in the absence of or as called upon by the Moderator/President, preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings. The Vice Moderator/Vice President, moreover, serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 4. The CLERK shall annually send the Annual Church Profile to member churches at least two months before a specified due date; keep accurate minutes of Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings; supervise the printing and distribution of the annual book of reports; and keep on file the important documents and records of the Association. The Clerk shall also - upon the direction of the Executive Committee or Association meeting in annual session - sign documents, such as cooperative agreements. Finally, the Clerk serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 5. The SECRETARY-TREASURER shall receive and handle all funds over which the Association has stewardship. In discharging this responsibility, the Secretary-Treasurer shall deposit and disperse funds as directed by the Association; provide a financial report to the Association at Annual and Executive Committee meetings; and set up and maintain a bookkeeping system open to audit by any responsible person. The Secretary-Treasurer also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 6. The ASSISTANT SECRETARY-TREASURER shall take over the duties listed in Section 5 above in the event the Secretary-Treasurer is unable to perform them. The Assistant Secretary-Treasurer also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 7. The AUDITOR shall - as soon after April 30 as possible - audit the books of the Association. A report of this audit shall be provided to the Executive Committee meeting in July. The Auditor also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 8. The HISTORIAN shall collect and preserve data, documents, and artifacts of historical significance to the Association or its member churches. Data - drawn largely from the Annual Church Profile - shall be compiled in a written report to be presented annually to the Association. The Historian shall, moreover, serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 9. The PARLIAMENTARIAN shall counsel presiding officers of the Association in all matters related to following proper parliamentary procedure. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the basis of such counsel. The Parliamentarian also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 10. The DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS is the chief executive officer of the Association. Accountable to the Association through the Personnel Committee, the Director of Missions shall perform the following duties:

A. Oversee, evaluate, and endeavor to improve all ministries sponsored by the Association.

B. In close consultation with the Missions Development Council, discover mission needs, devise ministries targeting those needs, and enlist the personnel and resources required to carry out Christ-honoring ministry.

C. Assist the Church Development Council in planing training and ministry events de-signed to increase the effectiveness of association and local church ministries.

D. Cooperative with the Administrative Council of the Association to help member officers fulfill their duties in support of the mission of the Association.

E. Interpret and adapt the priorities, emphases, and work of the denomination to the Association and member churches; also, encourage cooperation with the denomination by member churches to the extent possible, consistent with principles of local church and associational autonomy under Christ.

F. Promote the work and witness of the Association both within the Association and in the larger community in which we live and serve.

G. Train ministerial staff search committees as requested.

H. Counsel church leaders as needed and to the extent possible, and mediate local church disputes as called upon.

I. Serve as an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association.

J. Supervise all paid staff and volunteers.

K. Carry out other duties as directed by the Association.

ARTICLE II - PROGRAMS

SECTION 1. The Association shall carry out its work through the following ongoing programs: Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Woman's Missionary Union, Brotherhood, Music, Youth, Church Media, Stewardship, Christian Life, Seminary Extension, Pastoral Ministries, and any other programs or ministries authorized by the Association through the Executive Committee or by messengers attending the Annual Meeting.

SECTION 2. Each program shall schedule and conduct quarterly meetings in order to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each program shall see to the training of its officers so these officers can assist in meeting the training needs of member churches.

SECTION 4. Each program - by attending to its area of concentration and specialization - shall endeavor to lead the Association to carry out its mission at the highest levels of performance to the glory of God.

SECTION 5. Working in cooperation with the Nominating Committee, each program - with the exception of Woman's Missionary Union - shall enlist and nominate its chief officers for presentation and election at the Annual Meeting. Any vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 6. The Woman's Missionary Union shall annually appoint a nominating committee from within its ranks. This committee shall develop its own report, which shall be presented to the associational nominating committee in time for review and referral to the Annual Meeting in April. Upon election by the Association, these officers shall serve terms of office corresponding to those of other program officers.

ARTICLE III - PROGRAM LEADERS AND THEIR DUTIES

SECTION 1. Believing the Bible to be the revealed truth of God and as such the basis for correct thinking and fruitful living, the SUNDAY SCHOOL DIRECTOR shall lead and encourage the churches of the Association to develop a strong Bible teaching ministry through the Sunday School. Specific duties of the Sunday School Director are as follows:

A. Assemble and equip an "assist team" that will offer age-graded training to the Sunday School teachers, workers, and officers of local churches.

B. Study to become expert in Sunday School work.

C. Promote Sunday School work throughout the Association.

D. Upon invitation, provide personal assistance to local churches desiring to develop or upgrade their Sunday School.

E. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

F. Prepare and present a report on Sunday School work to the Annual Meeting of the Association.

G. Serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 2. The VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL DIRECTOR shall lead member churches to schedule and conduct quality Vacation Bible Schools as an effective way of reaching and influencing people of all ages through the Word of God. Specific responsibilities of the Vacation Bible School director shall be as follows:

A. Assemble and equip an "assist team" that will offer age-graded training to Vacation Bible School teachers, workers, and officers.

B. In order to introduce new materials and motivate early preparation, plan and conduct an "early planning conference" for ministers and Vacation Bible School directors.

C. Plan and conduct one or more Vacation Bible School teacher-worker training clinics.

D. Promote Vacation Bible School - including mission and backyard Bible clubs - throughout the Association.

E. Tally attendance and other figures collected from Vacation Bible Schools held throughout the Association.

F. After Vacation Bible Schools are held, encourage local churches to carry out thorough outreach and evangelistic follow up.

G. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 3. The DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING DIRECTOR shall support the mission of the Association by promoting believer training and skill development in living the Christian life. Specific duties of the Discipleship Training director shall be as follows:

A. Promote the Great Commission emphasis of our Lord to "make disciples."

B. Be knowledgeable concerning the latest disciple training materials offered by the denomination, and acquaint member churches with these and other appropriate resources.

C. Offer training clinics to ministers and members of the laity.

D. Discover what disciple training approaches and models are working within the Association, and endeavor to replicate these approaches in other churches.

E. Serve as chairman of the Discipleship Training Council, and lead this council to develop a strategy for advancing believer development in our churches.

F. Serve on the Church Development Council.

G. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 4. In support of missions, the WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION DIRECTOR is responsible for promoting and leading WMU work in the Association. Specifically, the Woman's Missionary Union Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Having studied to understand WMU work herself, the Woman's Missionary Union Director communicates her knowledge to other WMU workers and churches personally and by scheduling appropriate training events.

B. Beyond overseeing age-graded WMU programming, the Woman's Missionary Union Director discovers real mission needs and challenges members to act to meet these needs.

C. In support of mission education and action, the Woman's Missionary Union Director stands ready to provide or recommend appropriate literature and other resources.

D. Serving as the chief executive officer of the associational WMU, the Woman's Missionary Union Director chairs the WMU Council and represents the WMU on the Missions Development Council.

E. The Woman's Missionary Union Director endeavors to start WMU work in any member church were such work is not already organized.

F. Being accountable to the Association, the Woman's Missionary Union Director brings a report to each Executive Committee meeting and to the Annual Meeting.

G. Annually this director submits an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

H. Finally, the Woman's Missionary Union Director seeks to maintain close ties with the state WMU director as a means of cooperation and coordination.

SECTION 5. In support of missions, the BROTHERHOOD DIRECTOR promotes and leads Brotherhood work in the Association. Specific responsibilities of the Brotherhood Director are as follows:

A. Interpret brotherhood work to the churches and associational leaders - giving emphasis to missions over organization.

B. Recruit men and boys to volunteer for mission trips and carry out mission projects.

C. Provide appropriate leadership training opportunities.

D. Endeavor to organize a Brotherhood in those churches that have none and strengthen Brotherhoods where they already exist.

E. Schedule fellowship or rallies for mission-minded men of the Association.

F. In the absence of an associational Royal Ambassador or Baptist Men's director, carry out the duties of these offices as well.

G. Serve as the chief executive officer of all Association Brotherhood work, and represent the Brotherhood on the Missions Development Council.

H. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 6. Working with the Brotherhood director, the ROYAL AMBASSADOR DIRECTOR shall oversee and lead the RA program of the Association. Specifically, the Royal Ambassador Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Lead in planning and conducting such activities as camping, camp crafts, conclaves, pine car derbys, and mission action projects.

B. Endeavor to establish Royal Ambassador chapters in every member church; also, to improve chapters already organized.

C. Plan and provide such training events as may be needed to equip Royal Ambassador leaders with the knowledge and skill required to do their job.

D. Organize, enlist members for, and chair a Royal Ambassador committee to assist in planning and implementing RA work in the Association.

E. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 7. Working with the Brotherhood director, the BAPTIST MEN'S DIRECTOR shall oversee and lead Baptist Men's work for the Association. Specific duties of the Baptist Men's director are as follows:

A. Plan and conduct mission action projects, men's rallies, fellowships, and training events as needed to carry forward an active Baptist Men's work in the Association.

B. Endeavor to establish a Baptist Men's work in every member church; also, to improve units already organized.

SECTION 8. The MUSIC DIRECTOR shall lead the music ministries of the Association. In carrying out this assignment, the Associational Music Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Provide inspirational music as called upon for all associational meetings.

B. Offer training to those involved in music ministries in member churches.

C. Be available to answer questions and provide information related to music ministries.

D. Appraise the budgetary needs of carrying out this assignment and request appropriate funding of the Finance Committee annually.

E. Set up any organization deemed useful in fulfilling these duties.

F. Serve on the Church Development Council.

G. Report to the Association.

SECTION 9. The YOUTH DIRECTOR shall develop, implement, and oversee an effective ministry to the youth residing within the Association. Specific duties of the Youth Director are as follows:

A. Support youth ministries already included in age-graded programs supported by the Association.

B. Chair a Youth Steering Committee, the function of which shall be to appraise the needs of our young people and develop ministries designed to meet those needs.

C. Serve on the Church Development Council and insure that youth ministries of suitable quantity and quality are scheduled.

D. Serve as a resource person in youth ministry to youth leaders on the local church level.

E. Request of the Finance Committee, annually, funding sufficient to carry out an effective youth ministry under the sponsorship of the Association.

F. Report to the Association.

SECTION 10. In developing a more literate and knowledgeable community of believers in the Association, the CHURCH MEDIA/LIBRARY DIRECTOR shall perform the following duties:

A. Oversee, administer, and develop the library housed in the associational center.

B. Cultivate contacts and relationships with media/library directors in member churches throughout the Association.

C. Offer assistance in starting media centers/libraries in member churches that have none.

D. Plan training events for librarians throughout the Association.

E. Serve on the Church Development Council.

F. Submit reports to the associational office and Church Media/Library Department of the state convention as requested.

G. In carrying out this assignment, seek funding from the Finance Committee annually.

H. Develop and lead any organization that may be judged helpful in discharging these duties.

I. Report to the Association.

SECTION 11. The STEWARDSHIP DIRECTOR shall endeavor to educate our people as to the needs of the world and biblical standards and teachings that guide us in responding appropriately to those needs. The person filling this position shall also seek to educate our people as to the special advantages involved in supporting missions cooperatively. Specific duties of this officer are as follows:

A. Keep the needs and resources required to carry out our mission commitments before the people.

B. Set specific, measurable, and attainable goals for supporting missions on the associational level and beyond.

C. In support of missions, promote faithful giving on the part of member churches.

D. Schedule such meetings, workshops, and conferences as may be judged helpful in following through with this commission.

E. Serve on the Church Development Council.

F. Request funding as needed, and report annually to the Association.

SECTION 12. The CHRISTIAN LIFE DIRECTOR shall endeavor to inform and educate us concerning the critical moral and ethical issues of our day; also, lead us to respond appropriately to these issues in at least the following ways:

A. Call attention to such issues as appropriate at regularly scheduled meetings of the Association.

B. Offer issues-oriented programs, workshops, and conferences to the churches.

C. Develop and maintain an inventory of applicable library/media resources for distribution and circulation.

D. Promote attendance at Christian life programming within the Association and beyond.

E. Request sufficient funding with which to carry out this mandate.

F. Report annually to the Association.

G. Serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 13. The SEMINARY EXTENSION DIRECTOR shall work to increase the level of theological education in our churches and to sharpen the skills of ministers and laity through use of resources provided by the Seminary Extension Division of the Southern Baptist Convention. In carrying out this assignment, this officer shall perform the following duties:

A. Order and make available, annually, booklets listing courses that may be taken through Seminary Extension.

B. Promote interest in taking Seminary Extension courses within the Association.

C. Poll member ministers to learn which subjects hold highest interest, and offer courses when justified by interest and willingness to commit to study.

D. Encourage churches to offer Seminary Extension classes within their membership.

E. Serve on the Church Development Council.

F. Request appropriate funding annually, and report to the Association.

SECTION 14. The PASTORAL MINISTRIES DIRECTOR shall become knowledgeable concerning pastoral care resources, and pass along this information to those who can use it in the Association. This officer shall also set up training events. In carrying out this assignment, the Pastoral Ministries Director shall give particular attention to the following aspects of this position:

A. Offer training to deacons.

B. Offer training to ministers.

C. Offer as much help as possible to members of the Association who may be suffering the ill effects of personal stress or crisis.

D. Request funding as appropriate, serve on the Church Development Council, and report to the Association.

SECTION 15. SENIOR ADULTS: The Senior Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop senior adult ministries. This chairman also serves on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 16. SINGLE ADULTS: The Single Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop single adult ministries. This chairman also serves on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 17. CHURCH SECRETARIES: The president of the church secretary's organization implements a program to inspire and train church secretaries. This president also serves on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 18. MINISTERS' CONFERENCE: The Ministers' Conference president leads the conference to achieve the goals it sets for itself. This president also serves on the Church Development Council.

ARTICLE IV - COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE - composed of up to ten messengers from churches holding full membership in the Association - shall meet the last Mondays of July, October, and January to hear reports, transact business, and respond to issues affecting the life and mission of the Association. The Executive Committee shall be the final decision-making body of the Association between Annual Meetings.

SECTION 2. The NOMINATING COMMITTEE - composed of nine members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall enlist the most qualified persons available to fill the various positions of service set forth in the By Laws. At the Annual Meeting in April the Nominating Committee shall present its main report. This report, if possible, shall include nominations for all positions of service named in the By Laws; also, nominations of persons enlisted to work on short term mission projects or to serve on program committees. In addition to presenting its main report at the Annual Meeting, the Nominating Committee shall fill vacancies that occur during the course of the associational year, subject to later approval by the Executive Committee. In performing this task, the Nominating Committee shall take care to protect the following rights of nominees and the Association:

A. All nominees shall be contacted and give consent before their names may be placed in nomination.

B. Messengers attending Executive Committee and Annual meetings retain the right to make nominations from the floor.

The chairman of the Nominating Committee shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 3. The ORDER OF BUSINESS AND PROGRAM PERSONNEL COMMITTEE - composed of the moderator, clerk, and music director - shall make arrangements as to where the Annual Meeting is to be held, who will take part on the program, and in what order the service will progress. In performing this assignment, the right of the Association to retain final authority over the program shall be protected in the following ways:

A. The proposed program shall be mailed to all pastors/churches and program personalities at least 30 days before the meeting.

B. The proposed program shall be presented for adoption early in the opening session, and may be modified by messengers as needed at any time.

SECTION 4. The EVANGELISM COMMITTEE - composed of three members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall develop and implement plans for reaching more people with the saving gospel of Jesus Christ through the ministries of the Association. All such plans shall be presented to the Executive Committee for final approval. The chairman shall serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 5. The FINANCE COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall annually review requests for funds presented by the various officers and committees of the Association. These requests shall be evaluated in light of available resources and strategic priorities, after which a proposed budget shall be developed. Once developed, proposed budgets shall be presented to the Association for approval in the following manner:

A. By January 1 the proposed budget shall be mailed to all member churches for distribution to their messengers.

B. The proposed budget shall be presented for questions and discussion at the January meeting of the Executive Committee.

C. Final adoption of the proposed budget shall occur at the Annual Meeting held in April.

In addition to developing a proposed budget, the Finance Committee shall promote support for the budget once adopted. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 6. The ORDINATIONS COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall, as requested by member churches, interview candidates in order to determine their suitability for ordination to the gospel ministry. Subjects such as candidates' conversion, call to the ministry, doctrinal convictions, giftedness for service, and attitude toward cooperative missions shall receive the attention of the committee during interviews. Following interviews, the committee shall recommend or decline to recommend ordination to the referring congregation. Out of respect for the autonomy of local churches, recommendations coming from the committee shall be advisory in nature and are not meant to replace, supersede, or interfere with the wishes of referring churches. The chairman shall serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 7. The CONSTITUTION AND BY LAWS COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term, shall receive or initiate for study and recommendation to the Association all proposed changes to the Constitution, By Laws, or Policy Manual. Proposed changes to the Constitution and By Laws shall be presented to the Association according to procedures set forth in the "amendments" articles of those documents. Changes to the Policy Manual will be effected by simple majority vote of the Association meeting in annual or executive session. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 8. The MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall receive and process applications for membership in the Association according to the procedure set forth in the Constitution, Article IV, Section 1. In taking steps to withdraw membership, the committee shall follow the procedure outlined in the Constitution, Article IV, Section 2. This committee, it should be noted, has the power to forward a positive or negative recommendation to the Association, but may not prevent the Association from acting as it chooses. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 9. The BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE - composed of three members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall oversee the upkeep, development, and use of our building and grounds. The responsibilities of this committee shall include exercising concern for the appearance, safety, and furnishings of associational property. The committee shall also be responsible for securing insurance and developing policies involved in the use of this property.

Proposals to upgrade or alter associational holdings shall likewise pass through this committee for evaluation and recommendations to the Executive Committee. In carrying out this assignment, the committee shall meet whenever the chairman or Director of Missions deems necessary, and is authorized to spend line item funds - assuming such funds are available - as required for any use already approved by the Association. Anticipating funding needs with which to maintain and develop the associational center and its grounds, the committee shall annually submit a request for such funds to the Finance Committee. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 10. The PERSONNEL COMMITTEE - composed of six (6) members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - acts as liason between ministerial staff, support staff, associational officers, and the Association. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

The Personnel Committee, acting in this fashion, shall carry out the following duties:

A. Working in cooperation with the Director of Missions, make recommendations to the Association concerning the hiring of all ministerial staff except the Director of Missions.

B. Hire support staff, either on the basis of direct interviews or upon recommendations received from appropriate officers or committees of the Association.

C. For all staff, develop and maintain up-to-date descriptions and corresponding terms of employment for inclusion in the Policy Manual subject to review by the Constitution and By Laws Committee and approval by the Association.

D. Monitor the compensation and benefit packages of all paid staff, giving special attention to such items as salary, insurance, retirement, vacations, holidays, sick leave, and working conditions.

E. Based on such considerations as job performance, salary/benefit packages offered by other associations, and the resources of this Association, make staff compensation recommendations to the Finance Committee at least annually.

F. Protect and enhance relationships of mutual respect, trust, and understanding between all staff and the Association.

G. Mediate disputes and communicate concerns about job performance as they arise involving any staff member or officer.

H. Discipline or dismiss support staff if warranted.

I. Refer to the Administrative Council any recommendation to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff, including the Director of Missions.

J. Remember, as appropriate, special days in the life of staff members and officers of the Association with tokens of affection and appreciation.

SECTION 11. The TRUSTEES/DIRECTORS shall handle all legal matters of the Association as directed by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

A. This board shall consist of three members, one of whom shall preferably be an attorney.

B. Board members shall serve three year rotating terms.

C. Having served three year terms, Trustees/Directors may succeed themselves only after a lapse of one year.

D. The chairman of this board shall serve on the Administrative Council.

Atlantic Baptist Association

One Hundred Fourteenth Annual Session

April 24, 1997
PARKVIEW BAPTIST CHURCH, MOREHEAD CITY

1. Mr. Arnie Harrell, Moderator, called the Business Session to order.
2. Rev. Ed Satterley led in prayer.
3. Mrs. Beth Hassell presented the Treasurer's Report. Mrs. Hassell made a motion that the report be received. The motion was approved.

4. Rev. Lee Ray Greene, Chairman of the Personnel Committee, made a motion that the Church Conflict Mediator position be established utilizing the job description and policy procedures on pages 9-10 in the Book of Reports. Comments were made by Rev. Keith Hamilton stating that this would be an extra tool God could use to keep unity. The motion carried. Rev. Greene made a motion that a ministry reimbursement line item be established for the Church Conflict Mediator for $2,500 in the 1997-1998 budget. The motion passed. Rev. Greene made a motion that Mr. Jack Sisson, Jr. be selected to fill this ministry position. The motion carried.

5. Mr. Sherrill Garner presented the proposed 1997-1998 budget. A motion was made to amend the budget on line item B7 Maintenance of Equipment and Property from $7,500 to $8,100. The motion carried. A motion was made to adopt the proposed budget on pages 6-8. The motion passed.

6. Rev. Jimmy Strole stated that Island Road Baptist Church is seeking membership in Atlantic Baptist Association. He made a motion that the Association receive this application for membership and forward it to the Membership Committee. Then the committee will begin the process outlined in the Associational guidelines. The motion carried.

7. Mrs. Dorothy Loftin of the Nominating Committee made a motion to adopt pages 2-5 in the Book of Reports. The motion was approved.

8. Dr. Curt Finch gave a report on the Mission Teams for the Resort Ministry. He shared that there are teenagers in North Carolina, Virginia, Kentucky, and Tennessee preparing to come to our beaches to minister on mission teams this summer. There are also teenagers coming to our beaches this summer while on vacation with their parents. He stated that they will interact. He urged us to pray for these teenagers and this summer's ministry.

9. Rev. Keith Hamilton stated that Dr. Myrle Swicegood could not be present but her report is printed in the Book of Reports on page 17.

10. Rev. Keith Hamilton thanked the associational staff for their hard work and dedication. He also thanked the volunteer associational team, including Moderator Arnie Harrell, for all they do in our association. He shared with us good news regarding work done through the association this past year. He spoke of the growth at Cherry Branch and Emerald Isle Mission churches. Over 1,000 eyeglasses were collected from our association for Swaziland. Vacation Bible School supplies and money for Bibles and medical supplies were collected for the Ukraine. He shared of the success of the Elijah Friends group and the Singles program. Yet, we still need churches in Brice's Creek and on Hwy. 24. He challenged every Christian to read through the Bible in 1999. Rev. Hamilton thanked Rev. Ray Whitby and the Constitution Committee for their hard work. He stated the association is healthy and moving forward.

11. Rev. Keith Hamilton recognized everyone who has served in an associational position in uninterrupted service for five years or more. He gave each person a gift certificate from Munden's Garden Center as a small token of the association's gratitude.

12. Moderator Arnie Harrell made a motion to approve the Book of Reports. The motion carried.

13. Rev. Jerry Smith, pastor of host church, Parkview Baptist, made comments regarding traffic procedures for departure from the parking lot after the meeting. Rev. Smith gave the benediction.

BROTHERHOOD

Report to the Association
1997

Our Association is seeing men everywhere getting involved in missions to help others. Several churches have organized or reorganized Baptist Men's and R.A. groups in 1996. Handyman Ministries have been active in several churches building ramps, making repairs, etc. We are involved in disaster relief work and with two major hurricanes, called many of our men and women to help. A feeding unit was set up at Cape Carteret Baptist Church after Bertha and thousands of meals were served every day for two weeks. When the disastrous Fran crossed eastern North Carolina, feeding units were set up in Wilmington, Goldsboro, and Kinston with our help. The men spent time in Jacksonville repairing the associational office and other needed places. As a result of this ministry and the leadership of L.D. Springle, that association started a recovery ministry. The week after Christmas found our recovery unit back in Jacksonville and Wilmington rebuilding barns and doing much needed repairs. This ministry is still not finished.

The water purification team was trained again in 1996 and some team members were used at Kure Beach after Hurricane Fran. The Recovery Unit visited two mission fairs and several churches heard about the work of Baptist Men firsthand.

Raymond Earp took three teams to the Ukraine continuing our partnership there. The June team not only helped to start a church, but also had six sessions of Bible School working with over 65 children. Raymond will be taking three teams in 1997 with our Association sponsoring the June-July team. They will be doing construction work, Bible School, medical and dental work. All of the 1997 teams are filled at this time.

Many in the Association helped to sponsor Alexander "Sasha" Skipnik, a young Ukrainian man, to the U.S. for a visit. Sasha has served for four years as an interpreter for Baptist Men's partnership in the Ukraine. While here he has spoken to churches in our Association and all over N.C. bringing the message of the churches in his country, his testimony, and thanking N.C. Baptist Men for their help. He has added an extra special blessing to our work here in the Association and throughout N.C. Thank you for your prayer support and many love offerings for Sasha's work. More people are volunteering for mission work in our Association and all over N.C. than ever before as a result of his work.

Churches getting involved in one or more of the Baptist Men's projects are seeing growth and leadership among younger men, and the older generations are being used to the fullest and loving every minute. Join us in this special "Hands on" ministry for the Lord. Call Raymond Earp for information (919)728-3070.

Mr. Raymond Earp

BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1997

The grounds were kept by William Miranda and Sons. The associational center was cleaned by Mrs. Pat Nichol of Havelock. Finally, vinyl trim was added to the exterior of the building. New blinds were placed in the conference room. Several decorating touches were added by Mrs. Edna Liles. The center has been well kept during this past year.

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1997

Our new constitution is continuing to provide the Association with opportunities to more effectively respond to needs in the Association. Thank you for your assistance during this transition time.

Dr. Don Hadley

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

Report to the Association
1997

1996-97 was a very exciting year for the Association. God certainly blessed this year as many dreams became reality. At least 600 people were in attendance during the Executive Committee Christian Leadership training events. This many people attending associational training events is almost unheard of in today's society.

There were several ministry events that occurred during the past year that were outside the established "program" of the Association. First, a six member team from various churches participated in revivals in our partnership country of Swaziland. A number of decisions and new commitments were made in this African nation as a result of this partnership outreach. Also, this past year saw the start of a "behind the scenes" ministry concerning racial reconciliation in the New Bern area. The Association, along with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, partnered with retired Chaplain J. C. Williams to begin this ministry. A solid foundation has been laid towards helping heal racial barriers among believers.

Next, the Association sponsored a preteen camp to help prepare adolescents for those traumatic teenage years. It was held at Camp Truett in the mountains of North Carolina. The focus was on spiritual and physical development among preteens.

Beginning in the fall, a group of Sunday School Directors and Ministers of Education meet on a monthly basis to discuss Sunday School growth. This brown bag luncheon is open to all Sunday School Directors and staff members. The results have been encouraging.

Finally, new church starts must continue to be a priority of Atlantic Baptist Association. Overall, about 50 percent of our population is unchurched. One of the most effective ways to reach the non-Christian person is by starting new churches. McCotter Boulevard Baptist Church is to commended this year for beginning Bible studies in the community of Cherry Branch. It is my prayer that God may use this Bible study to begin a new work in this area of the Association.

Let me say again, thank you for the privilege of serving as your Director of Missions this past year. Atlantic Baptist Association continues to be the best association.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rev. Keith Hamilton

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING

Report to the Association
1997

This year the Atlantic Baptist Association continued to provide effective support to local churches in the area of Discipleship Training. We exist to assist churches in equipping its members in growing in Christ.

A number of excellent new products have been produced by the Baptist Sunday School Board to assist churches in conducting more extensive Discipleship Training programs. Many of these teaching kits include video tapes, audio tapes, computer software, etc., making them unaffordable for many local churches. By stocking them at the Association, we have been able to make more products available to local churches at no cost to you. Such new products include: Jesus on Leadership: Developing Servant Leaders, Heaven: Your Real Home by Joni Eareckson Tada, Making Love Last Forever by Gary Smalley, Serving God—Discovering and Using Your Spiritual Gifts by Dr. Ken Hemphill, Seven Seasons—Challenging Men to Godly Living. Finally released, the new, revised MasterLife. Come to the Association office to look at this material or to check out any of the products available. Next year look for such teaching helps as: Experiencing God—Youth Video Series; Parenting by Grace; Meeting Needs, Sharing Christ; Master Your Money; Truth Matters; etc.

Though it is premature to advertise as an existing ministry, the Discipleship Training Director, in coordination with the Family Life Ministries Coordinator, has put together a team to explore the ministry of support groups offered broadly at the associational level. We hope to have a facilitator training program in place by summer and to enlist sponsor churches to participate. We plan to provide Christ-centered support groups for people struggling with specific life issues throughout the association.

Finally, we will continue to take advantage of the tremendously successful quarterly Church Leader Training events conducted in conjunction with the Executive Committee Meetings.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rev. Larry Wright

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1997

The Association's Evangelism Committee led in conducting the fifth Spiritual Growth Conference. We continue to hear from pastors and lay people concerning the blessing and challenges received from these conferences. This year's conference was hosted by Parkview Baptist Church in Morehead City. The featured speakers were: Dr. Jerry Rankin, President of our Foreign Mission Board, Dr. Thad Dowdle, Vice President of Fruitland Bible Institute, Hendersonville, North Carolina, and special music by Toby and Susan Frost. Toby is Associate to Mass Evangelism at the Home Mission Board and Susan is a noted speaker at women's conferences. We had the honor of hearing the McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church choir on Monday evening and Parkview Baptist choir on Tuesday evening. It was also a blessing to have Rev. John Thompson, Associate Pastor Tabernacle Baptist Church/Associational Music Director to lead our congregational music.

We are already in the planning stage for the 1998 and 1999 Spiritual Growth Conference. The 1998 Conference will be February 16-17. Please pray with us that the attendance will continue to grow and most of all, that a spark of revival fire will begin. It is our desire to see this conference become a springboard for every church in our association to engage in a local revival effort.

The Association Prayer Ministry needs more churches involved. We are grateful to those individuals who represent their church in this vital ministry. There is not anything we need to be more involved in than prayer. Our prayer ministry will not only affect our individual lives/churches, but what we attempt to do corporately. If you have prayer requests or praise, call 447-PRAY!

Our committee is open to any suggestions that you might have for us in order to prepare our churches for more involvement in the area of evangelism.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

July 29, 1996
TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH, NEW BERN

1. Reverend John Thompson led the body in singing "Sweet Sweet Spirit."
2. Mr. Arnie Harrell, Moderator, called the meeting to order.
3. Rev. Lee Ray Greene opened the meeting with prayer.
4. The minutes were approved as presented.
5. Mrs. Beth Hassell gave the Treasurer's Report. A motion was made to adopt the year end financial statement. The motion carried. A second motion was made to adopt the current financial statement. This motion was also approved.
6. Mr. Raymond Earp shared the Baptist Men's Report. He informed the body that 33,500 meals were served from the disaster feeding unit at Cape Carteret during the clean up from Hurricane Bertha. Raymond encouraged churches to get involved in Baptist Men's ministries.
7. Mary Lou Harrell, Julia Hudson, and Raymond and Anita Earp recently returned from a mission trip to the Ukraine. Forty-two children were involved in Vacation Bible School there. Raymond expressed his appreciation to the churches for their financial support in helping provide a roof for a church. Volunteers are needed for their trip planned in October.
8. Keith Hamilton spoke of the monthly Singles' Gathering led by Mrs. Eleanor Jones. They are averaging fifty to sixty people each month. Keith expressed his appreciation to the associational staff. The congregation viewed a three minute news clip which was shown on Channel 7. Three Forks Baptist Church sent a mission team to brick Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church. Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church plans to be in their new building by the end of August.
9. There was no miscellaneous business.
10. Mr. Arnie Harrell recognized Reverend Lee Ray Greene, Chairman of the Personnel Committee. Reverend Greene recognized Reverend Keith Hamilton and his family on their tenth year of service in Atlantic Baptist /Association. A money tree with approximately $2,200 from the churches was given to Reverend Hamilton. Keith expressed his love and appreciation to the Association.
11. Reverend Mike Huffman closed the meeting with prayer.

12. A reception for Reverend Hamilton and his family was held in the Family Life Center following the meeting.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

October 28, 1996
FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, HAVELOCK

1. Mr. Arnie Harrell opened the meeting with prayer.
2. The minutes were approved as presented.
3. Mr. Max Miller brought the Treasurer's Report. He expressed appreciation to the churches for their continued financial support. A motion was made to adopt the report. It was approved.
4. Reverend Vern Gilmer, chairman of the Missions Development Council, made the following motion:
   a) Recognizing the growing pressures upon the military family and the increased deployment of our troops, the Missions Development Council recommends for the Association to assist at least one Havelock area church in the establishment of a Mother's Day Out Program.
   b) That the Association ask the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Military Ministries Department, to assist in the start up costs of a Mother's Day Out Program in Havelock with a grant of $5,000.
   c) Recognizing the large number of single marines and special needs of our military community, the Missions Development Council recommends the Association assist in whatever means possible to encourage a Havelock church to build a multipurpose facility for the military community to help provide for their recreation needs as an outreach tool.

The motion was unanimously adopted.

5. Reverend Keith Hamilton presented Mrs. Kim Pittman with a certificate for Advanced Certification in the Secretaries' Personal Enrichment Program.
6. Mr. Leland Garner, chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee, made a motion that the outside trim of the Associational Center be covered in vinyl siding by Quality Construction, (James Godley), Havelock, at a cost of $2,500. The money will come out of the State Mission gifts line item under designated saving accounts. The motion carried.
7. Under miscellaneous business, Dr. Curt Finch informed the congregation that Emerald Isle Baptist Church had recently purchased property and was in the process of raising funds to build a building. Mr. Raymond Earp introduced Mr. Sasha Skriprik. Sasha is from the Ukraine and has served in the North Carolina Baptist Partnership as an interpreter for mission teams. Reverend Keith Hamilton expressed his appreciation to the Association for their support and encouragement. Mr. Raymond Earp reminded Baptist Men about the roof raising at Huggins Memorial Baptist Church on November 2. Dr. Randy Sherron informed the body about a new Caregivers' Day Out Ministry for Alzheimer's patients at First Baptist Church, Morehead City.
8. Reverend Keith Hamilton led in the Benediction.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

January 27, 1997
CROSSROADS BAPTIST CHURCH, NEW BERN

1. Reverend Terry McInnis opened the meeting with prayer.
2. Mr. Max Miller brought the Treasurer's Report. He reported that this year's support from churches has increased 6% above the support given at this same time last year. It was approved.
3. Mr. Bob Lawler gave a report regarding the Seamen's Center. A motion was made to adopt the report. It was approved.
4. Reverend Lee Ray Greene recognized the outstanding work of Reverend Keith Hamilton as Director of Missions and acknowledged the dedication of the entire staff of the Association. He also read the Church Conflict Mediator job description. This will be voted on at the next meeting.
5. Reverend Buford Lewis brought the Finance Committee Report. A motion was made to amend the 1996-1997 budget on line item F12 from $400.00 to $675.00. The motion carried. The entire budget will be voted on at the next meeting.
6. Reverend Keith Hamilton presented certificates of completion of the Association's Interim Training Program to Dick Barber, Robert Biggerstaff, John Pierce, and Dennis Brown.
7. Reverend E.J. Hines, Director of Missions of the New River Baptist Association, made a special presentation to: Dr. Jack Hinton, Mr. L.D. Springle, Mr. Charles West, Mr. Jim Koebele, Mr. Max Miller, and Mr. Charles Gupton on behalf of their aid in the clean-up, repairing, and renovation of the New River Baptist Center facility from damage caused by Hurricane Fran on September 5, 1996.
8. Under miscellaneous business, Reverend Jerry Smith informed the congregation of the Fifth Annual Spiritual Growth Conference of the Atlantic Baptist Association, to be held at Parkview Baptist Church on February 24-25. Dr. Myrle Swicegood announced the availability of the "Baby Go to Sleep Tapes," one free per church. Tapes may be purchased for $7.00 each.
9. Reverend Ed Satterley led in the Benediction.

FAMILY LIFE MINISTRIES

Report to the Association
1997

The visionary leadership which caused this position to be created has been validated. There is no doubt that Association ministers are seeking to meet the diverse needs of individuals and families in their congregation and they need help. This one dimension of the pastor's job, family and individual special needs ministry, could take their full time, especially in the larger churches.

I try to provide a listening ear and an extra hand for the ministers of our Association. My primary objective as Coordinator of Family Life Ministries is to determine what community resources are available, find Counselors that can meet special needs, and to know of available alternatives for church families in stress. Having one central point of referral helps ministers to be more efficient in their time management while aiding families in difficult decision making.

This is how we work together: One of our ministers may call about a family with a special need. He describes the situation and we together discuss alternatives. Together, we decide on what appears to be the best alternative. If special services are required, I make the contacts to determine if the needed resources are available, or I suggest an appropriate Counselor. Ministers and their families have their own needs as well. An uninvolved person may be able to listen more objectively and suggest alternatives that may not be readily evident, so I provide this help for ministers and their family members.

Confidentiality is a prime requirement in this position. I am the only person who answers the 24 hour per day CARE Line: 633-2273, takes the recorded messages or receives the FAX.

This reporting period covers major activities from mid March 1996 to mid March 1997. During this time 29 individuals and 21 families through the CARE line have received my direct assistance. Most of these have been related to crisis situations which may have required one to ten contacts with a short period or over several months. As word spreads of the availability of this ministry, more individuals have made direct calls and there are more calls from the military community, members of other denominations and some who have no Church affiliation.

In addition, I have led a special interest session for each of the quarterly Association meetings and written an article for the monthly Associational Newsletter. I have been honored to be keynote speaker for The Baptist Women's Retreat, and other events. I have provided leadership for two weekend retreats for women and served on the Board of the Chrysalis Counseling Center. Special needs of youth have been provided for through assistance in preparing for interview, scholarship applications, telephone contacts, and letters of recommendation. Regular contacts with the Kennedy Home, the Masonic Home for Children, Tar Heel Challenge, the Juvenile Court System and other community resources are essential to the effectiveness of this position.

Arrangements for nine ministers and their families to attend the Gary Smalley Seminar in Hampton, Virginia, the availability of "Baby Go to Sleep" tapes and a free sample of the tape for each Association Church nursery have been facilitated.

You enabled me to attend the International Women's Conference and stimulated me to stay up to date professionally. Prayer time and Bible study supplemented by journal reading and books in the field of Human Development are essential to this ministry. Attending monthly ministers meetings and serving on some of their committees keeps me in touch with my primary audience.

Prevention is far less painful and far less costly than cure. Through education we seek to prevent individual and family problems, through linkage with needed resources we seek to soften the path of those in trouble and facilitate the home mission work of our Father. I thank you for the privilege of serving in this way.

Respectfully Submitted,
Dr. Myrle Swicegood

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1997

The 1996-97 Finance Committee has completed a review of the Association's financial records and operating procedures for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1995 and ending April 30, 1996.

The scope of the review covered an examination of the Association's minutes, quarterly payroll taxes, and the prior audit report. Included in the examination was the handling of cash receipts and disbursements, including a review of canceled checks and deposit slips from two randomly selected months. Verification was made that the premiums on the Association's liability insurance coverage had been paid. Based on the assumption that these samplings represent the condition of all records and procedures for the fiscal year, we feel there is no need for further inspection.

In summary, the Finance Committee believes that all monies received by the Association have been properly handled and accounted for, and that proper procedures for the disbursement of all funds have been faithfully followed.

The staff and officers of the Association are to be commended for keeping the financial records of the Association's ministry efforts up-to-date, easy to understand, available for review, and above reproach. The churches of Atlantic Baptist Association thank you.

Finance Committee
Rev. Buford R. Lewis, Chairman

HISTORIAN

Report to the Association
1997

In the poem entitled, "A MISSIONARY," the closing phrase reads, "If you are not a missionary, then you're a mission field." We feel that our Association can claim the title of both. We have several areas of need and ministry with our diverse population which is brought in by the sprawling military installations, our stretching Sea Coast, Resort Areas and Beaches, as well as several Industrial Plants. The Seamen's Center is a Foreign Mission Field brought to our very door. Throughout the last one hundred thirteen years the many mission endeavors and enterprises bear proof that our Association is indeed a Missionary.

Last year we had two overseas mission trips. A team of ministers and one layman went to Swaziland in May. Several of our men and women went to the Ukraine in June. This team carried a gift of $750.00 from First Baptist Church, New Bern, for a roof on a new church. A group of youth and their leaders from Morehead City went to Marion, VA, in July to work in construction and home repair for the elderly and indigent families through Project Crossroads. The Acteens Activators from Colony went on a two week trip to Bostwick and Bogart, Georgia. They led in an associational children's camp and worked in a local crisis center. First Baptist, New Bern, sent a team to Atlanta, Georgia, in July to conduct Backyard Bible Clubs. Teresa Garner of Newport was able to go on a mission trip to Russia. Bogue Banks had eighteen people go to Guatemala in January. They helped build a church and led in evangelistic outreach. The church at Newport didn't send a team anywhere but they sent their prayers to a muslim country. They became prayer partners with our missionaries in Yemen.

New church buildings and facilities are always a sign of growth. Neuse River began a new education unit, six classrooms, nursery and handicap bathrooms in April. Huggins held a groundbreaking ceremony for a new Fellowship Hall. Crossroads dedicated the new Worship Center on September first with a Victory Celebration. Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church dedicated their new church, Sunday afternoon, October 6. Parkview began meeting in their new educational facilities in November and dedicated the new Sanctuary January 26. Smyrna dedicated a new educational building and fellowship hall in October. First Baptist, New Bern, purchased 1.06 acres adjacent to Emerald Plantation Shopping Center for Emerald Isle Church. "Hats Off" to the ladies at Davis who raised funds and remodeled the fellowship hall, kitchen, bathrooms and other areas.

Two of our churches reached the Century Mark this year, Atlantic and South Creek. Since they are both located on or near waterways that tells us something of the travel one hundred years ago. Atlantic celebrated all year long and held a Centennial Service on November 3. When you visit the Sanctuary at South Creek you step back in time. It is virtually unchanged. Its quiet simplicity gives you a feeling of reverence and awe. They celebrated on May 5, 1996.

Many of our churches had homecomings and observed anniversaries from Bogue Banks' eleventh to Beaufort's one hundred forty-fifth. We rejoice that two of our Resort Area churches observed anniversaries. Bogue Banks is eleven years old and Cape Carteret celebrated nineteen years in October. Colony had a Victory Celebration with a Note Burning Ceremony. Spring Garden published a Centennial History Book written by Mrs. Jean Woolard.

"Church Activities" are not usually newsworthy, but the Women On Mission Circle of Oriental Church hit the "Big Time." USA WEEKEND chose them among other groups for mention because of their work on last year's "Make a Difference Day," October 28th. They made cheer packages for newcomers to Oriental to make them more welcome and for people who were confined to their homes. The women put together 79 packages in two weeks. Each package had on it the name of the church and the recipient's name. Besides national recognition, the First Baptist Church, Oriental, received a one hundred dollar check from the Sun Journal, New Bern, North Carolina, for its work.

This was a special year. We celebrated the tenth anniversary of our Director of Missions. Keith Hamilton has led us in ten glorious years of achievement in service and missions. At the Association's Executive Committee Meeting of July 29 at Temple Baptist Church, he was presented with a plaque and a Money Tree Love Offering. We are grateful for his dedicated and dynamic leadership.

Not so special was the resignation of Mrs. Kim Pittman, Associational Administrative Assistant. Her service to our Association for the last six years was superb. We wish her and her family Godspeed as they go to other fields of endeavor for the Lord.

We had two unwelcome visitors this year. Hurricane Bertha came in July and Fran came in September. Our area was a direct hit from both of them and their fury was disastrous. Disaster Teams came to serve meals, to bring comfort and to help clean up some of the destruction. Several members of our Association are on the Water Purification Team to help operate the N.C. Baptist State Conventions purification equipment.

Every year our people find new ways to minister. The R.A.'s at Pollocksville tended a garden and donated vegetables to the Soup Kitchen in New Bern. The ladies at McCotter Boulevard are baking bread to present to first time guests as a welcome gift.

Much is being done to strengthen the relationship with our African American Churches. First Baptist, New Bern, hosted the area's annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Service, January 20th. Colony Church had a joint service with Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church on, "Race Relations" Sunday. First Missionary Baptist, an African American Church in New Bern, is conducting Worship Services in the Chapel at First Baptist. Their church structure is in bad repair and not suitable for services. The following article written by Keith Hamilton was published in the Biblical Recorder, January 11, 1997, "GROUP STRIVES FOR RACIAL UNITY." Many people have dreams about what they like to do, but only a few people transform those dreams into reality. Dr. Thomas Denton, Pastor of First Church, New Bern, is a man with a vision. He had a vision of dealing with the issue of racism and prejudice among Christians and non-Christians in the New Bern area. This was an issue that needed more than window dressing.

Out of Denton's vision, God provided an answer to prayer in the ministry of Captain J. C. Williams, a retired Navy Chaplain.

Williams had recently retired as command chaplain for the station chapel at Cherry Point Marine Corps Air Station. He was the perfect candidate to lead this new ministry. Funding was made available from the Baptist State Convention, the Atlantic Association, and local churches, to employ Williams on a part-time basis. Williams' task was to bring together a core group of ministers of color for the purpose of racial reconciliation.

Six months into this new ministry, the results have been beyond anyone's dreams—including Thomas Denton's. Williams was the key in contacting and bringing an equal number of white and African American pastors together to form a reconciliation core group. The natural thing would have been for the core group to plan a big celebration event for the community to see pastors of color worshipping together. This approach has been used before, but once the meeting was over, the relationships would wither.

The reconciliation core determined that its approach would be different. Its mission statement became the centerpiece of cohesiveness.

This mission statement laid the foundation for the core group to develop a bond of trust and respect. As a result, a prayer partner ministry has been started which consists of one white and one African-American minister partnered together. The core group has held community praise services and other exciting trust-building events together to publicly celebrate the group's unity in Christ. In fact, more than 200 people attended a community praise service hosted by Tabernacle Church, New Bern, where Jack Hinton is Pastor. Two hundred people may not seem like very many, but considering it was the day after Hurricane Fran visited the area, it was quite a miracle.

Many other wonderful things are happening because of one man's vision of racial reconciliation. In a very real way, the outlook is encouraging news toward real Christian brotherhood.

Time and space do not suffice for us to record on paper all of the activities and ministries that go on daily in and through our Association. But our Heavenly Father sees every act of mercy and every deed of kindness and gives His nod of approval to His faithful servants.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1997

The membership of the Island Road Baptist Church seeks to be a participating member of the Atlantic Baptist Association in its endeavor of promoting the gospel in this area and in other areas.

It is our desire to join in the corporate venture of the membership of the Atlantic Baptist Association and share in its work through monetary and individual means.

We look forward to hearing from you and the Executive Committee regarding this matter.

Co-Laborers Together,
James Strole, Pastor

If the Association receives this application for membership and forwards it to the Membership Committee, then the committee will begin the process outlined in the following Associational guidelines.

Associational Guidelines for Membership:

The Association shall, in turn, receive as information and forward such applications to the Membership Committee for study and recommendation.

Upon receiving referrals of membership applications from the Association, the Membership Committee shall - over a one year period - take appropriate steps to determine whether applicants evidence suitable compatibility with the Association in spirit and doctrine.

Following this one year review, the Membership Committee shall report a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant watchcare status.

The Association shall then decide whether to grant watchcare status - a status that carries with it the same rights and privileges as full members with the exception of voting and holding office.

A two-thirds vote of ballots cast shall be required to grant watchcare status.

After observing churches received under watchcare for one year, the Membership Committee shall bring a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant full membership.

A vote to grant full membership shall also require a two-thirds favorable vote of ballots case.

Respectfully Submitted,
Membership Committee

MISSION DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

Report to the Association
1997

Atlantic Baptist Association has a heart for missions. Missions must always be at the forefront of our Association. An Association is never really complete until it becomes a mission-minded fellowship. Through the Association's Mission Development Council, missions become one of the center platforms for the Association to be involved.

"Start something new" could easily be the theme for Atlantic Baptist Association's Mission Development Council this past year. The Council met in special session to consider the possibilities of new church starts in our Association. There were primarily four church starts that needed to be developed. First, Cherry Branch was slated as a possibility. McCotter Boulevard Baptist Church, Havelock, has already started having home Bible studies in this new community. Second, to begin a Spanish speaking congregation within our Association is a goal. There are a large number of Hispanics now living within the boundaries of the Association. Third, due to the rapid expansion along Highway 24 in Carteret, there is a need for another church start in that location. Finally, there is a continual need for a new church start in the Brice's Creek area southeast of New Bern. The Association must be about "starting something new" for our Lord.

Also, the Association is considering starting a church planting institute. This would help equip lay people in starting new churches within our Association. The Council was also involved in mission trips outside our Association by sponsoring mission trips to Swaziland, South Africa, and the Ukraine. God is continuing to work through these partnership mission projects.

The Association continues to be involved in the ongoing support of the Seaman's Center, Crisis Pregnancy Centers, and existing churches.

We are also encouraged with the number of responses from member churches to the mission opportunities listed in the Associational newsletter. Coats, shoes, Vacation Bible School pictures, health kits and other tangible mission projects are collected constantly through the Associational Resource Center. God has certainly blessed our Association who has then, in turn, blessed others with what He has entrusted to us.

MUSIC

Report to the Association
1997

WHAT A GREAT ASSOCIATION we are in! In my lifetime, I have worked in four associations and this just has to be the greatest! When we have workshops, associational meetings, minister's meetings, or whatever, we have a good time in the Lord. Everyone seems to just sing right out and let the Lord know that they love Him. This is what it is all about.

Keep up the good work in your churches. Always remember to let your choir director, song leader, pianist, and organist know how much you appreciate them. From time to time....do something "special" for them. Have a reception or just a special flower. They do a lot of work that the people of the church never see.

Try to have a "choir" recognition day about once a year. Those people come out to regular practice...extra practice...work at home... and most of the time have about four or five other jobs in the church.

Let's all continue to give Rev. Hamilton our support and sing praises to the Lord every opportunity we get. People can look at your face and know if you really do love Jesus. Sing with excitement! Sing with gusto! Sing with love in your heart!

Musically Yours,
Rev. John Thompson

ORDINATION COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1997

Your Ordination Committee met twice during the year to hear and counsel with men who were recommended for consideration. On January 6, 1997, David Pierce, a member of Temple Baptist Church, had been called as pastor of the Atlantic Missionary Baptist Church. The committee recommended that Temple ordain Mr. Pierce. On January 29, 1997, the committee met with Jack Bowen, upon request of First Baptist Church, Morehead City. Mr. Bowen was recommended for ordination and has been called as pastor of the South Creek Missionary Baptist Church. Subsequently, both men have been ordained to the Gospel Ministry.

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1997

The 1996 year has been a busy one for the Personnel Committee of the Atlantic Baptist Association. We are pleased to have such qualified, dedicated and ministry-minded staff for this great association.

Our hearts were saddened as Mrs. Kim Pittman left as Administrative Assistant after serving for six years. Her outstanding ministry here left a great void of which God once again proved faithful in directing us to Mrs. Debra Bledsoe. She has taken up the torch and is doing a wonderful job.

We are also blessed to have Mrs. Beth Hassell as our bookkeeper. This new position has proven to be very beneficial and a great asset to all of our ministry staff. Beth has come on board and far exceeded our expectations.

The Atlantic Baptist Association continues its vision for growth as we look forward to adopting a Church Conflict Mediator position. We hope this will be approved and implemented very soon.

We are pleased with the adoption of our association's first Personnel Manual for full and part-time staff. These general policies will help clarify and communicate the expected performance for all of our staff.

God has blessed this association with Rev. Keith Hamilton, Dr. Curt Finch, Dr. Myrle Swicegood, Mrs. Beth Hassell, and Mrs. Debra Bledsoe. To God be the glory for the great things He has done and continues to do now and in our great future.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rev. Lee Ray Greene

The following three motions were approved unanimously by the messengers to the annual meeting on April 24, 1997:

I. The Personnel Committee moves that the Church Conflict Mediator ministry position be established utilizing the following job description and policy procedures::

Church Conflict Mediator Job Description

The Church Conflict Mediator is accountable to the Association through the Director of Missions and Personnel Committee. This is a part time position. The Church Conflict Mediator will discharge the following duties:

1. Educate churches and church members as to the mediation process and appropriate steps needed to avoid conflict and disputes.
2. Mediate local church disputes as called upon.
3. Counsel as to steps needed to resolve conflicts which may arise within a given church.
4. Conduct surveys on request of a pastor or deacon body to determine the extent and intensity of conflict in a given church.
5. Make recommendations to the church for options to resolve crises.
6. Meet with church congregations to explain the role of the mediator in requested actions, and their role in dispute resolutions.
7. Provide follow up action or referrals to heal the problem and prevent future disputes or crises from arising.
8. Maintain absolute confidentiality as to all activity, reporting only to the Director of Missions.
9. Perform other duties related to mediation as requested by the Director of Missions.

Church Conflict Mediator Policy Procedures

1. The Church Conflict Mediator will work in conjunction with the Director of Missions in consultation of church conflict issues.
2. The Church Conflict Mediator can be contacted directly or through the associational office.
3. The Matthew 18 principle will be the basis of this ministry. If a brother has an offense against another, then he is to settle that matter one on one. Then if it is still unresolved, take a witness. Next, if it is still unresolved, then bring the matter before the church. This will be a generally accepted principle for conflict mediation.
4. The Church Conflict Mediator and Director of Missions will speak with one voice, a united front.

5. Church wide use of the associational Church Conflict Mediator will only be done at the request of the deacon body and pastor or their designated appointees.
6. Church wide church conflict mediation will be done on a per fee basis to underwrite this ministry.
7. Confidentiality will be held in the strictest sense of the word with only the Director of Missions being informed of the action of the Church Conflict Mediator.
8. Ongoing educational training will be provided for the Church Conflict Mediator.
9. The emphasis of this ministry will be on prevention of church conflicts.
10. The Church Conflict Mediator will not become an issue in the church conflict. If the Mediator becomes the issue, then he is to step out of the conflict immediately.
11. The Church Conflict Mediator has the freedom to make recommendations and give input into solutions to the church in conflict.

II. Also, the personnel and finance committees move that a ministry reimbursement line item be established for the Church Conflict Mediator for $2,500 in the 1997-1998 Budget.

III. Finally, the Personnel Committee moves that Mr. Jack Sisson, Jr. be selected to fill this ministry position.

RESORT MINISTRY

Report to the Association
1997

During the summer of 1996 we welcomed five resort ministry teams to our area. These teams were from Virginia, Tennessee, and North Carolina. It was a challenging year for resort ministry in that the Olympics in Atlanta drew many teams that would normally work in resort ministry, and the hurricanes caused some schedule changes. Still, it was a very good summer, and many people's lives were touched by this ministry.

As of the time of this report in March, we have seven teams which have chosen to serve in our area for the summer of 1997, and others are still considering coming. It looks like a full summer as these teams provide backyard Bible clubs and lead worship throughout our coastal communities. I look forward to working with the fine Christians who will share the good news of Christ through resort ministry this year.

Respectfully Submitted,
Dr. Curt Finch, Resort Teams Coordinator

SECRETARIES' CONFERENCE

Report to the Association
1997

The church secretaries meet once a quarter to share ideas, encourage one another, and educate ourselves.

Our current officers are:

President - Mrs. Sue Cline
Vice-President - Mrs. Cathy Adair
Secretary - Mrs. Brenda Jones
Historian - Mrs. Lynn Gilmette

This year we had a very informative training session with Mr. Jack Sisson on "Time Management," hosted a representative from the Seaman's Center in Morehead City, and made lighthouse ornaments that were given to the pastors in honor of Boss' Day.

Six ladies went to the state conference at Ridgecrest for three days in November. Thanks to Tom Jordan and Temple Baptist Church for the transportation. This is quite an experience that we wish all the secretaries in our Association could enjoy.

Mrs. Debbie Gibson, Secretary at Tabernacle, was elected as Vice-President to the North Carolina Southern Baptist Secretaries Association for the next two years. She would like us all to be involved with her and will let us know what we can do to help.

All churches in the Association are encouraged to send their secretaries (paid or volunteer) to our quarterly meetings which are listed on the Association calendar. We learn from each other as well as from the programs presented.

Respectfully Submitted,
Mrs. Sue Cline

SEMINARY EXTENTION

Report to the Association
1997

The Seminary Extension Department of the Southern Baptist Convention offers more than 70 courses that can be taken either for college credit or noncollege credit. These courses are divided into three major study areas: Biblical Studies, Theological-Historical Studies, and Ministry Studies. Among courses offered under Ministry Studies is "Ministry with Military Personnel" which - because the Cherry Point Marine Corps Air Station is located in our Association - may hold some local interest.

This past year your chairman ordered and distributed copies of the latest Seminary Extension catalog to all churches holding membership in the Association.

Looking to the future, please let the Director of Missions or me know what courses you would like to see taught at the Associational Center. Also, consider offering Seminary Extension classes through your local church.

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES

Report to the Association
1997

The Associational year 1996-1997 continued to be a fruitful year for Senior Adult Ministries within the Association.

At least one new Senior Adult Ministry (Group) was started by McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church during the past year and continues to grow in membership and ministries for the Lord. Many more new groups and ministries need to be started during the coming year. The need is great and continues to grow in the Association. Pray that many churches will rise to the occasion and the great challenge ahead for them.

The Fall and Spring Associational Senior Adult Rallies continue to be the highlights in interest and record attendance.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rev. Ira Jones

SINGLE ADULT MINISTRY

Report to the Association
1997

This has been an exciting year for the Christian Singles Gathering. We recently celebrated our first year with a birthday party—complete with a birthday cake, ice-cream, balloons, and games!

God has blessed this ministry, which includes adult christian singles of all ages and denominations— military, college students, never married, single again, widowed, and retired. Our average monthly attendance was 53 for the year, and they come from all five counties of our association, plus Kinston and Jacksonville. It has really been exciting and wonderful meeting so many new friends for Christian fellowship and fun on the fourth Saturday of each month. We gather at 7:00PM at McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church, 103 McCotter Blvd., Havelock. Free child care is provided for single parents who call 447-4593 or 1(800)676-0270.

Our Gatherings usually begin with ice-breaker fun activities or songs, and lead into a time of devotional thoughts, a sharing of God's promises concerning His love, care and help for singles. Through prayer, God's Word, testimonies, and singing hymns and praises, we receive a sense of support and encouragement. We enjoyed at our meetings a performance of a Christian singing group, "One Voice" from Glad Tiddings Church, Morehead City, and also recently we had a Christian mime and drama group called "His Hands." Through these ministries, personal rededications were made, and at least one of our singles gave her heart to Jesus.

We have enjoyed several pot-luck meals, (yes, singles can cook!) an after-Christmas party and gift exchange—white elephant style, a memorial weekend cookout, outdoor games of volleyball, horseshoes, etc. We had a bonfire, roasted marshmallows, and sang-along with three guitars. We enjoyed a "make your own sundae night" and had a wonderful talent show.

Presently we are planning for an out of town evening which will include supper at a restaurant and then we will enjoy "The Greatest Story Retold," an art collection of beautiful original paintings of the life of Christ, plus a collection of artifacts from the Holy Land, displayed museum style.

Also, we are promoting and signing up for the N.C. Singles Evangelism Retreat at Caswell, June 13-15. Last year 22 of our singles attended this fun retreat.

Oh yes, one other bit of news to report! While our purpose is not to be match-makers or to play cupid, it is exciting that two of our fine young singles who first met at our Christian Singles Gathering are planning a wedding!

Thank you McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church for hosting us, and thank you Atlantic Baptist Association for sponsoring this ministry.

Church leaders, there is a real need to minister to the singles within the local church, and involve them in the Lord's work. Our programs and activities are so couple and family oriented, until sometimes it may seem like we have the church members, and the singles.

If your church is not reaching out to the singles and making them really feel a part of the total church family, I want to encourage you to do this. They may have their special problems, but many of them have special talents, and they are all special people. Even Jesus was single!

Mrs. Eleanor Jones

STEWARDSHIP

Report to the Association
1997

This year we have continued to grow in our financial gifts to the Association. New ministries are being born each month for the cause of our Lord Jesus Christ. The financial dilemma of many young families is still a concern. Therefore, we have sent a representative to the Christian Money Management Seminar at Caraway to gather information on financial planning.

Rev. Larry Wright is our "man of the hour" for teaching Christian Money Management Seminars within the Atlantic Baptist Association. He has already led an exciting conference at one of the churches and is available for similar conferences on money management. You can call the Atlantic Association's office for scheduling. Let's continue to grow in the Lord as we take on these new challenges of ministry.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Report to the Association
1997

Though only a little more than two and one half years remain before the turn of the century, we as Christians are called not to look to the calendar but the return of our Lord Jesus Christ to set our priorities. It should make no difference, therefore, what the year is, but only that we are found faithful in sharing God's Word when Christ returns. We have this command as a part of our Great Commission.

This year needs to be one in which we once more put an emphasis upon our Sunday Schools as the channel for our greatest efforts in outreach and our most effective tool for nurturing Christians. The 1995-96 year saw a drop in overall Sunday School enrollment and weekly average attendance among our churches during a time in which our geographical area was growing significantly in population. The words and spirit of the Great Commission should lead us to make the work of the Sunday School a greater priority in our congregations.

During this associational year, quarterly training conferences will be scheduled in our area to help our Sunday School leadership be more effective in their positions. In September the North Carolina State Baptist Convention has planned three weekends of Sunday School leadership training. A bi-monthly newsletter is going to all local Sunday School directors to provide encouragement and helpful tips to improve Sunday School work. Trained workers stand ready in our association to come to local churches and provide assistance in meeting a variety of Bible study needs for all age groups.

The slogan, "As goes the Sunday School, so goes the church," remains valid if we want to continue to have ministering and nurturing congregations.

Rev. Tom Lamkin

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Report to the Association
1997

Vacation Bible School continues to be a major evangelistic tool for our communities. Even though the "face" of Vacation Bible School has changed through the years (especially this year) with varying materials and methods, the "heart" of Vacation Bible School remains the same...SHARING CHRIST with others. This year's theme is "The Wild and Wonderful Good News Stampede—Telling Others About Jesus"! It serves as a reminder that we, as Christians, have a "trail to blaze." Through God's grace, we are part of His kingdom and we must share that good news with others.

To help prepare us in this task, your associational Vacation Bible School team went to Greenville and was trained in the new Baptist Sunday School Board curriculum. They are excited about introducing this new curriculum to you at one of the two clinics being offered with the Association. One clinic will be held April 26 at Cherry Point Baptist Church and the other on May 19 at McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church.

Our report from last year shows 104 in Vacation Bible School clinic attendance. Sixteen churches reporting having held a Vacation Bible School for a total of 1,659 in attendance and 70 decisions made. Seven churches were recognized as having a standard Vacation Bible School.

I feel confident there were many more lives touched by Vacation Bible School than the report shows, so please be sure to send in those reports at the close of our Vacation Bible School.

Thank you for your dedication and support of Vacation Bible School. We hope to see you at the clinics!

Mrs. Debbie Harris

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Report to the Association
1997

The theme for this year is TOGETHER, HAND IN HAND. We have had a new magazine, MISSIONS MOSAIC, and our new organization for over a year. It seems to be working well in Atlantic Association. This year we have a full slate of officers for all age levels, and our ladies are excited about planning for a new year. On May 6 and 7, WMU offered training at Caswell Assembly, for Associational WMU Directors. On May 9th Lucy Daniels led a training session for Mission Friends leaders, at McCotter Boulevard Church. Our ladies met to assemble the things that our churches had sent to us. Many churches were represented. We packed clothes, health kits, household items, and food items for Graffiti House in New York City. Our training session was held on October 28 at Havelock First Baptist Church. Training was provided for all age levels in WMU, but some sessions had no one attending. This is very discouraging for the leaders who have spent much time preparing for these training sessions. In past years we have collected items for Women's Correctional Center in Raleigh. We decided that this year we would gather items for the Seaman's Center here in our own Association. This ministry gives a gift to each seaman visiting the Center. They had not had enough gifts to last through the season. I understand that this was a success in December. Our annual Beach Retreat was a great success this year. We met at Ramada Inn at Atlantic Beach on Friday night and Saturday morning, January 17-18. At the Saturday night session Sasha Skriprik was our guest speaker. He told us of the work that is being done in his home land, Ukraine. Slides of the work were shown by Anita Earp. On Saturday morning Dr. Myrle Swicegood led our meeting. Cindy Huffman did an excellent job of planning this meeting. We were at a new location and we handled our own arrangements. I believe that it was one of our best meetings. On March 8th there was a GA Appreciation Day at Colony Baptist Church in New Bern. It was attended by about 50 GAs and also their leaders.

There were sessions that involved the girls in music, crafts, and Bible Study. Lunch was served by the ladies of the church. In the afternoon Patricia Frazier of Greensboro gave a monologue of Lottie Moon. Dressed in the style of Lottie Moon the GAs listened to her life story. It was a wonderful presentation, and the girls were very attentive. Our age level leaders plan to attend the Leadership Workshop at Camp Mundo Vista in May, 1997, in preparation for training your leaders in our new year.

Respectively Submitted,
Mrs. Mary Lou Harrell

YOUTH MINISTRY

Report to the Association
1997

It has been my great pleasure to serve as the Associational Youth Minister this past year. I am looking forward to another great year. We have sponsored many activities for youth to be involved in. We held a special teacher training event last May featuring Michael Capps. Thirty people showed up to get ideas on how to better teach youth. A Youth Rally was held at Tabernacle Baptist Church last spring featuring the mime ministry of Doug Berkey. "Witness" performed a concert at First Baptist Church of Morehead City in July, and the Association sponsored a trip to Super Summer at Carowinds. An Associational Youth lock-in was held in January with 185 people in attendance. In February our Association sponsored a trip to the Ice Plex in Raleigh to go ice skating. We had a great time. We also enjoyed having Matt Fore do a special program at First Baptist Church of Havelock in November, and two college groups do special programs while on their spring break.

I would like to ask you to please mark your calendar for a special Youth Rally featuring Tom Toombs. It will be held on Saturday, November 15 at 7:00p.m. at Parkview Baptist Church. If your youth group would like to begin the Rally by singing a song or doing a skit, please let me know. My heart's desire is to help you do youth ministry in your church any way I can. If I can help you in any way, please let me know. I am open to any ideas that you have to improve youth work in our Association. God bless you as you minister to His children.

The following Constitution, Bylaws, and Policy Manual changes were made and approved at the Atlantic Baptist Association's Annual Meeting April 23, 1998.

Constitution ~~and Bylaws~~

of the

ATLANTIC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

Associations being a proven way of helping churches carry out the Great Commission, we the missionary Baptist churches of Beaufort, Carteret, Craven, Jones, and Pamlico counties voluntarily agree to cooperate according to the objectives, doctrines, and structures set forth in this constitution. No compromise of local church autonomy is implied or follows from membership in this Association or from relationships the Association maintains with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Southern Baptist Convention, or any other person or group determined by the Association - meeting in Executive Committee or Annual Session - to advance the cause of Christ.

ARTICLE I - NAME

Our name shall be the "Atlantic Baptist Association of North Carolina, Incorporated."

ARTICLE II - MISSION

Under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, the mission of this Association and its officers shall be to train, counsel, encourage, and otherwise assist member churches fulfill their scriptural mandate to worship God, love their neighbor, evangelize the lost, and disciple believers in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (cf., Mark 12:29-31; Matthew 28:19-20).

Inasmuch as cooperation among churches is usually more productive than acting alone, the mission of this Association shall also include initiating such mission advance or outreach activities as shall be judged appropriate by the Association.

ARTICLE III - STATEMENT OF FAITH

Christ and Scripture - the living and written Word of God respectively - shall be the source of our beliefs and basis of our fellowship. The Baptist Faith and Message adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963 expresses the doctrinal positions of the Association.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

Under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, Baptist churches are completely free and sovereign to conduct their business as they see fit. The same goes for Baptist Associations. Membership in this Association, therefore, does not confer to the Association any authority over member churches, nor may churches exercise authority over the Association.

Affiliation between churches and the Association, being free and voluntary, is predicated only on acceptance of the mission and doctrinal positions set forth in this constitution and on active, cooperative participation.

SECTION 1. GRANTING MEMBERSHIP

A. Churches desiring membership in this Association shall - upon official church action - apply directly to the Association meeting in annual or executive session. Such applications shall be presented in writing.

The Association shall, in turn, receive as information and forward such applications to the Membership Committee for study and recommendation.

B. Upon receiving referrals of membership applications from the Association, the Membership Committee shall - over a one year period - take appropriate steps to determine whether applicants evidence suitable compatibility with the Association in spirit and doctrine.

C. Following this one year review, the Membership Committee shall report a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant watchcare status.

D. The Association shall then decide whether to grant watchcare status - a status that carries with it the same rights and privileges as full members with the exception of voting and holding office.

A two-thirds vote of ballots cast shall be required to grant watchcare status.

E. After observing churches received under watchcare for one year, the Membership Committee shall bring a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant full membership based upon cooperation, participation, spirit, and doctrine.

A vote to grant full membership shall also require a two-thirds favorable vote of ballots cast.

SECTION 2. WITHDRAWING MEMBERSHIP

A. Membership may be withdrawn when churches no longer cooperate or participate in the life of the Association. Membership may also be withdrawn when churches deviate doctrinally from positions set forth in The Baptist Faith and Message.

B. The procedure whereby membership may be withdrawn is as follows:

1. Authorization to take steps toward withdrawing membership may be given only by the Association meeting in annual or executive session. The Membership Committee may, however, request such authorization.

2. Such authorization to review membership status is indicated when churches evidence noncooperation, nonparticipation, or doctrinal deviation.

3. Once authorized, the Membership Committee shall conduct a thorough examination before returning a recommendation to the Association.

During this period, the Membership Committee shall take appropriate steps to bring those congregations being examined back into fellowship.

4. Should these restorative efforts fail, the Membership Committee may recommend watchcare status (not withdrawal of membership) to the Association.

Watchcare status - with its attendant loss of all voting and office holding privileges - shall go into effect upon a two-thirds vote of ballots cast by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

5. Such watchcare status shall last one year, after which the Membership Committee shall recommend restoring full membership or withdrawing membership altogether.

As with the vote on watchcare status, a vote to restore or withdraw membership shall require a two-thirds vote of ballots cast by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

SECTION 3. TRANSFERRING MEMBERSHIP: Any church requesting transfer to another Association may be granted a letter of dismissal by presenting a written request to the Association.

SECTION 4. MESSENGERS TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND ANNUAL MEETINGS: All congregations holding full membership in the Association may send up to ten (10) messengers to Executive Committee and Annual meetings.

ARTICLE V - PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Robert's Rules of Order, in its latest edition, shall be the accepted authority in conducting the business of the Association.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to this constitution may be put to a vote at any Annual Meeting provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed amendments shall first be submitted in writing to the Association at the October meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. The Executive Committee shall, in turn and by majority vote, refer proposed amendments to the Constitution and By Laws Committee for study and recommendation.

C. Written copies of proposed ~~changes coming out of committee~~ amendments shall be given to the Executive Committee at their January meeting by the Constitution and By Laws Committee along with the committee's recommendation.

D. Proposed amendments shall be presented at the ~~first session of an~~ Annual Meeting and voted on during ~~a subsequent~~ that session. ~~The session during which the vote is to be taken shall be stated at the time of initial presentation.~~

The same conditions apply to a completely revised or re-written constitution.

Any actions taken on constitutional matters shall require a two-thirds favorable vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

By Laws

of the

ATLANTIC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

In carrying out its mission, the Atlantic Baptist Association shall be organized into three councils - Missions Development, Church Development, and Administrative. These three councils report to the Association through Executive Committee and Annual meetings.

ARTICLE I - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee - composed of up to ten messengers from churches holding full membership in the Association - shall meet the last Mondays of July, October, and January to hear reports, transact business, and respond to issues affecting the life and mission of the Association. The Executive Committee shall be the final decision-making body of the Association between Annual Meetings.

ARTICLE II - MISSIONS DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

SECTION 1. Strategic planning and leadership in carrying out the Great Commission on the associational level is the dual charge of the Missions Development Council. In performing this assignment, this council shall perform the following tasks:

1) Discover mission needs to which the Association ought to respond;
2) Develop strategies for meeting these needs;
3) Challenge churches to be missionary in theology and practice;
4) Provide resources for use in advancing the cause of Christ;
5) Organize opportunities for doing missions together;
6) Train church and associational workers to perform missions; and
7) Establish and maintain appropriate lines of communication with the community and denomination.

The Missions Development Council shall be composed of the Missions Development Director, Survey Director, Promotional Director, WMU Director, ~~Brotherhood~~ Baptist Men Director, and chairmen of all component programs.

A. The Missions Development Director chairs and leads the council to discharge the tasks listed above.

B. The Survey Director discovers mission needs and opportunities, and makes the Association and churches of the Association aware of them.

C. The Promotional Director leads churches to do missions, and works with the Missions Development Director to provide appropriate training.

D. The Woman's Missionary Union Director promotes and leads WMU work in the Association.

E. The ~~Brotherhood~~ Baptist Men Director promotes and leads ~~Brotherhood~~ Baptist Men work in the Association.

F. Component programs in associational work shall be determined by the Missions Development Council.

SECTION 2. This council, which reports to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting, shall meet quarterly to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each component program shall train its own officers, who shall in turn - working cooperatively with their counterparts in the churches - guide their respective programs.

SECTION 4. With the single exception of the Woman's Missionary Union director, all directors sitting on the Missions Development Council shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Association at the Annual Meeting. Vacancies among these directors occurring during the year shall be filled as soon as possible by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

Directors desiring to assemble a committee to work with them, shall - after consulting the Director of Missions and chairman of the Nominating Committee for input - assemble their own committees, subject to subsequent approval by the Nominating Committee and Executive Committee.

ARTICLE III - CHURCH DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Church Development Council - which shall be chaired by the Sunday School Director - is a training and equipping ministry of the Association. Either the Church Development Council or Association may add component programs to the council membership.

Sunday school, discipleship training, music, youth, church media library, stewardship, Christian life, ~~seminary extension,~~ pastoral ministries, evangelism, ordination, senior adult, single adult, church secretaries, and ministers' conference shall each be represented on the Church Development Council by their directors.

SECTION 2. This council, which reports to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting, shall meet quarterly to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each program shall train its own officers, who shall in turn offer assistance to their counterparts in the churches.

SECTION 4. Each program shall, in cooperation with the Nominating Committee, enlist and nominate its chief officers for approval by the Association at the Annual Meeting. Vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 5. SUNDAY SCHOOL

A. The Sunday School Director plans, conducts, and evaluates Sunday School work in the Association, and also chairs the Church Development Council.

B. The Vacation Bible School Director plans, conducts, and evaluates Vacation Bible School work in the Association. The VBS Director also trains and leads the associational VBS "assist team."

SECTION 6. DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING: The Discipleship Training Director, after appraising disciple-making needs within the Association, develops and conducts appropriate training events.

SECTION 7. MUSIC: The Music Director leads church to plan, conduct, enlarge, and improve their music programs. The Director also provides inspirational music at associational meetings as requested.

SECTION 8. YOUTH MINISTRY: The Youth Ministry Director develops and conducts ministries designed to meet the needs of youth and their parents.

SECTION 9. CHURCH MEDIA LIBRARY: The Church Media Library Director promotes, enlists, and develops media-library work in the Association.

SECTION 10. STEWARDSHIP: The Stewardship Director promotes the principles and practice of Christian stewardship within the Association.

SECTION 11. CHRISTIAN LIFE: The Christian Life Director educates Baptists concerning critical moral and ethical issues of the day, and leads the Association to respond in appropriate ways.

Delete:

~~SECTION 12. SEMINARY EXTENSION: The Seminary Extension Director acquaints members of the Association with opportunities for study and skill development afforded by taking Seminary Extension classes.~~

SECTION ~~13~~ 12. PASTORAL MINISTRIES: The Pastoral Ministries Director helps the Association and churches carry out pastoral ministries.

SECTION ~~14~~ 13. EVANGELISM: The Evangelism Director enlists, trains, and motivates churches to engage in evangelism.

SECTION ~~15~~ 14. ORDINATION: As requested by member churches, the Ordination Director leads the Ordination Committee to examine - for recommendation - candidates professing a call to the gospel ministry.

SECTION ~~16~~ 15. SENIOR ADULTS: The Senior Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop senior adult ministries.

SECTION ~~17~~ 16. SINGLE ADULTS: The Single Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop single adult ministries.

SECTION ~~18~~ 17. CHURCH SECRETARIES: The president of the church secretary's organization implements a program to inspire and train church secretaries.

SECTION ~~19~~ 18. MINISTERS' CONFERENCE: The Ministers' Conference president leads the conference to achieve the goals it sets for itself.

ARTICLE IV - ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

SECTION 1. To facilitate and support the work of the Association, the Administrative Council oversees and maintains the associational infrastructure.

The membership of this council - which shall be chaired by the Moderator - shall be made up of the chairmen of the following committees: Nominating, Order of Business, Finance, Constitution, Membership, Personnel, Trustees/Directors, and Building and Grounds. Also sitting on the Administrative Council shall be the Moderator/President, Vice Moderator/Vice President, Clerk, Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, ~~Auditor~~, Historian, and Parliamentarian.

SECTION 2. This council ~~meets quarterly~~ will meet as needed and reports directly to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting.

SECTION 3. Each committee trains its own officers to know their duties and guide their respective committees and counterparts in the churches.

SECTION 4. COMMITTEES

A. NOMINATING COMMITTEE: Nine (9) members - who serve three year terms on a rotating basis - compose the Nominating Committee. The task of this committee is to nominate persons to serve in the offices and on the committees of the Association. These nominees shall be presented at the Annual Meeting in April. Committee recommendations do not preclude nominations being made from the floor. Subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee, the responsibility to fill vacancies occurring between annual sessions also falls to this committee.

B. ORDER OF BUSINESS COMMITTEE: The Moderator/President, Clerk, and Music Director compose the Order of Business Committee. The assignment of this committee - working with the Director of Missions - is

(a) to prepare a printed program for annual sessions, and

(b) to make place and program decisions.

Printed programs shall be sent out at least thirty (30) days before the Annual Meeting. This order of business is presented for adoption at the opening session, and serves throughout the meeting unless changes become necessary and are approved.

C. FINANCE COMMITTEE: Six (6) members - who serve three year rotating terms - compose the Finance Committee. The task of this committee is to: (a) study the financial needs of the Association; (b) solicit budgetary input from all associational programs, committees, and ministries; ~~and~~ (c) in January present a proposed budget for the following year to the Association. Final adoption of the budget occurs at the Annual Meeting held in April. This committee is also responsible for securing the cooperation of the churches in meeting the budget, and (d) annually review the financial records of the Association.

D. CONSTITUTION AND BY LAWS COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, form the membership of this committee. The purpose of this committee is to study for recommendation to the Association any proposed changes to the Constitution, By Laws, or Policy Manual.

E. MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, make up the membership of this committee. The function of this committee is to evaluate for recommendation to the Association any requests received from local Baptist churches seeking membership in the Association. The Membership Committee shall also receive or initiate any move to separate a church from membership in the Association. The committee shall prayerfully and diligently study such requests, and make recommendations according to ARTICLE IV of the Constitution.

F. PERSONNEL COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, compose the membership of this committee. The role of this committee is to make recommendations to the Association concerning staff employment, job descriptions, terms of employment, and related considerations.

G. The BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE periodically inspects all associational property, and makes recommendations concerning maintenance, modifications, policies, furnishings, insurance, and grounds care as needed.

H. The TRUSTEES/DIRECTORS handle all legal matters of the Association as directed by the Association. Three (3) members (one preferably an attorney) - each serving three year rotating terms - compose this board. After serving one full term, a year must elapse before trustees/directors may succeed themselves.

SECTION 5. OFFICERS

A. The MODERATOR/PRESIDENT - who may serve no more than two one year terms in succession - shall preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings of the Association. The Moderator also chairs the Administrative Council. In addition, the Moderator/President shall be an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association except the Nominating Committee, and shall appoint a registration committee to serve at Annual and other meetings as needed. Further contact between the Moderator/President and member churches is encouraged.

B. The VICE MODERATOR/VICE PRESIDENT, in the absence of or as called upon by the Moderator/President, presides at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings.

C. The CLERK annually sends the Annual Church Profile to member churches at least two months before the stated due date; keep accurate minutes of Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings; supervises the printing and distribution of the annual book of reports; and keeps on file the important documents and records of the Association. The clerk also, upon the direction of the Executive Committee or Association, signs documents such as cooperative agreements.

D. The SECRETARY-TREASURER receives and handles all funds over which the Association has stewardship. In discharging this responsibility, the Secretary-Treasurer deposits and disperses funds as directed by the Association; provides a financial report to the Association at Annual and Executive Committee meetings; and sets up and maintains a bookkeeping system open to audit by any responsible person.

E. The ASSISTANT SECRETARY-TREASURER takes over the duties listed above in Section 5D in the event the Secretary-Treasurer is unable to perform them.

Delete:

~~F The AUDITOR annually audits the books of the Association and reports the results of this audit to the Executive Committee.~~

~~G F. The HISTORIAN records significant aspects of the history of the Association and its member churches, and submits a written report relating such information to the Association at the Annual Meeting.

~~H G. The PARLIAMENTARIAN advises presiding officers of the association in matters related to following proper parliamentary procedure. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the basis of such advice.

~~I H. The DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS is the chief executive officer of the Association. Accountable to the Association through the Personnel Committee, the Director of Missions shall perform the duties set forth in the Policy Manual.

SECTION 6. The Administrative Council shall also review and act on any recommendation to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff received from the Personnel Committee.

A. Such proceedings shall be bathed in prayer.

B. A concern to be loving, fair, and true to our faith and witness shall pervade this process.

C. The advisability of bringing in an outside mediator may be considered.

D. Decisions to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff shall be made by two-thirds vote of members present and voting in a special meeting of the Council.

E. When a decision to dismiss is made, thirty days notice or thirty days salary and benefits (if applicable) shall be given to departing staff.

ARTICLE V - GENERAL

SECTION 1. DEFINITION OF "ASSOCIATION:" When the term "Association" is used in these By Laws and the preceding Constitution, all entities set forth in these documents are included. The final decision-making authority of the Association, however, rests with duly elected messengers - sent from churches holding full membership - meeting in annual or executive session. "Executive session" includes appropriately called special as well as regular Executive Committee meetings.

SECTION 2. COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP: Any officer or committee member serving more than half a term, is considered - for tenure purposes - to have served a full term. The expiration dates of committee members' terms shall appear beside their names in the Nominating Committee report.

SECTION 3. EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS: The moderator shall serve as an ex-officio nonvoting member of all committees except the Nominating Committee. The Director of Missions shall serve as an ex-officio nonvoting member of all organizations and committees.

SECTION 4. REPORTS: Written reports appearing in the annual minutes shall be limited to 300 words, except in cases involving statistical or historical data.

SECTION 5. MEETINGS

A. REGULARLY SCHEDULED: The Executive Committee shall regularly meet on the last Mondays of July, October, and January. The Annual Meeting shall regularly meet the last full week of April.

B. SPECIAL: Special meetings of the Association may be called only by the Administrative Council. The subject matter of special meetings shall be limited to the purpose stated in the call, which shall be communicated in writing to member churches at least two weeks prior to the date of the called meeting.

SECTION 6. RESOLUTIONS: Resolutions, having little power to accomplish good and considerable power to cause mischief, shall have no place in the proceedings of this Association. Expressions of gratitude, appreciation, or remembrance shall be handled as appropriate, but do not require resolutions.

SECTION 7. TENURE AND ELECTIONS: With the exception of staff and unless otherwise stated in these By Laws, all officers of the Association shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Association annually.

In performing its task, the Nominating Committee shall seek balance between ministers and laity. Balance between ministers and laity serving as Moderator and Vice Moderator is especially recommended.

SECTION 8. CALL AND HIRING OF THE DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS: When the need to find a new Director of Missions arises, the chairmen of the following committees shall serve as the search committee: Nominating, Finance, Constitution and By Laws, Membership, Personnel, Missions Development Council, Church Development Council, and Administrative Council. The Secretary-Treasurer shall also serve on the search committee.

SECTION 9. CALL AND HIRING OF OTHER PAID STAFF: When the need to hire other paid staff arises, the Personnel Committee - following procedures set forth in the Policy Manual - shall take appropriate steps.

SECTION 10. VOLUNTARY SEPARATIONS OF ALL STAFF: All staff members who voluntarily resign their positions, shall give two weeks notice.

SECTION 11. ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR: The associational year shall begin May 1 and end April 30.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to the By Laws may be put to a vote at any Annual Meeting provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed amendments shall first be submitted in writing to the Association at the October meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. The Executive Committee shall, in turn and by majority vote, refer proposed amendments to the Constitution and By Laws Committee for study and recommendation.

C. Written copies of proposed ~~changes coming out of committee~~ amendments shall be given to the Executive Committee at their January meeting by the Constitution and By Laws Committee along with the committee's recommendation.

D. Proposed amendments shall be presented at the ~~first session of an~~ Annual Meeting and voted on during ~~a subsequent~~ that session. ~~The session during which the vote is to be taken shall be stated at the time of initial presentation.~~

The same conditions apply to completely revised or re-written By Laws.

Any action taken on these By Laws shall require a majority vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

of the
Atlantic Baptist Association

ARTICLE I - ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTION

SECTION 1. The administrative officers of the Association are as follows: Moderator/President, Vice Moderator/Vice President, Clerk, Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, ~~Auditor~~, Historian, Parliamentarian, and Director of Missions.

SECTION 2. The MODERATOR/PRESIDENT - who may serve no more than two one year terms in succession - shall preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings of the Association. The Moderator/President also chairs the Administrative Council, and serves as an ex-officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association except the Nominating Committee. The Moderator/President shall, moreover, appoint a registration committee to serve at Annual and other meetings as needed. Further contact between the Moderator/President and member churches is encouraged.

SECTION 3. The VICE MODERATOR/VICE PRESIDENT shall, in the absence of or as called upon by the Moderator/President, preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings. The Vice Moderator/Vice President, moreover, serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 4. The CLERK shall annually send the Annual Church Profile to member churches at least two months before a specified due date; keep accurate minutes of Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings; supervise the printing and distribution of the annual book of reports; and keep on file the important documents and records of the Association. The Clerk shall also - upon the direction of the Executive Committee or Association meeting in annual session - sign documents, such as cooperative agreements. Finally, the Clerk serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 5. The SECRETARY-TREASURER shall receive and handle all funds over which the Association has stewardship. In discharging this responsibility, the Secretary-Treasurer shall deposit and disperse funds as directed by the Association; provide a financial report to the Association at Annual and Executive Committee meetings; and set up and maintain a bookkeeping system open to audit by any responsible person. The Secretary-Treasurer also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 6. The ASSISTANT SECRETARY-TREASURER shall take over the duties listed in Section 5 above in the event the Secretary-Treasurer is unable to perform them. The Assistant Secretary-Treasurer also serves on the Administrative Council.

Delete:

~~SECTION 7. The AUDITOR shall - as soon after April 30 as possible - audit the books of the Association. A report of this audit shall be provided to the Executive Committee meeting in July. The Auditor also serves on the Administrative Council.~~

SECTION 8 7. The HISTORIAN shall collect and preserve data, documents, and artifacts of historical significance to the Association or its member churches. Data - drawn largely from the Annual Church Profile - shall be compiled in a written report to be presented annually to the Association. The Historian shall, moreover, serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 9 8. The PARLIAMENTARIAN shall counsel presiding officers of the Association in all matters related to following proper parliamentary procedure. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the basis of such counsel. The Parliamentarian also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION ~~10~~ 9. The DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS is the chief executive officer of the Association. Accountable to the Association through the Personnel Committee, the Director of Missions shall perform the following duties:

A. Oversee, evaluate, and endeavor to improve all ministries sponsored by the Association.

B. In close consultation with the Missions Development Council, discover mission needs, devise ministries targeting those needs, and enlist the personnel and resources required to carry out Christ-honoring ministry.

C. Assist the Church Development Council in planing training and ministry events designed to increase the effectiveness of association and local church ministries.

D. Cooperative with the Administrative Council of the Association to help member officers fulfill their duties in support of the mission of the Association.

E. Interpret and adapt the priorities, emphases, and work of the denomination to the Association and member churches; also, encourage cooperation with the denomination by member churches to the extent possible, consistent with principles of local church and associational autonomy under Christ.

F. Promote the work and witness of the Association both within the Association and in the larger community in which we live and serve.

G. Train ministerial staff search committees as requested.

H. Counsel church leaders as needed and to the extent possible, and mediate local church disputes as called upon.

I. Serve as an ex-officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association.

J. Supervise all paid staff and volunteers.

K. Carry out other duties as directed by the Association.

ARTICLE II - PROGRAMS

SECTION 1. The Association shall carry out its work through the following ongoing programs: Sunday school, discipleship training, Woman's Missionary Union, ~~Brotherhood~~ Baptist Men, music, youth, church media, stewardship, Christian life, ~~Seminary Extension,~~ Pastoral Ministries, and any other programs or ministries authorized by the Association through the Executive Committee or by messengers attending the Annual Meeting.

SECTION 2. Each program shall schedule and conduct quarterly meetings in order to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each program shall see to the training of its officers so these officers can assist in meeting the training needs of member churches.

SECTION 4. Each program - by attending to its area of concentration and specialization - shall endeavor to lead the Association to carry out its mission at the highest levels of performance to the glory of God.

SECTION 5. Working in cooperation with the Nominating Committee, each program - with the exception of Woman's Missionary Union - shall enlist and nominate its chief officers for presentation and election at the Annual Meeting. Any vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 6. The Woman's Missionary Union shall annually appoint a nominating committee from within its ranks. This committee shall develop its own report, which shall be presented to the associational nominating committee in time for review and referral to the Annual Meeting in April. Upon election by the Association, these officers shall serve terms of office corresponding to those of other program officers.

ARTICLE III - PROGRAM LEADERS AND THEIR DUTIES

SECTION 1. Believing the Bible to be the revealed truth of God and as such the basis for correct thinking and fruitful living, the SUNDAY SCHOOL DIRECTOR shall lead and encourage the churches of the Association to develop a strong Bible teaching ministry through the Sunday School. Specific duties of the Sunday School Director are as follows:

E. Serve as chairman of the Discipleship Training Council, and lead this council to develop a strategy for advancing believer development in our churches.

F. Serve on the Church Development Council.

G. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 4. In support of missions, the WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION DIREC-

TOR is responsible for promoting and leading WMU work in the Association. Specifically, the Woman's Missionary Union Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Having studied to understand WMU work herself, the Woman's Missionary Union Director communicates her knowledge to other WMU workers and churches personally and by scheduling appropriate training events.

B. Beyond overseeing age-graded WMU programming, the Woman's Missionary Union Director discovers real mission needs and challenges members to act to meet these needs.

C. In support of mission education and action, the Woman's Missionary Union Director stands ready to provide or recommend appropriate literature and other resources.

D. Serving as the chief executive officer of the associational WMU, the Woman's Missionary Union Director chairs the WMU Council and represents the WMU on the Missions Development Council.

E. The Woman's Missionary Union Director endeavors to start WMU work in any member church were such work is not already organized.

F. Being accountable to the Association, the Woman's Missionary Union Director brings a report to each Executive Committee meeting and to the Annual Meeting.

G. Annually this director submits an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

H. Finally, the Woman's Missionary Union Director seeks to maintain close ties with the state WMU director as a means of cooperation and coordination.

SECTION 5. In support of missions, the ~~BROTHERHOOD~~ BAPTIST MEN DIRECTOR promotes and leads ~~Brotherhood~~ Baptist Men work in the Association. Specific responsibilities of the ~~Brotherhood~~ Baptist Men Director are as follows:

A. Interpret ~~Brotherhood~~ Baptist Men work to the churches and associational leaders - giving emphasis to missions over organization.

B. Recruit men and boys to volunteer for mission trips and carry out mission projects.

SECTION ~~17~~ 15. CHURCH SECRETARIES: The president of the church secretary's organization implements a program to inspire and train church secretaries. This president also serves on the Church Development Council.

SECTION ~~18~~ 16. MINISTERS' CONFERENCE: The Ministers' Conference president leads the conference to achieve the goals it sets for itself. This president also serves on the Church Development Council.

ARTICLE IV - COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE - composed of up to ten messengers from churches holding full membership in the Association - shall meet the last Mondays of July, October, and January to hear reports, transact business, and respond to issues affecting the life and mission of the Association. The Executive Committee shall be the final decision-making body of the Association between Annual Meetings.

SECTION 2. The NOMINATING COMMITTEE - composed of nine members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall enlist the most qualified persons available to fill the various positions of service set forth in the By Laws. At the Annual Meeting in April the Nominating Committee shall present its main report. This report, if possible, shall include nominations for all positions of service named in the By Laws; also, nominations of persons enlisted to work on short term mission projects or to serve on program committees. In addition to presenting its main report at the Annual Meeting, the Nominating Committee shall fill vacancies that occur during the course of the associational year, subject to later approval by the Executive Committee. In performing this task, the Nominating Committee shall take care to protect the following rights of nominees and the Association:

A. All nominees shall be contacted and give consent before their names may be placed in nomination.

B. Messengers attending Executive Committee and Annual meetings retain the right to make nominations from the floor.

The chairman of the Nominating Committee shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 3. The ORDER OF BUSINESS AND PROGRAM PERSONNEL COMMITTEE - composed of the moderator, clerk, and music director - shall make arrangements as to where the Annual Meeting is to be held, who will take part on the program, and in what order the service will progress. In performing this assignment, the right of the Association to retain final authority over the program shall be protected in the following ways:

A. The proposed program shall be mailed to all pastors/churches and program personalities at least 30 days before the meeting.

B. The proposed program shall be presented for adoption early in the opening session, and may be modified by messengers as needed at any time.

SECTION 4. The EVANGELISM COMMITTEE - composed of three members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall develop and implement plans for reaching more people with the saving gospel of Jesus Christ through the ministries of the Association. All such plans shall be presented to the Executive Committee for final approval. The chairman shall serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 5. The FINANCE COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall annually review requests for funds presented by the various officers and committees of the Association. These requests shall be evaluated in light of available resources and strategic priorities, after which a proposed budget shall be developed. Once developed, proposed budgets shall be presented to the Association for approval in the following manner:

~~B~~ A. The proposed budget shall be presented for questions and discussion at the January meeting of the Executive Committee.

~~A~~ B. By ~~January~~ February 1 the proposed budget shall be mailed to all member churches for distribution to their messengers.

C. Final adoption of the proposed budget shall occur at the Annual Meeting held in April.

In addition to developing a proposed budget, the Finance Committee shall promote support for the budget once adopted. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 6. The ORDINATIONS COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall, as requested by member churches, interview candidates in order to determine their suitability for ordination to the gospel ministry. Subjects such as candidates' conversion, call to the ministry, doctrinal convictions, giftedness for service, and attitude toward cooperative missions shall receive the attention of the committee during interviews. Following interviews, the committee shall recommend or decline to recommend ordination to the referring congregation. Out of respect for the autonomy of local churches, recommendations coming from the committee shall be advisory in nature and are not meant to replace, supersede, or interfere with the wishes of referring churches. The chairman shall serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 7. The CONSTITUTION AND BY LAWS COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term, shall receive or initiate for study and recommendation to the Association all proposed changes to the Constitution, By Laws, or Policy Manual. Proposed changes to the Constitution and By Laws shall be presented to the Association according to procedures set forth in the "amendments" articles of those documents. Changes to the Policy Manual will be effected by simple majority vote of the Association meeting in annual or executive session. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 8. The MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall receive and process applications for membership in the Association according to the procedure set forth in the Constitution, ARTICLE IV, SECTION 1. In taking steps to withdraw membership, the committee shall follow the procedure outlined in the Constitution, ARTICLE IV, SECTION 2. This committee, it should be noted, has the power to forward a positive or negative recommendation to the Association, but may not prevent the Association from acting as it chooses. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 9. The BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE - composed of three members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall oversee the upkeep, development, and use of our building and grounds. The responsibilities of this committee shall include exercising concern for the appearance, safety, and furnishings of associational property. The committee shall also be responsible for securing insurance and developing policies involved in the use of this property.

Proposals to upgrade or alter associational holdings shall likewise pass through this committee for evaluation and recommendations to the Executive Committee. In carrying out this assignment, the committee shall meet whenever the chairman or Director of Missions deems necessary, and is authorized to spend line item funds - assuming such funds are available - as required for any use already approved by the Association. Anticipating funding needs with which to maintain and develop the associational center and its grounds, the committee shall annually submit a request for such funds to the Finance Committee. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 10. The PERSONNEL COMMITTEE - composed of six (6) members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - acts as liason between ministerial staff, support staff, associational officers, and the Association. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

The Personnel Committee, acting in this fashion, shall carry out the following duties:

A. Working in cooperation with the Director of Missions, make recommendations to the Association concerning the hiring of all ministerial staff except the Director of Missions.

B. Hire support staff, either on the basis of direct interviews or upon recommendations received from appropriate officers or committees of the Association.

C. For all staff, develop and maintain up-to-date descriptions and corresponding terms of employment for inclusion in the Personnel ~~Policy~~ Manual subject to ~~review by the Constitution and By Laws Committee and~~ approval by the Association.

D. Monitor the compensation and benefit packages of all paid staff, giving special attention to such items as salary, insurance, retirement, vacations, holidays, sick leave, and working conditions.

E. Based on such considerations as job performance, salary/benefit packages offered by other associations, and the resources of this Association, make staff compensation recommendations to the Finance Committee at least annually.

F. Protect and enhance relationships of mutual respect, trust, and understanding between all staff and the Association.

G. Mediate disputes and communicate concerns about job performance as they arise involving any staff member or officer.

H. Discipline or dismiss support staff if warranted.

I. Refer to the Administrative Council any recommendation to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff, including the Director of Missions.

J. Remember, as appropriate, special days in the life of staff members and officers of the Association with tokens of affection and appreciation.

SECTION 11. The TRUSTEES/DIRECTORS shall handle all legal matters of the Association as directed by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

A. This board shall consist of three members, one of whom shall preferably be an attorney.

B. Board members shall serve three year rotating terms.

C. Having served three year terms, Trustees/Directors may succeed themselves only after a lapse of one year.

D. The chairman of this board shall serve on the Administrative Council.

ARTICLE V - PROPOSED CHANGES

Proposed changes to the policy manual may be put to a vote at any annual or executive session provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed changes shall be submitted in writing to the Constitution and Bylaws Committee at least 30 days prior to that meeting for study and recommendation.

B. Proposed changes do not conflict with the constitution or bylaws.

Any action on this policy shall require a majority vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

Atlantic Baptist Association

One Hundred Fifteenth Annual Session

April 23, 1998
EMERALD ISLE BAPTIST CHURCH

1. The meeting opened with the congregation singing "Love Lifted Me" led by Rev. John Thompson.
2. Business Session I was called to order by Moderator, Rev. Ed Satterley.
3. Rev. Ed Satterley led in prayer.
4. Rev. John Thompson made a motion that the order of business, as printed in the Book of Reports, be accepted. The motion passed.
5. Mr. Albert Clark, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, made a motion to adopt pages three through six of the Book of Reports with one exception, to add Rev. Eric Hayes as Discipleship Training Director. The motion was approved.
6. Rev. Ray Whitby, Chairman of the Constitution Committee, reported that the proposed changes of the committee would be voted on during the second session.
7. Mr. Max Miller, Treasurer, gave the treasurer's report. The new budget for 1998-99 reflects a seven and one-half percent increase. The churches of the Association gave $186,550 which is almost double that of ten years ago. The Capital Improvement Account was reviewed. Mr. Miller made a move for the adoption of the report as written. The motion carried.
8. Mr. Sherrill Garner, Chairman of the Finance Committee, noted that four line items, B3-Office Supplies, B7-Maintenance of Equip/Property, F11-Vacation Bible School, and F15-Single Adult Ministry were overspent. For us to be accurate, the recommendation was made that the budget be increased to cover these expenses. The motion was approved.

A motion was made to accept the budget with the correction that the last line of page eight and the first line of page nine be combined. The motion was accepted.

9. Following the worship service, Business Session II was called to order by Rev. Ed Satterley.
10. Rev. John Thompson led the congregation in singing "Bless Be the Tie that Binds."
11. Instructions were given by Rev. Ed Satterley to turn in the registration forms for a record of attendance.
12. After prayer requests were taken, Rev. Ed Satterley led in prayer.
13. Rev. Ray Whitby, Chairman of the Constitution Committee, moved for the adoption of the proposed changes to the Constitution, By-Laws and Policy Manual. The question was raised by Rev. Terry McInnis as to whether or not the Church Secretaries' President should be a member of one of the Atlantic Baptist Association churches since they serve on the Church Development Council. The motion was made to refer this question back to the committee.

Dr. Don Hadley proposed that item D of Article VI-Amendments on page three be changed to read "shall be voted on at the Annual Meeting" and that the remainder of item D be deleted. He also proposed that item A of Article III-Program Leaders and Their Duties on page thirteen read "who will offer" rather than "that will offer." Rev. Hamilton explained that any changes would have to be referred back to the committee and go through the six months process so that everyone would be informed, changes cannot be done in one meeting. Rev. Whitby referred to page twenty, item A of Article V which states that proposed changes be submitted in writing. Dr. Hadley withdrew his recommendation.

An explanation was asked for regarding the deletion of an auditor, Section Seven of page eleven, and the responsibility being given to the Finance Committee as stated in item C on page seven. Rev. Hamilton explained that it would cost the Association approximately five to seven thousand dollars a year for an auditor and that we have treasurers capable of doing this task.

The motion was made and passed to adopt the changes recommended by the Constitution Committee.

14. Rev. Kevin Clubb, Chairman of the Membership Committee, stated that Island Road Baptist Church had presented application for membership and that the committee moved they be granted watchcare status. The motion passed.

As recommended at the October Executive Meeting, Dover Baptist Church was contacted in hope of restoring them into active involvement of the Association. Since the church has demonstrated non-cooperation and non-participation, the Membership Committee recommended they be placed under watchcare status. The motion was accepted.

15. Rev. Jack Bowen, Chairman of the Mission Development Council, requested adoption of the proposed motions. They were:

a) To assist in the establishment of an Asian Center maintained and operated by Havelock Korean Baptist Church.
b) To assist Sasha Skripnik with his college education.
c) To explore the possibility of an Associational Youth Worker.

All three motions were passed.

16. The motion was made by Rev. Ed Satterley to approve the Book of Reports as written. The motion carried.

17. Mr. Jack Sisson, Church Conflict Mediator, reported that he had met with six churches to council with them, written eleven articles for the Associational newsletter, presented two programs to the monthly Minister's Conference, conducted deacon training in seven churches, and held training on team building and spiritual gifts in three churches. He participated in the Associational Missions Fair. He has worked with three other churches not in our association but in our state.

18. Dr. Myrle Swicegood, Family Life Ministries Coordinator, referred everyone to her written report on page eighteen of the Book of Reports. She requested that prayer and special attention be given to the needs of autistic children so that they could come to Sunday School and worship services.

19. Dr. Curt Finch, Missions Teams Coordinator, stated that because of the growth of the island, housing for mission teams has become very difficult and due to the change our Home Mission Board is going through, it is hard to get mission teams assigned. He urged our churches to help staff two campgrounds with Bible Clubs that we will not be able to do so with visiting mission teams. About twenty-five per cent of the visitors coming to the island have no church contact. He asked that we pray for our missions teams to be able to reach these people for Christ.

20. Rev. Keith Hamilton, Director of Missions, stressed the importance that our Association make a difference where individual churches are concerned. He expressed appreciation for the staff that plays a vital role in making that difference possible. He challenged every church to give at least five percent in designated funds, to become part of the 447-PRAY ministry, and to consider starting a new church this year.

21. Rev. Ed Satterley expressed what a privilege and honor it had been for him to serve as moderator. He will be passing the gavel to Mr. William (Buddy) Jones.

22. There was no miscellaneous business.

23. Rev. Tom Willoughby gave the benediction.

BROTHERHOOD

Report to the Association
1998

Baptist Men's organizations continued to be involved in many types of ministries in the Atlantic Baptist Association in 1997-1998.

Work was continued in Jacksonville repairing damage from hurricane Fran including putting a roof on the Pregnancy Crisis Center. Mr. L. D. Springle and Mr. Mike King of Calvary Baptist Church, Beaufort, helped with repairs on a church in Fayetteville damaged by Fran. These two men also traveled to Kentucky to repair homes damaged by floods.

Two training sessions for the Water Purification Ministry took place with twenty-five or more volunteers getting trained and ready to go when called.

Mr. Raymond Earp took three teams to the Ukraine to continue the partnership there. The August team consisted of construction, Bible School, and medical teams. Dr. Joe Robinson, Dr. Joe Overby and wife, Gretchen, Mrs. Mary Lou Harrell, Associational Woman's Missionary Union Director, Mrs. Cindy Godley, Mr. Wallace Conner, Mr. Joe Cunningham and wife, Lavern, and Mr. Raymond Earp and wife, Anita, from the Association, were on the team. Churches across the Association helped with donations of Bible School supplies, money, and prayer support. A team will go in 1998 to finish the church in Vertiovka and do Bible School and medical work. A team went to South Africa in February of 1998. This team included several from our Association. Churches once again supported this work with financial support and the collection of Bible School materials. Tabernacle Baptist Church gave $10,000 to finish the church in the village of Matibidi, Africa.

Alexander "Sasha" Skripnik, sponsored by North Carolina Baptist Men, the Atlantic Baptist Association, and many friends across the state, returned to our Association and is attending Carteret Community College. He is in the East Carolina University program. He is living with Raymond and Anita Earp. Thanks to the support, prayers, and love of the people, this young man will receive his education. He is available to speak in churches on a limited basis (because of school) and is in need of scholarships any person or church may offer so he can continue his schooling next fall.

Mr. Raymond Earp was the first in our Association and Eastern North Carolina to be elected President of North Carolina Baptist Men in January. Several in our Association went to Raleigh to the Baptist Men's Convention to support him.

Please join Baptist Men's Ministry. Call Raymond Earp (252) 728-3070 and learn more about ministries that are available for involvement.

Mr. Raymond Earp

BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1998

The year of 1998 was a very exciting and interesting year for the Association Office. The grounds were kept by William Miranda and Sons. The Associational Center was cleaned by Mrs. Pat Nickel of Havelock.

The center began taking on a new face. Vinyl trim was added to the exterior of the building. New carpet was installed over all the building except the kitchen and rest rooms.

Also, a few decorative touches were added to the rest rooms. Blinds were added to the windows.

CHURCH CONFLICT MEDIATOR

Report to the Association

On April 24, 1997, the Association created the position of Church Conflict Mediator at its annual session. John W. Sisson, Jr. Was selected to fill this position for the Association.

The work done in this position is not subject to public report. When the mediator works with a church, the only people who are notified are the members of the church and the Director of Missions. All work remains confidential to the church. The recommendations and reports prepared are the sole property of the church and as such they cannot be distributed outside of the church nor reported to the Association. For more information on this position, reference is made to 1997 Annual of the Atlantic Baptist Association pages 74 and 75.

There are actually two phases to the work of the Church Conflict Mediator.

First is mediation and resolution of conflicts within the church. In these situations the Church Conflict Mediator is invited to discuss problems with the pastor, deacons or church council. If the church feels a program of mediation or conflict resolution would be helpful, the Church Conflict Mediator establishes appropriate dates for follow-up action. This might include mediation between the deacons and the pastor; or the deacons and a group within the church. The purpose of mediation is to bring about a resolution acceptable to all parties of the church. The other extreme is to have the church enter into a complete study of their situation. In this case the mediator directs a fact finding process which includes questionnaires being sent to all members of the church. Members are then encouraged to return the questionnaires to small discussion groups where they can share their concerns with the Church Conflict Mediator. He gathers this information and reviews the records of the church. Based on this data, he prepares a report complete with recommendations and action steps for the church to address the problems which may be causing the conflict. The Church Conflict Mediator is then available to follow up with the church in any way requested. Since the position was created, the Church Conflict Mediator has been consulted by and worked with five churches within our Association and two churches outside of the Association within our state.

The second part of the position is to do some work which may prevent church conflict. One way to do this is the share training events which can enhance church unity before conflict arises. The Conflict Mediator has been busy in this aspect of the work. Deacon Training has been conducted in seven churches. Training has been conducted on Team Building, Spiritual Gifts, or establishing a vision for three associational churches. The Church Conflict Mediator has presented two programs to the monthly minister's conference. The one on June 2, 1997, dealt with Conflict Resolution Resources. The one on November 3, 1997, presented a book review of Well Intentioned Dragons by Marshall Shelly. This book was also selected as the source of study for a group of church leaders who meet once a month for discussion and training. The Church Conflict Mediator has also presented training at all three Christian Leadership Training Conferences held by the Association in the past year. In addition, the Church Conflict Mediator has written several monthly articles for publication in the Association's newsletter. These are directed toward ways churches can avoid conflict.

The position continues to be an active part of our Association's ministry to churches. Let us all pray that all activity be in the area of prevention before the conflict in a church can begin.

Mr. Jack Sission

CHURCH MEDIA LIBRARY ORGANIZATION

Report to the Association
1998

This past year our Sunday Schools have been focusing on the theme "Carry the Light" presenting a realistic picture of concerns in our society today. The focus then moves on to how each of us as Christians can meet these concerns. This is where our media centers can focus on being a "channel" of assistance to our congregations. MEDIA is plural for the word "medium." Medium is defined as "a substance for transmitting an effect, a means of conveying information and/or a channel for information."

As every media center reflects on its purpose, we, as media workers, focus on providing channels for each church member to obtain information that will equip him/her to "carry the light" in their community. Such channels are made available through books, video/audio cassettes, maps, pictures, periodicals, or equipment that are properly processed and made accessible.

Workshops on classification and book reviews in the past year have sought to equip church media librarians in such a purpose in becoming a better information channel. As we continue into the next year, the Associational Church Media Library Organization will be available to help any of our churches further promote and encourage its media center to grow as "special channels" in the development of a more knowledgeable and communicative body of believers.

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE

1998

The Constitution and By Laws Committee met several times during the fall of 1997 and submitted a set of proposed amendments to the Executive Committee at its meeting on October 17, 1997. By majority vote, the Executive Committee referred these proposed amendments back to the Constitution and By Laws Committee to be brought before the Executive Committee for discussion on January 26, 1998. Having been brought before the Executive Committee for discussion at that time, these proposed amendments will now be voted upon by the Association at its Annual Meeting on April 23, 1998. Thank you to the Committee for all its work and cooperation during the past year.

Respectfully Submitted,

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

Report to the Association
1998

1997-1998 was a year of strength for Atlantic Baptist Association. In many ways the Association was the strongest I have ever seen it since being your Director of Missions. There is a lot of excitement and new commitment towards associational missions. Years of planning and prayer seem to have paid off this past year.

Part of this success was due to the excellent Associational staff. Mrs. Betty Murphy of Morehead City is continuing to do an outstanding job as Administrative Assistant. She brings an added dimension of compassion and concern for the prayer needs of our churches. Mrs. Beth Hassell, bookkeeper, is doing an great job in the area of finances. In addition, she has assisted several churches in their dealings with the Internal Revenue Service. Dr. Curt Finch, Resort Missions Team Coordinator, is making a difference in the resort scene of the beaches and downtown Morehead City and Beaufort. This ministry continues to be essential in presenting the gospel to the tourists visiting our area. Dr. Myrle Swicegood, Family Life Ministries Coordinator, has become a necessary part of the associational team. Dr. Swicegood's ministry to the family is outstanding. Finally, Mr. Jack Session, Church Conflict Mediator, has become an icon in our Association. He has brought a unique added dimension to associational missions. As an association we are very fortune to have this team. On behalf of your team, I want to thank you for your support.

Also, new church starts continues to be a focus of our Association. The new facilities at Emerald Isle Baptist Church are tremendous. Continue to be in prayer for the new church starts like Cherry Branch and the Koreans. Other new church starts we need to consider in the coming years are the Spanish, Deaf, Brice's Creek, and Highway 24.

Home and abroad mission trips continue to grow in our Association. A lot of volunteers have gone from our Association to serve in these mission projects in the Ukraine, South Africa, Guatemala, Brazil, Costa Rica, South Carolina, Fort Caswell, and so forth. It is amazing to see what God is doing with these volunteers. Also, ministries like the Christian Singles have come into its own this past year. This monthly fellowship of adult Christian singles is averaging sixty to seventy people. It is a wonderful fellowship of Christian concern and care.

Another area in the Association that has reached new heights has been the Elijah's Friends Encouragement Ministry. Key people from across the Association give generously to support mission projects recommended by the Association's Missions Development Council. These projects have included in the past the Bill and Dorothy Loftin Bible Trust Fund for the Seamen Center, Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church, Emerald Isle Baptist Church, New Work Fund, and Ukraine Baptist Churches. A major thrust to include new individuals in this encouragement ministry was begun in early 1998. The results were very encouraging.

Finally, the Christian Leadership Training Conference that the Association conducts has been tremendously successful. Hundreds of individuals have been trained during these special interest conferences. By virtue of the attendance, these training events have proven successful. The Association's Prayer Ministry (447-PRAY) continues to be the common thread that holds many of the churches together. This prayer ministry is essential for the further development and growth of our associational ministries.

May our Heavenly Father continue to bless each church and individual believer during the coming days. May we faithfully serve our Lord in all that we do.

Together in Christ,
Rev. Keith Hamilton

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1998

The Association's Evangelism Committee led in conducting the fifth Spiritual Growth Conference. We continue to hear from pastors and lay people concerning the blessings and challenges received from these conferences. This year's conference was hosted by Parkview Baptist Church in Morehead City. The featured speakers were Dr. Johnny Hunt, Pastor of First Baptist Church, Woodstock, Georgia, and Dr. Herb Reavis, Pastor of First Baptist Church of North Jacksonville, Jacksonville, Florida. Rev. Scott White, Minister of Music of First Baptist Church, Woodstock, and the Celebration Singers provided special music and special music/drama was provided by Mrs. Judy Adams. We also had the privilege to have the "Mended Wings" quartet provide special music on Monday evening.

We were encouraged to see our attendance increase over previous years. The survey taken on Tuesday evening revealed that forty-four percent of those in attendance were attending their first Spiritual Growth Conference. I deeply appreciate your participating in giving the largest love offering ever received during our conference. We were able to take care of all expenses with the budget and love offering received.

We are already in the planning stage for the 1999 Spiritual Growth Conference. The 1999 Conference will be February 15-16. Please pray with us that the attendance will continue to grow, and most of all, that a spark of revival fire will begin. It is our desire to see this conference become a springboard for every church in our association to engage in a local revival effort.

The Association Prayer Ministry needs more churches involved. We are grateful to those individuals who represent their church in this vital ministry. There is not anything we need to be more involved in than prayer. Our prayer ministry will not only affect our individual lives and churches, but what we attempt to do corporately. If you have prayer request or praise, call 447-PRAY!

Our committee is open to any suggestions that you might have for us in order to prepare our churches for more involvement in the area of evangelism. Thank you for your support and encouraging remarks concerning the Spiritual Growth Conference.

Crystal Coast Baptist Church	$6,000
Counseling Center	$3,600
Emerald Isle Baptist Church	$2,400
State Mission Offering Promotional Banquet	$ 300
Brice's Creek Baptist Church	$6,000
Hispanic Bible Study	$3,600
Church for the Deaf	$6,000

The motion was made and passed with approval.

The Mission Development Council moved that the Association's new church start assistance normally be reduced by one fourth a year. The motion was approved.

Also, the Mission Development Council informed the Association that the Bill and Dorothy Loftin Bible Trust Fund for the Seamen's Center, Havelock Korean Baptist Church, and the Associational Deaf Ministry have been selected for the Elijah's Friends Encouragement Ministry for 1998.

9. The Director of Missions, Rev. Keith Hamilton, reported that the Association is doing very well. Some churches have called pastors. The Christian Singles Gathering under the leadership of Mrs. Eleanor Jones celebrated its second birthday. They average about seventy each month. The Women on Mission Retreat directed by Mrs. Cindy Huffman was outstanding. He shared the events of the upcoming Spiritual Growth Conference, February 16-17, and announced that the Annual Meeting, April 23, will be held at the beautiful Emerald Isle Baptist Church. He recognized the staff and thanked the Association for the privilege of serving as Director of Missions.

10. Rev. Ed Satterley, moderator, reminded everyone to turn in their evaluation forms.
11. In miscellaneous business, Rev. Ray Whitby, chairman of the Constitution Committee, asked if there were any further questions regarding proposed constitutional changes. There were none. Rev. Jerry Smith encouraged everyone to attend the fifth Spiritual Growth Conference, February 16-17, at Parkview Baptist Church. The goal is to have every church in attendance with a two hundred voice Associational choir under the direction of Rev. Scott White, First Baptist Church of Woodstock. Rev. Johnny Hunt of First Baptist Church of Woodstock and Rev. Herb Reavis, Jr. of North Jacksonville Baptist Church will be guest speakers.
12. Rev. Keith Hamilton, Director of Missions, gave the benediction and commissions of church members going on mission trips.

FAMILY LIFE MINISTRIES

Report to the Association
1998

Growth in the area of Family Life Ministries has continued. It is a privilege to serve as a partner of the ministers in the Atlantic Baptist Association and the Association staff, as together we seek to improve the quality of life for our members.

Emphasis on education and prevention continues to be a primary focus.

Counseling is provided for ministers and their families when requested and receives top priority. It is sometimes hard to remember that our ministers and their families face many of the problems each of us encounters in addition to taking care of the many needs of their congregation and community.

When possible, initial conferencing sessions are held with church families and individuals when the pastors request assistance. The purpose of this session is to learn more about needs in order to facilitate recommendation of the most suitable long term counselor. Some situations may require only one conference to enable them to overcome what may seem an insurmountable problem. Most of the one contact cases maintain telephone contact for varying lengths of time. From April 1997 through March of 1998, forty-three individuals and families have been assisted. Many times a telephone conference is all that is needed to gain new perspectives. This year there have been more calls from individuals and I have not maintained a record of the many calls for information. These are in addition to the forty-three more in depth requests. Many people who have no church affiliation call because they are desperately seeking help and have heard someone say they have been helped through the Association. I talk with many people whom I never see and God opens doors. There are many I still wonder about and pray they have found a loving church community which I have suggested as a major need in their lives.

Our ministers are deeply concerned over the increasing number of marriages they perform that are soon in trouble. A major effort is underway in our Association to establish a retreat for engaged couples. This retreat would be an intensive weekend experience where some of the realities of marriage would be introduced in a loving and skilled manner. To introduce the concept and present a part of the subject matter, ministers and their wives were invited to a Friday night and all day Saturday retreat at Atlantic Beach, February 27-28. There were about fifty-eight in attendance and the need for strong families was again affirmed.

A special joy is when parents and youth have come together at Association sponsored meetings to discuss career decisions, matching interests with the most appropriate technical school or university, accessing scholarships and preparing for interviews. Forty plus parents and students attended this year. Additional, individual career and interview skills counseling with eleven high school juniors and seniors have helped them be successful in building on their excellent foundations with many of them receiving scholarships. We stay alert to scholarships, summer experiences, apprenticeships and service opportunities for youth. The world of business tells us that people skills are becoming a lost art for many young people. Leadership development and people skills have been taught in seminars and workshops involving one hundred thirty-eight young people and counselors.

There are still many situations of crisis with young people that require all of us to be involved. In some cases steps must be taken to provide new environments if the young person is to be able to break out of destructive behavior. We have helped to place three boys and one girl in special rehabilitation programs and one girl in a Baptist Children's Home. Ministers are alert to families with children who need special help and every effort is made to search out and access needed resources.

Twenty-three special presentations have been made to groups. It has been necessary to limit these to area and multi-church groups in most cases due to limited time available. Presentations on requested topics for Associational meetings seem to meet special needs and are times that I look forward.

Writing is another interesting component of this ministry. Articles are provided for the Associational Newsletter, when space is available, as a way of reaching more people. Notes and letters of encouragement, support, and recommendation are provided. Reviews of special books that are helpful to ministers and helpful sources for special topics are provided them.

I am grateful for the opportunity of serving in this manner and express appreciation to Keith Hamilton who envisioned the possibility of Family Ministries that is unique to the Atlantic Baptist Association.

Respectfully Submitted,
Dr. Myrle Swicegood

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Report to the Association

The 1997-1998 Finance Committee has completed a review of the Association's financial records and operating procedures for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1996 and ending April 30, 1997.

The scope of the review covered an examination of the Association's minutes, quarterly payroll taxes, and the prior audit report. Included in the examination was the handling of cash receipts and disbursements, including a review of canceled checks and deposit slips from two randomly selected months. Verification was made that the premiums on the Association's liability insurance coverage had been paid. Based on the assumption that these samplings represent the condition of all records and procedures for the fiscal year, we feel there is no need for further inspection.

In summary, the Finance Committee believes that all monies received by the Association have been properly handled and accounted for and that proper procedures for the disbursement of all funds have been faithfully followed.

The staff and officers of the Association are to be commended for keeping the financial records of the Association's ministry efforts up-to-date, easy to understand, available for review, and above reproach. The churches of Atlantic Baptist Association thank you.

Respectfully Submitted,
Mr. Sherrill Garner, Chairman

HISTORIAN

Report to the Association
1998

This has been a year of growth in our Association as evidenced by many things. Several of our churches have found it necessary to add another Sunday morning worship service. Membership is on the rise. Every month in the Association's newsletter churches report that new members have been added. In February, First Baptist Church, New Bern, received a ninety year old woman on profession of faith. At Sea Level Missionary Baptist Church, an eighty-four year old gentleman moved his letter and a wheel chair bound man came for baptism insisting upon immersion. Missions awareness and community involvement among our people have also increased. In the Annual Session last April the Association voted to establish a part time ministry position of Church Conflict Mediator. Mr. Jack Sission of Bogue Banks Baptist Church was employed to fill this position. Our Association is the first in North Carolina to have its own Web Site with this new form of ministry.

New construction, renovation, and repairs have been a part of the growth. Cove City Baptist Church had ground breaking in September for a new fellowship hall. South Creek Baptist Church celebrated completion of extensive building repair with a fellowship meal in November. Cherry Branch Baptist Church has been given a lease free of charge at their new church site. The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina is providing a mobile unit. The first "indoor" service was held in March. Huggins Memorial Baptist Church is working on a new educational building. We rejoice that Emerald Isle Baptist Church has completed their new sanctuary. The dedication service was Sunday afternoon, December 7. Their regular attendance has increased dramatically. They are in an area of great mission outreach.

"FIELDS ARE WHITE AND HARVESTS WAITING, WHO WILL BEAR THE SHEAVES AWAY?" There have been mission trips and mission endeavors at home and abroad. Members from five churches were part of an associational team that went to the Ukraine, June 28-July 12. They held Vacation Bible School, did construction work, and held medical and dental clinics. Another team went to South Africa in February. They were involved in church construction, children's camp, and evangelistic meetings. First Baptist Church, Morehead City, sent a group of nine people to Forteleza, Brazil in August to do church construction and renovation. They sent a mission team to Costa Rica in July. Twenty members from Bogue Banks Baptist Church went to El Estor, Guatemala, in February to build a church for the Mayan Indians. First Baptist Church, New Bern, had several youths and adults to go to an Episcopal Friary on Long Island, New York. They built a nature trail and installed exercise and fitness equipment. In the summer, Cherry

Branch Baptist Church started regular Sunday morning worship services outdoors at Pine Cliff State Park. Many churches collected coats for North Korean children. Sixty-five hundred were given by North Carolina Baptists. The Seamen's Center at the Port in Morehead City continues to be part of our missions. Christmas kits were given to the captains of ships that were at sea on Christmas Day. During a special service the kits were given to the sailors. This was the only Christmas present that most of the crews received. We shall never be able to estimate the impact of the Summer Resort Ministry on the teams and on those whose lives are touched by their ministry. Seven teams came from churches in Virginia, Georgia, and our own state. During the seven weeks, three hundred children attended the Bible Clubs at the two campgrounds. More than five thousand people listened to the evening programs at Emerald Isle, Morehead City, and Beaufort. They shared the gospel through music, puppets, clowning, and skits. The ministry was enhanced this year by the youth from Tabernacle Baptist Church in New Bern with some extra programs at the evening ministry locations.

Time is passing and our churches are growing older in length of years but not older in service and activity. They are branching out into new areas of ministry every year in their communities, association and in regions beyond. The Woman's Missionary Union at Reece's Chapel Baptist Church sponsored lunch each Monday in July for Habitat workers at Bell Creek. The Keenagers at Temple Baptist Church gave a Baby Shower for Craven Pregnancy Center. Calvary Baptist Church sent two Recovery Team members to Falmouth, Kentucky, to help disaster flood victims.

Mrs. Fanella Bell, Associational Spanish Intern, assisted South Creek Baptist Church with this year's ministry to Spanish speaking seasonal seafood workers. First Baptist Church, Aurora, voted to send fifty dollars a month to purchase Bibles for the Seamen's Center. Almost five hundred health kits were donated towards the Spanish work in the summer of 1997 at Spring Garden Baptist Church, Oriental Baptist Church, South Creek Baptist Church, and Calvary Baptist Church, Beaufort. They were used as a means to witness to some of the seasonal migrants. First Baptist Church, Davis, made one hundred first aid kits for fishermen. McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church began a Sunday School Class to reach women whose husbands are away on military duty or whose husbands do not attend Sunday School. The Royal Ambassadors at Bayboro Baptist Church built an Easter cross and planted lilies around it. The Girls in Action planted flowers on the church grounds. Women on Mission gave health kits for migrant workers. Our Association is closely related to the military. Pollocksville held a Memorial Service on May 25 in the town cemetery. Trenton Baptist Church recognized the veterans using the video "Celebrate America." Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church had Chaplain Bumbry as speaker at their recognition service on Armed Forces Day. On Saturday, September 20, Colony Baptist Church and Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church held a "Bridging the Gap" festival on the Colony Baptist Church grounds in New Bern. Fun and activities included a silent auction, a large flea market, children's activities, and a Gospel Festival.

Our Baptist roots in eastern North Carolina run deep. The oldest church in our Association, First Baptist Church of New Bern, was organized in 1809. However, the recent finding of an old deed shows that there were organized Baptist in New Bern prior to 1809. A deed was written in October of 1807 and recorded in the Court of Pleas and Quarter Special, March Term 1808, to The Trustees of UNITED BAPTIST SOCIETY OF NEW BERN. It was for the property on which First Baptist Church built her first house of worship in 1811. The second oldest church is Smyrna Baptist Church, organized in 1829. It is interesting to note that as the churches report their anniversaries they are either for ninety years or more or for forty-eight years or less. There are none reporting in the sixty, seventy, or eighty years. Bayboro Baptist Church reported one hundred twenty-three years, Tabernacle Baptist Church one hundred and two years, and Reece's Chapel Baptist Church reported celebrating ninety years. There were several churches that reported between thirty and forty-five years. Almost half of our present churches were organized between 1809 and 1899. Dover Missionary Baptist Church was organized in 1900 and Reece's Chapel Baptist Church in 1907. There was a period of about forty-two years in which no churches were organized. After World War II, a real effort was launched for more missions and churches. The first one was First Baptist Church, Havelock, in 1949, followed closely by Cherry Point Baptist in 1952. Since that time we have organized about twenty missions and churches.

It is a wonderful time when our churches gather in celebration of anniversaries and homecomings. These will not compare, however, to the reunion on that "Great Getting Up Morning" when we shall meet those who labored more than a century ago to bring our Association into being.

Miss Jane Marshall Jenkins

Report to the Association
1998

Island Road Baptist Church presented application for membership to the Atlantic Baptist Association at the Annual Meeting on April 24, 1997. That application was passed along to the Membership Committee for review and future recommendation. After reviewing Island Road Baptist Church and in accordance with Article IV, Section 1 of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Atlantic Baptist Association, the Membership Committee recommends that Island Road Baptist Church be granted watchcare status in the Atlantic Baptist Association.

At the October 27, 1997, meeting of the Atlantic Baptist Association's Executive Committee, the following motion was passed unanimously: "That the Membership Committee of the Atlantic Baptist Association contact Dover Missionary Baptist Church in hope of restoring that fellowship back into active involvement in the Association." After making contact with Dover Missionary Baptist Church, which has demonstrated noncooperation and nonparticipation, and in accordance with Article IV, Section 2 of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Atlantic Baptist Association, the Membership Committee recommends that Dover Missionary Baptist Church be placed under watchcare status in the Atlantic Baptist Association.

MISSION DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

1998

We, the Atlantic Baptist Association, continue to have the Great Commission as the heartbeat and lifeblood of our fellowship. Year after year, God reinforces our belief that we are more useful to Him and His Kingdom purposes as an association of cooperating churches than we ever could be as individual churches. You have charged the Mission Development Council with providing strategic planning and leadership in carrying out the Great Commission at the associational level.

This past year has seen God at work in the area of new church starts: Emerald Isle Baptist Church dedicated their new sanctuary on December 7, 1997; Cherry Branch Baptist Church, a "possibility" last year, is a mission this year; and Havelock Korean Baptist Church continues to grow and is seeking additional space in which to worship. We are also continuing to look at the Highway 24 area in Carteret County and the Brice's Creek area near New Bern as areas in need of new church starts. Our 1998-1999 budget request includes funds for a Spanish language Baptist Church as well as a church for the deaf.

God has continued to use our Association in partnership missions with South Africa and the Ukraine. Mission teams have gone, and continue to go, to each country to carry the gospel as well as support and encourage the national churches. Associational churches have donated numerous supplies to be used in mission and ministry efforts around the country and around the world.

The Mission Development Council thanks you, the churches of Atlantic Baptist Association, for your support this past year. Without your prayers, financial support, and personal involvement in missions, there would not be such good things to report. We pray that the coming year will see God doing even greater works through us as we surrender to His sovereign will and proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord here and throughout the world.

MUSIC

Report to the Association
1998

The MUSIC MINISTRY in the Atlantic Baptist Association is alive and doing well. We have had excellent attendance at the special workshops. The special music at all the Associational meetings has been great!

I look forward to serving you another year as your Associational Music Director. Always feel free to call me if I can be of any help to you. I would still like for every church to send a list and number of their "cantata" books so I can make a master list. This will be a great help to many churches so they can borrow music. A cantata book costs so much. This way, we can all help each other. Send me a list as soon as you can make it. My address is John Thompson, 608 Broad Street, New Bern, NC 28560.

Musically yours,
Rev. John Thompson

ORDINATION COMMITTEE

The Association's Ordination Committee has been asked only once since our last report to the association to meet with a candidate for ordination consideration. The committee met at the Association Center on August 4, 1997 upon the request of one of our churches. The candidate was interviewed and it was recommended by the committee to the local church that he not be ordained until he had additional training in Baptist history and polity. The committee did recommend that the candidate be considered for licensure by the church. This information was shared with the candidate and the pastor of the church requesting the interview. The church subsequently decided to ordain the candidate.

The Ordination Committee serves at the request of the local church. The committee provides professionally qualified ministers who are charged only with making recommendations. The local church has full jurisdiction in all matters related to licensing and ordination.

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1998

In 1998 we said good-bye to a fine Administrative Assistant, Mrs. Debra Bledsoe. However, God blessed our Association by sending Mrs. Betty Murphy, a pastor's wife, to fill this vital role.

A new position, that of Church Conflict Mediator, was created. We are fortunate to have Mr. Jack Sisson, a member of the Bogue Banks Baptist Church, as our first Conflict Mediator. We hope this will help our churches during times of distress.

Other associational staff to remember in your prayers would be Dr. Curt Finch, Dr. Myrle Swicegood, and Mrs. Beth Hassell. Of course, our Director of Missions, Rev. Keith Hamilton, and his family, are always deserving of our support for their faithfulness to God's work.

RESORT MINISTRY

Report to the Association
1998

During the summer of 1997 we welcomed six resort ministry teams to our area. These teams came from around our state and out of state to serve here. They ministered to tourists and local residents and were able to touch many lives with the gospel of Jesus Christ. As of the writing of this report, we have several teams which have made inquiries about resort ministry for the summer of 1998. As last year, these teams will conduct backyard Bible Clubs and lead special programs in the evenings at several locations. We have the opportunity to play a critical role in ministry and evangelism through Resort Ministry in the Atlantic Baptist Association.

SECRETARIES' CONFERENCE

Report to the Association
1998

Quarterly meetings offer instruction, education, and training as well as fellowship and fun.

Our current officers are:

President.....Mrs. Cathy Adair
Vice President.....Mrs. Brenda Jones
Secretary.....Mrs. Gail Edge
Historian.....Mrs. Jo McCabe and
Mrs. Lynn Gilmette

The April fellowship afforded the opportunity to praise and worship with musical talents from Brenda Jones and Patty Loftin. Interpretation was provided on several pieces by Cathy Adair and guest, Chris Brown.

In October, Toni Zucco, Director of Carteret County Domestic Violence Program, addressed our secretaries with the startling facts about domestic violence in our local areas. Helpful information was shared and materials were available for the secretaries to use in their churches.

January, 1998, gave a wonderful time of education as we searched ourselves through the topic of "Understanding Personality Traits" taught by Patsy Fulcher, Director of Coastal Pregnancy Counseling Centers. This study allowed for personal insight into why we are what we are. It offered understanding of others and how to relate to those with whom we work and live.

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES

Report to the Association
1998

The attendance at the two "SENIOR ADULT RALLIES" has been "extra" great this year. We have heard very good music from the different senior adult groups. If your church does not have an organized Senior Adult Group, please contact me and I will be willing to help you begin one. We had excellent attendance and participation in the Association workshops on Senior Adult Ministries. Everyone shared and we all learned some "new" things we could do in our own church. If you do not mind, I would like for you to write and let me know some of the things your church is doing for senior adults. I can publish a list and this way we can all get ideas. Please send me a list of your activities. My address is John Thompson, 608 Broad Street, New Bern, NC 28560.

SINGLE ADULT MINISTRY

Report to the Association
1998

The "Christian Singles Gathering" is growing, growing, growing! God has really blessed this ministry to the "single and single again" of our association. Sixty to seventy singles of all ages and denominations gather on the fourth Saturday of each month for an evening of Christian fun, games, fellowship, support, and friendship plus (always) food.

Through our devotionals, speakers, music and programs, we hope singles will feel God's presence and gain strength and guidance for everyday living. We rejoice that this year another single accepted Christ!

In January 1998, we celebrated our second birthday! Some of this years speakers were Dr. Myrle Swicegood, Mrs. Polly Privette, Rev. Phil Yi, Rev. Keith Hamilton, and Mr. Sasha Skripnik. Mr. Skripnik presented an interesting program on his country, the Ukraine. One of our singles, Teresa Garner, from Newport Baptist Church, presented a program of slides, artifacts and a report of her mission trip to Russia.

Some of our party themes have been September Craze, School Dazs, Vacation Fair, Friendships from the Heart, Hop into Spring, Make Your Own Sundae Night, and After Christmas Party. We have had covered dish meals and a cook out. A highlight of this year was two wonderful, authentic, Korean dinners prepared by the ladies of the Korean Baptist Church. We loved their food and they loved our desserts! Led by Sunny Yi, the Korean Choir inspired us with beautiful singing.

The Singles Ministry participated in the Associational Mission Fair, sponsored by First Baptist Church, Morehead City. Field trips were planned to view "Worthy is the Lamb" and the outdoor drama "The Message of Easter" in Williamston, North Carolina. Some of our group attended the Singles' Retreat at our North Carolina Baptist Assembly, Fort Caswell Beach.

I appreciate the great work from committee members Carol Pelletier, First Baptist Church, Morehead City, Brenda Hicks, our pianist from Calvary Baptist Church, Beaufort, Norma Clark, Smyrna Missionary Baptist Church, Terry Kennedy and Roberta Garwin, First Baptist Church, Havelock, and Dave Cole, McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church, Havelock. We appreciate McCotter Baptist Church hosting our meetings.

Churches, please continue to help us publicize the Singles Ministry through your newsletters and bulletins. Encourage them to car pool or perhaps use the church van to come as a group. We meet each fourth Saturday of the month at 7:00 PM at McCotter Baptist Church, Havelock. Free child care is provided for all who call 1-800-676-0270. Please continue to keep this ministry in your prayers.

STEWARDSHIP

Report to the Association
1998

Did you know that Americans spend more on chewing gum than the combined giving of the Protestant Churches to foreign missions? Are you a consumer church member, designating your tithe to this program or that and not the general budget? What steps, if any, is your church taking to help in your community as the Federal Government begins to push physically-able people into the work force and off of welfare? Did you know that the Bible mentions money more times than love or faith? Are your church records being done according to federal guidelines? Are you paying your staff in a way that is most beneficial to them? These are some of the issues that have been talked about in Stewardship Conferences and Workshops this past year.

God is blessing our Association with people and churches that realize Stewardship IS a valid part of worshipping and serving Him. We are still falling short of the full potential available to us and would like to challenge you to be open as the Lord leads in this area. It is hoped that pastors will teach and be examples of what the Word has to say about Stewardship and that the church will be receptive and respond in a like manner.

Personal, family, and church stewardship are all areas of concern that we hope to continue addressing. Please let us know where you need help so we can work together towards building God's Kingdom until His return.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Report to the Association

The Sunday School year of 1997-98 proved to be one of mixed blessings with a positive domination. We are approaching the turn of the century with a good attitude and willingness to develop new ideas and to work in new ways in order to reach and disciple people through Bible study.

Total Sunday School average attendance went up in our association during this year by almost five percent. This is fantastic in light of the fact there had been a drop in attendance from the year before. The 3,620 in average attendance ranks as the highest in more than a decade. We can all be very grateful for the hard and consistent work done by our church Sunday School leaders.

On the less than positive side is the fact that we continue to have a decrease in overall Sunday School enrollment, but thankfully the rate of decrease is much smaller than last year. Sunday School attendance growth cannot continue without being preceded by enrollment growth. People come when they know they are wanted. An active enrollment program is fundamental to this. Our Sunday School leadership is encouraged to train their class and department workers to enroll guests the first times they attend thereby conveying the idea these people are wanted.

In the area of leadership training, a local event was held at Bogue Banks Baptist Church in October under the supervision of Jack Sisson, Sunday School Director at Bogue Banks. The training event was led by state workers for children and preschool work on a Friday night and Saturday morning and targeted a limited number of churches in the Crystal Coast area. The response was good enough to try similar conferences designed for particular age group workers in churches in a specific geographical area in the coming year.

Churches are encouraged to provide means by which workers will be able to attend one of the training conferences being sponsored by the Bible Teaching-Reaching Division of our North Carolina Baptist State Convention. These two day events are held at Caraway Baptist Assembly near Asheboro the last two weekends of September and at Fort Caswell Baptist Assembly the first weekend of October.

The Great Commission remains as our guiding principle. We must emphasize that it is not a suggestion. It is the expectation of God for His Church.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Report to the Association
1998

What a great year for Vacation Bible School! The excitement was sky high as churches across the Association led "The Wild and Wonderful Good News Stampede—Telling Others About Jesus." New curriculum, fresh ideas, and flexible schedules mixed with familiar traditions and Vacation Bible School basics proved to be an effective way of reaching others for Christ.

The report from last summer shows one hundred sixty-five in attendance for the associational Vacation Bible School clinics. Thank you, McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church and Cherry Point Baptist Church for hosting the training sessions. Sixteen churches reported having held a Vacation Bible School for a total of 2,018 in attendance and sixty-three decisions made. Five churches were recognized as having led standard schools. Congratulations to Tabernacle Baptist Church and McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church for being named as Advanced Standard Schools!

This summer will prove to be just as exciting as we count down to Vacation Bible School and a new theme "Starquest: A Galactic Good News Adventure." (Exploring Our Mission With Jesus) In 1998, Vacation Bible School will be an out-of-this world experience for boys, girls, youth, men, and women. This Space Odyssey will lead them in a study of life's ultimate mission to know Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord and to tell others about Him.

In order to help you prepare to lead this mission, your associational Vacation Bible School team has been trained and is ready and willing to share their findings with you at one of the two clinics being offered within the Association. The first clinic will be held April 25 at McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church and the next one will be on May 18 at First Baptist Church of Havelock.

Through the years, many lives have been touched by the ministry of Vacation Bible School. Many seeds have been planted. You may never know the impact you have made, but I praise God for those of you doing this planting, for allowing God to use you to lead others to Him.

Each year, I am reminded of the scripture, Luke 18:16...Jesus said, "Suffer little ones to come unto me and forbid them not...." Thank you for helping these "little ones" come to Jesus. Thank you for leading them on their way, step by step, to reaching Christ.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Report to the Association
1998

The theme for this year is COME GO WITH ME. We have leaders for all age levels. In May our leadership team traveled to Mundo Vista in Asheboro to train for the leadership training for Atlantic Baptist Association.

Mrs. Brenda Jones led the Girls In Action activity on May 3 at McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church. "TOGETHER, HAND IN HAND," a mother/daughter brunch, was well attended. The girls enjoyed a time with puppets and every girl that wished to was able to use a puppet in a skit. A slide presentation about missions in the Ukraine was given by Mrs. Mary Lou Harrell.

In December, on short notice, we were able to gather children's coats for North Korea. Our churches did well and we were able to take almost one hundred coats to the Baptist Building in Cary. They were delivered to Richmond and flown to North Korea.

The annual Women on Missions Beach Retreat was held at the Ramada Inn on Atlantic Beach January 23 and 24. Mrs. Cindy Huffman plans this activity each year and does an outstanding job. Our speakers were Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Myers, foreign missionaries in Swaziland. In the evening service we sang songs from Swaziland and viewed a slide presentation of the people and work being done there. In the morning service Cindy made pictures of each church group. The Myers led us in a time of devotion and told how the people in Swaziland worshipped.

On January 26, 1998, leadership training was held at First Baptist Church, Havelock. Women on Mission by Mrs. Cindy Huffman, a roundtable discussion of Woman's Missionary Union work in our churches, was done as well as age level sessions for Acteens, Girls In Action and Mission Friends.

In April, the Associational Woman's Missionary Union leaders were at First Baptist Church, Morehead City, to present a booth at their Mission Fair. Woman's Missionary Union age level materials were on display and we were there to offer information.

At this time, State Woman's Missionary Union and Baptist Men are collecting food for North Korea. This was done last year on very short notice. North Korea determines the schedule. This time we have more time for collection and we are looking forward to tangible results.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Report to the Association
1998

Wow, I cannot believe that another year has gone by. I have greatly enjoyed serving as your Associational Youth Minister. We kicked things off with a great bang last year with an Association Youth Rally at Temple Baptist Church in May. Rev. Bill Cox did a chalk drawing that was incredible. I have never seen anything like it. The altar was so full of teenagers afterwards that I could not even make my way to the stage. We sponsored an outdoor concert in July at McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church featuring "Witness." We had a great crowd and it was a great concert. In October Michael Capps led a youth leader training event at Tabernacle. In November Tom Toombs led a fantastic youth rally at Parkview Baptist Church. We had a great crowd and several teens rededicated their lives to Christ. Bogue Banks Baptist Church sponsored a day at the beach for our association in August as well. In January we held our annual Association Youth Lock-In at First Baptist Church, Morehead City. We had one hundred teens and eighteen adults in attendance and a great time was had by all.

This year I plan to sponsor the first ever Children's Rally for children in grades one through six. Mark your calendar for October 24. Your children will love Jilly Bean. She uses puppets and clowning to teach children about Jesus. Also, please put November 7 on your calendar. We will have a great Associational Youth Rally that night. If I can help you in any way please let me know.

Constitution

of the

ATLANTIC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

Associations being a proven way of helping churches carry out the Great Commission, we the missionary Baptist churches of Beaufort, Carteret, Craven, Jones, and Pamlico counties voluntarily agree to cooperate according to the objectives, doctrines, and structures set forth in this constitution. No compromise of local church autonomy is implied or follows from membership in this Association or from relationships the Association maintains with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Southern Baptist Convention, or any other person or group determined by the Association - meeting in Executive Committee or Annual Session - to advance the cause of Christ.

ARTICLE I - NAME

Our name shall be the "Atlantic Baptist Association of North Carolina, Incorporated."

ARTICLE II - MISSION

Under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, the mission of this Association and its officers shall be to train, counsel, encourage, and otherwise assist member churches fulfill their scriptural mandate to worship God, love their neighbor, evangelize the lost, and disciple believers in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (cf., Mark 12:29-31; Matthew 28:19-20).

Inasmuch as cooperation among churches is usually more productive than acting alone, the mission of this Association shall also include initiating such mission advance or outreach activities as shall be judged appropriate by the Association.

ARTICLE III - STATEMENT OF FAITH

Christ and Scripture - the living and written Word of God respectively - shall be the source of our beliefs and basis of our fellowship. The Baptist Faith and Message adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963 expresses the doctrinal positions of the Association.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

Under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, Baptist churches are completely free and sovereign to conduct their business as they see fit. The same goes for Baptist Associations. Membership in this Association, therefore, does not confer to the Association any authority over member churches, nor may churches exercise authority over the Association.

Affiliation between churches and the Association, being free and voluntary, is predicated only on acceptance of the mission and doctrinal positions set forth in this constitution and on active, cooperative participation.

SECTION 1. GRANTING MEMBERSHIP

A. Churches desiring membership in this Association shall - upon official church action - apply directly to the Association meeting in annual or executive session. Such applications shall be presented in writing.

The Association shall, in turn, receive as information and forward such applications to the Membership Committee for study and recommendation.

B. Upon receiving referrals of membership applications from the Association, the Membership Committee shall - over a one year period - take appropriate steps to determine whether applicants evidence suitable compatibility with the Association in spirit and doctrine.

C. Following this one year review, the Membership Committee shall report a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant watchcare status.

D. The Association shall then decide whether to grant watchcare status - a status that carries with it the same rights and privileges as full members with the exceptions of voting and holding office.

A two-thirds vote of ballots cast shall be required to grant watchcare status.

E. After observing churches received under watchcare for one year, the Membership Committee shall bring a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant full membership based upon cooperation, participation, spirit, and doctrine.

A vote to grant full membership shall also require a two-thirds favorable vote of ballots cast.

SECTION 2. WITHDRAWING MEMBERSHIP

A. Membership may be withdrawn when churches no longer cooperate or participate in the life of the Association. Membership may also be withdrawn when churches deviate doctrinally from positions set forth in The Baptist Faith and Message.

B. The procedure whereby membership may be withdrawn is as follows:

1. Authorization to take steps toward withdrawing membership may be given only by the Association meeting in annual or executive session. The Membership Committee may, however, request such authorization.

2. Such authorization to review membership status is indicated when churches evidence noncooperation, nonparticipation, or doctrinal deviation.

3. Once authorized, the Membership Committee shall conduct a thorough examination before returning a recommendation to the Association.

During this period, the Membership Committee shall take appropriate steps to bring those congregations being examined back into fellowship.

4. Should these restorative efforts fail, the Membership Committee may recommend watchcare status (not withdrawal of membership) to the Association.

Watchcare status - with its attendant loss of all voting and office holding privileges - shall go into effect upon a two-thirds vote of ballots cast by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

5. Such watchcare status shall last one year, after which the Membership Committee shall recommend restoring full membership or withdrawing membership altogether.

As with the vote on watchcare status, a vote to restore or withdraw membership shall require a two-thirds vote of ballots cast by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

SECTION 3. TRANSFERRING MEMBERSHIP: Any church requesting transfer to another Association may be granted a letter of dismissal by presenting a written request to the Association.

SECTION 4. MESSENGERS TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND ANNUAL MEETINGS: All congregations holding full membership in the Association may send up to ten (10) messengers to Executive Committee and Annual meetings.

ARTICLE V - PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Robert's Rules of Order, in its latest edition, shall be the accepted authority in conducting the business of the Association.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to this constitution may be put to a vote at any Annual Meeting provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed amendments shall first be submitted in writing to the Association at the October meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. The Executive Committee shall, in turn and by majority vote, refer proposed amendments to the Constitution and By Laws Committee for study and recommendation.

C. Written copies of proposed amendments shall be given to the Executive Committee at their January meeting by the Constitution and By Laws Committee along with the committee's recommendation.

D. Proposed amendments shall be presented and voted upon at the Annual Meeting.

The same conditions apply to a completely revised or re-written constitution.

Any actions taken on constitutional matters shall require a two-thirds favorable vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

By Laws

of the

ATLANTIC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

In carrying out its mission, the Atlantic Baptist Association shall be organized into three councils - Missions Development, Church Development, and Administrative. These three councils report to the Association through Executive Committee and Annual meetings.

ARTICLE I - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee - composed of up to ten messengers from churches holding full membership in the Association - shall meet the last Mondays of July, October, and January to hear reports, transact business, and respond to issues affecting the life and mission of the Association. The Executive Committee shall be the final decision-making body of the Association between Annual Meetings.

ARTICLE II - MISSIONS DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

SECTION 1. Strategic planning and leadership in carrying out the Great Commission on the associational level is the dual charge of the Missions Development Council. In performing this assignment, this council shall perform the following tasks:

1) Discover mission needs to which the Association ought to respond;
2) develop strategies for meeting these needs;
3) challenge churches to be missionary in theology and practice;
4) provide resources for use in advancing the cause of Christ;
5) organize opportunities for doing missions together;
6) train church and associational workers to perform missions; and
7) establish and maintain appropriate lines of communication with the community and denomination.

The Missions Development Council shall be composed of the Missions Development Director, Survey Director, Promotional Director, WMU Director, Baptist Men Director, and chairmen of all component programs.

A. The Missions Development Director chairs and leads the council to discharge the tasks listed above.

B. The Survey Director discovers mission needs and opportunities, and makes the Association and churches of the Association aware of them.

C. The Promotional Director leads churches to do missions, and works with the Missions Development Director to provide appropriate training.

D. The Woman's Missionary Union Director promotes and leads WMU work in the Association.

E. The Baptist Men Director promotes and leads Baptist Men work in the Association.

F. Component programs in associational work shall be determined by the Missions Development Council.

SECTION 2. This council, which reports to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting, shall meet quarterly to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each component program shall train its own officers, who shall in turn - working cooperatively with their counterparts in the churches - guide their respective programs.

SECTION 4. With the single exception of the Woman's Missionary Union director, all directors sitting on the Missions Development Council shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Association at the Annual Meeting. Vacancies among these directors occurring during the year shall be filled as soon as possible by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

Directors desiring to assemble a committee to work with them, shall - after consulting the Director of Missions and chairman of the Nominating Committee for input - assemble their own committees, subject to subsequent approval by the Nominating Committee and Executive Committee.

ARTICLE III - CHURCH DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Church Development Council - which shall be chaired by the Sunday School Director - is a training and equipping ministry of the Association. Either the Church Development Council or Association may add component programs to the council membership.

Sunday school, discipleship training, music, youth, church media library, stewardship, Christian life, pastoral ministries, evangelism, ordination, senior adult, and single adult shall each be represented on the Church Development Council by their directors.

SECTION 2. This council, which reports to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting, shall meet quarterly to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each program shall train its own officers, who shall in turn offer assistance to their counterparts in the churches.

SECTION 4. Each program shall, in cooperation with the Nominating Committee, enlist and nominate its chief officers for approval by the Association at the Annual Meeting. Vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 5. SUNDAY SCHOOL

A. The Sunday School Director plans, conducts, and evaluates Sunday School work in the Association, and also chairs the Church Development Council.

B. The Vacation Bible School Director plans, conducts, and evaluates Vacation Bible School work in the Association. The VBS Director also trains and leads the associational VBS "assist team."

SECTION 6. DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING: The Discipleship Training Director, after appraising disciple-making needs within the Association, develops and conducts appropriate training events.

SECTION 7. MUSIC: The Music Director leads churches to plan, conduct, enlarge, and improve their music programs. The Director also provides inspirational music at associational meetings as requested.

SECTION 8. YOUTH MINISTRY: The Youth Ministry Director develops and conducts ministries designed to meet the needs of youth and their parents.

SECTION 9. CHURCH MEDIA LIBRARY: The Church Media Library Director promotes, enlists, and develops media-library work in the Association.

SECTION 10. STEWARDSHIP: The Stewardship Director promotes the principles and practice of Christian stewardship within the Association.

SECTION 11. CHRISTIAN LIFE: The Christian Life Director educates Baptists concerning critical moral and ethical issues of the day, and leads the Association to respond in appropriate ways.

SECTION 12. PASTORAL MINISTRIES: The Pastoral Ministries Director helps the Association and churches carry out pastoral ministries.

SECTION 13. EVANGELISM: The Evangelism Director enlists, trains, and motivates churches to engage in evangelism.

SECTION 14. ORDINATION: As requested by member churches, the Ordination Director leads the Ordination Committee to examine - for recommendation - candidates professing a call to the gospel ministry.

SECTION 15. SENIOR ADULTS: The Senior Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop senior adult ministries.

SECTION 16. SINGLE ADULTS: The Single Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop single adult ministries.

ARTICLE IV - ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

SECTION 1. To facilitate and support the work of the Association, the Administrative Council oversees and maintains the associational infrastructure.

The membership of this council - which shall be chaired by the Moderator - shall be made up of the chairmen of the following committees: Nominating, Order of Business, Finance, Constitution, Membership, Personnel, Trustees/Directors, and Building and Grounds. Also sitting on the Administrative Council shall be the Moderator/President, Vice Moderator/Vice President, Clerk, Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Historian, and Parliamentarian.

SECTION 2. This council will meet as needed and reports directly to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting.

SECTION 3. Each committee trains its own officers to know their duties and guide their respective committees and counterparts in the churches.

SECTION 4. COMMITTEES

A. NOMINATING COMMITTEE: Nine (9) members - who serve three year terms on a rotating basis - compose the Nominating Committee. The task of this committee is to nominate persons to serve in the offices and on the committees of the Association. These nominees shall be presented at the Annual Meeting in April. Committee recommendations do not preclude nominations being made from the floor. Subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee, the responsibility to fill vacancies occurring between annual sessions also falls to this committee.

B. ORDER OF BUSINESS COMMITTEE: The Moderator/President, Clerk, and Music Director compose the Order of Business Committee. The assignment of this committee - working with the Director of Missions - is

(a) to prepare a printed program for annual sessions, and

(b) to make place and program decisions.

Printed programs shall be sent out at least thirty (30) days before the Annual Meeting. This order of business is presented for adoption at the opening session, and serves throughout the meeting unless changes become necessary and are approved.

C. FINANCE COMMITTEE: Six (6) members - who serve three year rotating terms - compose the Finance Committee. The task of this committee is to: (a) study the financial needs of the Association; (b) solicit budgetary input from all associational programs, committees, and ministries; (c) in January present a proposed budget for the following year to the Association. Final adoption of the budget occurs at the Annual Meeting held in April. This committee is also responsible for securing the cooperation of the churches in meeting the budget, and (d) annually review the financial records of the Association.

D. CONSTITUTION AND BY LAWS COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, form the membership of this committee. The purpose of this committee is to study for recommendation to the Association any proposed changes to the Constitution, By Laws, or Policy Manual.

E. MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, make up the membership of this committee. The function of this committee is to evaluate for recommendation to the Association any requests received from local Baptist churches seeking membership in the Association. The Membership Committee shall also receive or initiate any move to separate a church from membership in the Association. The committee shall prayerfully and diligently study such requests, and make recommendations according to ARTICLE IV of the Constitution.

F. PERSONNEL COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, compose the membership of this committee. The role of this committee is to make recommendations to the Association concerning staff employment, job descriptions, terms of employment, and related considerations.

G. The BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE periodically inspects all associational property, and makes recommendations concerning maintenance, modifications, policies, furnishings, insurance, and grounds care as needed.

H. The TRUSTEES/DIRECTORS handle all legal matters of the Association as directed by the Association. Three (3) members (one preferably an attorney) - each serving three year rotating terms - compose this board. After serving one full term, a year must elapse before trustees/ directors may succeed themselves.

SECTION 5. OFFICERS

A. The MODERATOR/PRESIDENT - who may serve no more than two one year terms in succession - shall preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings of the Association. The Moderator also chairs the Administrative Council. In addition, the Moderator/President shall be an ex-officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association except the Nominating Committee, and shall appoint a registration committee to serve at Annual and other meetings as needed. Further contact between the Moderator/President and member churches is encouraged.

B. The VICE MODERATOR/VICE PRESIDENT, in the absence of or as called upon by the Moderator/President, presides at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings.

C. The CLERK annually sends the Annual Church Profile to member churches at least two months before the stated due date; keeps accurate minutes of Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings; supervises the printing and distribution of the annual book of reports; and keeps on file the important documents and records of the Association. The clerk also, upon the direction of the Executive Committee or Association, signs documents such as cooperative agreements.

D. The SECRETARY-TREASURER receives and handles all funds over which the Association has stewardship. In discharging this responsibility, the Secretary-Treasurer deposits and disperses funds as directed by the Association; provides a financial report to the Association at Annual and Executive Committee meetings; and sets up and maintains a bookkeeping system open to audit by any responsible person.

E. The ASSISTANT SECRETARY-TREASURER takes over the duties listed above in SECTION 5D in the event the Secretary-Treasurer is unable to perform them.

F. The HISTORIAN records significant aspects of the history of the Association and its member churches, and submits a written report relating such information to the Association at the Annual Meeting.

G. The PARLIAMENTARIAN advises presiding officers of the association in matters related to following proper parliamentary procedure. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the basis of such advice.

H. The DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS is the chief executive officer of the Association. Accountable to the Association through the Personnel Committee, the Director of Missions shall perform the duties set forth in the Policy Manual.

SECTION 6. The Administrative Council shall also review and act on any recommendation to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff received from the Personnel Committee.

A. Such proceedings shall be bathed in prayer.

B. A concern to be loving, fair, and true to our faith and witness shall pervade this process.

C. The advisability of bringing in an outside mediator may be considered.

D. Decisions to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff shall be made by two-thirds vote of members present and voting in a special meeting of the Council.

E. When a decision to dismiss is made, thirty days notice or thirty days salary and benefits (if applicable) shall be given to departing staff.

ARTICLE V - GENERAL

SECTION 1. DEFINITION OF "ASSOCIATION:" When the term "Association" is used in these By Laws and the preceding Constitution, all entities set forth in these documents are included. The final decision-making authority of the Association, however, rests with duly elected messengers - sent from churches holding full membership - meeting in annual or executive session. "Executive session" includes appropriately called special as well as regular Executive Committee meetings.

SECTION 2. COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP: Any officer or committee member serving more than half a term, is considered - for tenure purposes - to have served a full term. The expiration dates of committee members' terms shall appear beside their names in the Nominating Committee report.

SECTION 3. EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS: The moderator shall serve as an ex-officio nonvoting member of all committees except the Nominating Committee. The Director of Missions shall serve as an ex-officio nonvoting member of all organizations and committees.

SECTION 4. REPORTS: Written reports appearing in the annual minutes shall be limited to 300 words, except in cases involving statistical or historical data.

SECTION 5. MEETINGS

A. REGULARLY SCHEDULED: The Executive Committee shall regularly meet on the last Mondays of July, October, and January. The Annual Meeting shall regularly meet the last full week of April.

B. SPECIAL: Special meetings of the Association may be called only by the Administrative Council. The subject matter of special meetings shall be limited to the purpose stated in the call, which shall be communicated in writing to member churches at least two weeks prior to the date of the called meeting.

SECTION 6. RESOLUTIONS: Resolutions, having little power to accomplish good and considerable power to cause mischief, shall have no place in the proceedings of this Association. Expressions of gratitude, appreciation, or remembrance shall be handled as appropriate, but do not require resolutions.

SECTION 7. TENURE AND ELECTIONS: With the exception of staff and unless otherwise stated in these By Laws, all officers of the Association shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Association annually.

In performing its task, the Nominating Committee shall seek balance between ministers and laity. Balance between ministers and laity serving as Moderator and Vice Moderator is especially recommended.

SECTION 8. CALL AND HIRING OF THE DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS: When the need to find a new Director of Missions arises, the chairmen of the following committees shall serve as the search committee: Nominating, Finance, Constitution and By Laws, Membership, Personnel, Missions Development Council, Church Development Council, and Administrative Council. The Secretary-Treasurer shall also serve on the search committee.

SECTION 9. CALL AND HIRING OF OTHER PAID STAFF: When the need to hire other paid staff arises, the Personnel Committee - following procedures set forth in the Policy Manual - shall take appropriate steps.

SECTION 10. VOLUNTARY SEPARATIONS OF ALL STAFF: All staff members who voluntarily resign their positions, shall give two weeks notice.

SECTION 11. ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR: The associational year shall begin May 1 and end April 30.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to the By Laws may be put to a vote at any Annual Meeting provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed amendments shall first be submitted in writing to the Association at the October meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. The Executive Committee shall, in turn and by majority vote, refer proposed amendments to the Constitution and By Laws Committee for study and recommendation.

C. Written copies of proposed amendments shall be given to the Executive Committee at their January meeting by the Constitution and By Laws Committee along with the committee's recommendation.

D. Proposed amendments shall be presented and voted upon at the Annual Meeting.

The same conditions apply to completely revised or re-written By Laws.

Any actions taken on these By Laws shall require a majority vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

Atlantic Baptist Association

ARTICLE I - ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTION

SECTION 1. The administrative officers of the Association are as follows: Moderator/President, Vice Moderator/Vice President, Clerk, Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Historian, Parliamentarian, and Director of Missions.

SECTION 2. The MODERATOR/PRESIDENT - who may serve no more than two one year terms in succession - shall preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings of the Association. The Moderator/President also chairs the Administrative Council, and serves as an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association except the Nominating Committee. The Moderator/President shall, moreover, appoint a registration committee to serve at Annual and other meetings as needed. Further contact between the Moderator/President and member churches is encouraged.

SECTION 3. The VICE MODERATOR/VICE PRESIDENT shall, in the absence of or as called upon by the Moderator/President, preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings. The Vice Moderator/Vice President, moreover, serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 4. The CLERK shall annually send the Annual Church Profile to member churches at least two months before a specified due date; keep accurate minutes of Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings; supervise the printing and distribution of the annual book of reports; and keep on file the important documents and records of the Association. The Clerk shall also - upon the direction of the Executive Committee or Association meeting in annual session - sign documents, such as cooperative agreements. Finally, the Clerk serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 5. The SECRETARY-TREASURER shall receive and handle all funds over which the Association has stewardship. In discharging this responsibility, the Secretary-Treasurer shall deposit and disperse funds as directed by the Association; provide a financial report to the Association at Annual and Executive Committee meetings; and set up and maintain a bookkeeping system open to audit by any responsible person. The Secretary-Treasurer also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 6. The ASSISTANT SECRETARY-TREASURER shall take over the duties listed in SECTION 5 above in the event the Secretary-Treasurer is unable to perform them. The Assistant Secretary-Treasurer also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 7. The HISTORIAN shall collect and preserve data, documents, and artifacts of historical significance to the Association or its member churches. Data - drawn largely from the Annual Church Profile - shall be compiled in a written report to be presented annually to the Association. The Historian shall, moreover, serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 8. The PARLIAMENTARIAN shall counsel presiding officers of the Association in all matters related to following proper parliamentary procedure. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the basis of such counsel. The Parliamentarian also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 9. The DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS is the chief executive officer of the Association. Accountable to the Association through the Personnel Committee, the Director of Missions shall perform the following duties:

A. Oversee, evaluate, and endeavor to improve all ministries sponsored by the Association.

B. In close consultation with the Missions Development Council, discover mission needs, devise ministries targeting those needs, and enlist the personnel and resources required to carry out Christ-honoring ministry.

C. Assist the Church Development Council plan training and ministry events designed to increase the effectiveness of association and local church ministries.

D. Cooperate with the Administrative Council of the Association to help member officers fulfill their duties in support of the mission of the Association.

E. Interpret and adapt the priorities, emphases, and work of the denomination to the Association and member churches; also, encourage cooperation with the denomination by member churches to the extent possible, consistent with principles of local church and associational autonomy under Christ.

F. Promote the work and witness of the Association both within the Association and in the larger community in which we live and serve.

G. Train ministerial staff search committees as requested.

H. Counsel church leaders as needed and to the extent possible, and mediate local church disputes as called upon.

I. Serve as an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association.

J. Supervise all paid staff and volunteers.

K. Carry out other duties as directed by the Association.

ARTICLE II - PROGRAMS

SECTION 1. The Association shall carry out its work through the following ongoing programs: Sunday school, discipleship training, Woman's Missionary Union, Baptist Men, music, youth, church media, stewardship, Christian life, pastoral ministries, and any other programs or ministries authorized by the Association through the Executive Committee or by messengers attending the Annual Meeting.

SECTION 2. Each program shall schedule and conduct quarterly meetings in order to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each program shall see to the training of its officers so these officers can assist in meeting the training needs of member churches.

SECTION 4. Each program - by attending to its area of concentration and specialization - shall endeavor to lead the Association to carry out its mission at the highest levels of performance to the glory of God.

SECTION 5. Working in cooperation with the Nominating Committee, each program - with the exception of Woman's Missionary Union - shall enlist and nominate its chief officers for presentation and election at the Annual Meeting. Any vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 6. The Woman's Missionary Union shall annually appoint a nominating committee from within its ranks. This committee shall develop its own report, which shall be presented to the associational nominating committee in time for review and referral to the Annual Meeting in April. Upon election by the Association, these officers shall serve terms of office corresponding to those of other program officers.

ARTICLE III - PROGRAM LEADERS AND THEIR DUTIES

SECTION 1. Believing the Bible to be the revealed truth of God and as such the basis for correct thinking and fruitful living, the SUNDAY SCHOOL DIRECTOR shall lead and encourage the churches of the Association to develop a strong Bible teaching ministry through the Sunday School. Specific duties of the Sunday School Director are as follows:

A. Develop a list of consultants who will offer age-graded training to the Sunday School teachers, workers, and officers of local churches.

B. Study to become expert in Sunday School work.

C. Promote Sunday School work throughout the Association.

D. Upon invitation, provide personal assistance to local churches desiring to develop or upgrade their Sunday School.

E. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

F. Prepare and present a report on Sunday School work to the Annual Meeting of the Association.

G. Serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 2. The VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL DIRECTOR shall lead member churches to schedule and conduct quality Vacation Bible Schools as an effective way of reaching and influencing people of all ages through the Word of God. Specific responsibilities of the Vacation Bible School director shall be as follows:

A. Assemble and equip an "assist team" which will offer age-graded training to Vacation Bible School teachers, workers, and officers.

B. In order to introduce new materials and motivate early preparation, plan and conduct an "early planning conference" for ministers and Vacation Bible School directors.

C. Plan and conduct one or more Vacation Bible School teacher-worker training clinics.

D. Promote Vacation Bible School - including mission and backyard Bible clubs - throughout the Association.

E. Tally attendance and other figures collected from Vacation Bible Schools held throughout the Association.

F. After Vacation Bible Schools are held, encourage local churches to carry out thorough outreach and evangelistic follow up.

G. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 3. The DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING DIRECTOR shall support the mission of the Association by promoting believer training and skill development in living the Christian life. Specific duties of the Discipleship Training director shall be as follows:

A. Promote the Great Commission emphasis of our Lord to "make disciples."

B. Be knowledgeable concerning the latest disciple training materials offered by the denomination, and acquaint member churches with these and other appropriate resources.

C. Offer training clinics to ministers and members of the laity.

D. Discover what disciple training approaches and models are working within the Association, and endeavor to replicate these approaches in other churches.

E. Serve as chairman of the Discipleship Training Council, and lead this council to develop a strategy for advancing believer development in our churches.

F. Serve on the Church Development Council.

G. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 4. In support of missions, the WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION DIRECTOR is responsible for promoting and leading WMU work in the Association. Specifically, the Woman's Missionary Union Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Having studied to understand WMU work herself, the Woman's Missionary Union Director communicates her knowledge to other WMU workers and churches personally and by scheduling appropriate training events.

B. Beyond overseeing age-graded WMU programming, the Woman's Missionary Union Director discovers real mission needs and challenges members to act to meet these needs.

C. In support of mission education and action, the Woman's Missionary Union Director stands ready to provide or recommend appropriate literature and other resources.

D. Serving as the chief executive officer of the associational WMU, the Woman's Missionary Union Director chairs the WMU Council and represents the WMU on the Missions Development Council.

E. The Woman's Missionary Union Director endeavors to start WMU work in any member church where such work is not already organized.

F. Being accountable to the Association, the Woman's Missionary Union Director brings a report to each Executive Committee meeting and at the Annual Meeting.

G. Annually this director submits an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

H. Finally, the Woman's Missionary Union Director seeks to maintain close ties with the state WMU director as a means of cooperation and coordination.

SECTION 5. In support of missions, the BAPTIST MEN DIRECTOR promotes and leads Baptist Men work in the Association. Specific responsibilities of the Baptist Men Director are as follows:

A. Interpret Baptist Men work to the churches and associational leaders - giving emphasis to missions over organization.

B. Recruit men and boys to volunteer for mission trips and carry out mission projects.

C. Provide appropriate leadership training opportunities.

D. Endeavor to organize a Baptist Men in those churches that have none and strengthen Baptist Men where they already exist.

E. Schedule fellowships or rallies for mission-minded men of the Association.

F. In the absence of an associational Royal Ambassador Director, carry out the duties of this office as well.

G. Serve as the chief executive officer of all Association Baptist Men work, and represent the Baptist Men on the Missions Development Council.

H. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 6. Working with the Baptist Men director, the ROYAL AMBASSADOR DIRECTOR shall oversee and lead the RA program of the Association. Specifically, the Royal Ambassador Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Lead in planning and conducting such activities as camping, camp crafts, conclaves, pine car derbys, and mission action projects.

B. Endeavor to establish Royal Ambassador chapters in every member church; also, to improve chapters already organized.

C. Plan and provide such training events as may be needed to equip Royal Ambassador leaders with the knowledge and skill required to do their job.

D. Organize, enlist members for, and chair a Royal Ambassador committee to assist in planning and implementing RA work in the Association.

E. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 7. The MUSIC DIRECTOR shall lead the music ministries of the Association. In carrying out this assignment, the Associational Music Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Provide inspirational music as called upon for all associational meetings.

B. Offer training to those involved in music ministries in member churches.

C. Be available to answer questions and provide information related to music ministries.

D. Appraise the budgetary needs of carrying out this assignment and request appropriate funding of the Finance Committee annually.

E. Set up any organization deemed useful in fulfilling these duties.

F. Serve on the Church Development Council.

G. Report to the Association.

SECTION 8. The YOUTH DIRECTOR shall develop, implement, and oversee an effective ministry to the youth residing within the Association. Specific duties of the Youth Director are as follows:

A. Support youth ministries already included in age-graded programs supported by the Association.

B. Chair a Youth Steering Committee, the function of which shall be to appraise the needs of our young people and develop ministries designed to meet those needs.

C. Serve on the Church Development Council and insure that youth ministries of suitable quantity and quality are scheduled.

D. Serve as a resource person in youth ministry to youth leaders on the local church level.

E. Request of the Finance Committee, annually, funding sufficient to carry out an effective youth ministry under the sponsorship of the Association.

F. Report to the Association.

SECTION 9. In developing a more literate and knowledgeable community of believers in the Association, the CHURCH MEDIA/LIBRARY DIRECTOR shall perform the following duties:

A. Oversee, administer, and develop the library housed in the associational center.

B. Cultivate contacts and relationships with media/library directors in member churches throughout the Association.

C. Offer assistance in starting media centers/libraries in member churches that have none.

D. Plan training events for librarians throughout the Association.

E. Serve on the Church Development Council.

F. Submit reports to the associational office and Church Media/Library Department of the state convention as requested.

G. In carrying out this assignment, seek funding from the Finance Committee annually.

H. Develop and lead any organization that may be judged helpful in discharging these duties.

I. Report to the Association.

SECTION 10. The STEWARDSHIP DIRECTOR shall endeavor to educate our people as to the needs of the world and biblical standards and teachings that guide us in responding appropriately to those needs. The person filling this position shall also seek to educate our people as to the special advantages involved in supporting missions cooperatively. Specific duties of this officer are as follows:

A. Keep the needs and resources required to carry out our mission commitments before the people.

B. Set specific, measurable, and attainable goals for supporting missions on the associational level and beyond.

C. In support of missions, promote faithful giving on the part of member churches.

D. Schedule such meetings, workshops, and conferences as may be judged helpful in following through with this commission.

E. Serve on the Church Development Council.

F. Request funding as needed, and report annually to the Association.

SECTION 11. The CHRISTIAN LIFE DIRECTOR shall endeavor to inform and educate us concerning the critical moral and ethical issues of our day; also, lead us to respond appropriately to these issues in at least the following ways:

A. Call attention to such issues as appropriate at regularly scheduled meetings of the Association.

B. Offer issues-oriented programs, workshops, and conferences to the churches.

C. Develop and maintain an inventory of applicable library/media resources for distribution and circulation.

D. Promote attendance at Christian life programming within the Association and beyond.

E. Request sufficient funding with which to carry out this mandate.

F. Report annually to the Association.

G. Serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 12. The PASTORAL MINISTRIES DIRECTOR shall become knowledgeable concerning pastoral care resources, and pass along this information to those who can use it in the Association. This officer shall also set up training events. In carrying out this assignment, the Pastoral Ministries Director shall give particular attention to the following aspects of this position:

A. Offer training to deacons.

B. Offer training to ministers.

C. Offer as much help as possible to members of the Association who may be suffering the ill effects of personal stress or crisis.

D. Request funding as appropriate, serve on the Church Development Council, and report to the Association.

SECTION 13. SENIOR ADULTS: The Senior Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop senior adult ministries. This chairman also serves on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 14. SINGLE ADULTS: The Single Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop Single Adult Ministries. This chairman also serves on the Church Development Council.

ARTICLE IV - COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE - composed of up to ten messengers from churches holding full membership in the Association - shall meet the last Mondays of July, October, and January to hear reports, transact business, and respond to issues affecting the life and mission of the Association. The Executive Committee shall be the final decision-making body of the Association between Annual Meetings.

SECTION 2. The NOMINATING COMMITTEE - composed of nine members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall enlist the most qualified persons available to fill the various positions of service set forth in the By Laws. At the Annual Meeting in April the Nominating Committee shall present its main report. This report, if possible, shall include nominations for all positions of service named in the By Laws; also, nominations of persons enlisted to work on short term mission projects or to serve on program committees. In addition to presenting its main report at the Annual Meeting, the Nominating Committee shall fill vacancies that occur during the course of the associational year, subject to later approval by the Executive Committee. In performing this task, the Nominating Committee shall take care to protect the following rights of nominees and the Association:

A. All nominees shall be contacted and give consent before their names may be placed in nomination.

B. Messengers attending Executive Committee and Annual meetings retain the right to make nominations from the floor.

The chairman of the Nominating Committee shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 3. The ORDER OF BUSINESS AND PROGRAM PERSONNEL COMMITTEE - composed of the moderator, clerk, and music director - shall make arrangements as to where the Annual Meeting is to be held, who will take part on the program, and in what order the service will progress. In performing this assignment, the right of the Association to retain final authority over the program shall be protected in the following ways:

A. The proposed program shall be mailed to all pastors/churches and program personalities at least 30 days before the meeting.

B. The proposed program shall be presented for adoption early in the opening session, and may be modified by messengers as needed at any time.

SECTION 4. The EVANGELISM COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall develop and implement plans for reaching more people with the saving gospel of Jesus Christ through the ministries of the Association. All such plans shall be presented to the Executive Committee for final approval. The chairman shall serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 5. The FINANCE COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall annually review requests for funds presented by the various officers and committees of the Association. These requests shall be evaluated in light of available resources and strategic priorities, after which a proposed budget shall be developed. Once developed, proposed budgets shall be presented to the Association for approval in the following manner:

A. The proposed budget shall be presented for questions and discussion at the January meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. By February 1 the proposed budget shall be mailed to all member churches for distribution to their messengers.

C. Final adoption of the proposed budget shall occur at the Annual Meeting held in April.

In addition to developing a proposed budget, the Finance Committee shall promote support for the budget once adopted. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 6. The ORDINATIONS COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall, as requested by member churches, interview candidates in order to determine their suitability for ordination to the gospel ministry. Subjects such as candidates' conversion, call to the ministry, doctrinal convictions, giftedness for service, and attitude toward cooperative missions shall receive the attention of the committee during interviews. Following interviews, the committee shall recommend or decline to recommend ordination to the referring congregation. Out of respect for the autonomy of local churches, recommendations coming from the committee shall be advisory in nature and are not meant to replace, supersede, or interfere with the wishes of referring churches. The chairman shall serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 7. The CONSTITUTION AND BY LAWS COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall receive or initiate for study and recommendation to the Association all proposed changes to the Constitution, By Laws, or Policy Manual. Proposed changes to the Constitution and By Laws shall be presented to the Association according to procedures set forth in the "amendments" articles of those documents. Changes to the Policy Manual will be effected by simple majority vote of the Association meeting in annual or executive session. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 8. The MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall receive and process applications for membership in the Association according to the procedure set forth in the Constitution, ARTICLE IV, SECTION 1. In taking steps to withdraw membership, the committee shall follow the procedure outlined in the Constitution, ARTICLE IV, SECTION 2. This committee, it should be noted, has the power to forward a positive or negative recommendation to the Association, but may not prevent the Association from acting as it chooses. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 9. The BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE - composed of three members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall oversee the upkeep, development, and use of our building and grounds. The responsibilities of this committee shall include exercising concern for the appearance, safety, and furnishings of associational property. The committee shall also be responsible for securing insurance and developing policies involved in the use of this property.

Proposals to upgrade or alter associational holdings shall likewise pass through this committee for evaluation and recommendation to the Executive Committee. In carrying out this assignment, the committee shall meet whenever the chairman or Director of Missions deems necessary, and is authorized to spend line item funds - assuming such funds are available - as required for any use already approved by the Association. Anticipating funding needs with which to maintain and develop the associational center and its grounds, the committee shall annually submit a request for such funds to the Finance Committee. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 10. The PERSONNEL COMMITTEE - composed of six (6) members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - acts as liaison between ministerial staff, support staff, associational officers, and the Association. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

The Personnel Committee, acting in this fashion, shall carry out the following duties:

A. Working in cooperation with the Director of Missions, make recommendations to the Association concerning the hiring of all ministerial staff except the Director of Missions.

B. Hire support staff, either on the basis of direct interviews or upon recommendations received from appropriate officers or committees of the Association.

C. For all staff, develop and maintain up-to-date job descriptions and corresponding terms of employment for inclusion in the Personnel Manual subject to approval by the Association.

D. Monitor the compensation and benefit packages of all paid staff, giving special attention to such items as salary, insurance, retirement, vacations, holidays, sick-leave, and working conditions.

E. Based on such considerations as job performance, salary/benefit packages offered by other associations, and the resources of this Association, make staff compensation recommendations to the Finance Committee at least annually.

F. Protect and enhance relationships of mutual respect, trust, and understanding between all staff and the Association.

G. Mediate disputes and communicate concerns about job performance as they arise involving any staff member or officer.

H. Discipline or dismiss support staff if warranted.

I. Refer to the Administrative Council any recommendation to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff, including the Director of Missions.

J. Remember, as appropriate, special days in the life of staff members and officers of the Association with tokens of affection and appreciation.

SECTION 11. The TRUSTEES/DIRECTORS shall handle all legal matters of the Association as directed by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

A. This board shall consist of three members, one of whom shall preferably be an attorney.

B. Board members shall serve three year rotating terms.

C. Having served three year terms, Trustees/Directors may succeed themselves only after a lapse of one year.

D. The chairman of this board shall serve on the Administrative Council.

ARTICLE V - PROPOSED CHANGES

Proposed changes to the policy manual may be put to a vote at any annual or executive session provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed changes shall be submitted in writing to the Constitution and By Laws Committee at least 30 days prior to that meeting for study and recommendation.

B. Proposed changes do not conflict with the constitution or By Laws.

Any action on this policy shall require a majority vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

One Hundred Sixteenth Annual Session

April 22, 1999
TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH, NEW BERN

1. The One Hundred Sixteenth Annual Session began with an hour of worship opened by an Associational Choir singing the prelude "Good Old Gospel Singing" followed by blended worship hymns and choruses led by Rev. John Thompson. Dr. James Royston, Executive Director-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, was guest speaker.

2. Mr. William (Buddy) Jones, Moderator, called the Business Session to order.

3. A motion was made and passed that the Order of Business, as printed in the Book of Reports, be accepted.

4. Dr. Stephen Batts, Pastor of Tabernacle Baptist Church, led in prayer.

5. Mrs. Mary Bass, Chairman of the Finance Committee, moved that the following items of the 1998-1999 budget be amended to include spending above that which was requested in the budget to allow our official records to show an even balance in all areas: B-2 Printing, B-3 Office Supplies, B-4 Postage, B-6 Utilities, C-2 Administrative Assistant's Salary, D-1 Office Assistance, F-20 Vacation Bible School. There were no questions and the motion carried. The Finance Committee moved for the adoption of the Proposed 1999-2000 Buget. The motion was approved.

6. Mr. Max Miller, Treasurer, presented the treasurer's report. He noted our total giving had increased over the previous year but more contributions were given to Designated Funds, thus making necessary the adjustments to the General Fund recommended by the Finance Committee. The motion to adopt the Treasurer's report carried.

7. Mrs. Mary Stallings, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, made a motion to accept pages 3-6 in the Book of Reports. The motion passed.

8. Rev. Al Irwin, a member of the Constitution Committee, asked that the Proposed Constitution, By Laws, and Policy Manual Changes as shown on page 2 of the Book of Reports be adopted. The motion was accepted.

9. Rev. Jack Bowen, Chairman of the Missions Development Council, referred to the Mission Development Council report on page 23. He also reported on the Resort Ministry Missions Teams. This year during a two week period approximately two hundred fifty young people from across the Eastern United States will be doing Backyard Bible Clubs, Day Camp Bible Clubs, and Beach and Campground ministry involving drama, music, and puppetry.

10. Rev. Patrick Williams, Chairman of the Director of Missions Search Committee, reported that the committee has reviewed approximately sixty-five resumes and narrowed them down to three candidates. Interviews with these three prospective Directors of Missions will begin May 10.

11. As Chairman of the Membership Committee, Rev. Patrick Williams brought attention to the Membership Committee Report on page 22 and made the following motions:

a) That in accordance with our Constitution, we grant full membership in the Association to Island Road Baptist Church.

b.) That in accordance with our Constitution, we withdraw membership from Dover Baptist Church.

c.) That a letter seeking membership from Emerald Isle Baptist Church be formally referred to the Membership Committee in keeping with Section I-A of the Constitution.

All motions were unanimously passed. It was stated that the Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church's application is currently under review and a recommendation concerning Watchcare membership will be made at the October Executive Committee Meeting in 1999.

12. The motion was made by Mr. William (Buddy) Jones to approve the Book of Reports as written. The motion carried.

13. Dr. Myrle Swicegood, Family Life Ministries Coordinator, expressed the great joy she receives in being a partner in the Association and encouraged everyone to read her written report on page 18 of the Book of Reports so that we could see what we have been able to accomplish together.

14. Mr. John W. Sisson, Jr. (Jack), our Interim Director of Missions, gave his report emphasizing that as our Constitution calls for us to do, under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, our Association advances the cause of Christ by the spiritual gifts of all of our members working together. He demonstrated how this was done by having the staff, officers, directors, members of all committees, volunteers, etc., who were involved in any way in the more than fifty-five different ministries of the Association, to stand. The entire congregation was standing as Jack expressed his appreciation to everyone.

15. During Miscellaneous Business, a few brief announcements were made but there was no new business to consider.

16. Mr. William (Buddy) Jones shared what a privilege it had been for him to serve as Moderator and then passed the gavel to Rev. Buford Lewis.

17. Dr. Stephen Cobb, Pastor of Temple Baptist Church, gave the benediction.

Churches represented: Beaufort, Bogue Banks, Calvary, Cape Carteret, Cherry Point, Croatan, Crossroads, Fort Barnwell, Havelock, Havelock Community, Huggins Memorial, Island Road, McCotter, Neuse River, New Bern, Newport, Parkview, Peletier, Pollocksville, River Bend, Sea Level, Smyrna, South Creek, Tabernacle, Temple, Woodville, and Victory.

BAPTIST MEN

Report to the Association
1999

It has been a busy year for many Baptist men in our Association as we continue to help others here and around the world. We have been involved in handyman ministries, disaster training, water purification training, and leadership training for Royal Ambassadors, Challengers, and Baptist Men. Several churches have moved forward to get organized and involved in the different programs offered by Baptist Men.

In February several in our Association took part in a mission trip to Africa. This group finished a church and held two Bible Schools each day (estimated count of 450). In August another group went to Ukraine with the North Carolina Baptist Men's partnership there. This team worked on a church, held Bible School for 135 children, and Dr. Joe Overby and wife Gretchen, checked hundreds of patients and dispensed medicines. In December another team traveled to storm torn Honduras to handle food being sent to the people there. Teams will be going to Honduras for a number of months in 1999. If you are interested in going, please let me know. I am available to help you in any way in organizing Baptist Men or projects you may want to undertake.

Respectfully submitted,
Mr. Raymond Earp, Director

BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1999

Three years go by very quickly when you are doing God's work and God certainly blessed us as many of our ideas became a reality.

We replaced two chairs in the reception room and I recovered a chair in the foyer. One new lamp was purchased and new shades for the rest of the lamps. We also bought two green plants. A badly needed handrail was installed on the front steps. Also, we are in the process of getting pictures of all the past and present Directors of Missions to be hung over the history cabinet in the large conference room.

I would like to thank the committee for their help and support.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Edna Liles, Chairman

CHURCH CONFLICT MEDIATOR

Report to the Association
1999

April 24, 1999 will be the second anniversary of my service to the Association as Church Conflict Mediator. When I began the position I jokingly stated I wanted to be as busy as the "MAYTAG" Repairman" a portrayal on television of a man with nothing to do. Well I can report that if my support were dependent on my work, I would have starved to death between April 1998 and 1999. There was no request for my services from any church in our Association from April 1998 to April 1999. To God be the glory all praise and honor is due Him. My prayer is that this volunteer position will continue to be one to which no request is made.

As Conflict Mediator for our Association, I was requested to provide services to two churches in other associations within our state. Services to these churches required training of church leaders, individual interviews with members, analyzing data, writing a fifty plus page report, conducting a twelve hour congregational weekend and following up on needed training and services. I spent approximately 150 hours on each church.

On April 23, 1998 I was also elected as Pastoral Ministries Director for our Association. The duties of this position are closely related to those of Church Conflict Mediator. Once again much of the work is done without public knowledge. In this capacity I have worked extensively with churches whose pastor resigned. My work has included sermons, training sessions for deacons, church council and nominating committee, counseling and encouragement of church leaders. I have also worked with one pastor who resigned and provided an opportunity for he and his wife to attend a week long assessment seminar to help him to readjust to his situation.

Prevention continues to be a key responsibility of the position. Classes were held at the Key Leadership Conferences in July, October, and January to reduce church conflict. I have also had opportunity to speak to the Minister's Conference on two occasions and to several churches either as an entire congregation or through their deacons. I also conducted an association wide deacon basic training program and a seminar on legal issues for pastor, deacons and church treasurers.

Training has been an important factor of my duties. I have completed a one day course in Re-visioning to help churches to address their visions. I have also spent a week in a church conflict class sponsored by the Baptist State Convention of South Carolina. I also participated in the Key Leadership Conference at Caswell representing our Association on the section devoted to training deacons.

Due to my work in our Association, I was asked to conduct training in two other associations and at Chowan College's newly formed Center for Christian Growth. I also provided twenty hours of counsel to a pastor from Pennsylvania.

May God continue to bless our Association's efforts and may our preparedness as an Association help when mediation is necessary.

Respectfully submitted,
John W. Sisson, Jr.

CHURCH MEDIA LIBRARY ORGANIZATION

Report to the Association
1999

PROMOTION...PURGING...how can these two "actions" maintain the purpose of a media center? Both are needed. Adding new resources, advertising it, and clearing out the old and unnecessary, both actions make a media center more user-friendly and attractive. In our January meeting, media staff members discussed these two areas of work. We met on a Saturday morning at the Association Center with five churches represented. The fellowship and sharing of ideas and plans assisted each media person to enhance their skills as well as their outlook on the growth potential of their respective libraries. We discovered many media centers are looking into or are already taking advantage of "computer technology." In future programs this and other innovative plans will be shared to keep our media centers on the "cutting edge."

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1999

The Constitution Committee met several times during the fall of 1998. In addition to responding to various constitutional queries, the committee prepared a set of proposed amendments and presented them to the Executive Committee Meeting on October 26, 1998. The Executive Committee, by majority vote, killed one proposed amendment and referred the rest back to the Constitution Committee for further study and presentation back to the Executive Committee on January 25, 1999. Having been brought back to the Executive Committee for consideration and discussion, the proposed amendments will be voted upon by the Association in its Annual Meeting on April 22, 1999. Thank you, Constitution Committee, for your willingness to meet, to work, and to seek the will of God and of the Association throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Tommy Willcockson, Chairman

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

Report to the Association
1999

This will be a year characterized by change and transition. But, despite all the upheaval of staff, our Association continues to be strong and to be providing the resources needed to meet our mission.

Keith Hamilton served as Director of Missions from the last meeting on April 23, 1998 until December 11, 1998. Keith left after twelve years as Director of Missions to accept a position with the Baptist State Convention of Georgia. This is their gain and our loss. Keith was well liked, well known and he did an outstanding job in the development of the Association. His knowledge of resources and his expertise will not easily be replaced.

Much of the work of the Association between April and December cannot be reported in this report. However, a review of the minutes of the Executive Committee meetings in October and January will show that much was accomplished by Keith Hamilton as he directed the work of the Association. One of the major changes during this time was the resignation of Dr. Curt Finch who served as our part-time Resort Ministries Coordinator.

One of the marks of a true leader is what happens to an organization after the leader leaves. If this is truly a way to evaluate a man's leadership, then Keith Hamilton was a great leader. The Association has continued to function and to function well since Keith's resignation. This is due to his efforts to train, select and utilize excellent leaders.

The Administrative Council has continued to work well. Each and every member has had new duties to perform because of Keith's absence. The Moderator, Mr. William (Buddy) Jones has done an excellent job. He has been present at each committee meeting and at the meetings of the Mission Development Council and the Church Development Council. He is not there simply to observe, but to help and assist. His assistant, Rev. Bufort Lewis, has also assisted by standing ready to help as called upon. The Treasurer, Max Miller, has had to answer countless questions raised by the Interim Director of Missions and others who no longer have Keith's direction. Every committee chairman has also been called upon to answer questions and to readjust their work, especially the Nominating Committee, the Personnel Committee, and the Finance Committee. Their duties all required extra work to make the adjustments needed. Of course, all committee chairmen found themselves involved in "other duties as assigned" when they had to take on the responsibility of serving as the Search Committee for the new Director of Missions.

The Missions Development Council under the direction of Rev. Jack Bowen also found themselves faced with new and extended duties. Rev. Bowen has volunteered to take annual leave to insure that over 200 teenagers scheduled to do mission work in the resort areas of our Association this summer will have a place to serve. This extra duty was required since we did not fill the part-time Resort Ministry Coordinator position. This Council has assured that all funded programs continue and that funding has been requested for next year's operations. Keith trained them well and his role model continues to serve the Association.

The Church Leadership Development Council under the leadership of Rev. Tom Lamkin continues to serve very well. Our January 1999 conferences were attended by over 200 persons. People had to sit on the floor or in the hallways because rooms were so full. The topics offered have a definite impact on the leadership of our churches. It would have been easy to have canceled the work needed to conduct this training in Keith's absence. But once again his procedures and training of those who remain behind made the conference possible. Not only that, but there have been workshops, deacon training, pastor training, children's conferences, Vacation Bible School clinics and even a "Play Shop" for youth leaders expanding our training efforts well beyond the traditional quarterly conferences.

Our budget, our slate of officers, our mission projects, our acceptance of a new church, our dismissal of another church, our missions funding, our programs, our outreach are all moving forward. Yes, there have been a few problems. A check was not received on time, a question may have required a call back rather than a direct answer and the newsletter may have been a little late in March. But, we are still functioning. New pastors are being found and installed, a new building at Cherry Branch has been dedicated, pastor search committees are being trained, church leaders are being encouraged and a new Hispanic work is ready to be started. So many activities are under way to carry out the mission of the Association.

Three others recruited and trained by Keith Hamilton have made the work of the Association a possibility. They are Betty Murphy, Administrative Assistant and our Clerk. Betty has taken on many extra duties during this time of transition. Despite an operation and time off to recover, she has been a stabilizing force in our efforts. During her recovery, there was only one day when she was not contacted by the staff for directions on how to operate the answering machine to how many copies of the newsletter went to each church. Her ability to organize her work, her procedures, and her administrative skills are a marvel to all who know her. Her efforts have no doubt been responsible for the smooth transition.

Beth Hassell, our bookkeeper, is another who has had to work a lot of extra hours. She has not allowed us to make financial mistakes. An audit of her books found all in "complete order." So it is with the work of the Association. Thanks to Beth we, too, are in complete order financially.

The third member of our staff who has assumed new and extra duties is Dr. Myrle Swicegood. She, too, has had surgery since Keith Hamilton resigned but NO one would notice it. When a pastor is hospitalized or the Administrative Assistant had surgery, Myrle was the first one there to pray and encourage the family. She, too, works tirelessly behind the scenes and produces multiple efforts without recognition. For example on January 26, 1999 fifteen pastors were certified to utilize Prepare and Enrich materials in their pre-marital counseling. The positive impact of this training on successful marriages will never be known.

Then there are the 14,000 members of our Association who have supported, prayed and served. Together we have crossed over the transition period. Together we will look forward to a new Director of Missions and our opportunity to work with him to continue to meet the needs of our Association.

God bless you everyone,
John W. Sisson, Jr.

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING

Report to the Association
1999

The past year has been a learning experience for me as the new Discipleship Director for the Association. It is encouraging to know that many of our churches are taking efforts to disciple believers. It is my dream that every church can and will take an active part in this process over the next year. Just like planting seeds in the ground and spending time to cultivate the seed so that it bears fruit, we have been commanded by the scriptures to do the same with believers. The seed of the Gospel has been planted, they have trusted Christ as Lord, and now it is time for them to grow and bear spiritual fruit. Recent surveys show that many Christians have the same worldview as non-Christians. It is time to turn the tables. It is time that all Christians, not just pastors, begin to develop a biblical worldview. We are called to be a positive influence on the world. This can only be done through the hard work of discipleship. If I can help, please feel free to contact me so that we can grow disciples!

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1999

Our Evangelism Committee and our Association suffered a great loss on the retirement and relocation of our chairman, Dr. Jerry Smith. His evangelistic zeal and leadership will be greatly missed. Our hat goes off to him and Parkview Baptist Church for making our 1999 Spiritual Growth Conference one of the best ever.

This year's sixth Associational Spiritual Growth Conference was a success despite a mixup in scheduling by one of our speakers. In the absence of Dr. Greg Mathis we were able to enjoy more singing by the Mike Speck Trio. Some even suggested they preferred the one speaker format over the two speakers. It is always amazing how the Holy Spirit turns our blunders into times of spiritual refreshing.

It appeared more churches were involved this year over previous years. This is an encouragement and a sure sign we need to continue on the same track.

Your committee desires your prayers as we continue to work on the 2000 Conference to be held on February 14 & 15, 2000. The format for the cottage prayer meetings and the prayer walks are being evaluated to determine their contribution to our Spiritual Growth efforts. All comments are welcomed and will be appreciated.

Your Evangelism Committee has been given a twofold task: to challenge churches to be on mission and to develop under the leadership of Jesus Christ. We as a committee are meeting to evaluate this task and to seek your input as to how we can better accomplish our mission. We look forward to working together to carry out the Great Commission of our Lord. May we be found faithful until He comes.

In His Service,
Rev. Tom Willoughby, Chairman

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

July 27, 1998
Parkview Baptist Church, Morehead City

1. The meeting was called to order by Mr. William Jones, Moderator.

2. Rev. Jim Uhl opened the meeting in prayer.

3. A motion was made and passed to accept the minutes as printed.

4. Mrs. Beth Hassell made a motion that we accept the budget report for the year May 1, 1997 through April 30, 1998. The motion was accepted.

5. Mrs. Beth Hassell also made a motion that we accept the budget report for the quarter May 1, 1998 through July 31, 1998. The motion carried.

6. Rev. Keith Hamilton, Director of Missions, emphasized what great participation we have at our Executive Meetings and encouraged anyone who has a question to feel free to respond. He recognized Mrs. Dianne Bowen, pastor's wife of South Creek Baptist Church, which truly is a miracle from the Lord. Dianne attended a mission trip in South Africa. She developed some severe intestinal problems and spent two months in the hospital. He reported that our Association is doing extremely well. Each church was requested to have a representative at the special three hour conference, Keeping Your Church out of Court, on legal issues that churches face to be held at Cherry Point Baptist Church August 4. Tom Womble, Associate Executive Director of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, will be the special speaker.

7. Mr. William Jones, Moderator, reminded everyone to turn in their evaluation forms.

8. There was no miscellaneous business.

9. Rev. Mike Huffman led in the Benediction.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

October 26, 1998
Temple Baptist Church. New Bern

1. Rev. John Thompson led the congregation in singing "At Calvary."

2. Mr. William Jones, Moderator, called the meeting to order.

3. Dr. Jerry Smith opened the meeting in prayer.

4. Mr. William Jones received a motion to accept the minutes as printed. The motion passed.

5. Mr. Max Miller, Treasurer, brought the treasurer's report. Mr. Miller moved for adoption of the financial report. There were no questions or corrections and the motion carried.

6. Rev. Jack Bowen, Chairman of the Mission Development Council, introduced two new requests for the Elijah's Friends Encouragement Ministry: Stephen Hughes who has established a working farm in the Philippines as a tool for reaching the Filipinos with the gospel of Jesus Christ and an African American Southern Baptist Church Start in New Bern. The three ongoing missions are Havelock Korean Baptist Church, the Bill and Dorothy Loftin Bible Fund for the Seamen's Center, and the Associational Deaf Ministry. Also, Rev. Bowen announced the need for ten churches to host Youth Mission Teams July 16-30, 1999.

7. Rev. Tommy Willcockson, Chairman of the Constitution Committee, made a motion that the "Procedure for Amendments to Constitution, By-Laws, and Policy Manual" be referred to the Constitution and By-Laws Committee. The amendments will be presented for discussion at the Executive Committee Meeting, January 25, 1999. The vote of proposed amendments will take place at the Annual Meeting of the Association on April 22, 1999. The motion was accepted.

   Rev. Willcockson made a second motion that the Proposed Constitutional Additions granting Friendship Status be sent to the Constitution Committee for further review and brought to the Executive Committee Meeting January 25, 1999. After a time of questions and discussion a vote was cast. There were forty-five votes, eighteen in favor and twenty-seven not in favor, of the motion. The motion was not accepted.

8. Mr. William Jones requested that the evaluation forms be turned in.

9. Director of Missions, Rev. Keith Hamilton, asked for volunteers for November 16-20 to help prepare the Samaritan's Purse Christmas Shoe Boxes for shipment. He thanked the churches that were having a Fall Festival and requested that any left over candy be donated to the Samaritan's Purse ministry. If needed, anyone willing to help in the disaster recovery from Hurricane Mitch was asked to contact Mr. Max Miller.

10. In miscellaneous business, Rev. Larry Lenoir, pastor of Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church, requested membership for the church as a participating member in the Atlantic Baptist Association. This request will be referred to the Membership Committee.

11. Mr. Jack Sisson, Church Conflict Mediator, gave the benediction.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

January 25, 1999
First Baptist Church, Havelock

1. Rev. John Thompson opened the meeting by leading the congregation in singing "He Lives."

2. Mr. William Jones, Moderator, called the meeting to order.

3. Rev. Patrick Williams led in prayer.

4. Mr. William Jones accepted a motion to accept the minutes as printed. The motion passed.

5. Mr. Max Miller, Treasurer, brought the treasurer's report. Mr. Miller encouraged our churches to continue to be faithful in their giving. While the budget is $5,000 ahead as of the same time last year, our expenses are expected to increase. Since Rev. Keith Hamilton has accepted the position of Church Financial Consultant with the Georgia Baptist State Convention, we will be hiring a new Director of Missions and need to maintain a healthy financial situation in order to get the very best person that God would have for us. There will also be substantial one time costs of moving expenses, etc. and we need to be able to meet those obligations. Mr. Miller moved for the adoption of the report. The motion carried.

6. Dr. Tom Denton, acting Chairman of the Personnel Committee, made a motion that we accept Mr. John W. Sisson, Jr. (Jack) as Interim Director of Missions. Mr. Sisson will be paid a part time salary of $300 plus expenses for a three day work week even though he is already working full time. The motion was accepted.

7. Rev. Patrick Williams, Chairman of the Director of Missions Search Committee, reported that on January 18 Rev. Bobby Stafford, Director of Associational Development with the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, met with the committee and went through the procedure of finding a Director. Applications will only be accepted by submitted resumes through March 15. Fifty to seventy-five resumes are expected. They will be reviewed and between three to eight people who the committee thinks will be able to fill the position will be considered before a final recommendation is made. A questionnaire requesting everyone's input in a "Self Study" of the Association was passed out and is to be mailed back to the associational office by February 5. The material will be compiled into a packet to tell the association story to prospective candidates.

8. Mrs. Mary Bass, Chairman of the Finance Committee, made a motion that the 1998-1999 Budget be amended so that category F11, Vacation Bible School, would be increased from $425 to $600. There were no questions and the motion passed. The proposed 1999-2000 Budget, approved by the Finance Committee, was passed out for consideration. A vote of acceptance will be taken at the April Annual Session.

9. Rev. Tommy Willcockson, Chairman of the Constitution Committee, called attention to the copy of the Proposed Constitution, Bylaws, and Policy Manual changes that was presented at the October 26, 1998 Executive Meeting. These proposed changes were passed out again for review and will be voted on at the April 22 Annual Session.

10. Rev. Tom Willoughby of the Evangelism Committee shared the plans for the Spiritual Growth Conference to be held February 15-16 at Parkview Baptist Church. The associational churches have been divided into four groups led by Rev. Richard Wade, pastor of First Baptist Church, Davis; Rev. Terry McInnis, pastor of McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church; Rev. Kevin Clubb, pastor of Cape Carteret Baptist Church; and Rev. Billy Cox, pastor of Cove City Baptist Church. Each of these groups will hold Cottage Prayer Meetings February 1 and 8. Also, each church is encouraged to conduct a Prayer Walk February 6 in which members will walk through the neighborhood praying for each home and asking God to plant a revival in their community. Rev. Greg T. Mathis, Senior Pastor of Mud Creek Baptist Church in Hendersonville, North Carolina, and Rev. Phil Hoskins, Pastor of Higher Ground Baptist Church in Kingsport, Tennessee, will be guest speakers. The Mike Speck Trio will provide special music and the Hezekiah Christian Arts Company will present drama. There will also be an Associational Choir.

11. Mrs. Norma Clark, Associational Woman's Missionary Union Director, expressed the need for "networking" throughout our churches by means of fax, internet, and E-mail so that everyone receives important information in a timely manner.

12. During miscellaneous business, Dr. Stephen Batts, Pastor of Tabernacle Baptist Church, announced that an Informational Meeting regarding a trip to the Holy Land will be held February 4 at 7:00 PM at Tabernacle Baptist Church.

13. Mr. Jack Sisson, Interim Director of Missions, shared the exciting events of the association. In the past month the Minister's Conference, the Secretaries Conference, the Mission Development Council, the Finance Committee, the Media Library Committee, the Evangelism Committee, the Personnel Committee, and the Director of Missions Search Committee have all met to make plans for the new year 1999-2000. The Christian Singles' Gathering, the Annual Women on Mission Beach Retreat and a Youth Leadership Training Conference have been held. A group of our men went to Honduras to help in the disaster relief from Hurricane Mitch. The dedication of Cherry Branch Baptist Church is planned for February 21. In February some of our men will be going to Swaziland to help build a church. We will have a Children's Evangelism Conference, the Royal Ambassador's Mission Fair and Pine Derby, and a Senior Adult Rally in March. We have a great Annual Meeting planned for April 22 with Dr. Jim Royston, the new Executive Director of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, as our guest speaker. Vacation Bible School Clinics, the State Youth and Children's Bible Drills, as well as many other great events are coming up in the very near future. He expressed appreciation for the staff, pastors, church secretaries, the chairmen of all committees, and the vital role everyone has played in the function of the association since Keith Hamilton left. Special thanks were given to Dr. Hadley and the members of First Baptist Church of Havelock for hosting the Christian Leadership Development Conference.

14. Mr. William Jones reminded everyone to turn in the evaluation forms to help the Church Development Committee in planning for the next conference.

15. Dr. Myrle Swicegood led in the benediction.

FAMILY LIFE MINISTRIES

Report to the Association
1999

As I reflect on this year it appears that more time has been spent in partnership with our ministers and staff members in the Atlantic Baptist Association. Together we have found needed resources for church families, gained new perspectives on difficult situations, supported each other and grown together.

In response to the desire of our ministers to become more skilled in counseling for Engaged and Married Couples, we planned and delivered training that certified fifteen of our association ministers and staff to use Prepare and Enrich materials. This is a well researched and documented tool, recognized by the National Association of Marriage and Family Counselors as an effective counseling tool for professionals. This workshop was graciously hosted by Bogue Banks Church and sponsored by the Family Life Ministries Expense budget line item.

Monthly Ministerial Conferences have addressed concerns and served as a support group for our ministers. New and more experienced ministers have shared and learned from each other.

Serving as a resource person for Church Secretaries and other staff members has brought new opportunities for sharing. Church secretaries are vital to a well functioning church and are sensitive to individual needs. They also have needs and deserve our support and encouragement. Every staff member is a key player in fulfilling the mission of each church. The Singles and Senior Adult Ministries are other vital links for our Association. Being a resource and speaker for these area groups has extended my ministry.

Large group presentations have received priority and work with local church groups has been more limited in the effort to help as many people as possible. Meeting with association members at quarterly meetings is a special time. At each meeting I have been privileged to share an hour of discussion and learning related to some area of interpersonal relationships. Thank you for sharing your time and your wisdom. Our work has been incorporated in the work of the State Association in "Strengthening the Marriages of Military Personnel." We were invited to present a workshop at Fayetteville, North Carolina, for Directors of Missions and Church Leaders that have military families in their area. This in turn led to an invitation from the State Association to prepare audio tapes that will be made available by early summer to military families and others who desire them. Excerpts from these tapes will be used on Closeup, the free audiotape service from the State Association with statewide distribution.

Since our Association has a unique Family Life Ministry, I was invited to serve as a resource leader for a weekend retreat at Caraway. This five member group assisted in developing new directions for this statewide Family Ministries program. It was an honor to share the ministry you have supported. Our ministry received additional recognition in the September issue of the Biblical Recorder. Young wives at McCotter Boulevard Baptist Church assisted the Recorder journalist. Thanks to Raymond and Anita Earp, we were invited to present our work to the wives of the State Baptist Men at their annual meeting. We have also provided the leadership for one weekend retreat for Christian women.

Couple and family counseling, other than for ministers and staff members, is limited to one session due to time constraints. Their local ministers and I work together to determine the best counseling available for the specific needs of each family. We have had some outstanding success in helping some families bring resolution to their problems and in other cases we have not been able to salvage the marriage. We try and God multiplies.

Our young people have received help in preparing for interviews, obtaining scholarships and determining career choices. Major presentations in large group settings and individual assistance has continued. School Guidance Counselors have become great allies in these efforts. We stay in touch with these young people after they leave for college and provide support for them as is possible. This is a special joy and a significant investment in the future.

When my phone rings I always wonder what opportunity this will bring. I talk to many people whom I never see and try to be a source of inspiration and consolation for hurting individuals and families. I always inquire as to their Church affiliation and refer them to one of our churches in their area. You then become my partner as well as theirs. Of course many callers have no desire for church affiliation or may be interested in another denomination. In concern for total wellness, spiritual needs and well being are discussed as a major concern. This is usually well received. Some callers are never identified due to their fears and need for privacy.

You also enable me to serve on the Board of the Chrysalis Counseling Center and as a trainer in communication for Hospice Volunteers. These groups in turn are great resources for our Association.

Thank you for your support for this Ministry. It is my privilege to be a partner with you and our Ministers throughout the Association.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Myrle Swicegood

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1999

The 1998-1999 Finance Committee has completed a review of the Association's financial records and operating procedures for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1997 and ending April 30 1998.

We randomly selected two months from the fiscal year and examined the handling of all cash receipts and disbursements. This also included a review of canceled checks and deposits. Payroll for staff members and officers was reviewed, which included payment of their expenses, insurance and Federal and State taxes. Verification that all employee taxes and liability insurance for the Association had been paid. Our audit found the books of the Association to be in order and all deposits and payments of accounts were handled and paid in a timely fashion. Based on the assumption that these two months represented a sampling of financial procedures, we felt assured the monies of our Association have been properly accounted for and proper procedures for disbursements have been followed.

Our only recommendation would be to commend and praise the staff and officers of our Association for an exceptional job in keeping our financial records. We found everything in order, up-to-date, understandable and above reproach. Thank you for a job well done.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Mary Bass, Chairman

HISTORIAN

Report to the Association
1999

This has been a good year in our Association with the exception of the resignations of two of our major people. Dr. Curt Finch resigned after serving for nine years as Resort Ministry Coordinator. He accomplished one of the early goals in the establishment of Emerald Isle Baptist Church. He also served as pastor of the church. He led in many remarkable things and guided them with a steady hand. The Home Mission Board evaluated his work as outstanding. It was with regret that his resignation was accepted effective June 1, 1998.

It was with shock, sadness, and reluctance that we accepted the resignation of Rev. Keith Hamilton, our Director of Missions, effective December 31, 1998. He left to serve as Church Financial Services Consultant for the Georgia Baptist State Convention. The Association tried to express our deep appreciation and affection to him, Patty, Mark, and Matthew at a farewell reception, Sunday afternoon, December 13, hosted by First Baptist Church, Beaufort. Keith came as our fourth Director of Mission on July 1, 1986. He acted quickly and effectively, but with caution and deep feeling in moving this fast growing area to be on mission for the Lord. His leadership and abilities were evidenced in the sustained and substantial growth within the Association and in her outreach ministries.

The Association and churches continued to sponsor mission trips. Some of our people joined with others in the state to conduct Vacation Bible Schools and Sports Clinics in the Ukraine in August. Several of our men went on a construction mission to Swaziland in February to help build a church. There has been a concerted effort to help relieve the suffering following the devastation of Hurricane Mitch in Honduras in October of 1998. During the Easter vacation, five young people joined with the adults from First Baptist, New Bern, to build a cinder block house for a family in Honduras.

During the summer months our youth were busy in helping others. Temple sent a team to Fort Christmas Baptist Church in Florida to conduct Backyard Bible Clubs. A group from Tabernacle went to Charleston to work on houses in low-income families. Colleen DeBolin of Cape Carteret joined with a Teen Mission Team in Malawi, South Africa, working in an orphanage. A mission team from First Baptist, Morehead City, went to Puerto Rico in July to witness through Vacation Bible Schools, Sports Clinics and construction work. The children in Vacation Bible School at Bogue Banks were too young to go but they raised $1452.00 to help build a church in Tzunutz, Guatemala.

Work and witness among Hispanics is growing. Bogue Banks holds a weekly Spanish speaking Bible study on Sunday afternoons. They had a special Spanish Mission Service in September. Fort Barnwell hosted a Community Mexican Appreciation Day in June.

Our young people and our adults are innovative in finding ways to witness and minister to others in their communities. The youth choir at Bogue Banks participated in the worship service for Mile of Hope, an annual weekend retreat for children with cancer and their families. Smyrna Baptist has made the new church library available to the community. Newport has started a Soul to Sole Ministry with Newport Elementary School to provide new tennis shoes for needy children. Parkview Baptist sponsored a Jesus Video Ministry. Their goal was to distribute one thousand free videos about the Life of Jesus in the community. First Baptist, Beaufort, has an ongoing mission project for the Carteret Correctional Prison Ministry. The Annual Cystic Fibrosis Telethon, broadcasted from the Family Life Center at First Baptist, New Bern, has an impact all over eastern North Carolina. The youth at Reece's Chapel raised $450.00 for the telethon. Six teens at Tabernacle built a handicapped ramp for a wheelchair gentleman. Members of the WMU at Spring Garden are sewing dresses to be given to people in the Appalachians. Tabernacle has a Welcome to New Bern ministry. A certificate to Kentucky Fried Chicken and a cooler with Pepsi are given to new neighbors.

When our churches participate in community celebrations of our national and religious holidays, it gives them a profile that helps project the message of Jesus Christ. The pastor at Bayboro led in prayer at the county courthouse on the National Day of Prayer. Atlantic Baptist had a special Patriotic Program and Flag Ceremony July 5 to honor those who have served our country. Cove City Baptist observed a special service on July 4.

We were glad to see some of our churches have Christian floats in the Christmas parades. Parkview Baptist men sponsored a Birthday Celebration for our Lord Jesus Christ December 17. They also distributed tracts during their Christmas parade. River Bend Baptist had a Mitten Tree to collect mittens and socks for children in need. Bogue Banks Baptist children and youth were involved in a parade at Salter Path and a Christmas Tree Lighting Service at Atlantic Beach. First Baptist, Havelock, had a Living Nativity in Havelock City Park. Newport Baptist had a float in their Christmas parade. Bayboro Baptist also had a Living Nativity. Tabernacle Baptist produced a Living Christmas Tree composed of the sanctuary choir, band and a drama. Several thousand people attended during the three nights.

Smyrna had a memorable year by celebrating the church's one hundred sixty-ninth anniversary on October 2. This was followed by a mortgage note burning. The church sent a messenger to the Southern Baptist Convention for the first time in her long history. First Baptist, Morehead City, celebrated one hundred twenty-five years. An anthem was written especially for this anniversary. Ten bud vases of red roses were placed on the altar in honor of the ten founders, eight women and two men. They were presented to seven descendants of the original founders who were present for the celebration. First Baptist, New Bern, observed the one hundred fiftieth anniversary of her sanctuary. The Gothic, revival style architectural sanctuary was dedicated July 2, 1848, and is listed in the National Register of Historical Buildings. The building was seized by Union Forces when they took control of the city in 1862. It was used as a commissary and was occupied by Federal Troops for three years. The bell in the belfry was rung to signal guard relief for the Union soldiers stationed in New Bern.

Our senior members continue strong in their service. The senior adult quilting ladies at Fort Barnwell donated eight lap quilts to the Ronald McDonald House in Greenville. A ninety-six years young lady, Mrs. Boone, spearheaded a church fellowship supper at her church in Oriental in September. The Associated Press carried an article in October about Miss Lurly Hines, the one hundred two-year-old organist at Pollocksville Baptist Church. She has tried to keep things running on time nearly every Sunday since 1912 when she first became the church organist.

Our Association has unique opportunities to witness because of our rivers, sounds, ocean and inland waterway. One of the rare ones is the Intracoastal Waterfolk Ministries, Inc. conducted from the waterfront in Beaufort. The boat, The Scotsman, recently sailed to Honduras loaded with supplies for the victims of Hurricane Mitch which devastated that country in October.

What would our forefathers think of Internet, World Wide Web, E-Mail, Web Sites? Is this a new medium that God has given to man to proclaim his word? One hundred years ago the messengers to the Annual Meeting at Davis shores had to leave the train and take boats at Morehead City. God still has plans for us to "Go Tell It on the Mountains, Over the Hills and Everywhere."

Respectfully submitted,
Jane Marshall Jenkins.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1999

The Membership Committee of the Atlantic Baptist Association recommends the approval of the membership application for Island Road Baptist Church, Gloucester, North Carolina. Island Road Baptist submitted an application for membership on April 24, 1997 and the required time period for Watchcare status has been met.

The Membership Committee recommends that membership be withdrawn for Dover Baptist Church which has been under Watchcare status for one year. They have previously been examined and efforts have been made to restore fellowship with them. There has been no interest or support from them in continuing membership.

The Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church requested membership in The Association at the October Executive Committee Meeting in 1998. Their application is currently under review and a recommendation concerning Watchcare membership will be made at the October Executive Committee Meeting in 1999.

The Membership Committee has received an application for membership from Emerald Isle Baptist Church, Emerald Isle, North Carolina. The application will be examined and reviewed by the Membership Committee and a recommendation regarding Watchcare status will be made at the 2000 Annual Meeting of the Association.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Patrick Williams, Chairman

MISSIONS DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

Report to the Association
1999

We, the Atlantic Baptist Association, continue to have the Great Commission as the heartbeat and lifeblood of our fellowship. Year after year, God reinforces our belief that we are more useful to Him and His Kingdom purposes as an association of cooperating churches than we ever could be as individual churches. You have charged the Missions Development Council with providing strategic planning and leadership in carrying out the Great Commission at the associational level.

We have decided to begin no new projects as we await our next Director of Missions; however, the works already in progress continue to grow under God's leadership and blessing. We continue to support new churches, local ministries, disaster relief, and partnership missions in South Africa and Swaziland.

God has continued to use our association in partnership missions with South Africa and Swaziland. A mission team just returned from a trip to Swaziland. We have also seen men and women go to Central America under the auspices of North Carolina Baptist Men to assist in hurricane recovery efforts.

The Mission Development Council thanks you, the churches of Atlantic Baptist Association, for your support this past year. Without your prayers, financial support, and personal involvement in missions, there would not be such good things to report. We pray that the coming year will see God doing even greater works through us as we surrender to His sovereign will and proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord here and throughout the world.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Jack Bowen, Director

MUSIC

Report to the Association
1999

Atlantic Baptist Association is a great place to "serve the Lord." I have had the privilege to be your Association Music Director for twenty-one years now. I still get excited about associational meetings and all the great singing you do. This is one way that we can praise the Lord! The Bible says for us to "make a joyful noise" it does not say "make it perfect." Some folks are afraid to sing because they think they will mess up. All that is expected of you is to do your best. Always remember that when you sing a solo or play an instrument for a special that AT THAT MOMENT you are doing your best and no one listening can do better because they have not practiced.

Let's do our best to keep the music part of the association going this coming year. I am still waiting for some of you to send a list of your cantatas and the number you have so we can make a "share list." Many of you already borrow the music from my church. You are always welcome to do this...just give me a call.

Musically Yours,
Rev. John Thompson, Director

ORDINATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Report to the Association
1999

The Association's Ordination Committee has been asked only once since our last report to the association to meet with a candidate for ordination consideration. The committee met at the Associational Center on August 20, 1998 upon the request of Parkview

Baptist Church. Mr. Gary Fairchild was interviewed and it was recommended by the committee that he be ordained into the gospel ministry.

The Ordination Committee serves at the request of the local church. The committee provides professionally qualified ministers who are charged only with making recommendations. The local church has full jurisdiction in all matters related to licensing and ordination.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Steve Simpson, Chairman

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
1999

Our Director of Missions, Rev. Keith Hamilton, resigned after twelve years of faithful service to accept a position with the Georgia Baptist Convention. He and his family were given a farewell reception and gift from the Association on December 12, 1998, at First Baptist Church, Beaufort. A special committee of the Association is searching for a new Director of Missions.

The Personnel Committee asked Mr. Jack Sisson to serve as an interim, part-time Director of Missions. This recommendation was endorsed by the Executive Committee at its January 1999 meeting.

Mrs. Betty Murphy, our Administrative Assistant, had to be out of work for three weeks for surgery. We were fortunate to have Mrs. Betsy Lawrence fill in during her absence.

Because of other professional demands, Dr. Curt Finch resigned as our Missions Resort Teams Coordinator. We are continuing to be blessed by the services of Dr. Myrle Swicegood and Mrs. Beth Hassell. Pray for our entire Associational staff during this time of transition.

Dr. Randy Sherron, Chairman of the Personnel Committee, requested that he be relieved of his leadership responsibilities while he serves on the Search Committee for a Director of Missions. Dr. Tom Denton has served as acting chairman.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Tom Denton, Chairman

RESORT MINISTRY

Report to the Association
1999

The summer of 1999 will find Atlantic Baptist Association in partnership with Youth on Mission, a Rocky Mount based organization that coordinates youth mission teams. During the last two weeks of July, we will have over 100 young people here from all over the nation. They will conduct Backyard Bible Clubs with some of our local churches, day camps at beach campgrounds, and beach evangelism, as well as evening music and puppet shows.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Jack Bowen, Coordinator

SECRETARIES' CONFERENCE

Report to the Association
1999

Quarterly meetings offer instruction, education, and training as well as fellowship and fun. Our current officers are:

President.....Mrs. Cathy Adair
Vice-President.....Mrs. Brenda Jones
Secretary.....Mrs. Gail Edge
Historians .....Mrs. Jo McCabe and
.....Mrs. Lynn Gilmette

January 1998 gave a wonderful time of education as we searched ourselves through the topic of "Understanding Personality Traits" as taught by Patsy Fulcher, Director of Coastal Pregnancy Counseling Centers. This study allowed for personal insight into why we are what we are. It offered understanding of others and how to relate to those to whom we work and live.

In April we extended our hands to the community by making place mats that were delivered to a local nursing home.

Mr. Jack Sisson provided helpful information in October concerning the relationship of the secretary and the pastor and how they can more effectively communicate to accomplish the work of the church office.

Debbie Gibson, Gail Edge, Lynn Gilmette, Jo McCabe and Betty Murphy attended the North Carolina Secretary's Conference in November which was held at Fort Caswell, North Carolina. Two of these secretaries, Gail Edge and Lynn Gilmette, were certified as Ministry Assistants.

In January 1999, Dr. Myrle Swicegood led the secretaries in open discussion concerning secretarial and personal growth.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Cathy Adair, President

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES

Report to the Association
1999

This has been a great year for "Senior Adults." We have had two very good Associational Rallies. The last one which was held at First Baptist Church in New Bern was the "highest" attended we have ever had. The music was great, the harmonica was excellent, the food was delicious, and Dr. Myrle Swicegood was the best of all. We are already making plans for the one in the fall to be held at First Baptist Church of Morehead

City. Begin to make your plans to attend.

EVERY CHURCH should have a "SENIOR ADULT CHOIR." All you have to do is have several senior adults who want to get together to "make a joyful noise." Please feel free to borrow some of my Senior Adult musicals. Just give me a call and we will set up a time for you to come and visit.

Growing Old Together,
Rev. John Thompson, Senior Adult Director

SINGLE ADULT MINISTRY

Report to the Association
1999

Our latest news is that the "Christian Singles' Gathering" has moved from McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church to First Baptist Church of Havelock. We continue to meet the fourth Saturday of each month (except December) at 7:00 PM. Free childcare is available to single parents who call the Associational Office or 447-4086.

Our planning committee consisted of Norma Clark of Smyrna Missionary Baptist Church; Brenda Hicks from Calvary Baptist Church, Beaufort; Carol Pelletier of First Baptist Church, Morehead City; Terry Kennedy and Roberta Garvin, First Baptist Church of Havelock; and Susan Garner and David Cole of McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church, Havelock. I want to especially thank them for their wonderful help and faithfulness for a lot of work and preparation goes into this ministry and they have done a fine job!

Fifty to sixty single adults gather for an evening of Christian fun, friendship, support, and fellowship in a Christian environment. We have party decorations and games that tie in with our chosen theme for the night, plus food, always food! Christian music, devotions, and sometimes praises and testimonies are a part of each gathering. This year we enjoyed having Dr. Myrle Swicegood and Mr. Jack Sisson as guest speakers and guest musicians Rev. and Mrs. Tommy Willcockson of Smyrna Baptist Church. Special music and programs were also provided by the Korean Choir of the Korean Baptist Church, the Japanese Ministry of First Baptist Church of Havelock, Mr. Patrick Pittman of Calvary Baptist Church, Mr. Buddy Hardy of Harkers Island, and the Hezekiah Drama Team.

In addition to covered dish dinners and cookouts with Dave Cole's delicious "fried" turkey, we enjoyed a "Make Your Own Sundae" night, a "South of the Border" night when we dressed up like Mexicans and enjoyed Mexican food and games, and a "Vacation Cruise" night when we all dressed like "tourists"! In December we went by church van/car pool to Arapahoe, North Carolina to enjoy the outdoor drama The Bethlehem Walk - What a blessing! In January 1999, the Single's Ministry was three years old! We celebrated with a birthday party, complete with a large birthday cake, ice cream, and presents, which we exchanged white elephant style.

Please encourage the singles in your church and community to attend our fellowships. We are a fun-loving and friendly group. Most of our attendees are ages 30 to 60, never married, widowed, divorced, and range from single parents to grandparents. They are from all denominations and several counties.

I feel a special need for a single's ministry to be organized especially for the younger singles ages 19-29. Please pray for leadership and a church to host this younger group of the single and single again of our association.

Again, we want to thank McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church for the wonderful hosting of our group the past three years. Also, we thank First Baptist Church, Havelock, for becoming our new host, and you, the members of the Atlantic Baptist Association, for sponsoring us.

Please keep the Single's Ministry in your prayers and help spread the good news of our fellowships, set for the fourth Saturdays at 7:00 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Eleanor Jones, Director

STEWARDSHIP

Report to the Association
1999

This year we have provided help with personal finances by having training sessions on two different kinds of computer programs. We continue to provide training for church financial workers. We encourage churches to teach the precepts of Biblical stewardship from the pulpit, through small group settings, and to new believers.

Please be aware that greater pressure is being placed on the churches to make sure they are being responsible in all areas of their reports and accountability in financial matters. If you have questions concerning any of these matters, we have resources to help.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Toni Cullum, Director

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Report to the Association
1999

Our association has shown a positive change in the last twelve months in terms of Sunday School enrollment. Though a modest gain, the increase in enrollment was at least a change in the right direction. This was paralleled with a continued increase in average weekly attendance. The joy we feel in seeing these increases is always tempered by the fact that the population in our area is increasing at a much faster rate. The fields remain white with harvest.

Kevin Davis has spearheaded some fantastic training for youth workers in our association. Most of the churches depend upon Sunday School leadership to direct their youth ministries. The conferences directed by Kevin have therefore had a positive impact on the Bible study ministries of the associational churches.

Several of our churches took advantage of the state sponsored training events at Caraway Conference Center in Asheboro and Caswell Baptist Assembly near Southport. Routinely offered in late September and early October, these major conferences have offered some of the best local church training available. Churches are encouraged to make plans to send as many of their workers as possible to these events this fall.

The leadership training efforts during this transitional year for our association will again try to focus upon specific needs in targeted associational areas. These smaller group meetings will be supplemented by the quarterly church leadership training conferences sponsored by the Atlantic Association. All churches are urged to publicize and take advantage of these local training events.

As we approach the turn of the millennium, God is calling us to be found faithful to the task he has placed before us. The Great Commission is a summary of his plan for the Church.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Tom Lamkin, Director

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Report to the Association
1999

What an adventure this year has been for Vacation Bible School. The excitement rocketed into our area communities as churches across the association led "StarQuest: A Galactic Good New Adventure, Exploring Our Mission With Jesus." Exciting curriculum, great ideas, and the ability to adapt a schedule to meet your churches need – Vacation Bible School gave an effective way of sharing God's love and salvation plan with others.

Unfortunately, there are no records to show the attendance at the 1998 training clinics. We would like to thank McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church and First Baptist Church, Havelock, for hosting the clinics. According to the report received from the state office, 16 churches reported having held a Vacation Bible School for a total of 1,542 in attendance and 47 decisions made. Four churches were recognized as having led a Standard school.

This summer the excitement will continue as we prepare for VBS '99 with a hike to "Mt. Extreme: The Ultimate Good News Challenge, Climbing to New Heights with Jesus." Vacation Bible School will be a mountain top full of experiences for preschoolers, children, youth, and adults. This hike will lead them in a study of life's challenge to keep growing with Jesus and sharing God's love with others.

The goals of this year's Associational Vacation Bible School Team is to find what areas of Bible School each church may need assistance with and strive to meet those needs. In order to fulfill this, the team has been trained and is ready and willing to share their knowledge with you at one of two clinics being offered through the association. The first will be held at Temple Baptist Church on Saturday, April 24 and the second at Newport Baptist Church on Monday, May 17.

Through the years, many lives have been touched by the ministry of Vacation Bible School. Many seeds have been planted. We may never know the impact each of us may have made, but praise God for those who are willing to go out and do the work God has called us to do. I am always reminded of the scripture, Proverbs 22:6 "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it." No matter what our age, when we come to know Christ, we become a new creation, a child. Thank you for teaching these "children" the love and gift God has given each of us.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Carrie Burroughs, Director

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Report to the Association
1999

The theme for this year is TRANSFORMED. We need a leader for the Acteens. In May, three of our leadership team members traveled to Fort Caswell for leadership training for the Atlantic Baptist Association.

Mrs. Brenda Jones was unable to have a Girl's in Action activity because of the transition period needed for the Associational WMU Director.

In September, leadership training was held at First Baptist Church, Havelock. The Director of Missions introduced the new Associational WMU Director. We had a good representation of new and experienced leaders from many of our churches. Informational packets were distributed in the various class rooms for Girls in Action, Mission Friends, Acteens, and Women on Mission.

The annual Women on Missions Beach Retreat was held at the Ramada Inn on Atlantic Beach January 22-24, 1999. Mrs. Cindy Huffman plans this activity each year and does an outstanding job. Our theme was "The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom shall I fear." We had twelve churches participate in sharing information about their adopted missionary. Our missionary in Mexico, Darla Millar, gave a presentation in the evening service. Then we were able to have a tasting party of foods from the adopted missionaries participating. In the morning service, Deborah Lockey gave a presentation on her mission trip to Okinawa and led us in singing songs in that language. We closed with a Prayer Walk led by Glynda Barrett and Norma Clark.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Norma Clark, Director

YOUTH MINISTRY

Report to the Association
1999

This has been a great year in our Association. As always we try to offer things for churches to come to and participate in with their youth and we try to offer good training for leaders. In November we had a great Associational Youth Rally with Jeff Smith at the McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church. We laughed and we had a good response to the invitation. Jeff led the morning worship at Crossroads and the evening service at Tabernacle in New Bern. In January we held a Youth Leaders Workshop featuring Greg Miller and we had fifty-five youth leaders in attendance at the Associational Office. That is the most I have ever seen come out for a conference. In March Michael Capps led a Creative Gaming Playshop at Newport Baptist Church. The weather was awful that night but about twelve people had a great time learning about recreation. I personally got some great ideas.

In April we are going to try something we have never tried before. We are sponsoring a Children's Rally at Crossroads Baptist Church. This will be geared for children grades one through six, but children of all ages are invited to attend. Parents and children's workers are invited. We will have a great time of worship on a child's level. The Tabernacle Puppets will perform, along with Huberta Sasser from Wilmington, North Carolina. She will use balloons to present the gospel in a fun and unique way. Judy Smith will also be there with her dummy. No, I am not talking about her husband. Judy is a Ventriloquist. She has performed at Tabernacle Baptist Church before and she is great. I do feel like we need some pastors to be there in case some of the children want to talk to someone afterwards. They will hear the gospel in a fresh way. Come join us for a great event. If this is successful we will try to do more children's events. Next year I also want to offer a training event on puppetry and clowning. Please tell me if you would be interested in something like that. The Children's Rally will be held April 23 from 7-8:30 PM at Crossroads Baptist Church. If I can ever help you in your ministry in any way, please do not hesitate to call me at home at 637-6282.

Respectfully submitted,

Constitution

of the

ATLANTIC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

Associations being a proven way of helping churches carry out the Great Commission, we the missionary Baptist churches of Beaufort, Carteret, Craven, Jones, and Pamlico counties voluntarily agree to cooperate according to the objectives, doctrines, and structures set forth in this constitution. No compromise of local church autonomy is implied or follows from membership in this Association or from relationships the Association maintains with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Southern Baptist Convention, or any other person or group determined by the Association - meeting in Executive Committee or Annual Session - to advance the cause of Christ.

ARTICLE I - NAME

Our name shall be the "Atlantic Baptist Association of North Carolina, Incorporated."

ARTICLE II - MISSION

Under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, the mission of this Association and its officers shall be to train, counsel, encourage, and otherwise assist member churches fulfill their scriptural mandate to worship God, love their neighbor, evangelize the lost, and disciple believers in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (cf., Mark 12:29-31; Matthew 28:19-20).

Inasmuch as cooperation among churches is usually more productive than acting alone, the mission of this Association shall also include initiating such mission advance or outreach activities as shall be judged appropriate by the Association.

ARTICLE III - STATEMENT OF FAITH

Christ and Scripture - the living and written Word of God respectively - shall be the source of our beliefs and basis of our fellowship. The Baptist Faith and Message adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963 expresses the doctrinal positions of the Association.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

Under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, Baptist churches are completely free and sovereign to conduct their business as they see fit. The same goes for Baptist Associations. Membership in this Association, therefore, does not confer to the Association any authority over member churches, nor may churches exercise authority over the Association.

Affiliation between churches and the Association, being free and voluntary, is predicated only on acceptance of the mission and doctrinal positions set forth in this constitution and on active, cooperative participation.

SECTION 1. GRANTING MEMBERSHIP

A. Churches desiring membership in this Association shall - upon official church action - apply directly to the Association meeting in annual or executive session. Such applications shall be presented in writing.

The Association shall, in turn, receive as information and forward such applications to the Membership Committee for study and recommendation.

B. Upon receiving referrals of membership applications from the Association, the Membership Committee shall - over a one year period - take appropriate steps to determine whether applicants evidence suitable compatibility with the Association in spirit and doctrine.

C. Following this one year review, the Membership Committee shall report a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant watchcare status.

D. The Association shall then decide whether to grant watchcare status - a status that carries with it the same rights and privileges as full members with the exceptions of voting and holding office.

A two-thirds vote of ballots cast shall be required to grant watchcare status.

E. After observing churches received under watchcare for one year, the Membership Committee shall bring a favorable or unfavorable recommendation to the Association (meeting in annual or executive session) concerning whether to grant full membership based upon cooperation, participation, spirit, and doctrine.

A vote to grant full membership shall also require a two-thirds favorable vote of ballots cast.

SECTION 2. WITHDRAWING MEMBERSHIP

A. Membership may be withdrawn when churches no longer cooperate or participate in the life of the Association. Membership may also be withdrawn when churches deviate doctrinally from positions set forth in The Baptist Faith and Message.

B. The procedure whereby membership may be withdrawn is as follows:

1. Authorization to take steps toward withdrawing membership may be given only by the Association meeting in annual or executive session. The Membership Committee may, however, request such authorization.

2. Such authorization to review membership status is indicated when churches evidence noncooperation, nonparticipation, or doctrinal deviation.

3. Once authorized, the Membership Committee shall conduct a thorough examination before returning a recommendation to the Association.

During this period, the Membership Committee shall take appropriate steps to bring those congregations being examined back into fellowship.

4. Should these restorative efforts fail, the Membership Committee may recommend watchcare status (not withdrawal of membership) to the Association.

Watchcare status - with its attendant loss of all voting and office holding privileges - shall go into effect upon a two-thirds vote of ballots cast by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

5. Such watchcare status shall last one year, after which the Membership Committee shall recommend restoring full membership or withdrawing membership altogether.

As with the vote on watchcare status, a vote to restore or withdraw membership shall require a two-thirds vote of ballots cast by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

SECTION 3. TRANSFERRING MEMBERSHIP: Any church requesting transfer to another Association may be granted a letter of dismissal by presenting a written request to the Association.

SECTION 4. MESSENGERS TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND ANNUAL MEETINGS: All congregations holding full membership in the Association may send up to ten (10) messengers to Executive Committee and Annual meetings.

ARTICLE V - PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Robert's Rules of Order, in its latest edition, shall be the accepted authority in conducting the business of the Association.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to this constitution may be put to a vote at any Annual Meeting provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed amendments shall first be submitted in writing to the Association at the October meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. The Executive Committee shall, in turn and by majority vote, refer proposed amendments to the Constitution and By Laws Committee for study and recommendation.

C. Written copies of proposed amendments shall be given to the Executive Committee at their January meeting by the Constitution and By Laws Committee along with the committee's recommendation.

D. Proposed amendments shall be presented and voted upon at the Annual Meeting.

The same conditions apply to a completely revised or re-written constitution.

Any actions taken on constitutional matters shall require a two-thirds favorable vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

By Laws

of the

ATLANTIC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

In carrying out its mission, the Atlantic Baptist Association shall be organized into three councils - Missions Development, Church Development, and Administrative. These three councils report to the Association through Executive Committee and Annual meetings.

ARTICLE I - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee - composed of up to ten messengers from churches holding full membership in the Association - shall meet the last Mondays of July, October, and January to hear reports, transact business, and respond to issues affecting the life and mission of the Association. The Executive Committee shall be the final decision-making body of the Association between Annual Meetings.

ARTICLE II - MISSIONS DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

SECTION 1. Strategic planning and leadership in carrying out the Great Commission on the associational level is the dual charge of the Missions Development Council. In performing this assignment, this council shall perform the following tasks:

1) Discover mission needs to which the Association ought to respond;
2) develop strategies for meeting these needs;
3) challenge churches to be missionary in theology and practice;
4) provide resources for use in advancing the cause of Christ;
5) organize opportunities for doing missions together;
6) train church and associational workers to perform missions; and
7) establish and maintain appropriate lines of communication with the community and denomination.

The Missions Development Council shall be composed of the Missions Development Director, Survey Director, Promotional Director, WMU Director, Baptist Men Director, and chairmen of all component programs.

A. The Missions Development Director chairs and leads the council to discharge the tasks listed above.

B. The Survey Director discovers mission needs and opportunities, and makes the Association and churches of the Association aware of them.

C. The Promotional Director leads churches to do missions, and works with the Missions Development Director to provide appropriate training.

D. The Woman's Missionary Union Director promotes and leads WMU work in the Association.

E. The Baptist Men Director promotes and leads Baptist Men work in the Association.

F. Component programs in associational work shall be determined by the Missions Development Council.

SECTION 2. This council, which reports to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting, shall meet quarterly to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each component program shall train its own officers, who shall in turn - working cooperatively with their counterparts in the churches - guide their respective programs.

SECTION 4. With the single exception of the Woman's Missionary Union director, all directors sitting on the Missions Development Council shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Association at the Annual Meeting. Vacancies among these directors occurring during the year shall be filled as soon as possible by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

Directors desiring to assemble a committee to work with them, shall - after consulting the Director of Missions and chairman of the Nominating Committee for input - assemble their own committees, subject to subsequent approval by the Nominating Committee and Executive Committee.

ARTICLE III - CHURCH DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Church Development Council - which shall be chaired by the Sunday School Director - is a training and equipping ministry of the Association. Either the Church Development Council or Association may add component programs to the council membership.

Sunday school, discipleship training, music, youth, church media library, stewardship, Christian life, pastoral ministries, evangelism, ordination, senior adult, and single adult shall each be represented on the Church Development Council by their directors.

SECTION 2. This council, which reports to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting, shall meet quarterly to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each program shall train its own officers, who shall in turn offer assistance to their counterparts in the churches.

SECTION 4. Each program shall, in cooperation with the Nominating Committee, enlist and nominate its chief officers for approval by the Association at the Annual Meeting. Vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 5. SUNDAY SCHOOL

A. The Sunday School Director plans, conducts, and evaluates Sunday School work in the Association, and also chairs the Church Development Council.

B. The Vacation Bible School Director plans, conducts, and evaluates Vacation Bible School work in the Association. The VBS Director also trains and leads the associational VBS "assist team."

SECTION 6. DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING: The Discipleship Training Director, after appraising disciple-making needs within the Association, develops and conducts appropriate training events.

SECTION 7. MUSIC: The Music Director leads churches to plan, conduct, enlarge, and improve their music programs. The Director also provides inspirational music at associational meetings as requested.

SECTION 8. YOUTH MINISTRY: The Youth Ministry Director develops and conducts ministries designed to meet the needs of youth and their parents.

SECTION 9. CHURCH MEDIA LIBRARY: The Church Media Library Director promotes, enlists, and develops media-library work in the Association.

SECTION 10. STEWARDSHIP: The Stewardship Director promotes the principles and practice of Christian stewardship within the Association.

SECTION 11. CHRISTIAN LIFE: The Christian Life Director educates Baptists concerning critical moral and ethical issues of the day, and leads the Association to respond in appropriate ways.

SECTION 12. PASTORAL MINISTRIES: The Pastoral Ministries Director helps the Association and churches carry out pastoral ministries.

SECTION 13. EVANGELISM: The Evangelism Director enlists, trains, and motivates churches to engage in evangelism.

SECTION 14. ORDINATION: As requested by member churches, the Ordination Director leads the Ordination Committee to examine - for recommendation - candidates professing a call to the gospel ministry.

SECTION 15. SENIOR ADULTS: The Senior Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop senior adult ministries.

SECTION 16. SINGLE ADULTS: The Single Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop single adult ministries.

ARTICLE IV - ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

SECTION 1. To facilitate and support the work of the Association, the Administrative Council oversees and maintains the associational infrastructure.

The membership of this council - which shall be chaired by the Moderator - shall be made up of the chairmen of the following committees: Nominating, Order of Business, Finance, Constitution, Membership, Personnel, Trustees/Directors, and Building and Grounds. Also sitting on the Administrative Council shall be the Moderator/President, Vice Moderator/Vice President, Clerk, Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Historian, and Parliamentarian.

SECTION 2. This council will meet as needed and reports directly to the Association through the Executive Committee and Annual Meeting.

SECTION 3. Each committee trains its own officers to know their duties and guide their respective committees and counterparts in the churches.

SECTION 4. COMMITTEES

A. NOMINATING COMMITTEE: Nine (9) members - who serve three year terms on a rotating basis - compose the Nominating Committee. The task of this committee is to nominate persons to serve in the offices and on the committees of the Association. These nominees shall be presented at the Annual Meeting in April. Committee recommendations do not preclude nominations being made from the floor. Subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee, the responsibility to fill vacancies occurring between annual sessions also falls to this committee.

B. ORDER OF BUSINESS COMMITTEE: The Moderator/President, Clerk, and Music Director compose the Order of Business Committee. The assignment of this committee - working with the Director of Missions - is

(a) to prepare a printed program for annual sessions, and

(b) to make place and program decisions.

Printed programs shall be sent out at least thirty (30) days before the Annual Meeting. This order of business is presented for adoption at the opening session, and serves throughout the meeting unless changes become necessary and are approved.

C. FINANCE COMMITTEE: Six (6) members - who serve three year rotating terms - compose the Finance Committee. The task of this committee is to: (a) study the financial needs of the Association; (b) solicit budgetary input from all associational programs, committees, and ministries; (c) in January present a proposed budget for the following year to the Association. Final adoption of the budget occurs at the Annual Meeting held in April. This committee is also responsible for securing the cooperation of the churches in meeting the budget, and (d) annually review the financial records of the Association.

D. CONSTITUTION AND BY LAWS COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, form the membership of this committee. The purpose of this committee is to study for recommendation to the Association any proposed changes to the Constitution, By Laws, or Policy Manual.

E. MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, make up the membership of this committee. The function of this committee is to evaluate for recommendation to the Association any requests received from local Baptist churches seeking membership in the Association. The Membership Committee shall also receive or initiate any move to separate a church from membership in the Association. The committee shall prayerfully and diligently study such requests, and make recommendations according to ARTICLE IV of the Constitution.

F. PERSONNEL COMMITTEE: Six (6) members, serving three year rotating terms, compose the membership of this committee. The role of this committee is to make recommendations to the Association concerning staff employment, job descriptions, terms of employment, and related considerations.

G. The BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE periodically inspects all associational property, and makes recommendations concerning maintenance, modifications, policies, furnishings, insurance, and grounds care as needed.

H. The TRUSTEES/DIRECTORS handle all legal matters of the Association as directed by the Association. Three (3) members (one preferably an attorney) - each serving three year rotating terms - compose this board. After serving one full term, a year must elapse before trustees/ directors may succeed themselves.

SECTION 5. OFFICERS

A. The MODERATOR/PRESIDENT - who may serve no more than two one year terms in succession - shall preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings of the Association. The Moderator also chairs the Administrative Council. In addition, the Moderator/President shall be an ex-officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association except the Nominating Committee, and shall appoint a registration committee to serve at Annual and other meetings as needed. Further contact between the Moderator/President and member churches is encouraged.

B. The VICE MODERATOR/VICE PRESIDENT, in the absence of or as called upon by the Moderator/President, presides at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings.

C. The CLERK annually sends the Annual Church Profile to member churches at least two months before the stated due date; keeps accurate minutes of Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings; supervises the printing and distribution of the annual book of reports; and keeps on file the important documents and records of the Association. The clerk also, upon the direction of the Executive Committee or Association, signs documents such as cooperative agreements.

D. The SECRETARY-TREASURER receives and handles all funds over which the Association has stewardship. In discharging this responsibility, the Secretary-Treasurer deposits and disperses funds as directed by the Association; provides a financial report to the Association at Annual and Executive Committee meetings; and sets up and maintains a bookkeeping system open to audit by any responsible person.

E. The ASSISTANT SECRETARY-TREASURER takes over the duties listed above in SECTION 5D in the event the Secretary-Treasurer is unable to perform them.

F. The HISTORIAN records significant aspects of the history of the Association and its member churches, and submits a written report relating such information to the Association at the Annual Meeting.

G. The PARLIAMENTARIAN advises presiding officers of the association in matters related to following proper parliamentary procedure. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the basis of such advice.

H. The DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS is the chief executive officer of the Association. Accountable to the Association through the Personnel Committee, the Director of Missions shall perform the duties set forth in the Policy Manual.

SECTION 6. The Administrative Council shall also review and act on any recommendation to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff received from the Personnel Committee.

A. Such proceedings shall be bathed in prayer.

B. A concern to be loving, fair, and true to our faith and witness shall pervade this process.

C. The advisability of bringing in an outside mediator may be considered.

D. Decisions to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff shall be made by two-thirds vote of members present and voting in a special meeting of the Council.

E. When a decision to dismiss is made, thirty days notice or thirty days salary and benefits (if applicable) shall be given to departing staff.

ARTICLE V - GENERAL

SECTION 1. DEFINITION OF "ASSOCIATION:" When the term "Association" is used in these By Laws and the preceding Constitution, all entities set forth in these documents are included. The final decision-making authority of the Association, however, rests with duly elected messengers - sent from churches holding full membership - meeting in annual or executive session. "Executive session" includes appropriately called special as well as regular Executive Committee meetings.

SECTION 2. COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP: Any officer or committee member serving more than half a term, is considered - for tenure purposes - to have served a full term. The expiration dates of committee members' terms shall appear beside their names in the Nominating Committee report.

SECTION 3. EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS: The moderator shall serve as an ex-officio nonvoting member of all committees except the Nominating Committee. The Director of Missions shall serve as an ex-officio nonvoting member of all organizations and committees.

SECTION 4. REPORTS: Written reports appearing in the annual minutes shall be limited to 300 words, except in cases involving statistical or historical data.

SECTION 5. MEETINGS

A. REGULARLY SCHEDULED: The Executive Committee shall regularly meet on the last Mondays of July, October, and January. The Annual Meeting shall regularly meet the last full week of April.

B. SPECIAL: Special meetings of the Association may be called only by the Administrative Council. The subject matter of special meetings shall be limited to the purpose stated in the call, which shall be communicated in writing to member churches at least two weeks prior to the date of the called meeting.

SECTION 6. RESOLUTIONS: Resolutions, having little power to accomplish good and considerable power to cause mischief, shall have no place in the proceedings of this Association. Expressions of gratitude, appreciation, or remembrance shall be handled as appropriate, but do not require resolutions.

SECTION 7. TENURE AND ELECTIONS: With the exception of staff and unless otherwise stated in these By Laws, all officers of the Association shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Association annually.

In performing its task, the Nominating Committee shall seek balance between ministers and laity. Balance between ministers and laity serving as Moderator and Vice Moderator is especially recommended.

SECTION 8. CALL AND HIRING OF THE DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS: When the need to find a new Director of Missions arises, the chairmen of the following committees shall serve as the search committee: Nominating, Finance, Constitution and By Laws, Membership, Personnel, Missions Development Council, Church Development Council, and Administrative Council. The Secretary-Treasurer shall also serve on the search committee.

SECTION 9. CALL AND HIRING OF OTHER PAID STAFF: When the need to hire other paid staff arises, the Personnel Committee - following procedures set forth in the Policy Manual - shall take appropriate steps.

SECTION 10. VOLUNTARY SEPARATIONS OF ALL STAFF: All staff members who voluntarily resign their positions, shall give two weeks notice.

SECTION 11. ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR: The associational year shall begin May 1 and end April 30.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to the By Laws may be put to a vote at any Annual Meeting provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed amendments shall first be submitted in writing to the Association at the October meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. The Executive Committee shall, in turn and by majority vote, refer proposed amendments to the Constitution and By Laws Committee for study and recommendation.

C. Written copies of proposed amendments shall be given to the Executive Committee at their January meeting by the Constitution and By Laws Committee along with the committee's recommendation.

D. Proposed amendments shall be presented and voted upon at the Annual Meeting.

The same conditions apply to completely revised or re-written By Laws.

Any actions taken on these By Laws shall require a majority vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

Policy Manual
of the
Atlantic Baptist Association

ARTICLE I - ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS AND THEIR ELECTION

SECTION 1. The administrative officers of the Association are as follows: Moderator/President, Vice Moderator/Vice President, Clerk, Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Historian, Parliamentarian, and Director of Missions.

SECTION 2. The MODERATOR/PRESIDENT - who may serve no more than two one year terms in succession - shall preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings of the Association. The Moderator/President also chairs the Administrative Council, and serves as an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association except the Nominating Committee. The Moderator/President shall, moreover, appoint a registration committee to serve at Annual and other meetings as needed. Further contact between the Moderator/President and member churches is encouraged.

SECTION 3. The VICE MODERATOR/VICE PRESIDENT shall, in the absence of or as called upon by the Moderator/President, preside at Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings. The Vice Moderator/Vice President, moreover, serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 4. The CLERK shall annually send the Annual Church Profile to member churches at least two months before a specified due date; keep accurate minutes of Annual, Executive Committee, and special meetings; supervise the printing and distribution of the annual book of reports; and keep on file the important documents and records of the Association. The Clerk shall also - upon the direction of the Executive Committee or Association meeting in annual session - sign documents, such as cooperative agreements. Finally, the Clerk serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 5. The SECRETARY-TREASURER shall receive and handle all funds over which the Association has stewardship. In discharging this responsibility, the Secretary-Treasurer shall deposit and disperse funds as directed by the Association; provide a financial report to the Association at Annual and Executive Committee meetings; and set up and maintain a bookkeeping system open to audit by any responsible person. The Secretary-Treasurer also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 6. The ASSISTANT SECRETARY-TREASURER shall take over the duties listed in SECTION 5 above in the event the Secretary-Treasurer is unable to perform them. The Assistant Secretary-Treasurer also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 7. The HISTORIAN shall collect and preserve data, documents, and artifacts of historical significance to the Association or its member churches. Data - drawn largely from the Annual Church Profile - shall be compiled in a written report to be presented annually to the Association. The Historian shall, moreover, serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 8. The PARLIAMENTARIAN shall counsel presiding officers of the Association in all matters related to following proper parliamentary procedure. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the basis of such counsel. The Parliamentarian also serves on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 9. The DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS is the chief executive officer of the Association. Accountable to the Association through the Personnel Committee, the Director of Missions shall perform the following duties:

A. Oversee, evaluate, and endeavor to improve all ministries sponsored by the Association.

B. In close consultation with the Missions Development Council, discover mission needs, devise ministries targeting those needs, and enlist the personnel and resources required to carry out Christ-honoring ministry.

C. Assist the Church Development Council plan training and ministry events designed to increase the effectiveness of association and local church ministries.

D. Cooperate with the Administrative Council of the Association to help member officers fulfill their duties in support of the mission of the Association.

E. Interpret and adapt the priorities, emphases, and work of the denomination to the Association and member churches; also, encourage cooperation with the denomination by member churches to the extent possible, consistent with principles of local church and associational autonomy under Christ.

F. Promote the work and witness of the Association both within the Association and in the larger community in which we live and serve.

G. Train ministerial staff search committees as requested.

H. Counsel church leaders as needed and to the extent possible, and mediate local church disputes as called upon.

I. Serve as an ex officio nonvoting member of all committees and organizations within the Association.

J. Supervise all paid staff and volunteers.

K. Carry out other duties as directed by the Association.

ARTICLE II - PROGRAMS

SECTION 1. The Association shall carry out its work through the following ongoing programs: Sunday school, discipleship training, Woman's Missionary Union, Baptist Men, music, youth, church media, stewardship, Christian life, pastoral ministries, and any other programs or ministries authorized by the Association through the Executive Committee or by messengers attending the Annual Meeting.

SECTION 2. Each program shall schedule and conduct quarterly meetings in order to plan, evaluate, and promote its work.

SECTION 3. Each program shall see to the training of its officers so these officers can assist in meeting the training needs of member churches.

SECTION 4. Each program - by attending to its area of concentration and specialization - shall endeavor to lead the Association to carry out its mission at the highest levels of performance to the glory of God.

SECTION 5. Working in cooperation with the Nominating Committee, each program - with the exception of Woman's Missionary Union - shall enlist and nominate its chief officers for presentation and election at the Annual Meeting. Any vacancies occurring during the year shall be filled by the Nominating Committee, subject to subsequent approval by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 6. The Woman's Missionary Union shall annually appoint a nominating committee from within its ranks. This committee shall develop its own report, which shall be presented to the associational nominating committee in time for review and referral to the Annual Meeting in April. Upon election by the Association, these officers shall serve terms of office corresponding to those of other program officers.

ARTICLE III - PROGRAM LEADERS AND THEIR DUTIES

SECTION 1. Believing the Bible to be the revealed truth of God and as such the basis for correct thinking and fruitful living, the SUNDAY SCHOOL DIRECTOR shall lead and encourage the churches of the Association to develop a strong Bible teaching ministry through the Sunday School. Specific duties of the Sunday School Director are as follows:

A. Develop a list of consultants who will offer age-graded training to the Sunday School teachers, workers, and officers of local churches.

B. Study to become expert in Sunday School work.

C. Promote Sunday School work throughout the Association.

D. Upon invitation, provide personal assistance to local churches desiring to develop or upgrade their Sunday School.

E. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

F. Prepare and present a report on Sunday School work to the Annual Meeting of the Association.

G. Serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 2. The VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL DIRECTOR shall lead member churches to schedule and conduct quality Vacation Bible Schools as an effective way of reaching and influencing people of all ages through the Word of God. Specific responsibilities of the Vacation Bible School director shall be as follows:

A. Assemble and equip an "assist team" which will offer age-graded training to Vacation Bible School teachers, workers, and officers.

B. In order to introduce new materials and motivate early preparation, plan and conduct an "early planning conference" for ministers and Vacation Bible School directors.

C. Plan and conduct one or more Vacation Bible School teacher-worker training clinics.

D. Promote Vacation Bible School - including mission and backyard Bible clubs - throughout the Association.

E. Tally attendance and other figures collected from Vacation Bible Schools held throughout the Association.

F. After Vacation Bible Schools are held, encourage local churches to carry out thorough outreach and evangelistic follow up.

G. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 3. The DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING DIRECTOR shall support the mission of the Association by promoting believer training and skill development in living the Christian life. Specific duties of the Discipleship Training director shall be as follows:

A. Promote the Great Commission emphasis of our Lord to "make disciples."

B. Be knowledgeable concerning the latest disciple training materials offered by the denomination, and acquaint member churches with these and other appropriate resources.

C. Offer training clinics to ministers and members of the laity.

D. Discover what disciple training approaches and models are working within the Association, and endeavor to replicate these approaches in other churches.

E. Serve as chairman of the Discipleship Training Council, and lead this council to develop a strategy for advancing believer development in our churches.

F. Serve on the Church Development Council.

G. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 4. In support of missions, the WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION DIRECTOR is responsible for promoting and leading WMU work in the Association. Specifically, the Woman's Missionary Union Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Having studied to understand WMU work herself, the Woman's Missionary Union Director communicates her knowledge to other WMU workers and churches personally and by scheduling appropriate training events.

B. Beyond overseeing age-graded WMU programming, the Woman's Missionary Union Director discovers real mission needs and challenges members to act to meet these needs.

C. In support of mission education and action, the Woman's Missionary Union Director stands ready to provide or recommend appropriate literature and other resources.

D. Serving as the chief executive officer of the associational WMU, the Woman's Missionary Union Director chairs the WMU Council and represents the WMU on the Missions Development Council.

E. The Woman's Missionary Union Director endeavors to start WMU work in any member church where such work is not already organized.

F. Being accountable to the Association, the Woman's Missionary Union Director brings a report to each Executive Committee meeting and at the Annual Meeting.

G. Annually this director submits an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

H. Finally, the Woman's Missionary Union Director seeks to maintain close ties with the state WMU director as a means of cooperation and coordination.

SECTION 5. In support of missions, the BAPTIST MEN DIRECTOR promotes and leads Baptist Men work in the Association. Specific responsibilities of the Baptist Men Director are as follows:

A. Interpret Baptist Men work to the churches and associational leaders - giving emphasis to missions over organization.

B. Recruit men and boys to volunteer for mission trips and carry out mission projects.

C. Provide appropriate leadership training opportunities.

D. Endeavor to organize a Baptist Men in those churches that have none and strengthen Baptist Men where they already exist.

E. Schedule fellowships or rallies for mission-minded men of the Association.

F. In the absence of an associational Royal Ambassador Director, carry out the duties of this office as well.

G. Serve as the chief executive officer of all Association Baptist Men work, and represent the Baptist Men on the Missions Development Council.

H. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 6. Working with the Baptist Men director, the ROYAL AMBASSADOR DIRECTOR shall oversee and lead the RA program of the Association. Specifically, the Royal Ambassador Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Lead in planning and conducting such activities as camping, camp crafts, conclaves, pine car derbys, and mission action projects.

B. Endeavor to establish Royal Ambassador chapters in every member church; also, to improve chapters already organized.

C. Plan and provide such training events as may be needed to equip Royal Ambassador leaders with the knowledge and skill required to do their job.

D. Organize, enlist members for, and chair a Royal Ambassador committee to assist in planning and implementing RA work in the Association.

E. Annually submit an appropriate request for funds to the Finance Committee.

SECTION 7. The MUSIC DIRECTOR shall lead the music ministries of the Association. In carrying out this assignment, the Associational Music Director shall perform the following duties:

A. Provide inspirational music as called upon for all associational meetings.

B. Offer training to those involved in music ministries in member churches.

C. Be available to answer questions and provide information related to music ministries.

D. Appraise the budgetary needs of carrying out this assignment and request appropriate funding of the Finance Committee annually.

E. Set up any organization deemed useful in fulfilling these duties.

F. Serve on the Church Development Council.

G. Report to the Association.

SECTION 8. The YOUTH DIRECTOR shall develop, implement, and oversee an effective ministry to the youth residing within the Association. Specific duties of the Youth Director are as follows:

A. Support youth ministries already included in age-graded programs supported by the Association.

B. Chair a Youth Steering Committee, the function of which shall be to appraise the needs of our young people and develop ministries designed to meet those needs.

C. Serve on the Church Development Council and insure that youth ministries of suitable quantity and quality are scheduled.

D. Serve as a resource person in youth ministry to youth leaders on the local church level.

E. Request of the Finance Committee, annually, funding sufficient to carry out an effective youth ministry under the sponsorship of the Association.

F. Report to the Association.

SECTION 9. In developing a more literate and knowledgeable community of believers in the Association, the CHURCH MEDIA/LIBRARY DIRECTOR shall perform the following duties:

A. Oversee, administer, and develop the library housed in the associational center.

B. Cultivate contacts and relationships with media/library directors in member churches throughout the Association.

C. Offer assistance in starting media centers/libraries in member churches that have none.

D. Plan training events for librarians throughout the Association.

E. Serve on the Church Development Council.

F. Submit reports to the associational office and Church Media/Library Department of the state convention as requested.

G. In carrying out this assignment, seek funding from the Finance Committee annually.

H. Develop and lead any organization that may be judged helpful in discharging these duties.

I. Report to the Association.

SECTION 10. The STEWARDSHIP DIRECTOR shall endeavor to educate our people as to the needs of the world and biblical standards and teachings that guide us in responding appropriately to those needs. The person filling this position shall also seek to educate our people as to the special advantages involved in supporting missions cooperatively. Specific duties of this officer are as follows:

A. Keep the needs and resources required to carry out our mission commitments before the people.

B. Set specific, measurable, and attainable goals for supporting missions on the associational level and beyond.

C. In support of missions, promote faithful giving on the part of member churches.

D. Schedule such meetings, workshops, and conferences as may be judged helpful in following through with this commission.

E. Serve on the Church Development Council.

F. Request funding as needed, and report annually to the Association.

SECTION 11. The CHRISTIAN LIFE DIRECTOR shall endeavor to inform and educate us concerning the critical moral and ethical issues of our day; also, lead us to respond appropriately to these issues in at least the following ways:

A. Call attention to such issues as appropriate at regularly scheduled meetings of the Association.

B. Offer issues-oriented programs, workshops, and conferences to the churches.

C. Develop and maintain an inventory of applicable library/media resources for distribution and circulation.

D. Promote attendance at Christian life programming within the Association and beyond.

E. Request sufficient funding with which to carry out this mandate.

F. Report annually to the Association.

G. Serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 12. The PASTORAL MINISTRIES DIRECTOR shall become knowledgeable concerning pastoral care resources, and pass along this information to those who can use it in the Association. This officer shall also set up training events. In carrying out this assignment, the Pastoral Ministries Director shall give particular attention to the following aspects of this position:

A. Offer training to deacons.

B. Offer training to ministers.

C. Offer as much help as possible to members of the Association who may be suffering the ill effects of personal stress or crisis.

D. Request funding as appropriate, serve on the Church Development Council, and report to the Association.

SECTION 13. SENIOR ADULTS: The Senior Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop senior adult ministries. This chairman also serves on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 14. SINGLE ADULTS: The Single Adult Director leads member churches and the Association to develop Single Adult Ministries. This chairman also serves on the Church Development Council.

ARTICLE IV - COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE - composed of up to ten messengers from churches holding full membership in the Association - shall meet the last Mondays of July, October, and January to hear reports, transact business, and respond to issues affecting the life and mission of the Association. The Executive Committee shall be the final decision-making body of the Association between Annual Meetings.

SECTION 2. The NOMINATING COMMITTEE - composed of nine members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall enlist the most qualified persons available to fill the various positions of service set forth in the By Laws. At the Annual Meeting in April the Nominating Committee shall present its main report. This report, if possible, shall include nominations for all positions of service named in the By Laws; also, nominations of persons enlisted to work on short term mission projects or to serve on program committees. In addition to presenting its main report at the Annual Meeting, the Nominating Committee shall fill vacancies that occur during the course of the associational year, subject to later approval by the Executive Committee. In performing this task, the Nominating Committee shall take care to protect the following rights of nominees and the Association:

A. All nominees shall be contacted and give consent before their names may be placed in nomination.

B. Messengers attending Executive Committee and Annual meetings retain the right to make nominations from the floor.

The chairman of the Nominating Committee shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 3. The ORDER OF BUSINESS AND PROGRAM PERSONNEL COMMITTEE - composed of the moderator, clerk, and music director - shall make arrangements as to where the Annual Meeting is to be held, who will take part on the program, and in what order the service will progress. In performing this assignment, the right of the Association to retain final authority over the program shall be protected in the following ways:

A. The proposed program shall be mailed to all pastors/churches and program personalities at least 30 days before the meeting.

B. The proposed program shall be presented for adoption early in the opening session, and may be modified by messengers as needed at any time.

SECTION 4. The EVANGELISM COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall develop and implement plans for reaching more people with the saving gospel of Jesus Christ through the ministries of the Association. All such plans shall be presented to the Executive Committee for final approval. The chairman shall serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 5. The FINANCE COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall annually review requests for funds presented by the various officers and committees of the Association. These requests shall be evaluated in light of available resources and strategic priorities, after which a proposed budget shall be developed. Once developed, proposed budgets shall be presented to the Association for approval in the following manner:

A. The proposed budget shall be presented for questions and discussion at the January meeting of the Executive Committee.

B. By February 1 the proposed budget shall be mailed to all member churches for distribution to their messengers.

C. Final adoption of the proposed budget shall occur at the Annual Meeting held in April.

In addition to developing a proposed budget, the Finance Committee shall promote support for the budget once adopted. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 6. The ORDINATIONS COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall, as requested by member churches, interview candidates in order to determine their suitability for ordination to the gospel ministry. Subjects such as candidates' conversion, call to the ministry, doctrinal convictions, giftedness for service, and attitude toward cooperative missions shall receive the attention of the committee during interviews. Following interviews, the committee shall recommend or decline to recommend ordination to the referring congregation. Out of respect for the autonomy of local churches, recommendations coming from the committee shall be advisory in nature and are not meant to replace, supersede, or interfere with the wishes of referring churches. The chairman shall serve on the Church Development Council.

SECTION 7. The CONSTITUTION AND BY LAWS COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall receive or initiate for study and recommendation to the Association all proposed changes to the Constitution, By Laws, or Policy Manual. Proposed changes to the Constitution and By Laws shall be presented to the Association according to procedures set forth in the "amendments" articles of those documents. Changes to the Policy Manual will be effected by simple majority vote of the Association meeting in annual or executive session. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 8. The MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE - composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall receive and process applications for membership in the Association according to the procedure set forth in the Constitution, ARTICLE IV, SECTION 1. In taking steps to withdraw membership, the committee shall follow the procedure outlined in the Constitution, ARTICLE IV, SECTION 2. This committee, it should be noted, has the power to forward a positive or negative recommendation to the Association, but may not prevent the Association from acting as it chooses. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 9. The BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE - composed of three members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - shall oversee the upkeep, development, and use of our building and grounds. The responsibilities of this committee shall include exercising concern for the appearance, safety, and furnishings of associational property. The committee shall also be responsible for securing insurance and developing policies involved in the use of this property.

Proposals to upgrade or alter associational holdings shall likewise pass through this committee for evaluation and recommendation to the Executive Committee. In carrying out this assignment, the committee shall meet whenever the chairman or Director of Missions deems necessary, and is authorized to spend line item funds - assuming such funds are available - as required for any use already approved by the Association. Anticipating funding needs with which to maintain and develop the associational center and its grounds, the committee shall annually submit a request for such funds to the Finance Committee. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

SECTION 10. The PERSONNEL COMMITTEE - composed of six (6) members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term - acts as liaison between ministerial staff, support staff, associational officers, and the Association. The chairman shall serve on the Administrative Council.

The Personnel Committee, acting in this fashion, shall carry out the following duties:

A. Working in cooperation with the Director of Missions, make recommendations to the Association concerning the hiring of all ministerial staff except the Director of Missions.

B. Hire support staff, either on the basis of direct interviews or upon recommendations received from appropriate officers or committees of the Association.

C. For all staff, develop and maintain up-to-date job descriptions and corresponding terms of employment for inclusion in the Personnel Manual subject to approval by the Association.

D. Monitor the compensation and benefit packages of all paid staff, giving special attention to such items as salary, insurance, retirement, vacations, holidays, sick-leave, and working conditions.

E. Based on such considerations as job performance, salary/benefit packages offered by other associations, and the resources of this Association, make staff compensation recommendations to the Finance Committee at least annually.

F. Protect and enhance relationships of mutual respect, trust, and understanding between all staff and the Association.

G. Mediate disputes and communicate concerns about job performance as they arise involving any staff member or officer.

H. Discipline or dismiss support staff if warranted.

I. Refer to the Administrative Council any recommendation to discipline or dismiss ministerial staff, including the Director of Missions.

J. Remember, as appropriate, special days in the life of staff members and officers of the Association with tokens of affection and appreciation.

SECTION 11. The TRUSTEES/DIRECTORS shall handle all legal matters of the Association as directed by the Association meeting in annual or executive session.

A. This board shall consist of three members, one of whom shall preferably be an attorney.

B. Board members shall serve three year rotating terms.

C. Having served three year terms, Trustees/Directors may succeed themselves only after a lapse of one year.

D. The chairman of this board shall serve on the Administrative Council.

ARTICLE V - PROPOSED CHANGES

Proposed changes to the policy manual may be put to a vote at any annual or executive session provided the following conditions are met:

A. Proposed changes shall be submitted in writing to the Constitution and By Laws Committee at least 30 days prior to that meeting for study and recommendation.

B. Proposed changes do not conflict with the constitution or By Laws.

Any action on this policy shall require a majority vote of ballots cast by duly elected messengers.

Atlantic Baptist Association

One Hundred and Seventeenth Annual Session

April 27, 2000
FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, HAVELOCK

1. The One Hundred Seventeenth Annual Session began with an hour of worship with Dr. Burke Holland, Interim Director of Missions, as guest speaker.
2. Rev. John Thompson led the congregation in blended worship hymns and choruses.
3. Rev. Buford Lewis, Moderator, called the Business Session to order.

4. A motion was made and passed that the Order of Business, as printed in the Book of Reports, be accepted.

5. Rev. Michael Fields, pastor of Atlantic Baptist Church, led in prayer.

6. Mr. Max Miller, Treasurer, gave the treasurer's report stating that Triangle Bank, with whom we have our accounts, has now merged with Centura. He commended our churches for their faithfulness in giving a total of $191,844.98 which makes another record year with about a four and one-half percent gain over the previous year. This is a tribute to the leadership of our two Interim Directors of Missions, Mr. Jack Sisson and Dr. Burke Holland. There were only two overspent items, Utilities and Printing of the Minutes. These were items that were unavoidable and combined with the previous adjustments made in the budget during the year, this additional $1,000 represented only a $3,000 adjustment to a budget of over $200,000. This was very good, especially since the budget for 1999-2000 was a barebone budget due to our scaling back because we did not have a Director of Missions. The balance of $63,320.10 includes $26,000 plus that is designated flood relief money and is being expended as the need arises. Our total receipts for flood relief has been in excess of $63,000. The balance for the general fund is approximately $37,000. The motion to adopt the Treasurer's report carried.

7. Mrs. Mary Bass, Chairman of the Finance Committee, moved for the adoption of the proposed budget for 2000-2001. The motion was approved.

8. Rev. Al Irwin, a member of the Constitution Committee, moved that in accordance with our Bylaws, the Secretary-Treasurer serves as an ex officio member of the Finance Committee. The motion was accepted.

9. Mrs. Mary Stallings, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, made a motion to accept the Nominating Committee's report as printed in the Book of Reports. The motion passed. She requested that the churches recommend a replacement for our Single Adult Director, Mrs. Eleanor Jones, who has done an outstanding job for the past five years.

10. Dr. Stephen Batts of the Membership Committee reported that a request for membership into the Association from Cherry Branch Baptist Church will be voted upon in the July Executive Committee Meeting and a request from Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church will be voted upon in the October meeting. Emerald Isle Baptist Church has withdrawn their application for membership.

11. The motion was made by Rev. Buford Lewis to adopt the Book of Reports as written. The motion carried.

12. Dr. Myrle Swicegood, Family Life Ministries Coordinator, thanked everyone for the privilege of working with them as a partner in the Association. She asked that her report be read and that we all strive to encourage others.

13. Dr. Burke Holland gave the report of the Interim Directors of Missions for both himself and Mr. Jack Sisson. Jack served as Interim for fourteen months and Burke for two months.

14. During Miscellaneous Business, Rev. Rudy Klaas announced that a Divorce Recovery Group is being developed for the purpose of giving spiritual/emotional/social support to persons going through the difficulties of a divorce.

15. Rev. Buford Lewis shared what a privilege it had been for him to serve as Moderator and passed the gavel to Mr. David Butler, Vice Moderator.

16 Dr. George Tumlin, Church Conflict Mediator, gave the benediction.

Churches represented: Atlantic, Beaufort First, Calvary, Cape Carteret, Cherry Point, Crossroads, Croatan, Havelock Community, Havelock First, Island Road, McCotter, Newport, Parkview, Pollocksville, New Bern First, River Bend, Sea Level, Spring Garden, Tabernacle, and Woodville.

BAPTIST MEN

Report to the Association
2000

Baptist Men's groups all over our Association have had an impressive, full year. Groups under the leadership of L. D. Springle, Disaster Recovery Coordinator for Region II, and volunteer Mrs. Jean Brickerd, have worked in the North River area and Craven County area repairing, rebuilding, and bringing hope to many folks who lost almost everything. Many folks continue to wait for help so they can return to their homes. Volunteers are still needed for this ongoing ministry.

Mike Huffman led a team to Swaziland, South Africa through the North Carolina Baptist Men's Partnership, building a church and holding Bible School. Teams from various churches continue to go to hurricane torn Honduras. This area is still open to volunteers. We look forward to the new partnership to Alaska to help missionaries there in Vacation Bible Schools and construction.

Raymond Earp was presented the prestigious award "Layman of the Year 1999" by North Carolina Baptist Men at the State Baptist Men's Convention at Caraway for his mission work in North Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Ukraine, Poland, and various other countries and places. Raymond just completed three years serving as North Carolina Baptist Men's President.

Max Miller was elected Vice President of the North Carolina Baptist Men.

L. D. Springle and his wife, Barbara, were presented a plaque by Calvary Baptist Church for their work as volunteer missionaries of the year 1999. Thirty-two others, including children, were awarded volunteer certificates for their work after the storm.

I am available to help your organization in any way I can. Please call on me (252-728-3070).

Respectfully submitted,
Mr. Raymond Earp, Director

BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
2000

Much has been accomplished at the Associational Center this past year. A contract was signed with Richard's Lawn Service which keeps the yard looking beautiful. A contract was also signed with an exterminating company. A new trap door was built, potholes in the parking lot filled, and an extension telephone installed in the kitchen area. The Director of Missions' office was renovated with new cabinets and furniture. Permission has been granted and bids received for painting all of the interior of the building.

Respectfully submitted,
The Building and Grounds Committee

CHURCH CONFLICT MEDIATOR

Report to the Association
2000

The past year saw no official requests for a full-scale church conflict effort at any of our churches. No pastors were asked to leave their positions. Training of deacons continued at various times and places. Articles written for the newsletter went unpublished because they were not needed.

Of course, there were some minor inquiries. Wherever people serve the Lord in an effective way, there will be differences of opinion. Satan is constantly at work and his favorite tool is to divide from within. These incidents were resolved with telephone or personal consultations. Not once was I asked to address a church or a deacon body to resolve a church conflict. Work outside the association for the State was turned down due to my service as Interim Director of Missions.

I resigned my position on January 31, 2000. Dr. George Tumlin has agreed to serve in this position. He was elected to the position on January 31, 2000. George is Chief of Chaplains aboard Camp Lejeune. He has a humble spirit, he is a good listener, he is a man of God, and above all he has the expertise and training to accomplish the work that needs to be done. I believe there will continue to be conflict in our churches. But, I believe Dr. Tumlin will be able to resolve most of them through mediation and counsel rather than a full-scale study of the church.

I also served the Association as Pastoral Ministries Director. This position works very closely with the conflict mediation but focuses on support of pastors during times of need, transition, and stress. This position was filled January 31, 2000 by Rev. Michael Fields of Atlantic Baptist Church. Rev. Fields is highly qualified for his position by virtue of training received in the areas of pastoral counseling.

In First Corinthians 14:33 Paul reminds us that "God is not the author of confusion." Where conflict exists, where pressure is placed on a pastor, it is because we are not yielding to the Holy Spirit. Paul again in Galatians 5 reminds us that we love to do evil things which are opposite of those of the Holy Spirit. Paul lists hatred and fighting, jealousy and anger, strife and factions as contrary to the fruit of the Spirit which includes love, peace, joy, long suffering, and gentleness and goodness.

From time to time every church needs to evaluate itself to see if the fruit of the Spirit or man's sin nature is in control. The church after all is not "our" church but the church of Jesus Christ.

God bless you,
Jack Sisson
Conflict Mediator
April 1999 through January 2000

CHURCH MEDIA LIBRARY ORGANIZATION

Report to the Association
2000

Year 2000. Just these few numbers promote the mind to images of change, improvement, and challenge. Many of our church media libraries are doing just that. With the societal changes in our country today new ideas and programs are needed and will be promoted in our future meetings. Also, new training videos concerning individual and family needs are forthcoming in your association media center.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Gail Edge, Director

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
2000

The committee approved two changes in our Bylaws which were presented at both the October 25 and January 31 Executive Committee Meetings and voted upon at the April 27 Annual Meeting. They were:

Article IV – Administrative Council, Section 4. Committees, C. Finance Committee Six (6) members – who serve three year rotating terms – compose the Finance Committee. In addition, the Secretary-Treasurer will serve as an ex officio member of this committee. The task of this committee…

Article IV – Administrative Council, Section 5 – Officers, D. The Secretary/Treasurer receives and handles all funds…provides a financial report to the Association at the Annual and Executive Committee meetings; serves as an ex officio member of the Finance Committee; and sets up…

At the request of the Evangelism Committee, the Constitution Committee presented the following change in the Policy Manual which was approved at the July 26, 1999 Executive Meeting:

Article IV – Committees, Section 4, The Evangelism Committee – composed of six members, each of whom serves a three year rotating term…

DIRECTORS OF MISSIONS (Interim)

Report to the Association
2000

This was a busy year for the Atlantic Baptist Association. It proved to be a year of transitions and change. Overall the Association continued to fulfill its purpose to "Advance the cause of Christ."

The primary concern of the past year was to seek a new Director of Missions. The Director of Missions Search Committee worked long and hard to this end. Over one hundred applications were received, read, reviewed, analyzed, and compared to one another. Interviews were conducted, offers were made and rejected. A second round of applications were sought each of which had to be endorsed by a state Director of Missions. On January 13, 2000 the search was completed. Rev. David W. Phelps was selected to serve. He was presented at the Executive Committee meeting on January 31, 2000 and unanimously elected to serve the Association as the new Director of Missions. The Association owes a debt of gratitude to the committee chaired by Rev. Patrick Williams and consisting of Mrs. Mary Bass, Rev. Jack Bowen, Mr. Buddy Jones, Rev. Tom Lamkin, Mr. Max Miller, Dr. Randy Sherron, Mrs. Mary Stallings, and Rev. Tommy Willcockson.

For personal reasons, Jack Sisson felt a need to move to Georgia. A ninety day notice was given November 1, 1999 to be effective at the close of the Executive Committee Meeting on January 31, 2000. The Personnel Committee selected Dr. Burke Holland to fill the Interim Director of Missions vacancy. He was elected January 31, 2000 and served as interim until April 5, 2000 allowing a short overlap to help in the transition of a new Director. Dr. Holland served for 22 years as an employee with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

The most criticál event during the past year was hurricanes Dennis and Floyd. Hurricane Dennis made appearances on August 30, 1999 and September 4, 1999. Hurricane Floyd devastated the area on September 15, 1999. Every day since that day the Association has been involved in disaster relief efforts. We have had food distribution and distribution of other needed supplies. We have administered thousands of dollars in donations, opened a warehouse, and added a volunteer coordinator, Jean Brickerd, to assist in this work which was taking over fifty percent of staff time. This work is not finished and it is not known how long it will continue. Hundreds of people have volunteered thousands of hours of service to meet the needs in the name of Jesus Christ.

In order to assist the many disaster work teams of our Association, we have purchased and equipped a second disaster trailer with the help of a $5,000 gift from the N. C. Baptist Men of the Baptist State Convention. A Handyman/Disaster Trailer Committee has been established. Use of the trailers will be coordinated through this committee.

The staff has worked long and hard during this past year. Betty Murphy, Administrative Assistant, has been the one constant between the resignation of Keith Hamilton and the entrance of our new director, David W. Phelps. She has worked many hours at home to maintain the work load of the Association. She assumed the major share of disaster relief before Jean Brickerd volunteered. It became necessary to add Betsy Lawrence as a part time secretary. Betsy has done an outstanding job. Beth Hassell has been asked to establish new bookkeeping categories and to administer thousands of extra dollars received due to the disaster caused by the hurricanes. Her work continues to be above reproach as evidenced by an audit of the books in February 2000. Of course, we continue to owe a deep debt of gratitude to Myrle Swicegood who continues to work behind the scenes with our members and encouraging and training our staff and pastors. She has gained extra recognition this year in the publishing of a series of audio tapes for the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Of course the work of an association relies heavily on its members and leaders. Every committee was hard at work during the past year. Every vacancy was filled with the exception of the part-time resort ministries director. The budget for the year 2000-2001 was developed and presented. The Personnel Committee had to interview and develop salary packages for an interim and a new director of missions. The Church Development Council provided over 30 training sessions with average attendance at our Leadership Training Conferences of over 200. The Mission Development Council has supported mission trips to Swaziland, Honduras, and the Ukraine. They have also authorized the beginning of a second Hispanic church and another African-American community church. They provided an excellent Missions Banquet last August with over 150 present.

Two Senior Adult Rallies were held with over 200 in attendance. The Singles Ministry has continued to provide monthly events and a new Divorce Recovery Group has begun with meetings being held at the Associational Building. Our Japanese, Korean, and Hispanic work continues to grow. Seven pastor search committees have been trained. A Youth Director for Down East churches has been considered and a position paper has been developed. A banquet was held for our 17 bivocational pastors and their wives. Thirty-three issues of Desk to Desk were published to inform pastors of a wide range of subjects. Elijah Friends request for funding was made only one time rather than two due to the hurricanes. Extra funding was received for the Hispanic Church, Swaziland construction, and Bibles for the Seamen's Center. The RA Pinewood Derby/Field and Track Meet was held and was very well attended. A change in our Bylaws will add the Treasurer to the Finance Committee as an ex-officio member.

Our membership changes as Dover Baptist Church was removed and Island Road Baptist Church became a full member. Membership status is pending for Havelock Community and Cherry Branch Baptist churches, while the Emerald Isle Church withdrew their application for membership. Seven men were considered for ordination. Six were approved and one continued for six months to further evaluate. A standard operations procedure was developed to assist the new Director of Missions. Ten monthly newsletters were published. A Spiritual Growth Conference was conducted. An evangelism tent was purchased and utilized on two occasions to distribute tracts. A trailer was built to transport the tent. Insurance policies were amended.

Repairs were made to the building and cleanup followed the hurricanes. Our churches contributed 2571 shoe boxes for Operation Christmas Child and collected $12,479 for this effort. One hundred and fifty Christmas packages were sent to the Seamen's Center. A daily to do calendar through December 2000 was developed. Eight new pastors attended a day's training at the Baptist State Convention in Cary. Seven new pastors were welcomed and four pastors left.

On April 3, 2000 our new Director of Missions, Rev. David W. Phelps, began his duties and was duly welcomed aboard.

Yes, our Association has been very busy in the past year. When we work together we can and do "Advance the cause of Christ."

God bless you,
Jack Sisson and Burke E. Holland
Interim Directors of Missions

DISASTER RECOVERY

Report to the Association
2000

Evacuation mandatory! Extremely high winds! Flooding! This was the weather forecast September 15, 1999 as Hurricane Floyd came ashore. Little did we know just how devastating this storm would be but in the very early hours our Baptist men and women were lending a helping hand. Shelters were opened, hot meals served, food and clothing delivered. Distribution Centers were open for several weeks. Since that eventful day, more than 37,000 miles have been driven and more than 13,500 hours donated to restoring homes. Two disaster recovery trailers were added to the one the Association already owned, one donated by laymen in the church and the other purchased by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Several thousand dollars of tools were donated for these trailers. A donation of 2,472 sheets of sheetrock was received and is being distributed as needed. The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina set up an account with Lowe's where supplies up to $1700 may be purchased for families who qualify. A large tent and generator were obtained for a church congregation in Princeville that was having to worship outside beneath trees. Two beautiful, fully furnished, trailers were provided for two elderly ladies whose homes could not be repaired; one in Carteret County for a handicapped lady and one in Craven County for a lady that was found cooking her supper on an open fire in the yard. Workers have come from as close as next door and as far away as Canada. Twenty-six homes have been completed, one hundred ten are being worked on, and many, many more waiting for our volunteers.

This is only a partial report for while we know there are teams working every weekend, one team that works four days a week, as well as many individual people working five to six days a week, there are many we do not know about and have not received a report from them.

Most importantly, through the kindness and compassion of our volunteers, the love of Jesus Christ has been shown and life has been made less worrisome and more secure for many whose lives have been practically destroyed. We thank God for people who are so committed to missions and are willing to do His work wherever there is a need.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Betty Murphy, Administrative Assistant

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING

Report to the Association
2000

Over this past year we have had two conferences in regards to Discipleship Training. Our first meeting was listening to different methods of discipling that are being used in our association. We then talked about different strategies to effectively disciple believers. Our second meeting focused on how to disciple "new" believers. We spent time looking at new resources that are now available and also sharing ideas from various churches on how they disciple new believers.

In the Great Commission, Jesus sends us out to make disciples. Evangelism is the first step. Then we are to teach them to obey the teachings of God's Word. Let us be faithful to all of the great commission and grow disciples.

Let us bear fruit!
Rev. Eric Hayes, Director

DIRECTORS

Report to the Association

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
2000

This has been a busy year for your Evangelism Committee. In striving to stay on target with our twofold task of challenging churches to be on mission and to develop under the leadership of Christ, we have seen many things implemented in the 1999-2000 church year.

Our Associational Spiritual Growth Conference continued to be a success with some changes implemented. The format for the morning sessions was changed from a worship concept to a teaching concept. Each speaker had opportunity to share the tools that have assisted in making their ministries a success.

Instead of getting outside music we were blessed to experience musical talent from our own Association.

A bookstore was provided for your convenience in choosing tools that would assist you in your work of church growth and evangelism.

An evangelism tent and trailer were purchased for your use in evangelizing in your particular church field. It was used at an associational event in the Mum festival and used individually by Huggins Memorial in the Duck Festival. Many cups of cold water and tracts were given in the name of our Lord. It is our prayer you will use it freely in the coming months in your respective fields.

In conjunction with the Church Development Council we are offering evangelism training during each of our Leadership Training Conferences. We have offered "How To Win A Child To The Lord" and will be offering in July "How To Use Tracts In Witnessing."

We continue to solicit your prayers, your comments, and support as we work together to fulfill the Great Commission of our Lord. It has been our pleasure to serve you. May we be found faithful til He comes.

In His Service,
Rev. Tom Willoughby, Chairman
Mark 10:45

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

July 26, 1999
First Baptist Church, Morehead City

1. Rev. John Thompson led the congregation in singing "At Calvary."

2. Rev. Buford Lewis, Moderator, called the meeting to order and thanked First Baptist Church of Morehead City for hosting our Christian Leadership Training Conference and Executive Meeting.

3. A motion was made and passed that the Order of Business, as printed, be accepted.

4. Mr. Sanford Stallings led in prayer.

5. The minutes of April 22, 1999 were approved as printed.

6. Mr. Max Miller, Treasurer, presented both the year end and the first quarterly financial reports. Mr. Miller noted that giving during this time of searching for a new Director of Missions is about the same as the giving for the first quarter last year. The motion to accept both reports carried.

7. Tommy Willcockson, Chairman of the Constitution Committee, presented the following motion: At the request of the Evangelism Committee, the Constitution Committee moves that a change be made in the Policy Manual, Article IV – Committees, Section 4 the Evangelism Committee. The new wording for that Section 4 will be as follows: "Section 4. Evangelism Committee-composed of six members, each of whom, serves a three-year rotating term, shall develop and implement plans for reaching more people with the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ through the ministries of the Association. All such plans shall be presented to the Executive Committee for final approval. The chairman shall serve on the Church Development Council." The motion carried.

8. Mrs. Mary Stallings, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, moved that Dr. Richard Seagle, First Baptist Church of New Bern, be appointed to the Ordination Committee to fulfill the two year term of Rev. Murray Ethridge who resigned on May 17, 1999. The motion carried.

9. The Nominating Committee further moved that the following persons be added to the Evangelism Committee as expanded by an earlier motion: Rev. Michael Creekmore, Spring Garden Baptist Church, for three years; Rev. Stephen Cobb, Temple Baptist Church, for a two year term; and Mr. Buddy Jones, Fort Barnwell Baptist Church, to a one year term. The motion carried.

10. Rev. Jack Bowen, Vice Chairman of the Director of Missions Search Committee, brought an update on the search for a new Director of Missions.

11. Mr. Jack Sisson, Interim Director of Missions, read a letter from Cherry Branch Baptist Church requesting consideration for membership. The letter will be referred to the Membership Committee.

12. Mr. Jack Sisson presented his letter of resignation effective July 31, 1999 due to the fact that he is on Social Security. Only a certain amount per year may be earned. Any money beyond this point will be subject to Social Security taking back $1.00 for every $2.00 earned. He did not want God's money used in this way. If requested to do so, he will continue in a volunteer capacity as Interim Director of Missions. A round of applause in appreciation was given to Jack and his wife, Elsie.

13. Rev. Tom Denton, Chairman of the Personnel Committee, moved that effective July 31, 1999 we accept the resignation of John W. Sisson, Jr. who has served as Interim Director of Missions since December 1998. The motion carried.

14. Rev. Tom Denton further moved that we respectfully request John W. Sisson, Jr. to serve as a volunteer Interim Director of Missions without salary compensation until such time as a new Director of Missions is selected and enters on duty. Expenses for this volunteer service will continue to be paid in accordance with budgeted funds. The motion carried.

15. The Personnel and Finance Committee moved that Betty Murphy's insurance, line 502, be changed from $9,726.00 to $12,692.63. In addition, her salary, line 302, will be reduced from $14,053.00 to $11,086.37. The motion carried.

16. The Personnel Committee moved that Betsy Lawrence be allowed to work two days per week to assist in the extra workload of the Administrative Assistant. These days will be scheduled as needed and will be compensated at the rate of $8.00 per hour. The motion carried.

17. The Personnel Committee presented a First Draft Covenant for a Director of Missions for review and consideration. This covenant will be altered and entered into after input from the new Director of Missions. The policy manual at Article I, Section 10 indicates the Director of Missions is "accountable to the association through the Personnel Committee." The Personnel Committee at Article IV, Section 10 is charged with setting the policies for the Director of Missions' work. This covenant simply clarifies these expectations. It was requested that members review this draft and submit any comments or suggestions in writing to the Personnel Committee.

18. Mrs. Mary Bass, Chairman of the Finance Committee, moved that expenses for interviews with prospective Directors of Missions be charged to Item 303, Director's Housing Allowance. There is no line item for these expenses and housing is not needed at this time. The motion carried.

19. The Finance Committee requested that Item 401, Office Assistance, be amended to pay for the expanded clerical services of Betsy Lawrence at the rate of $8.00 per hour. The amount would be charged to Item 305 which now has $6,000 set aside for housing of the Mission Team Coordinator. This position is vacant and there is no plan to fill the position until after a new Director of Missions is hired. It was moved that Item 401 be changed to $6,500 and Item 305 be reduced to zero. After clarification that line Item 401 currently has $500 and the transfer of $6,000 from Item 305 will make a total of $6,500 in Line Item 401, the motion carried.

20. The Finance Committee moved that the $300 weekly salary paid to the Interim Director of Missions as approved at the January 25, 1999 Executive Committee Meeting, be terminated effective July 31, 1999. The motion carried.

21. The Finance Committee moved that the Interim Director of Missions' salary of $300 per week be transferred from Item 301, Director's Salary, to one of the ministries of the association in accordance with a schedule approved by the Finance Committee and the Interim Director of Missions. The motion carried.

22. Rev. Tom Willoughby, Chairman of the Evangelism Committee, reported the committee has plans well under way for the Spiritual Growth Conference February 14 and 15, 2000 as well as the 2001 conference. The committee is working on an evangelism booth that can be used by churches at fairs, festivals, etc. to give a cup of water in Jesus' name and to talk about Jesus. At the next Executive Training Session, the Evangelism Committee will offer a conference on how to lead a child to Jesus, especially your own child.

23. Jack Sisson, Interim Director of Missions, introduced six new pastors. Cruzberto Hernandez, pastor of the new Hispanic Mission; Rev. Michael Ledbetter, pastor Peletier Baptist Church; Rev. Eric Crowe, pastor Calvary Baptist Church; Rev. Scott Cook, pastor Croatan; Rev. Perry Vezina, Island Road Baptist Church; and Rev. Rudolph Klass, Counselor on the staff of Tabernacle Baptist Church. He also announced that Rev. Freddie Angles has answered a call to Parkview Baptist Church.

24. There being no miscellaneous business, it was requested that evaluation forms be turned in.

25. A motion was made and approved to adjourn.

26. Rev. Cruzberto Hernandez closed with prayer in Spanish.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

October 25, 1999
Tabernacle Baptist Church, New Bern

1. Rev. John Thompson opened the meeting with the congregation singing "Love Lifted Me" and "Father We Love You."

2. Rev. Buford Lewis, Moderator, called the meeting to order and made a motion that the agenda be approved. The motion passed. He expressed appreciation to Tabernacle Baptist Church for the use of their facilities and opened the meeting with prayer.

3. Rev. Buford Lewis received a motion to accept the minutes of the July 26 meeting as printed. The motion carried.

4. The Treasurer's Report was given by Mr. Max Miller. He commended the churches for their faithfulness. He addressed the balance which looked larger than usual and explained that it was partly due to the fact that we do not have a full-time Director of Missions at this time and that $8800 was designated as Hurricane Floyd Disaster Relief and will be disbursed shortly. The motion carried for the adoption of the financial report.

5. Mrs. Hazel Arthur of the Nominating Committee made the following motion which was approved:

   "It is moved that Dr. Don Hadley be elected to the Constitution Committee to replace Rev. Jimmy Uhl who is no longer in the association. Dr. Hadley's term will expire at the Annual Meeting of April 2002."

6. Rev. Terry McInnis of the Membership Committee made the following motion which was approved:

   "It is moved that Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church be granted watchcare status in accordance with our Constitution Article IV Section 1-C. They have been under observation for the past year. We, the members of the Membership Committee, find them suitable and compatible in spirit and doctrine and believe they should be granted watchcare status with a vote for full membership at the October 2000 meeting."

7. Rev. Jack Bowen of the Director of Missions Search Committee reported that the committee met with a prospective candidate October 7 and had scheduled a second interview for October 28.

8. Rev. Buford Lewis made the following motion for the Constitution Committee which was approved:

   "It is moved that in accordance with our Bylaws, the Bylaws be changed to allow the Treasurer of the Association to become an ex officio member of the Finance Committee. This motion is presented for information only at this meeting.

Changes to the Bylaws can only be made at the April Annual Meeting. At that meeting, the motion will be made to amend the Bylaws at Article IV Section C to include the following words: "The Treasurer of the Association shall serve as an ex officio member of this committee."

9. Mr. Jack Sisson gave the Report of the Director of Missions emphasizing many positive accomplishments in the past quarter:

- The Evangelism Committee purchased a tent and tracts. It was successfully used during the Mum Festival in New Bern where approximately 3,000 cups of cold water and 3,360 tracts were given in the name of Jesus Christ. One person prayed to receive Christ.
- Evaluation of the Korean and Hispanic churches shows that both are growing strong.
- A Bivocational Pastor's Appreciation Banquet was attended by thirty-two persons.
- Seven new pastors attended orientation with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.
- The Annual State Missions Banquet with Mr. Richard Brunson as guest speaker, had over two hundred in attendance.
- Training for Pastor Search Committees was given at two churches.
- Our pastorless churches have been reduced from seven in July to three in October.
- Mr. Sisson spoke in Wake Forest on deacon changes and taught a class at Chowan College on leadership.
- A new pastor, Rev. John Hurt, was installed at Colony Baptist Church.
- One church was helped with "Vision" training, a program that plans for the future.
- Mr. Sission had the privilege to be at the airport for the return of a Partnership Team from South Africa of which his daughter and son-in-law were participants.
- The Family Life Center at Spring Garden Baptist Church was dedicated and then used as a shelter and distribution center for victims of Hurricane Floyd.
- Worked with and gave support at the Director of Missions Search Committee meetings.
- Marshallberg Baptist Church celebrated their 100th Anniversary.
- The Family Life Center at Cape Carteret Baptist Church was dedicated.
- Oriental Baptist Church celebrated their 100th Anniversary.
- The exploration of a Youth Minister for ten down-east churches has begun.
- Rev. Terry McInnis was elected president of the Minister's Conference and Rev. David Pierce vice-president.
- The Mission Development Council planned for workdays November 26 and 27 and for a Swaziland trip next spring.
- The Church Development Council planned the sessions for tonight's meeting.
- The Senior Adult Rally was held at First Baptist Church of Morehead City with about two hundred thirty in attendance.

Exciting plans for the future were shared and appreciation expressed to the staff. Mrs. Wendy Edwards, East Regional Coordinator of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and five new pastors, Jack Lee, First Baptist Church of Beaufort; Al Pease, Associate Minister of Counseling at Cherry Branch Baptist Church; John Hurt, Colony Baptist Church; Freddie Angles, Parkview Baptist Church; and Gary Silence, Trenton Baptist Church were introduced.

10. There was no miscellaneous business.

11. Mr. David Butler, Vice-Moderator, gave the benediction.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

January 31, 2000
Temple Baptist Church, New Bern

1 Rev. John Thompson led the congregation in singing "Standing on the Promises."

2 Rev. Buford Lewis, Moderator, called the meeting to order.

3 Dr. Burke Holland, Interim Director of Missions, opened the meeting in prayer.

4 The minutes of the October 25, 1999 meeting were approved as printed.

5 Mr. Max Miller, Treasurer, reported that giving by our churches has increased about $2000 over this time last year. He moved for adoption of the financial report as printed which was approved.

6 The following motions were considered and approved:

- Rev. Buford Lewis presented the motion for the Constitution Committee that in accordance with our Bylaws, Article IV Section C, the Bylaws be changed to allow the Treasurer of the Association to become an ex officio member of the Finance Committee. This motion was presented for information only and will be voted on at the Annual Meeting, April 27, 2000.

- Rev. Jack Bowen of the Missions Development Council moved that the Association endorse the start of two new church works in 2001: an African-American church in the New Bern area sponsored by Havelock Community Baptist Church and a second Hispanic church also in the New Bern area sponsored by Neuse River Baptist Church.

- Mr. Buddy Jones of the Personnel Committee moved that the Association extend a call to Dr. Burke Holland to serve as Interim Director of Missions from January 31, 2000 until the new Director of Missions takes office.

- The Personnel Committee and the Finance Committee moved that Dr. Holland be compensated at a rate of $60 per four hour blocks of time for a minimum of six blocks of time a week and that additional time blocks served be compensated at $60 per block.

- The Personnel Committee and the Finance Committee moved that mileage to and from the Association and Dr. Holland's home be paid as well as overnight accommodations, work related phone bills, and other needed expenses.

- Rev. Patrick Williams, Chairman of the Director of Missions Search Committee, reported that the committee was unanimous in requesting that Rev. David W. Phelps be called as Director of Missions. Rev. Phelps shared his testimony after which a time for questions and answers was given. The Association gave a unanimous call to Rev. Phelps.

- Mr. Buddy Jones of the Personnel Committee moved that a salary package of $60,000 be offered to our new Director of Missions and that moving expenses be paid for a commercial move with up to three months storage for furnishings if needed.

- It was approved that David Phelps be allowed time off in the future to obtain the Doctor of Ministries degree. This time will come from revivals, conferences, etc. and probably will not start until 2002.

- Six vacation days for Betty Murphy were allowed to be carried over into 2000 due to extenuating circumstances with an Interim Director of Missions, hurricane relief work, annual church profile reports, and other extra duties which made it impossible for her to schedule time off without extensive interruption to the programs of the Association.

- Mrs. Mary Bass, Chairman of the Finance Committee, moved that an increase of $2,000 be made in the 1999-2000 budget for postage, Line Item 204.

- Mrs. Mary Bass requested that the proposed budget for 2000-2001 be reviewed and discussed. A vote will be taken at the April 27, 2000 Annual Meeting.

- Mrs. Mary Stallings, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, moved that Dr. George Tumlin be appointed as Church Conflict Mediator and that Rev. Michael Fields serve as Pastoral Ministries Director for the Association.

7. Mr. Jack Sisson, Interim Director of Missions, in his report thanked everyone for the fine cooperation and work they had done during his fourteen months as interim. Mrs. Gena Andrews sang "Thank You for Giving to the Lord" in dedication to Mr. Sisson.

   Mrs. Jean Brickerd, Coordinator of the Disaster Relief work, and Rev. Rob Helton, new pastor of Cherry Point Baptist Church, were introduced.

8. There was no miscellaneous business.

9. Mr. Buddy Jones of the Personnel Committee presented Mrs. Elsie Sisson with a love gift of $2600 for the many hours she has given to the Association and since they only have one car, for the days she was "grounded" while Jack was at work.

10. Rev. Buford Lewis invited everyone to a reception in honor of Jack and Elsie Sisson, David and Lou Phelps, and Burke Holland.

11. The benediction was given by Rev. David Phelps.

FAMILY LIFE MINISTRIES REPORT

Report to the Association
2000

When it comes time for an annual report I always ask myself, has the work that has been done in this area been worth the investment of time, money, and energy. Perhaps you can help me answer this question. Can it be five years that I have worked in this capacity? After five years have you heard of any benefit that has come from Family Life Ministries? Have you been helped in any way or do you know someone who has been helped? Would it make any difference if this ministry did not exist? We must determine if this is a good investment.

How should we invest the resources available to this ministry? During this past year I have concentrated on education and prevention. Surely, prevention is far less painful and less expensive than cure when dealing with human problems. These are some of the methods I have used:

- The Care Line, 252-633-2273, has been maintained to receive messages and to talk with people whom I may never see. Sometimes I am addressed as "the lady that will listen and get me straightened out." (False hopes, I fear.)

- An article has been prepared for the Associational Newsletter when space is available. (Is this ever read? I am not sure from the feedback.)

- My telephone book and notebooks have a network of people and available resources that we can tap into for help with tough problems ministers may identify as they lead their members and meet individual needs.

- The women's retreats have been a special blessing to me and I have seen immediate evidence of multiplied power when women get together to support and learn from each other.

- One minister, his committee, and I planned and conducted a weekend Family Growth Conference for his church. (We know this worked for those in attendance.)

- A weekend Marriage Enrichment Retreat was planned and conducted for one church with nine couples participating. (This was a great experience for all of us.)

- At our monthly Ministerial Conferences we had open discussions and shared ideas about meeting special needs personally and within the congregations. We dealt with identified areas of concern. (Ministers need encouragement and so do I. We learn from each other.)

- One Parenting Class was taught during the Sunday School hour for an average of twenty-six young parents for ten weeks. (This was very positive and I learned more about helping other churches duplicate this needed opportunity for young parents.)

- Numerous requests for talks, workshops, and seminars dealing with all phases of human development were filled. (These provide immediate feedback and most of them were positive.)

- Training for young people seeking scholarships and preparing for interviews has been provided for two High Schools and for High School Counselors in all Craven County High Schools. There are some great success stories from these young people and I learned so much with which to supplement this effort from serving on the Merit Scholar Interview Team for UNCG, Greensboro.

- With the support and assistance of the State Baptist Association and Jerry Richards, I wrote, voiced, and recorded two forty-five minute audio tapes containing life stories and resource management ideas. These tapes are available, at cost, through the Associational Office. (I have a new respect for anything that is recorded and you will have to help me determine if the tapes are helpful.)

- We have worked with the unborn, the new born, children of all ages, adults at every stage of the life cycle, the young and the old, the happy and the unhappy.

Through all of this Betty Murphy, three Directors of Missions, and forty-three ministers have kept me on track. I thank each of you for your confidence, your prayers, and your partnership. The results of our work together are encouraging. God kept His promise, "If we try, He will multiply." Perhaps that is reason enough to keep on keeping on.

Your Partner,
Dr. Myrle Swicegood

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
2000

The 1999-2000 Finance Committee has completed a review of the Association's financial records and operation procedures for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1998 and ending April 30, 1999.

The review covered an examination of the Association's quarterly payroll taxes and verification was made that the premiums on the association's liability insurance coverage had been paid. We randomly selected two months of the past year and thoroughly examined the handling of all cash receipts and disbursements, including a review of cancelled checks and deposit slips for the selected period. Based on the assumption that these samplings represent the condition of all records and procedures for the fiscal year, we feel there is no need for further inspection.

The Finance Committee believes that all monies received by the Association have been properly handled and accounted for and that proper procedures for the disbursement of all funds have been faithfully followed.

The staff and officers of the Association are to be commended for keeping the financial records of the Association's ministry efforts up-to-date, easy to understand, available for review, and above approach. The churches of Atlantic Baptist Association thank you.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Mary Bass, Chairman

HISTORIAN

Report to the Association
2000

"Oh, that men would praise the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!" Psalm 107:8 We are grateful for God's leadership and guidance and for his protection in this last year of the century and the millennium. It has been a year of change and some turbulence. We have had steady hands and strong hearts. Through it all our Senior Pastor, Dr. Donald Hadley, First Baptist, Havelock, has served our Association ably and faithfully in many capacities. And, he has done so since 1973. Our second pastor in seniority, Dr. Tom Denton, First Baptist, New Bern, has led as well. He has joined the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina as the Eastern North Carolina Manager for Development and Trustor Services. He will still live in New Bern and be a part of our Association for the foreseeable future.

Mr. Jack Sisson who was already actively involved in the Association as Church Conflict Mediator, served as Interim Director of Missions. He has been a rock during this year. Only eternity will reveal the amount of help he has given to the Association as a whole and to the individual churches. It was with great reluctance that we let him go. We were very privileged to have Dr. Burke Holland, formerly Regional Missionary for the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, serve as Interim Director of Missions until our new director took office. It was with joy and anticipation that we welcomed our new Director of Missions, Rev. David W. Phelps and his family from China Grove, North Carolina. We look forward to working with them.

Mrs. Pauline Privette, partner and helpmate of former Director of Missions, Rev. H. A. Privette, moved to Charlotte, North Carolina in the fall of 1999. She will be remembered for her winsome personality and for her work with the Japanese wives of our servicemen in eastern North Carolina.

One of our oldest and most active members, Mrs. Lurley Hines, died August 7, 1999. She was born August 19, 1896. If she had lived twelve days longer she would have been one hundred three years old. If she had lived six more months, she would have lived in a part of the nineteenth century, all of the twentieth, and a part of the twenty-first century. She began playing the organ in the Pollocksville Baptist Church in 1912 at the age of sixteen and was organist until shortly before her death. We are grateful that she gave of her talents and abilities in her church and association for nearly ninety years.

Several of our churches had Pictorial Directories made, some for the first time. This will be most helpful to the several new pastors in learning their members.

This has been a century of progress as noted by the many Anniversaries and Homecomings during this last year. Two of our churches celebrated their first century, Marshallberg on October 3 and Oriental on October 18. The Oriental church also participated in a celebration of the town's One Hundredth Anniversary. Havelock First observed her one-half century with a Grand Finale October 19. Colony and Calvary celebrated a quarter of a century. Bayboro has been a serving church for a century and a quarter. The oldest church, New Bern First, has been a shining beacon for almost two centuries. Smyrna, the second oldest, is five years short of being a century and three quarters old.

The church at Dover would have reached her century mark this year but it has been inactive for several years and membership was withdrawn from the Association this year. Beaufort is just two years shy of a century and a half. Island Road was accepted into full membership in the Association this year.

One sure sign of growth is new buildings and additions to present facilities. The new Family Life Center at Spring Garden was dedicated September 26. South Creek installed a new fiberglass steeple. Woodville renovated a trailer for additional classroom space and purchased land on which to build a new sanctuary. The members at Victory built a baptistery and held their first indoor baptism on September 12. Bayboro also had a baptistery installed. Croatan purchased a portable baptistery. Neuse River enlarged their sanctuary. Cape Carteret and Sea Level have new added space. Cherry Branch has adopted a beautiful three phase master building plan and purchased 5.61 acres of land on which to build. Huggins Memorial dedicated a new Fellowship Hall. They are thankful for help from several sister churches in our Association. Folks from Lafayette Baptist Church, Fayetteville assisted in putting a new roof on the church.

The many mission trips testify to our following Jesus' command to go into all the world and preach the gospel. Aurora's pastor, Rev. Mike Huffman, and Hartford Honeycutt went to Manzini, Swaziland in the spring of 1999. A sister African Pastor preached at their revival in October. Rev. Kevin Clubb, pastor of Cape Carteret, taught in Moscow for two weeks at the New Life Baptist College. Bob Priesing, Cherry Point, went to Honduras on a Mission Tour. The RA's at Aurora prepared food boxes for Honduras and Bayboro sent food boxes also. Tabernacle sent a group to Honduras. A group from New Bern First will go to Brazil for two weeks in August. A mission team from Bogue Banks went to Guatemala to build two churches. They returned this year to help in building and to conduct medical and eyeglass clinics. The youth from Parkview ministered to inner city children in North Philadelphia. A group of young people from New Bern First worked in Vacation Bible School in Deland, Florida.

Probably the most pressing ministry this year was sudden and unplanned, the flood relief efforts following hurricanes Dennis and Floyd. Areas of our Association were inundated and devastated. The response of our people was swift and sure. The Family Life Center and parking lot at New Bern First became a flurry of activity. The Baptist Men's emergency response vehicle and the Red Cross arrived almost before the winds subsided. The Baptist Men have a contractual agreement with Red Cross where they supply the food and the Baptist men and women prepare it. In this case the National Guard with its Humvees were needed to deliver the meals to the flooded areas. The church at Bayboro also sponsored the Baptist Men and Red Cross. The newly dedicated Family Life Center at Spring Garden was used as a distribution center. Many of our churches adopted families to rebuild their homes. There was an immediate outpouring of money, food, clothing, all kinds of supplies to meet the overwhelming needs.

The change in population and the influx of other races has increased our ministry in Race Relations. Boris Galinker, a messianic Jew who knows Jesus as Savior, presented a traditional Passover Meal at Neuse River. At Tabernacle, Mr. Greg Savitt, speaking on behalf of Jews for Jesus, presented the Passover pageantry, Christ in the Passover. Dr. Tom Denton, First Baptist Church, New Bern, coordinated a pulpit exchange between some of our churches and African American churches to promote positive race relations. Bogue

Banks voted to constitute a Spanish Mission. A special ordination service for Rev. Cruzberto Hernandez, pastor of the Peace Hispanic Baptist Church, was held April 28. Sunday School and discipleship classes have been started at the Hispanic Church meeting at First Baptist Church, Morehead City. An African American church in New Bern is meeting in the chapel of First Baptist Church on Sunday mornings for worship until their condemned sanctuary can be restored.

Waterfolk had a variety of ministries. It held the Fifth Annual Thanksgiving Dinner for boaters with over forty people from foreign nations and the United States. Members participated in the Lighted Christmas Parade. Sunday worship services are held at 9:00 a.m. at Grayden Paul Park. Pastor Fred Simpson conducted an open-air funeral for the mate of a charter boat. Last year, "Two Sons," made two runs to Central America taking supplies to Nicaragua. This spring it will deliver 45,000 pounds of food for Honduras and building materials for the Bahamas. A thirty-three foot sailboat has been donated to Waterfolk Ministries. Pastor Fred will navigate a boat from California to Samoa to be used in youth work in Samoa. Rev. Fred Simpson is a member of the Board of Directors of the Christian Boaters Association. Its annual convention was held at Fort Caswell in August and hosted by Waterfolk Ministries.

Woodville sponsored a tent revival in April. The Associational Evangelism Tent was used for the first time at the Mum Festival in New Bern in October. About three thousand three hundred gospel tracts were handed out and three thousand cups of cold water were given in Jesus name. One person prayed to accept Christ. In a joint ministry, eight of our Down East Churches had a "Down East Revival 2000" in March at the Smyrna Elementary School.

Our churches have assisted the chaplain at Newport Prison in his ministry there. Money was given to provide Bibles. Gospel tracts and literature were also donated for the inmates.

The work in our Resort Ministries is thriving. The churches in our coastal area hosted the youth teams who came during the summer to help work with the children. They held Bible Day Camps at several campgrounds, Backyard Bible Clubs and Vacation Bible Schools at the two Marine bases. First Baptist, Morehead City, gave the Youth on Mission organization the use of their kitchen facilities for the preparation of bag lunches for the mission teams.

This is only a part of the witness that has been given in Jesus name by our people. We wish that we were able to record all of them. The churches in Atlantic Baptist Association have been telling "The Old Old Story" in a part of three centuries. Many things have changed. We can change our methods but we must not change the message that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16

Respectfully submitted,
Jane Marshall Jenkins

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
2000

A letter from Cherry Branch Baptist Church requesting consideration for membership was presented at the July 26, 1999 Executive Committee Meeting. The letter was referred to the Membership Committee. A request for watchcare status will be presented at the July 2000 Executive Committee Meeting.

A motion was made by the Membership Committee at the October 25, 1999 Executive Committee Meeting that Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church be granted watchcare status in accordance with our Constitution Article IV Section 1-C. A vote for full membership will be presented at the October 30, 2000 Executive Committee Meeting.

The committee met with Dr. Curt Finch and two representatives of the Emerald Isle Baptist Church to discuss the possibility of membership into the Association. The church has withdrawn their application for membership.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Patrick Williams, Chairman

MISSIONS DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

Report to the Association
2000

God has continued to bless Atlantic Baptist Association as He continues to put mission opportunities before us. Although we planned no new projects while we searched for a new Director of Missions, that is not to say that the Association was not involved in missions. We continued to support ongoing projects in the areas of new church support, disaster relief, local missions, and partnership missions. The devastation brought by Hurricane Floyd provided an amazing opportunity to put our faith into action as churches and individuals answered the cries for assistance. Please read a fuller report on that effort elsewhere in your Book of Reports.

There are exciting plans for the upcoming year! In the area of Partnership Missions, North Carolina Baptists have entered into two new partnerships. We have an opportunity to serve in Alaska; and, closer to home, the Appalachian Region. Churches have already received mailings from the State Convention concerning these mission projects.

Atlantic Baptist Association has agreed to support two new church starts this year. God has led Havelock Community Missionary Baptist Church to begin a new work in the New Bern area to reach the African-American community. He has also led Neuse River Baptist Church to begin a new work, also in the New Bern area, to reach the Hispanic community. We have committed Associational funds, as well as requested State Convention funds, to support these two projects.

Thank you for your continued support of Associational Missions this past year. We welcome Rev. David W. Phelps as our new Director of Missions and look forward to what God will do in us and through us in the year ahead.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Jack Bowen, Director

MUSIC

Report to the Association
2000

How important is the "music ministry" to you? I think everyone has to agree that music is very important in the WORSHIP SERVICE. Music prepares the heart for worship! It is important for the ones playing the instruments to practice every week. Let the prelude always be excellent. If you play the offertory, prepare something that will add to the worship experience. Remember, the worship service is not the time for a concert. You want to do your best...but you want to prepare the people for worship. It is not a time to "show off."

This past year has been very fruitful for music in the Association. We had some very good, well attended workshops on "blended worship." Thanks for coming and participating. This coming summer we will be having a workshop on "copying music" and other interesting things from a consultant from the Baptist State Convention. It will be in July. Please plan to attend. Let's fill the room.

THANKS to everyone who sang in the Associational Choir at the Associational Evangelism Conference. You did a great job! We will do it some more later.

Did you know that we had three groups from the Association attend the Statewide Handbell Festival in Winston Salem in February?

Musically Yours,
Rev. John Thompson, Director

ORDINATION COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
2000

The Association's Ordination Committee has been asked seven times since our last report to the Association to meet with seven candidates for ordination consideration. The committee met at the Associational Center to consider these candidates for questioning in view of ordination.

The Ordination Committee recommended six of the seven candidates for ordination to their respective churches. The one who did not receive an affirmative vote was told to return after receiving more experience and training. His sponsoring church was told to resubmit his name in six months for further consideration.

The Ordination Committee serves at the request of the local church. The committee provides professionally qualified ministers who are charged only with making recommendations. The local church has full jurisdiction in all matters related to licensing and ordination.

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

Report to the Association
2000

This has been a busy year for the Personnel Committee. Because of the extra workload required of Betty Murphy, our Administrative Assistant, Betsy Lawrence was employed part-time to help with clerical duties in the office. Upon request of the Director of Missions Search Committee, the committee set the new Director of Missions' salary/benefit package within the guidelines of the already adopted budget. Moving expenses will be paid by the Association, along with other established conference, ministry, and travel expenses. Our committee also developed a proposed Director of Missions/Associational Covenant that was forwarded to the Associational meeting for input and discussion. An adjustment was made in the Administrative Assistance's salary to cover increased health insurance by reducing the base salary.

In November 1999, Jack Sission, our Interim Director of Missions, gave us his letter of resignation, effective on or before January 31, 2000. He agreed to continue to serve as a volunteer until the time of his departure. Betty Murphy was allowed to carry over six days of vacation into 2000 because her work had not allowed her the time off she is entitled to by Personnel Policies.

Since a new Director of Missions was not to assume the position before Jack Sission's resignation, a second Interim Director of Missions, Dr. Burke Holland, was recommended by the committee to the Association and approved. He served us in this capacity from the last of January 2000 until April 2000. A recommendation was made to express our appreciation to Jack Sisson and his wife, Elsie, for their assistance and ministry among us during the transition period. A gift of money and reception was shared with the Sissons at our associational quarterly meeting on January 31, 2000. Dr. Burke E. Holland, as well as Rev. David W. Phelps, were also introduced at this time.

Upon the recommendation of the Director of Missions Search Committee, the Personnel Committee met with the newly recommended Director of Missions, Rev. David W. Phelps, and his wife, Lu, on January 26, 2000. The purpose of this meeting was to review the salary, benefit, and expense package of the Director of Missions and the Personnel Policy as it relates to his position. The first draft of a proposed Covenant was reviewed as well. Our new Director of Missions will begin his duties on April 3, 2000.

We express our deep appreciation to our entire staff. We shall miss Jack and Elsie Sisson and Burke Holland but we thank God for every remembrance of them.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Thomas Denton, Chairman

RESORT MINISTRY

Report to the Association
2000

For two weeks in July of 1999, we had over three hundred youth and their leaders performing resort ministry in our Association. Youth on Mission, a Rocky Mount based organization, coordinated mission teams from churches all over the eastern part of the country. These young people had a significant impact as God used them to share the love of our Savior in the communities and churches in which they ministered.

This initial effort was so successful that it will be expanded to four weeks this summer. Rev. Brad Smith of Cape Carteret Baptist Church will be the Associational Coordinator this year. Please support him wholeheartedly.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Jack Bowen, Coordinator

SECRETARIES' CONFERENCE

Report to the Association
2000

The Atlantic Baptist Association of Church Secretaries meet once a quarter to share ideas, receive training, encourage one another, and have a great time of fellowship. Our Association can be very proud of our church secretaries. They are the most competent, committed, professional, and caring women I have ever known.

In April our meeting was an informative discussion on managing stress in the church office. In July we met for lunch at Ed Bell's Cafeteria in Morehead City. Afterwards we enjoyed a great time of fun, fellowship, and of course shopping on the Morehead waterfront. In October we elected new officers. They are President: Lynn Gilmette of McCotter Blvd.; Vice President: Betsy Lawrence of the Associational Office; Secretary/Treasurer: Fran Loftin of Beaufort First; and Historian: Debbie Gibson of Tabernacle. In January we were treated to a wonderful afternoon tea from two very special women from Newport Baptist and enjoyed the musical talent of Deborah Lockey from McCotter Blvd. In April we shared our bulletins, newsletters, and much more. We received lots of tips from each other.

Four secretaries attended the North Carolina Southern Baptist Secretaries' Conference in Ridgecrest. They were Shelly Smith, Missy Zachewicz, Debbie Gibson, and Lynn Gilmette.

Thank you pastors and church families for allowing us to take time away from our busy office to attend the meetings and conferences. If your secretary is not attending, please encourage her to do so. You'll not regret it!

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Lynn Gilmette, President

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES

Report to the Association
2000

Every time I write this article, I am a little "older." I think it is so exciting to work with seniors at Tabernacle and also in the Association. We continue to have a great attendance at our two Senior Adult Rallies each year. Come on and join with us.

I hope you are preparing to go to Greensboro in May for the Senior Adult Festival. There will be thousands of seniors there. If you have a Senior Adult Choir they can be a part of the "big" choir that will sing. I sincerely hope that all of our churches keep activities going for the senior adults in the churches. They are the "cream of the crop." They have had the most experienc , they have been through the most, they have seen the most changes in our world, most of them have loved the Lord longer, and they know the answer to almost anything. Plan lots of good things for them to do. Keep them busy. They love it!

Growing Older Every Day!
Rev. John Thompson, Director

SINGLE ADULT MINISTRY

Report to the Association
2000

The Christian Singles' Gathering has had a busy and fun-filled year. Our "mission" is to provide a place where adult Christian singles can gather for fellowship, fun, and support in a Christian atmosphere.

We thank the First Baptist Church of Havelock for hosting the Singles' Gathering Ministry. The meetings are set for the fourth Saturday of each month at 7:00 p.m. Adult singles of all ages and denominations are welcome. Our group divided last summer when some of the members from the distant end of the county decided to start their own group for their area. New singles, usually ages thirties to sixties, and either divorced, widowed, or never married, come to each meeting. Our attendance has climbed back up to the fifties.

At our meetings, we always have devotionals. We sing, we pray, we play, and support each other in a caring and friendly way. Some of our program themes this year were "Friendships from the Heart," "Singles' Laugh In," "Make Your Own Sundae Night," and a "Patriotic Celebration" where we came dressed in red, white, and blue. We had a "Pumpkin Patch Party" in October. The activity was to work together in small groups with a pumpkin and an assortment of decorations, and produce "Mr. or Ms. Pumpkin –Head Single"! What imagination they had on those fifteen pumpkins! We enjoyed covered dish dinners and a picnic. For our fourth birthday celebration, we had a cake shaped like a large number four. Prior to the party, we enjoyed and were so blessed by our guests, the "Four in Christ," who presented a gospel concert.

Other program guests included Bob and Wanda Estep, mission volunteers to Brazil. They presented a most interesting program of their mission work in Brazil and explained and showed slides and displays gathered from their mission trips. Connie Mason, Historian and Collections Manager for the Mariner's Museum in Beaufort, entertained us with a wonderful program of "Seashore Shanties," songs, and folklore of the early Carteret County fishermen.

We are looking forward in May to having as guest speaker, Rev. Rudy Klaas, a Christian Counselor. His topic will be "Helping our friends, family members, or ourselves" deal with issues of divorce and how to move on. Many people are hurting as a result of divorce. Please pray that a divorce and recovery group can be started this year in our Association. Also, please pray that a younger age group for singles can be started in our Association this year.

I want to thank and recognize my committee and special helpers. They are Terry Kennedy, Roberta Garvin, and Nolan Dearing of Havelock First Baptist, Norma Clark of Smyrna Baptist, Carol Peletier of Morehead City First Baptist, David Harper of Crossroads Baptist, and Susan Garner and Steve Jamison of McCotter Blvd. Baptist.

I have really enjoyed the past five years as volunteer Director of Single Adults. It's been lots of fun, lots of work, lots of new friends, and many blessings to me. However, I feel it is time for me to step down as Director. Please pray for the new Singles' Director and for the Singles' Ministry of our Association.

Please continue to help spread the good news of these fourth Saturday night singles' fellowships to the singles in your church and community.

Thank you again for all your support and prayers.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Eleanor Jones, Director

STEWARDSHIP

Report to the Association
2000

Stewardship in all areas of our lives is emphasized in Biblical principles. These principles apply to the church as well as individuals. The government also has laws that apply to churches. We need to be diligent to make sure that we are complying with these laws. We are trying to have conferences that will help us to be good stewards in church and at home.

Please feel free to contact me if you are in need of help or have suggestions for future conferences.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Report to the Association
2000

This current Sunday School year has seen the beginnings of an intentional additional approach to strengthening the work of the Bible study program in our Association. The Havelock area churches were targeted for a Preschool and Children's Clinic in January. Other clinics will be held over the next year or so in this area in an effort to impact positively the Sunday School work of these churches.

This regional emphasis does not replace the quarterly Leadership Training Conferences which will continue to be held for the benefit of the entire Association. It is hoped that this additional method of making training available will in the long run support the overall work of our churches. Various regions in our Association will be targeted for more intensive efforts as funds and time allow.

The enrollment and attendance plateau which can be seen for our Association as a whole over the last two years can be positively affected, but it will take the concerted effort of all churches to make change occur. New methods will be tried and unsuccessful ones will be reevaluated with the result that they will be modified or cast away.

Part of this change must be in the priority which our churches give their Sunday Schools and their leaders working there. Acknowledgment must be given to the work of our teachers. Attendance at training opportunities such as are offered at the Caraway and Caswell Conference Centers every fall must be encouraged and made available through financial and transportation support. We must strive to be an Association of Great Commission churches. Through our efforts God will be honored.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Report to the Association
2000

This past year Vacation Bible School climbed to new heights with a mountain top full of experiences in "Mt. Extreme: The Ultimate Good News Challenge, Climbing to New Heights with Jesus." Many thanks to Temple Baptist Church and Newport Baptist Church for hosting the 1999 Vacation Bible School Training Clinics. We received reports from twenty-two churches in our Association about the exciting adventures the church had during Vacation Bible School. Congratulations to all on a job well done.

As we begin a new millennium, we will "Dive" into Vacation Bible School with another adventure..."Ocean Odyssey, Diving into the Depths of God's Faithfulness." The Associational Vacation Bible School Team will be ready to assist our churches with their efforts. Our first Training Clinic was held April 10 at Newport Baptist Church from 7:00-9:00 p.m. and our second clinic is scheduled for May 6 at McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church from 9:00 a.m.-noon.

Our goal as Vacation Bible School Leaders is to Reach, Teach, and Witness to others with the Good News of God's love and salvation. Though the goals of Vacation Bible School may change, the purpose of it always remains the same.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Report to the Association
2000

The theme for this year is TRANSFORMED, TAKE A STAND. We continue to need an ACTEENS leader. In May, I went to the Key Leadership Conference at Fort Caswell. It was Mentoring Others for Leadership given by Sandy Harrison.

In February, Mrs. Brenda Jones had the "Great GA Get-Away" at Cape Carteret Baptist Church for the Girls in Action. It was a true mission event. There were sixty-nine GA's, Acteens, mothers, and leaders who participated in this associational event.

Charlene Moody, International Work Coordinator, has been moved from the Mission Development Council to the Women's Missionary Union. Charlene shared a night of inspiration and fellowship with "Greatest Love-Hawaiian Style" as the theme at Cape Carteret Baptist Church. There were forty Women on Mission to enjoy her testimony and demonstrate her native gifts. She has been active in the Hispanic Church developments in our area as well.

In September, leadership training was held at McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church. We had a good representation of new and experienced leaders from many of our churches. Informational packets were available for GA's, Mission Friends, Acteens, and Women on Mission leaders.

The annual Women on Missions Beach Retreat was held at the Coastal Inn on Atlantic Beach February 4-5, 2000. Mrs. Cindy Huffman plans this activity each year and does an outstanding job. We had special music by the "Heart Notes" from Cape Carteret Baptist Church. Our missionaries were Matthew and Cheryl Nance from South Korea. Both days we were blessed by each participant providing music and slides. We had one hundred twenty in attendance from sixteen churches. Deborah Lockey closed our meeting with special praise songs.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Report to the Association
2000

Our Association has had a good year of youth ministry once again. In June we hosted the musical group "Witness" at the Crossroads Baptist Church. We had a great crowd and the concert was wonderful. In November we hosted an Associational Youth Rally featuring "Dr. Tom" at the First Baptist Church of Havelock. I thought that it went really well and everyone seemed to have a good time. In February we hosted a True Love Waits Rally at McCotter Blvd. Baptist Church featuring Keith Deltano of Freedom Entertainment. I heard that it went really well and the message Keith presented was great. In March we hosted an Associational Youth Leaders Training with Michael Capps at the Associational Office.

I want to thank the Association for allowing me to serve in this position for the last four years. I have had a great time. We have some wonderful people in the Association and I am going to miss you all. Keep up the great work. Remember that we have a responsibility to win the next generation for Jesus Christ. It is not an easy task. Though I have moved to Georgia, the work will continue. May the Lord greatly bless you as you work with His kids.

Love in Christ,
Rev. Kevin Davis, Director
